CANCER CURED
—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

An Hour With the Wits of the Newspaper Press.

"I hear your friend is practising the most rigid economy?" Yes, she does nothing but shop."—Yonkers Statesman.

Mrs. Nodd—I gave my husband a beautiful pipe to-day. Mrs. Todd—Which room are you going to hang it in?—Judge.

"Uncle Bob, what is a pedes'rian?" "Why, he's the fellow who makes a row when a bicycle runs over him."—Chicago Record.

Fishing—"What is to fish?" he repeated. "Oh, you just sit and sit all day long." "And then?" "And then you lie."—Chicago Tribune.

Customer—I want a book on "Time and Eternity." New Clerk (unacquainted with titles)—Sorry, madam, but our terms are strictly cash.—Judge.

Husband—Do you know, my dear, I never get tired of looking at that photograph of you? Wife—Why don't you have it framed and hung up in the club?—Life.

"De man dat likes 'is own conversation too well," said Uncle Eben, "ginerally gits er chance soonah or later ter m'nopolize de listenin'."—Washington Star.

"Then you didn't intend asking Marie to be your bridemaid?" "No, Jack used to be engaged to her, and the dear boy is so absent-minded."—Chicago Record.

Hopkins—That man a prize fighter! Why, I don't believe there is a bit of fight in him. Thrilmere—What! I guess you never heard him talk!—Philadelphia North American.

He—Hear the duet Mr. and Mrs. Bacon are playing. She—I hear Mrs. Bacon playing the piano; that's all. Well, Bacon is playing the hose in the yard.—Yonkers Statesman.

She—I would not marry you if I were to live to be a hundred years old. He—Well, I should say you wouldn't, if I had anything to say in the matter.—Indianapolis Journal.

"De man dat doan' nebber kick 'tall," said Uncle Eben, "an' de man dat keeps kickin' all de time am two people dat gin'rally gits de worst of it in dis here life."—Washington Star.

Attorney—What was there about the deceased that led you to believe he was of unsound mind? Witness—Well, for one thing, he abhorred bicycles.—Philadelphia North American.

"Do you have many friends in school, Tommy?" No'm." "Why, that is very odd, isn't it?" No'm. You see, the boys I lick hates me and the boys that licks me I hate."—Chicago Record.

Uncle Bob—I hope, Tommy, you are a favorite with your teacher. Tommy—I think I must be. She can't seem to get enough of me, or she wouldn't keep me in so much.—Harper's Basar.

"You keep your lawn in lovely condition, Mrs. Trimmer." "Yes, the Blinkers have a new lawn mower; the one they used to lend us last summer was a disgrace to the neighborhood."—Chicago Record.

Hicks—I saw your poem in the paper last week. How did you get your pull with the editor? Wicks—Oh, I didn't bother the editor, I called upon the business manager.—Somerville Journal.

"The Camel says he's a self-made animal," said the Monkey to the Elephant. "How did he get that idea into his head?" asked the latter. "Well, he says he humps himself."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

"Dah's a good deal dependin' on de way er man applies 'is inergies," said Uncle Eben. "De base drummer often uses up moh muscle on one chune dan de flust-fiddler does on half a dozen."—Washington Star.

Watts—I saw your friend Abbott this morning. Potts—Abbott? Who told you he was my friend? I haven't a bit of use for him. Watts—Oh, you haven't? Then, of course, he isn't your friend.—Indianapolis Journal.

"Do Algernon and Maud still quarrel?" "No; they haven't had an angry word for two years." "Good. I'm so glad. What brought about the change?" "They stopped speaking to each other altogether."—Woonsocket Patriot.

Twynn—I should think that a stuttering man would naturally be an excellent grammarian. Triplet—I don't see what that has to do with it. Twynn—Well, he would be familiar with the parts of speech.—Judge.

"I didn't sleep a wink last night; that Tugby baby cried all the night before." "How did that keep you awake last night?" "You see, I waited until the Tugbys got to bed, and then I played on my cornet until daylight."—Chicago Record.

Wheeler—Saw a thrilling thing today. Runaway horse went tearing along the sidewalk out in the edge of the town and nearly ran over a half-dozen children before he was stopped. Walker—I guess the fool beast thought he was a bicycle.—Indianapolis Journal.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

THE HAY BARN.

Of all the fine places to frolic and play,
Just give me the hay barn upon a wet day.
Its beams and its braces just fitted to climb,
And its haymow the place to have a good time.

Ah! there's many a nook mid the oats and the rye
Where a fellow can hide when playing "I spy,"
And when romping at circus, an elegant thing,
Is the rope stretched over the mow for a swing.

To walk the big beam is a feat, you'll allow,
Or hang by your heels from the rope o'er the mow;
To walk hand in hand 'cross the purlin is fun;
Then stand on your head on the mow, when you're done.

Then there's hen's eggs to hunt and mice nests to find,
And wasps nests o'erhead you can rob if inclined.
Of all the fine places to frolic and play,
Just give me the hay barn upon a wet day.

Diogenes Goes on an Errand.

The ironing is to be done,
The kitchen fire is blazing hot,
But plump, black Dina's wayward son,
Though gone for hours, returneth not.

She sent him to old Auntie Jones'
To borrow flats—"jes foh to-day!"

DIOGENES'S TORTOISE TEAM.

Now she berates his lazy bones
And wonders where he's paused to play.

Diogenes—that is his name—
Just stopped to train two doughty steeds
And make a wagon for the same,
To haul through Georgia dust and weeds.
The picture shows with what success
Diogenes has worked—says he;
"Whoa Buck! Come heah you on'ry Bess!
What foh you ac' dat way wid me?

"You gofers aint no good at all,
You's slower dan ole Chrismus come—
Now, dah! I heas my mammy call—
Dis chile git licked when he gets hum."

Plump Dina spies the wayward youth,
And laughs to see his tortoise team,
The ironing can wait, forsooth—
The warm day passes like a dream.

How Tillie Earned Her Organ.

When I was about 9 years old the teacher of our small country school said that he would give us 1 penny for every head mark.

So I worked very hard, and when the last day of that long weary term came at last I found that by all my hard labor I had gained only 28 cents.

In about a month after the term of school closed my father bought a large drove of turkeys. I was very anxious to own one of them, so I gave pa 25 cents of my money and received in return one of the drove. But my joy came later when it got large enough to sell, for it well repaid my trouble and brought me back just $1. I was very well pleased with my good luck and I resolved to speculate again. As it happened pa had a very nice litter of pigs about that time, and there was one little runt (as we called them) among them. Pa foresaw that if it had not the best care it would soon die, so I bought it with my dollar. I need not say that I took the greatest care of my little pig. The result was that when it came time to sell it this pig was as large as any of them. I traded it to pa for a heifer calf. The calf grew into a cow, and a few months ago, I traded my cow for an organ. I have just begun to take lessons and I think there is nothing nicer than music.—Lillie Poulson's prize story, in Chicago Record.

Purify your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will give you an appetite, tone your stomach and strengthen your nerves.

All through her life, although it has been a busy one, Queen Victoria has, says a contemporary, been a great reader. There is hardly any book of note that has not passed through her hands. During Her Majesty's reign she has made a collection of about 80,000 volumes, kept under charge of a librarian and two assistants at Windsor. Lord Beaconsfield's novels and Lord Tennyson's poems, with Charles Dickens' works, have for years constituted Her Majesty's favorite reading. Strange to say, Thackeray's works have never been favorites with members of the royal family, although, of course, they have their places in the library. "Alice in Wonderland" is another favorite book with the Queen, who is also fond of a number of the best novels written by Mrs. Gaskell, Miss Braddon and Mrs. Henry Ward. Black's, Stevenson's and Marie Corelli's works are also seen at Windsor. Charles Dickens is, perhaps, the Queen's favorite author, and of his works she possesses handsomely bound sets of almost every edition that has been issued. Sunday is the Queen's principal day for reading, when one of Mrs. Oliphant's novels is frequently chosen.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

FURNACE HEATING FOR WINTER

Get Ready Now and Put in a Preston Hot Air and Hot Water Furnace.

The method of heating buildings by hot air furnaces is very popular and is being more largely used every day. A good furnace of ample capacity, such as those manufactured by Clare & Co., Preston, Ont., and properly placed and connected with registers and piping of proper proportions, combines the essential requisites for maintaining a warm, balmy, spring atmosphere throughout the building, regardless of the severe winter weather outside. Such results cannot be secured with stoves, for it is well known that when it is sufficiently warm about a stove it is cold only a short distance from it. Besides stoves take up valuable space in a room; the stovepipes are not only unsightly but positively dangerous; the dust and dirt created and the amount of attention required, render stoves very objectionable. Not only this, but many instances can be pointed to where a good Preston furnace is completely heating dwellings with the same quantity of fuel that was previously required to improperly heat only one room with a stove.

The Preston furnaces is known to be very economical house warmer. It has numerous special and valuable features, but most important is that it will give more heat with less fuel and is the most durable heater made. A Preston furnace of the proper capacity for your building heats every room evenly with a nice, healthful, mild warmth that will not injure health or furniture.

A combined system of hot air and hot water can be obtained by one of these furnaces called "The Marvel." The water heaters are so constructed that the amount of hot water may be varied as requirements may demand. They have been tried and tested and are giving excellent results. The water heaters fit any of the steel body furnaces and as regards economy and convenience are unequalled. The principle of construction which is employed in the manufacture of these Preston furnaces is the only one as yet discovered which absolutely and permanently prevents the escape of gas, dust and smoke. The patent fused joints are used, and after nearly ten years' experience, the Clare Company are justified in positively guaranteeing that their patent fused joints will prevent the escape of dust and gas.

It is important that parties intending to build, as well as those who desire to make a change in the heating of their present buildings, should make their plans to have these furnaces put in during the summer months. Contracts should be made as early in the season as possible, so that the work can be completed before cold weather begins. Mr. Adam Hall is sole agent for the Preston furnaces in the town and county of Peterborough, and places the large experience of his practical staff of workmen at the disposal of all who desire to introduce these furnaces. Mr. Hall has already set up over two hundred of these furnaces in the town and county, which is a pretty good guarantee of their efficiency.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 22.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in this city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

CRICKET.

A somewhat remarkable match was played on the Trinity College School grounds on Saturday between the College eleven and Toronto Cricket Club. The College went to bat first and made only the small score of 39, the bowling of Goldinham and Jones being too much for them. After lunch the Toronto team was put out for the similarly small score of 43. The College then went in for their innings, and made an excellent exhibition of batting. DuMulin, Harvey and Baldwin, especially distinguished themselves. When they had made 84 runs with the loss of only five wickets, the captain declared their innings closed as the only chance of winning the match. Unfortunately there was only about an hour left in which to get Toronto out. Three wickets fell for three runs, and the hopes of the boys rose high, but when Goldingham, one of the best in Canada, and McMurtery got together and made 46 runs between them before time was called, it was evident that nothing could be done, and the game was lost by 4 runs in the first innings. No less than five of the Toronto team were old boys of the school, viz: Jones, (the Captain,) Strathy, Seagrham, Whitehead and Price.

LASSWADE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The widow Washburn was married on the 6th to Nelson Wheeler of the Vansickle settlement. Elder Gould performed the ceremony. We are sorry to lose a good friend and neighbour as Mrs. Washburn, but our loss is her gain, as she has stepped in a good home. They both have best wishes of this place.

The crops in this settlement was looking good a few weeks ago, but grasshoppers have got so numerous they are destroying nearly everything they came in contact with, except Richard Cole's and Bert Carroll's crops. They haven't a grasshopper on their place.

Wm. Hubble was the guest of C. N. Dingman on the 17th.

J. H. Holbrook has purchased the lot of Wm. Dingman, opposite Wm. Bullied's. He has it fenced, and a crop in.

There are abundance of strawberries this season. Blueberries are reported to be the best crop ever seen. Mr. George Airheart will reap a large crop, as no doubt the plains will be alive with campers, and buyers will be plentiful.

Mr. McLean intends to stop a week after school closes for vacation to enjoy the pleasure of the plains, as it will be a continual picnic all through.

Mr. Cole has been making a trade with Mr. Spratt. He gave Mr. Spratt a cow for a yearling colt.

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, June 15—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine, usually evinced by physicians is is rapidly giving way so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease, through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

OTONABEE.

Council Meeting.

From Our Own Correspondent.

A copy of a resolution passed by the Douro Council was received, notifying Jas. O'Conner to remove his fence and other obstructions from off the boundary line between Douro and Otonabee and requesting Otonabee to take joint action. Messrs. Anderson and Johnston were appointed to confer with the reeve of Douro in the matter. Moved by Messrs. Johnston and Weir that 1,250 be expended on the roads. The council agree to open the 16th concession line from the Keene road south to the marsh re Wm. Deyer's request at the March sitting of council. A communication was received from John Bell, G. T. R. solicitor, that the G. T. does not now own the old Cobourg railway roadbed. The following accounts were ordered to be paid: D. McCarthy, gravel, $7.49; Levi Fife, cedar, $2.08; R. Hope, plank for culverts, $9.86; Richard Doris, damages drawing gravel, $4; Andrew Essen, gravel, $5.32; R. English, provisions for James Metcalf, $18; coal oil for town hall, 80c.; nails for sidewalks, 22c.; John Welsh, gravel, $10.40; Alex. Gillespie, gravel, 70c.; John Anderson, gravel, $9.86; Robert Evans, gravel, $2 34. Council adjourned till July 20.

Very Attractive.

A sideboard in A. Clegg's window seems to attract the attention of large numbers to-day. It is certainly one of the handsomest pieces of furniture we have ever seen. All who appreciate artistic furniture will want to see it.

AT THE CAPITAL.

Will Sir Charles Tupper Resign at Once?

IT IS DESIRABLE THAT HE SHOULD

The Vanquished Leader Gives His Impressions of the Defeat and Its Causes—Was He Mulled by Some Ontario Ministers?—Reception to the Premier-Elect.

Ottawa, June 24.—(Special.)—The Premier is bearing his defeat with philosophical resignation. He spent a busy day at his office in the eastern block, receiving and answering telegrams and letters, as well as giving audience to intimate friends. Your correspondent had an interview with him during the course of the afternoon, and asked him what his intentions were, in view of yesterday's results. He replied that he had telegraphed for his colleagues to return to Ottawa at once. When the Cabinet re-assembles it will then be decided whether or not to meet the House or else to resign forthwith.

If there is delay and Parliament obeys the royal summons to meet on July 16, the spectacle will be presented of an adjournment for two weeks, to allow Ministers to be re-elected, thus involving a waste of several thousands of dollars and the inconvenience of members coming to Ottawa to idle their time. For the sake of public convenience, therefore, it is thought that Sir Charles Tupper will not delay in handing in his resignation to His Excellency.

Mr. Desjardins, Minister of Public Works, returned to Ottawa to-day, and had an interview with Sir Charles Tupper. The Premier looked very glum as he bent his steps towards his department at half past ten this morning. One of his intimates said to day that he had been knifed by his Ontario colleagues, Messrs. Haggart, Montague and Wood, and had to fight this campaign alone. This is quite true, but no man of any self-respect would be dragged around at the tail end of a circus procession in which there was only one lion. It is really laughable to see the number of persons in Ottawa who are going around entering Liberal groups and claiming a share in the victory. The result of the polling has increased the Liberal majority in Ottawa by a thousand within 24 hours. Most of the straight Conservatives, who take their beating like men, cast the blame largely on the Tuppers and the men who compose the Cabinet.

There is universal regret at the defeat of Mr. William Paterson, but it should be widely known that it is due to the fact that Mr. Paterson was everywhere but at home, helping his friends, and, of course, Mr. Henry was a strong opponent. The riding won by Mr. Henry was made to order by act of Parliament in 1882 so that it should return a Conservative, and as the gerrymander will now be put right, Mr. Henry will not long enjoy his victory.

Respecting the elections Sir Charles said: "So far as I am personally concerned, I gladly accept the verdict of yesterday, which relieves me from the great responsibilities devolving upon the leader of a government. When I came to Canada last winter I found the Conservative party utterly demoralized and was reluctantly compelled to consent to become its leader, as the only hope of avoiding defeat. The fatal mistake had been made of refusing to dissolve immediately after the adoption of the Remedial Order, and of calling a session of Parliament, whose life terminated on a specific day, to deal with the Remedial Bill, thus offering the greatest possible inducement to obstruction. The recess of Parliament had been allowed to pass without making any adequate efforts to instruct the public mind in relation to the school question, by which much of the misrepresentation and misapprehension respecting that measure might have been removed. I do not at all regret having placed my services at the disposal of the party, as otherwise I would have been held responsible for its defeat. I have fought the fight with all the energy and ability I possess, and am able to say that no public man has ever received more overwhelming evidence of regard, and I might say affection of the great Liberal-Conservative party, than I have during the past seven weeks, while speaking and traveling incessantly. The fact that Ontario is all but evenly divided, and that the other provinces, except Quebec, gave a majority to the Government, is of great significance.

"Down to the last moment I confidently relied upon the accuracy of Mr. Angers' opinion, that Quebec would give the Government a majority of 20. Mr. Laurier, by declaring in the House of Commons, and in Ontario, that he intended to bow to the will of the majority in Manitoba, confirmed, as it was, by the emphatic declaration of Hon. R. W. Scott, enabled him to secure a large amount of support in that province, while on the other hand his declaration at St. Roche, in the Province of Quebec, that, 'should the means of conciliation fail, I shall have recourse to constitutional means, and there I will use fully and in their entirety,' together with the monstrous misstatement that I had objected to his being Premier on the ground of his being a French Canadian and a Catholic, has secured him a large majority in that province.

"The Conservative party will now do its duty as a loyal and constitutional Opposition, and in that position will endeavor to protect as far as possible the best interests of the country, while maintaining the great principle of equal justice to all, without respect to race or creed, to which it has unhesitatingly committed itself. The same policy that it has maintained as a Government it will continue to maintain while in Opposition. Mr. Laurier can, therefore, rely upon a hearty support from me in restoring the rights and privileges of the French Roman Catholic minority in Manitoba, which rights Mr. Greenway has recently declared he will never concede to Mr. Laurier, and if Mr. Laurier will cease coquetting with the National Policy and come out squarely in favor of maintaining an efficient protection for the varied industries of Canada he will not encounter that obstruction from the Liberal-Conservative party which we always met with from opponents of that policy."

BITTERNESS IN WINNIPEG.

The Tribune Uses Strong Language in Regard to Sir Charles Tupper.

Winnipeg, June 24.—(Special.)—The Tribune, the Liberal organ here, points out that the defeat of Hon David Mills was cheered by the Liberals of Winnipeg last night.

Now that D'Alton McCarthy is elected for two constituencies, the general belief is he will resign Brandon. If he does no doubt Mr. Greenway's Attorney-General, Clifford Sifton, will run for Brandon. Everyone here seems to think Sifton will be the western member of Laurier's Cabinet.

The Liberals announce they will protest Winnipeg in the hope of gaining it for Mr. Martin. Winnipeg Conservatives, however, say they will fight to hold it.

The Tribune has this to say editorially: "Thank God, Tupperism is dead in Canada. An insulted, indignant people, wholly nauseated, literally spewed it out yesterday. The prince of political cracksmen, the man who has done more than any other public man in Canada to prostitute his country and drag its fair name through the mire of corruption is to day as dead as a doornail. Sir Charles, his family and his relatives, who have been gorging themselves at the public trough for so many years and holding high carnival at the expense of the people of Canada, will now have to settle down to work and try and earn an honest livelihood."

In its comments on the result in Winnipeg, The Tribune's language is quite as bitter. It declares Winnipeg was stolen and stands humiliated in the eyes of Canada. It thus concludes: "Probably no more disgraceful or humiliating election campaign has ever been carried on in Canada than that conducted by the supporters of Mr. Macdonald in this election. Wholesale and individual debauchery has run riot. Men who depend for their living or for unearned profits on the sustenance of the Tupper combination dropped all disguise and joined in the effort to steal the constituency, whether by misrepresentation of the issues, by dishonest appeals to the most sordid elements of the electorate, or by even more reprehensible methods."

The Free Press this afternoon says: The general shake-up of yesterday nonplusses the sagest calculator. Which ever way the contest might go Winnipeg expected results would dovetail a Minister of the Interior from this city into the Ottawa Cabinet, but unfortunately a Liberal vacancy in Ottawa and a Conservative member in Winnipeg do not fit together. Quebec and Ontario have each been a disappointment to the two leaders. Sir Charles Tupper's confident anticipations as to Quebec have been completely upset, and Mr. Laurier's appeal to Ontario has met with a rather lukewarm response.

VIEWED IN ENGLAND.

The British Press Comments on Laurier's Accession to Power.

London, June 24.—The Morning Post, commenting on the result of yesterday's elections in Canada, will say to-morrow: Judging from Mr. Laurier's recent speech, the unity of the Empire and the future of Canada are safe in his keeping.

The Daily News will ascribe the victory to the triumph of Liberal principles generally, and a revolt against sacerdotalism. The result, The News says, ought to teach a lesson to political clerics the world over.

The Chronicle will say: "The Canadians have shaken themselves free from the grip of protectionists and clerical parties. The failure of so doughty a champion as Sir Charles Tupper is a measure of the strength of the reaction." The Chronicle predicts that Hon. Wilfrid Laurier could abolish protection, limiting the tariff to the actual needs of the revenue, and that thereby great impulse will be given to Anglo-Canadian trade.

The Times will say: The Church in Canada, as in other lands, has lately been losing something of its old power over the laity. The Times will express regret that it has been the fate of Sir Charles Tupper to assume the Conservative leadership at a time when the party was marching to its first overthrow in eighteen years, but says it is a conspicuous token of the solidarity of the races comprising the populations of the Dominion. The paper in the course of its comments will pay a high tribute to Mr. Laurier's loyalty to Great Britain.

London, June 24.—The Canadian Gazette, which will be issued to-morrow, will contain an article upon yesterday's election in the Dominion of Canada, paying high tribute to the unexampled activity of Sir Charles Tupper.

Mr. Wilfrid Laurier's views upon the tariff question, the article adds, were seemingly developed as the fight proceeded. Continuing, the writer says: "We shall soon see how he will put into practice the sentiments expressed in the speech he delivered at the beginning of June, demanding a revenue tariff and a system of preferential trade with England, and how his pro-United States of America policy will be affected thereby."

Home Rule in Canada.

London, June 24.—The St. James' Gazette, in an article commenting upon the result of the elections held in the Dominion of Canada yesterday, says that the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier will now be able to show whether or not he is a statesman. The rock upon which the Conservatives came to grief, The Gazette says, was state rights. The real moral of the result is that, even if Canada has home rule, the system does not work smoothly.

SIR OLIVER GETTING READY.

To Abdicate in Favor of Hon. A. S. Hardy—Ontario Cabinet Meeting.

Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. Messrs. Ross and Hardy were yesterday the recipients of numerous congratulatory messages from all parts of the country, and all three were naturally greatly jubilant over the success their party had made. They thought, however, that Ontario should have done better for them.

In the afternoon there was a meeting of the Cabinet, at which all the Ministers but Messrs. Ross and Hardy were present, when the re-formation of the Ontario Government, in view of Sir Oliver's prospective removal to Ottawa, was informally discussed.

Sir Oliver will not resign the Premiership for a few days. In fact, he will not likely do so until Sir Charles Tupper abdicates at Ottawa and Hon. Mr. Laurier sends for him to join his Cabinet as Senator and Minister of Justice.

Then Mr. Hardy will become Prime Minister and Attorney-General; Messrs. Ross, Hardy, Harcourt, Dryden and Gibson will retain their present posts, and Mr. Bronson will remain without portfolio. This will leave the Crown Lands Department open, and the vacancy will be filled by one of the three following members of the Local House: Speaker Balfour, Mr. E. J. Davis of York, Mr. J. R. Stratton of Peterboro.

Now that Mr. W. T. R. Preston has been defeated in West Toronto, he will, it is believed, be re-appointed Lgislative Librarian, while Mr. S. T. Bastedo, as soon as Sir Oliver goes to Ottawa, will, in all likelihood, get the Surrogate Court Clerkship, vacated by the death of the late Hon. T. W. Anglin.

Victims of Beri Beri.

Queenstown, June 24.—The four members of the crew of the Norwegian barque Alexander Lawrence, who died while the vessel was on the voyage from Java, were victims of beri beri, and the six sailors who are now on the sick list are suffering from the same disease.

Li Hung Chang and Bismarck.

Berlin, June 24.—Li Hung Chang, the Chinese Viceroy, who is visiting in Germany, will pay a visit to Prince Bismarck at Friedrichsruhe to-morrow.

Got a Gold Mine.

Rossland, B.C., June 24.—(Special.)—The Northern Belle was sold to-day to H. Thorne, W. A. Campbell and J. F. McLaughlin of Toronto. This mine is adjacent to the famous Lerol, and is considered the best undeveloped gold mine in this camp.

Sir Leonard Sinking.

St. John, N.B., June 24.—Sir Leonard Tilley is still alive but sinking rapidly, and the doctors say he cannot last more than a few hours.

British Troops in Support

London, June 24.—The Times to-morrow will print advices from Georgetown, B.G., saying that a force of colonial troops has been despatched to Acarabisci to protect the Government surveyors at work in that neighborhood.

Hammond Goes to England.

Cape Town, June 24.—John Hays Hammond sailed for England yesterday.

The Indian the Only Socialist

The Indian is the Sybarite of the northland, and the only genuine Socialist on earth. He holds all the possessions of his country equally with his tribe, feasts and fasts and sorrows and rejoices in common, and roams where his legs carry and there is game for his gun. When there is abundance he smokes his pipe in happy indolence and his wife does the work; when there is no meat for the kettle, he shoulders his gun and goes out into the woods, leaving care and hunger at home with the squaw. But he by no means invariably escapes hunger. It is ever a feast or a famine with him, and it might always be a feast were he not so improvident and lazy. Clothing and food are at his very door. In the rivers and lakes there is fish in great quantity and variety; along their banks fisher, otter, mink, beaver and musk-rat; and in the forests moose, caribou, bear, lynx, fox, wolf, wolverine, marten, ermine and rabbits—to say nothing of the early spring and autumn migration of ducks and geese, the packs of ptarmigan, which in their changing plumage of brown and white are to be seen summer and winter, and the several other species of the grouse family that may be found the greater part of the year. There is no occasion for an Indian to starve in this country, if he keeps out of Barren Grounds; but hunting demands skill, of which he has less than any other red man I ever knew, and a never-failing cache presupposes foresight, of which he has none—so that, in truth, he fasts more often than he feasts.

Winds or Salt, Purest and Best

That

Extreme tired feeling afflicts nearly everybody at this season. The hustlers cease to push, the tireless grow weary, the energetic become enervated. You know just what we mean. Some men and women endeavor temporarily to overcome that

Tired

Feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people "work on their nerves," and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired

Feel-

ing is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is, therefore, apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember that

WORK RESUMED.

When the shaft of a factory is set in motion after the dinner recess all the little pulleys and belts and countershafts and all the thousands of little wheels and cams and levers of the machines get to work. This, says the Montreal Witness, is a picture of what we look for, now that the election is over and the incubus of a depressing system is removed. During the past few weeks business throughout Canada has been at an absolute standstill. The country has been in the distressed condition of the old woman who could not get her pig home. The rope would not hang the butcher, the butcher would not kill the ox, the ox would not drink the water, and so on through all the interesting activities of that country side. Suddenly, however, the scene was changed. The rope began to hang the butcher, the butcher began to kill the ox, the ox began to drink the water, the water began to quench the fire, and all went on hummingly, and the delighted old woman got her pig over the stile and well housed. The difference between that time and this is that now instead of every one assailing every one else there is going to be an era of mutual encouragement and quickly developed general prosperity.

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, June 15—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine, usually evinced by physicians is is rapidly giving way so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease, through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

HAULTAIN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Monday, June 22nd, a grand picnic was held by the Methodist church of South Burleigh. The beautiful picnic grounds, situated on Mount Julien, overlooking the lake, were used for the occasion. The tables were laden with abundance of such delicious pies and cakes as the ladies of South Burleigh well know how to provide. The day was all that could be desired and everything was "merry as a marriage bell." Amongst the guests present were a party of Americans from Burleigh Falls, Mrs. A. Stewart of Peterborough, Miss Hales of North Burleigh and some friends from Zion church in Dummer. The proceeds amounted to nearly $12, part of which was used to defray some little expense in connection with our Sunday School and at the close of the picnic a purse of money was presented to Rev. J. Barnes, B.A., our retiring pastor, with many expressions of good will and hopes for his future success in his new field of labour.

The Stage of Convalescence

Is at once interesting and critical. The patient, carefully guarded at this period and provided with the means essential for health, may be enabled once more to enjoy the inestimable blessings of health. On the other hand, neglect of even minor needs, at this period, is likely to impose upon him the life-long penalty of ill-health, resulting in a wasted life. The assimilative processes are, at this time, are sure to be impaired, and nerve tone overtaxed in its resistance to the assaults of disease, will both sadly need the impetus which Maltine with Coca Wine can give.

By the action of Maltine with Coca Wine upon the digestive processes, which it rapidly strengthens and its permanent and striking influence upon the nervous system, to which it gives vigor and tone, the restorative power of the body is immensely increased, and strength and vigor come to the invalid so quickly as to seem almost impossible. Experience, however has demonstrated its efficacy in convalescence, as well as the various forms by which debility, arising from faulty nutrition, manifests itself. Sold by all druggists.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

Rev. John Ewing and family are holidaying in Toronto.

Plank has been received for our new sidewalk. Our thanks are due for email favours—we could have found use for six times the quantity.

Our sympathy is extended to Mr. James Paul, who received the news of a brother's death last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul attended the funeral at Lotus.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown have left us again, having moved to a farm in the vicinity of Pontypool.

Mr. J. Walter McLean, of the literary staff of the Institute for the Blind, Brantford, has returned to the parental domicile for his vacation.

The Foresters and Good Templars picnic of last Saturday was held in Mr. William Elson's grove, and was a decided success. The afternoon was fine, but exceedingly warm. Our baseball team and Omemee crossed sticks on the diamond with the following result: Mount Pleasant, 10; Omemee, 5. The match was for a prize of a ball and bat. Orange Corners football team played with the Mount Pleasant team for the prize of a foot ball. When half time was up neither side had secured a goal. Some objections were raised against certain players, and the referee calling for play to be resumed the team from Orange Corners refused to go on with the game, which was according awarded to our team.

A platform had been provided for the devotees of terpsichore, but wasn't in much demand Races were run off by the committee, and greatly amused the little ones, who participated in them. The societies are to be congratulated on the success of the afternoon's amusement.

A political meeting in the interests of Colonel McLean, was held in our village Saturday evening. At it some old scores were brought up and settled.

On Sunday last a very heavy downpour of rain, accompanied by some hail and an awful electric storm caused considerable commotion in our usually quiet little hamlet. Sacramental services were just finished in the Presbyterian church, and the congregation travelling down the aisles, when a bolt of electricity struck the west chimney on the church, ran down an iron support rod to the roof, through the roof and ceiling and along the stovepipe to the stove, when the worshippers were stunned and alarmed by the electricity which seemed to fill the church. Mr. John Boyd was reaching for his hat and happened to place his foot on the zinc under the stove and was thrown violently to the floor. Mrs. Hunter who was near him was strongly affected and temporarily paralysed. Then the news spread that the building was on fire between the roof and the ceiling. This was too true as smoke was seen issuing from above. Ready and willing hands, led by the pastor, soon ascended to the upper part and succeeded in quenching the flames which, if left to themselves, would soon have devastated the building. The loss will not exceed fifty dollars, and we learn the building was insured. The greatest gratitude is felt that no fatalities occurred to mark an event which has intimidated and unnerved a great many of our citizens.

The doctor may be a good old man, but even so, medical examinations and the "local-application" treatment are abhorrent to every modest woman. They are embarrassing—often useless. They should not be submitted to until everything else has been tried. In nine cases out of ten, there is no reason for them. In nine cases out of ten, the doctor in general practice isn't competent to treat female diseases. They make a branch of medicine by themselves. They are distinct from other ailments. They can be properly understood and treated only by one who has had years of actual practice and experience in this particular line. This is true of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N.Y. Dr. Pierce's Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy for all derangements of the reproductive organs of women, has been in actual use for more than thirty years. It cures every form of "female weakness."

BENSFORT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The weather has been very warm lately. On Saturday the thermometer crept up to 98 degrees in the shade followed by thunder and rain on Sunday.

Mr. John Kerr is visiting his sister, Mrs. N. Greaves, of Markham township.

Mr. Wm. Pue and wife, of Barrie, are visiting Mr. John Pue. They made the trip on their bicycles and enjoyed it very much.

Some ill disposed parson entered Mr. Thos. Cowling's cellar while they were away to town last Saturday and helped themselves to the pies and cakes which they found there. They did not even leave the plates. Whether they disposed of them or not is hard to say, but if they did it is to be hoped they won't agree with them.

Mr. R. J. O'Hare is busy building a fence on Mr. Thos. Armstrong's farm, occupied by Mr. Cowling.

Mr. Jas. Wedlock is doing a thriving business in the strawberry line. He has disposed of in the neighbourhood of 300 quarts and expects to have as many more to sell before the season closes.

Mr. Thos. Armstrong intends remodelling his house and store. The contract has been secured by Mr. Robt. Nimmo and will be pushed with all possible speed. Mr. Armstrong intends to have one of the finest, if not the finest, residence in Bensfort.

The Epworth League meetings held in the Methodist church are well attended every evening and seem to be growing in popularity. Several of the young people say then would not miss them for anything. Whether it is the meetings themselves or the meeting of their best friends they refer to is undecided, but both are well attended.

Several road jobs in connection with the new bridge were let on Monday. Some of our leading men will be hanging out their shingle with their name and C.E. attached after so much experience in bridge and road building.

What She Said.

Mrs. R. Peck, E. 15th street, New York city, visited Canada last year, and had the good fortune to pick up something which not only suited her, but her neighbours also. Writing the manufacturer of Nerviline, she says:—"I bought three bottles of Nerviline while in Canada and treated my neighbours to some of it, and all think it the best medicine for internal or external pain they have ever used."

Norway Pine Syrup strengthens the lungs and cures all throat troubles, colds, etc.

LAKEFIELD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. S. Henderson of Port Hope, is spending a few days in the village visiting friends.

Mr. R. G. Cotton and son of Niagara Falls, is in the village this week.

Mr. T. Murchall of Cobourg, is visiting friends.

Miss McEwen is spending a two weeks' holiday in Toronto.

Mr. Walter D'E. Strickland of Toronto, was in the village on Tuesday.

Mr. John Clarin of Toronto spent a few days in the village renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Jas. F. Hogue of Cobourg was in the village on Tuesday.

Mr. Thos. S. Cole of Toronto passed through the village on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Mitchell and family of Kingston, are visiting Mrs. J. L. Madill.

A garden party will be held at the "Homestead," the residence of Mr. R. C. Strickland, on Thursday, June 25th, from 4 to 10 p.m., at which there will be a lawn tennis tournament, croquet, bowls, games, races, etc. Tea will be provided; also strawberries and cream. A concert will be held during the evening. All are invited, the admission fee to grounds and tea being 25c.; children, 15c.

The elections passed off very quietly here during the day. Mr. Burnham received a majority in polling division No. 25 of 30 votes, and polling division No. 26 gave Mr. Lang a majority of 3, leaving Mr. Burnham's net majority for Lakefield, 27—as against 46 in 1891. In the evening a crowd gathered in the town hall to hear the returns. When it was seen that the Liberals were forging ahead the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. John Hull, president of the Reform Association, sent to Hon. Wilfred Laurier a congratulatory telegram.

Ayer's Pills promote the natural motion of the bowels, without which there can be no regular, healthy operations. For the cure of biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, constipation, jaundice and liver complaint, these pills have no equal. Every dose effective.

Shiloh's Cure, the great Cough and Croup Cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25c. Children love it. Sold by John Nugent, 289 George Street.

That hacking, persistent cough can be quickly cured by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It cures all throat and and lung troubles.

MAJORITY GROWING.

The Liberal Sweep Was Greater Than Reported.

FIVE OF THE PROVINCES CARRIED

Tupperism Sustained in New Brunswick Only Liberal Majority Over All 28 —Total Majority Against the Government 52 Much Bitterness Shown in Winnipeg

Toronto, June 25.—The Globe says: Fuller returns of the elections alter the standing of the parties only to increase the Liberal majority. Dr. McIntyre, in King's, P.E.I., is elected instead of the Conservative. This gives to the Liberals three of the five seats in the Island, to the Conservatives one, and one to an Independent. In Quebec it turns out that Nicolet has re-elected Mr. Leduc (Liberal), by a small majority. This seat has, therefore, also to be changed from one column to the other. There is a chance that Montmorency may likewise be brought into the Laurier line. The ballot box for a Liberal polling booth in the county is missing. If Montmorency should have gone Liberal, then all the seats of the 22 in what is known as the Quebec district will have been swept by the Liberal leader. In British Columbia Mr. Bostock's election in Yale-Cariboo came too late to be put into the tables of yesterday. Full returns from Muskoka, North Ontario, and East Simcoe have not been received, but the election in each case has been allowed to the Conservatives in the Globe's tables. The defeat of Mr. Dickey, Minister of Justice, by a majority of 120 is confirmed.

In Westmoreland, instead of Mr. Powell being re-elected, the latest returns give the election to the Liberal candidate by a small majority, which may be increased by the recount. Late information from North Middlesex, purported to be based upon full returns, gives the election to Mr. Ratz. In Manitoba Mr. Boyd appears to be elected in Marquette, but Mr. Macdonell, the Liberal, is leading in Selkirk, so that the changes balance each other. The returns for the Manitoba and western elections are not yet complete.

QUEBEC'S TRIUMPH.

The Premier-Elect Receives a Rousing Demonstration in the Ancient Capital.

Quebec, June 24.—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was given a triumphal demonstration through the streets of Quebec to-night. A procession formed at the Chateau Frontenac at 8 o'clock, headed by the fire brigade, accompanied, by Mayor Parent, Hon. Senator Pelletier, Hon. Firs. Langelier, in a carriage drawn by four horses. About 10 newly elected members from this district followed. There were fully 350 carriages in the procession, and several bands. Thousands viewed the procession ,and cheered Mr. Laurier. Rockets were fired profusely. The procession stopped at Jacques Cartier square, when Mr. Laurier addressed his constituents. He thanked them for having stood by him through so many years of adversity. Several other speakers addressed the great crowd, and the procession was re-formed, and Mr. Laurier was escorted back to the hotel. Two pretty little girls presented the chieftain with bouquets on the line of march. Mr. Laurier left by the C.P.R. to-night for Montreal.

A MONOPOLY IN THREAD.

The Great Manufacturers of England Have Consolidated Their Businesses With a Capital of $35,000,000.

London, June 24.— Particulars are given out to-night of the great amalgamation of thread companies. J. & P. Coats, Clark, Jonas Brooks & Bros. and James Chadwick & Bros. are all amalgamated in the style of The Coats, absorbing all the business. The Coats will issue a further share capital, raising their total nominal capital from £5,000,000 to £7,500,000. The new ordinary £10 shares are offered for subscription at £50 a share. This makes a practical monopoly of the thread industry in this country, with important establishments in the United States and Canada.

ANOTHER MASSACRE AT VAN.

It is Reported That 400 Christian Armenians Were Slaughtered on Monday.

Constantinople, June 24.—Advices received here from Van, Asia Minor, say that in the outbreak which occurred there on Monday four hundred Armenians were killed, and that the trouble was renewed yesterday. A large number of persons have taken refuge in the British Consulate. The massacre is ascribed to agents of the Porte, who were paid to provoke a demonstration on the part of the Armenians which might serve as a pretext for a general slaughter of Christians.

Honors for Bayard and Chamberlain

London, June 24.—Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, United States Ambassador to the Court of St. James, was the recipient to-day of the degree of D.C.L., which was conferred upon him by Oxford University at Oxford in the presence of a large and distinguished company of guests.

Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonial Department, was also honored in the same manner. The two gentlemen were enthusiastically cheered. After the ceremonies the guests were entertained at luncheon in the hall of All Souls' College.

The Terrible Matabele.

Cape Town, June 24.—Reports have been received here that various stations in the Matabele country have been attacked by the rebellious natives and the white inhabitants killed. The whole country around Fort Salisbury, according to the advices received, is in revolt, and relief is anxiously awaited by the beleaguered white residents.

Drowned Going to Vote.

Dunchurch, Ont., June 24.—Yesterday, while six men were crossing Bulger Lake, in the Township of McKenzie, Parry Sound District, on their way to vote at Whitestone polling division, their canoe capsized, owing to too many being in it, and John Jones,aged about 28, married, was drowned.

Blaze at Appleby.

Burlington, Ont., June 24.—About 4 o'clock this afternoon the dwelling house of Charles Fothergill, farmer, Appleby, was totally destroyed by fire. Cause unknown. Loss partly covered by insurance.

LEND YOUR EARS

To Your Back and Listen to its Talk—A Peterborough Man Tries It.

Did you know the back could talk ;
Tell you why it aches and pains ;
Tell you why it's lame and weak ;
Warn you of the kidney's ills ;
Tell you of Doan's Kidney Pills ?
Listen to them when they speak.
Relieve the kidneys, cure the ache.
Bad back, acute pains and kidney ills,
Are quickly cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here is proof of it at home. The testimony of Mr. George N. Graham, the genial host of the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, is as follows :—

He says :—"I have been a great sufferer for some time with pain across the back, extending up between the shoulders, swelling of the limbs, dizziness, loss of appetite, and in fact felt completely broken up.

"I had lost 17 pounds in three months, and thought that I would never get better. I have taken many kinds of patent medicines, and have also been treated by medical men, but did not seem to get any better at all, in fact was constantly growing worse.

"I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertisement and got a box of them at Lynch's drugstore, and by the time I had taken one box noticed a marked change for the better.

"I have taken seven boxes altogether, and am now free from pain ; the swelling in the limbs has disappeared, and my appetite is good. In fact, I feel that I am completely cured.

"I can heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering from any form of kidney trouble. They are the best kidney medicine I have ever used.

Signed, GEO. N. GRAHAM.

POOR HOME PLAYERS.

Scranton Coal Heavers Defeat the Torontos by 8 Runs to 7.

Scranton batted Dineen hard and often over the Don yesterday, and won a contest that see-sawed nearly all the way. The visitors bunched two singles and two homers in the fifth. Toronto had the bases full, with only one out, in the ninth, and after O'Brien fouled out Bowse dropped one over second that looked safe, but Ward got under it. Apart from his wildness, Harper did good work. Scranton appears much stronger than during the last visit. Score :

MANITOBA AND THE WEST.

There is a Chance That Davin May Get West Assiniboia Yet

Winnipeg, June 24.—(Special.)—Returns from Manitoba constituencies show that McCarthy's majority in Brandon is 372, with all places heard from. The election of Boyd, Conservative, in Macdonald, is now almost certain, though several returns are missing. Regarding Marquette, as returns cannot be got from the remote Dauphin District, this constituency is still in doubt. Provencher gives Lariviere, Conservative, 500 majority. Selkirk constituency is in doubt, both sides claiming it. Lisgar elected Richardson, Liberal, by nearly 200. In the Northwest Territories the only constituency Conservatives have any hope of winning is West Assiniboia. McInnes, Patron, is now 22 ahead, but there is one poll to hear from, which may elect Nicholas Flood Davin.

The Children's Enemy.

Scrofula often shows itself in early life and is characterized by swellings, abscesses hip diseases, etc. Consumption is scrofula of the lungs. In this class of diseases Scott's Emulsion is unquestionably the most reliable medicine.

It is the best cough cure I have ever used says G. Fred Anderson, of T, S. Simms & Co,. in speaking of Norway Pine Syrup.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

Rheumatism of 20 years' standing radically cured by Scott's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Sarah Browning, an estimable resident of the Ambitious City, was for twenty years a sufferer from acute rheumatism, and her restoration to health is so remarkable that we present the case for the benefit of our readers, many of whom are doubtless sufferers from this painful complaint which arises from blood poison. Mrs. Browning says: "I used only one bottle of Scott's Sarsaparilla and received such benefit that I continued taking only at intervals for two months. That is seven months ago, and the pain has not returned. I had spent a fortune in various "treatments" and was told by one medical man that a cure was impossible as I had suffered so long."

Scott's Sarsaparilla cures by making and keeping the blood pure. It increases flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods. It is the most successful medicine in the world to-day, for dyspepsia, nervous troubles, rheumatism, sciatica, syphilitic afflictions, pimples and all diseases originating in a foul condition of the blood. Dose from one half to one teaspoonful.

Wood's Phosphodine.—The Great English Remedy.

Is the result of over 35 years treating thousands of cases with all known drugs, until at last we have discovered the true remedy and treatment—a combination that will effect a prompt and permanent cure in all stages of Sexual Debility, Abuse or Excesses, Nervous Weakness, Emissions, Mental Worry, Excessive Use of Opium, Tobacco, or Alcoholic Stimulants, all of which soon lead to Insanity, Consumption and an early grave. Wood's Phosphodine has been used successfully by hundreds of cases that seemed almost hopeless—cases that had been treated by the most talented physicians—cases that were on the verge of despair and insanity—cases that were tottering over the grave—but with the continued and persevering use of Wood's Phosphodine, these cases that had been given up to die, were restored to manly vigor and health—Reader you need not despair—no matter who has given you up as incurable—the remedy is now within your reach, by its use you can be restored to a life of usefulness and happiness.

Price, one package, $1; six packages, $5; by mail free of postage.

One will please, six guaranteed to cure. Pamphlet free to any address.

A CATHEDRAL WEDDING.

It Took Place at Four O'Clock Yesterday Afternoon.

An interesting event took place at St. Peter's cathedral on Wednesday afternoon in the marriage of Mr. M. Buchanan, of Montreal, foreman of the Trent Valley Canal work under contract of Brown, Lowe & Aylmer, to Miss Aggie Sullivan, daughter of Mr. Daniel Sullivan, No. 620 George street, Rev. Father Fitzpatrick performing the ceremony.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in green crepon and was assisted by her sister, Miss Gertie Sullivan, who looked most attractive in cream.

The offices of groomsman were most acceptably performed by Mr. J. J. Callaghan.

The two charming little maids of honour were Misses Mabel Grady and May Labey.

A large number of the bride's friends were in attendance at the cathedral to witness the ceremony and extend their congratulations at its close. A most recherche wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's father upon the return of the wedding party and during the evening the newly married couple left on the C. P. R express for points east on a wedding trip.

INSPECTION NOW GOING ON.

The 57th Undergoing Its Annual Official Examination.

Acting Deputy Adjutant General Vidal, of the Third Military District, accompanied by Lt.-Col. Otter, one of the two newly appointed Inspectors of Infantry, arrived in town yesterday and spent the day in examining the stores, accoutrements, records and armouries of the 57th Battalion.

Whilst the acting D. A. G. checked over the stores Lt.-Col. Otter made a most minute examination of the condition of the accoutrements. It was not a case of picking up a rifle here and there for inspection and glancing cursorily down the barrel, but almost every other one was thoroughly inspected as well as the side arms.

In the evening the companies of Capt's Millar, Hayes and Stevenson were inspected and this evening Capt's Lech, Hill and Clegg will parade their companies for the same purpose. On Friday the inspection of the Battalion as a whole will take place, probably on Burnham's Point.

To-day the D. A. G. and Inspector of Infantry are out at Bethany and Millbrook inspecting the armouries there.

THE MAIL ROBBERY.

Mr. R. R. Hamilton Discharged on the Evidence Adduced.

This morning the magistrate formally discharged Mr. R. R. Hamilton on the charge of being implicated in the mail robbery at the C. P. R. station on the night of Sept. 24th, 1894.

The evidence adduced by the Crown against the prisoner was of the flimsiest possible description. The fact that Mr. Hamilton immediately after the robbery had given his wife a ring seemed to be a point against the prisoner at first, as several rings, including a diamond one, had been removed from the mail pouch, but it was shown that the stone in the ring was a dead white in colour and was given as a peace-offering, after a family disagreement.

On the night of the robbery Mrs. Hamilton swore that the prisoner was at home and had awakened her to call her attention to the fire which took place at the same time.

Mr. W. A. Stratton conducted the defence, whilst Mr. R. E. Wood acted for the Crown in the case.

REV. J. E. TROTTER'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

The Murray Street Baptist Church will Lose its Pastor.

At a congregational meeting of the members of the Murray street Baptist church last night, Rev. J. E. Trotter expressed his desire to have his resignation accepted, and finding it was impossible to persuade him to alter his decision which had only been reached after mature deliberation, the members passed several resolutions formally accepting his resignation, and at the same time expressing the regret with which they allowed their pastor to leave them.

Testimony was also given as to Mr. Trotter's valuable work in the church during his ministry in Peterborough for the last five years and a half.

Mr. Trotter will not leave for St. Catharines, it is understood, until the latter part of August.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH SANDY B?

He Easily Defeats an Imported Ringer from Ottawa.

Yesterday afternoon there was a lively race at the Driving Park between a newly acquired mare of Mr. T. H. Hamilton's and Mr. Ed. Brown's Sandy B.

The local horse won the race, although he was taken directly from the delivery wagon and hitched to his trotting sulky. One heat was very close, the horses coming in exactly even. The race was trotted in three-quarter mile heats and were all done in about a 2.30 clip. Mr. Brown is sure that, with a little attention, Sandy B could reel off his mile in 2.15, and after his performance of yesterday, without any special training, such a thing does not seem outside the possibilities.

THAT COW STEALING CASE.

The Particulars Come Out in Evidence This Morning.

At this morning's session of the Police Court, Joseph Pollard appeared, after being twice remanded on the charge of stealing a cow from Albert Parker, of Nassau.

By the evidence adduced it seems that, last fall, Parker had a cow which he did not wish to keep through the winter and was on the lookout for someone who would take the cow until the first of May, for the milk which she would yield.

Pollard agreed to take the animal on the understanding that if he wished to buy the cow he could have her for $25, if he gave notice inside of a month. On the 1st of March Pollard expressed a desire to purchase the animal but the owner thought that the cow was then worth a couple of dollars more. Pollard agreed to give this and gave his note, but refused to get an endorser or to sign a lien on the cow until it was paid for. On Parker wanting to take the animal back he was told that it had passed out of Pollard's possession already and hence the action.

The magistrate remanded the prisoner for judgment on the understanding that if the cow was returned to Parker and the costs paid the case would be dropped, otherwise sentence would be imposed.

THE MATTHEWS' CO'Y FIRE.

Their Hull Branch Partially Destroyed Yesterday.

At half-past four yesterday afternoon, fire broke out in the Gen. Matthew's Co. pork packing establishment in Hull.

The prompt arrival and good work of the E. B. Eddy Co.'s private brigade saved the main building, although the outbuildings were destroyed.

It is not known as yet how the fire originated, but the ice house, slaughter house, hog pens and fertiliser department were burnt, as well as the roof and a part of the upper story of the main building. A quantity of stock was also destroyed by smoke and water.

The outbuildings were only partially insured, but the loss on the stock and the main building is understood to be almost wholly covered.

No estimate of the loss has been arrived at as yet. The buildings and plant are valued at $60,000.

Messrs. Frank and William Matthews left for Hull last night, and Mr. George Matthews, sr., went down this morning.

THE DOMINION ELECTIONS.

PRESS COMMENTS—OPINION'S OF PAPERS OF ALL COMPLEXIONS.

The Montreal Star Calls it a "Great Liberal Victory—A Remarkable Tumble."

When the election returns are completed it will be found that the Liberals have a clear majority of twenty-five over all other parties; that the Liberals, Patrons and McCarthyites combined have a majority of over thirty-five over all Conservatives, remedial and anti-remedial. Mr. Laurier will therefore come into power with a good working majority, not only for his policy of conciliation in regard to Manitoba, but for his policy of tariff reform. . . . . To day is the greatest St. Jean Baptiste day ever held, the day that chronicles a knock-down blow for clerical despotism, one from which it will never recover.—Montreal Witness.

The seating of Sir Henri Joly de Lothiniere in the Commons and of Sir Oliver Mowat—prospectively—in the Senate, are incidents of another character, and all causes for satisfaction. Mr. Laurier is now given his opportunity. He can get together a capable and clean Ministry, and need not mistake the strength of his own popularity and the universal desire to "give the other fellows a chance" for a mandate against the protective sytem. . . . . Although the turn over is a great one, Mr. Laurier's majority is not so great that any of his lieutenants will be tempted to tell his old antagonists the manufacturers to go to perdition. If the Liberals have not learned something since 1878, then it is of no use to be in opposition at all.—Montreal Star (Conservative).

The Roman Catholic hierarchy and the Conservative administration has met a severe and deserved rebuke, which we trust will not be forgotten. Otherwise the political overturn in the Dominion must be far reaching and important and, we trust, may be beneficial.—Charlottetown, (P.E.I.) Guardian.

We hope and pray that such evils as lately befell the United States on a change of government and fiscal policy will not befall this Canada of ours.—Charlottetown (P.E.I.) Examiner.

We shall soon see how he will put into practice the sentiments expressed in the speech he delivered at the beginning of June demanding a revenue tariff and a system of preferential trade with England, and how his pro-United States of American policy will be affected thereby.—Canadian Gazette, (London, Eng.)

Ontario, as was expected, gave a majority to Laurier, while the far West and the Maritime Provinces surprised some by doing as well as they did for the Liberals, but it was the emphatic expression of opinion in Quebec which turned the tide and put the Conservatives out of power.—Belleville Sun, (Independent.)

The Dominion general elections has resulted in a sweeping victory for the Liberals. Their majority in the next Parliament over all parties combined will be somewhere about 30, and the plurality over the Conservatives will be close on 40. Such is the remarkable change from the majority of 60 or so which the Conservatives enjoyed up to the last session of Parliament.—Guelph Mercury.

Yesterday was a red letter day for the Liberals in the Dominion and the Hon. Wilfred Laurier has been triumphantly sustained, and Tupperism, tyranny and taxes have been driven to the wall.—Port Hope Guide.

It should be noticed that the Liberal gains in Ontario outnumbered the Liberal gains in Quebec. The Protestant revolt against the Government in Ontario was greater than the Catholic revolt against the Church in Quebec. But the latter perhaps means more.—Hamilton Herald (Independent).

As far as the result affects the United States, we should say it meant a more cordial policy generally on the part of the new Government, and in particular an excellent disposition to return to the generous treaty of reciprocity, such as the arrangement of 1854, which was repealed to mutual disadvantage, and under a good deal of false pretence, in 1866.—New York Evening Post.

The Conservative Government of Canada is routed. The Liberals, thanks to the blunders and fatuous blindness of their opponents, carry the country for the second time since the Confederation was formed in 1867. Corruption, scandal, unprogressive Toryism are overthrown and a new order appears. The people of Canada are to be congratulated upon their wisdom. Whatever their fears about the economic leanings of the Liberal leaders, these can be safely regarded as less threatening to the country than the array of abuses which have grown up under the long rule of the Conservatives.—Buffalo Express.

"The Canadian people wanted a change, it was their right. They shall have it, it will be their punishment." . . . . "Liberalism is victorious and it triumphs both on the religious and national ground. The person defeated is not Sir Charles Tupper, it is the Catholic Church, it is the French-Canadian nationality. In placing themselves by the side of our implacable enemies, the French-Canadians have pronounced their abdication."—Le Monde, (Bleu.)

Apart from the two great principles of the liberty of religious teaching, and of protection, which we shall not give up, we are indifferent as to the label of the party that shall be in power at Ottawa.—La Presse, (Bleu.)

The general elections have resulted in the defeat of the Government by a majority sufficient to place the Liberal success beyond a doubt. Five years ago Sir John Macdonald was returned to power by a majority of twenty-five, which the by-elections increased to between fifty and sixty. The most powerful Government we have ever had in Canada has declined in strength to such an extent that to-day it is beaten, and the party that has had the direction of affairs for eighteen years has been placed in opposition.—Ottawa Citizen (Conservative).

Conservatives and Liberals have alike joined in the work of repudiating the Government, in demanding a change, and now that they spoken and indicated plainly what they want, let us hope the corrupt clique will not stand upon the order of their going. The sooner they are out of office and the sooner their places are filled by Mr. Laurier and his associates, the sooner will peace and contentment appear in the land. For the deliverance wrought by the election the gods be praised.—Whig, Kingston.

Conservatives have done what their opponents had in vain tried to do during the past eighteen years, namely, defeated their own party. . . . . Of those Conservatives who have brought about the disaster we have no hard words to say. Their own reflections must be a worse punishment than any other that can be inflicted upon them. They have ruthlessly aided in tearing down the grand edifice built by Sir John A. Macdonald, because of a wholly insufficient motive. Now let them try to regain their senses and assist those who maintained it so long to rear it again, stronger and grander than ever.—Belleville Intelligencer (Conservative).

BASEBALL.

The Hardrocks, one of the junior baseball clubs of the town, in a return match with the Maple Leafs of the south end, gave them a Waterloo by a score of ten runs to seven at the end of five innings. The battery and lightning fielding of the Hardrocks did some telling work on the heavy batters of the south end team. For the Hardrocks Carleton, Cunningham, Zimmerman and Roberts helped to keep down the scores, and for the Maple Leafs Sawyers, Boyle and Glass were the stars. The teams played as follows:

Hardrocks.		Maple Leafs.
G Hayes	Catcher	Harold Dun-ford
W Hopkins	Pitcher	Eddie Sawers
R Zimmerman	1st base	G Glass
Ed Roberts	2nd base	G Boyle
Ed Simpson	3rd base	W Law
T Cunningham	Shortstop	B Shambo
H Carleton	Left field	G Lascheur
H Morgan	Centre	— Labby
F Pollard	Right field	— Sawyers

Batteries—Hopkins and Hayes, Hardrocks; Sawyers and Dunsford, Maple Leafs.

The Hardrocks will meet the west end team in the Central park this evening at seven o'clock sharp.

WHEEL SUPERSTITIONS.

Local wheelmen open to the influence of signs, omens, etc., should read the following list of bicycle superstitions collected by the Minneapolis Journal:

1. The wheelmen who allows a hearse to pass him will die before the year is out.
2. To be chased by a yellow dog with one blue eye and one black eye indicates a bad fall.
3. To see a small boy with a slung-shot beside the road is a prophecy of a puncture.
4. If you pass a white horse driven by a red haired lady, your rim will split unless you say "ossjandrum" and hold up two fingers.
5. The rider who expectorates tobacco juice on the track will lose a spoke.
6. If you take your machine to the repair shop it is a sign that you will not buy that new suit of clothes.
7. Kicking the man who asks the make of your wheel is a sign of high honours and riches before the year is out.
8. Leading the wheel is a sign of the double donkey.
9. To attempt to hold up a 275 pound woman learning to ride is the sign of a soft spot.

WEST PETERBOROUGH'S POSITION.

West Peterborough, by its vote of Tuesday last, has committed itself to the policy of Separate Schools for Manitoba, and in quarters where it was not expected. Mr. Kendry made that his platform and his platform has been accepted. For instance, South Monaghan gave Mr. Kendry a majority of 24, and North Monaghan a majority of 12, two places in which it was to be assumed that the pronunciation against Mr. Kendry's School plank would have been particularly emphatic, while the township of Ennismore, where it would have been supposed that Mr. Kendry's policy would have been particularly endorsed, only gave him a majority of eleven. Peterborough town very emphatically declared in favour of Mr. Kendry's position. Therefore it is to be fairly assumed that West Peterborough, as a whole, has committed itself emphatically to the policy of Separate Schools for Manitoba, that is, the great majority of the electors and the Conservative party. The fact is worth recording, in view of the circumstances that the beaten Conservative party is already preparing for a change of front—to attack Quebec and raise the cry of "French domination" and it is not unnatural to suppose that similmiar tactics will prevail elsewhere. West Peterborough has rendered its decision too emphatically to admit of any mistake being made in relation to its position on the Manitoba school question.

ECHOES OF THE FIGHT.

London election is to be protested.

The new House will meet on July 13th.

Douro helped Laurier's walk-over with a stick.

Sir Charles Tupper's "I" is a black eye now.

The nest of traitors holds only addled eggs.

Sir Mackenzie—Who's the "imbecils" now?

Three towers of strength—Laurier, Joly and Mowat.

The change has come, and the majority is growing.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell is enjoying his triumph now.

The old flag still waves, but the old man is under the waves.

The "history of Confederation" is laid upon the shelf.

It's too bad—the Cumberland war house turned out to grass.

Sir Oliver Mowat is booked as Minister of Justice in Mr. Laurier's Cabinet.

Up to date the Liberal majority over all is 28, Independents 8, Patrons 4. Total majority against the government, 52.

The Liberals of North Middlesex can now say "Rats" to their opponents.

It was a party named Henry that struck Billy Paterson—and with a loaded stick too.

Dr. Montague will now think that the slide was greased for the occasion with bonused butter.

The Cabinet Ministers who escaped the wreck of Tuesday will have to practice the virtues of resignation now.

Now Sir Charles Tupper has good reason to boast. When he says "'I' did it' his party will believe him.

The resignation of the Cabinet Ministers will constitute the greatest service they have ever done the country.

St. Lawrence Division, Montreal, has reversed the proverb—It's the good Penny, not the bad penny, that is returned.

The Douro picnic gold headed cane was promised to go with the premiership—the promise has been faithfully kept.

Laurier in French means "laurel", glory. The Premier-elect now wears the "laurel," and is crowned with glory and victory.

The Conservatives did a good deal of "funny" business in the several contests, but they are feeling far from funny now.

A true Tory "blue ruin prophesy"—"In seven days every factory in the country will be closed." Yes, that will be Dominion Day.

Sir Charles Tupper promised the Montreal Star a senatorship as the price of its independence, and now he can't "deliver the goods."

The Globe of to-day foots a capital cartoon, thus:—Bowell—"Well, Tupper, you have quite succeeded in welding the Cabinet into 'one harmonious hole.'"

The Conservatives are now blaming the Bishops of Quebec for issuing the mandament, and cursing the people of Quebec for not obeying the mandament.

Cumberland, the Conservative pasture-field that nourished the "Cumberland War Horse" has passed into the hands of a new tenant, a Liberal named Logan.

The Montreal Gazette forecast a majority of 31 for the Government. It was quite right in its figures but it made a mistake in the kind of Government.

The electorate has thrust the lance deep into the Tory party; but the wound will rid the party of a good deal of the corruption which has been poisoning it.—Hamilton Herald.

That the French Cabinet ministers, Taillon, Desjardins and Angers, men high in repute in Quebec, were defeated, is a wonderful tribute to the hold the Liberal leader has on his compatriots.

The Mail has said that this campaign would rank as the most mendacious on record. It will; and it will, the Montreal Herald says, also rank as the campaign in which the most lying produced the least results.

The Conservatives are considerably exercised as to the formation of Mr. Laurier's Cabinet; but who will lead the Conservative party now? Mackenzie Bowell could not have made a more conspicuous failure than Sir Charles Tupper.

In the late Parliament Conservatives had a majority in every one of the eight provinces of the Dominion, except Quebec and Prince Edward Island, while in these two the division was almost equal. To-day the Liberals have practically a majority in every province except New Brunswick.

The Toronto World, in rearranging the Ontario Cabinet, in view of Sir Oliver Mowat's retirement, and Hon. Mr. Hardy's promotion to the premiership, puts the portfolio of Crown Lands in the hands of Speaker Balfour, E. J. Davis, of York, or J. R. Stratton, of Peterborough.

Election in Algoma, June 30th, its pretty pretty sure to go Liberal—Government—its pretty hard after eighteen years to connect the Liberal party and the government, but the people have made the change.

400 Acre Farm FOR SALE.
IN SNOWDEN.
I WILL SELL AT A BARGAIN A 400 acre Farm in the Township of Snowden—very convenient—about half a lot from the Village of Gelert and Gelert Station. The property consists of lots 16, 17, 18, 19, in the 11th Con. less a strip of Lots 17, 18 and 19, through which runs the Victoria branch, of the Grand Trunk Railway. There are cleared on lot 16, 20 acres; on lot 17, 60 acres; on lot 18, 20 acres, and on lot 19, 25 acres, balance good hardwood bush and well timbered. Log House. Log Barn. The property is well watered by a branch of the Burnt River and would make an excellent farm for stock and grain and the Timber being convenient to the station can be sold at a good price or shipped as purchaser desires, and in the most profitable manner. It is close to school and church.
At a recent examination it is estimated that there are upon the four lots the following quantities of wood, etc.:—800 cords maple wood; 800 cords birch wood; 800 cords hemlock, balsam and soft wood; 2000 cedar ties; 2000 cedar posts; about 300 acres good farming land; 100 acres good pasture land. It is one of the best farms in the country for stock raising, pasture being always good.

A man's health carries him through the world. He depends on it for enjoyment, for happiness, for success, for the achievement of anything he has in hand. Americans take big chances. They risk everything in business. They have confidence in their brains and their ability. The American business man is active, flexible, elastic. Knock him down with failure and he is up again in a minute. As long as he keeps his health, failure doesn't mean anything to him. He has lost a little time, but that is all. If he can keep his health, he will go on to success. He feels sure of that, and yet his health is the very thing he neglects more than anything else. His health is the rope by which he climbs to success. It behooves him to keep the rope in good condition, and not to neglect broken strands. When the rope of health breaks even a little bit, it should be mended at once. It is easier to keep health than it is to regain it. When a man feels himself running down, when he realizes a loss of vitality and energy, he must call a halt. He is on a down grade. The strands of his rope are parting rapidly.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has helped thousands of men in just this condition. It makes health, it makes pure, rich blood, it forces out impurities and kills germs. It doesn't make any difference what name you call your trouble by—dyspepsia—kidney disease—rheumatism—consumption—skin disease, the "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure it absolutely. None of these diseases can retain hold on the body when it is full of rich, pure blood.

Every man who cares to keep his health should have Dr. Pierce's "Common Sense Medical Adviser"—a finely illustrated book of 1008 pages. Sent to any address on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover customs and mailing only. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

WHO WAS THIS MAN?

An Unknown Drowned in Lake Nipissing —Had the Appearance of a Hunter— Evidence of Suicide.

North Bay, June 23.—The body of an unknown man, aged 60 to 70 years, was found in the lake near Gormanville, one mile west of North Bay. He was about 5 feet 9 inches in height, stout, head bald, coat, overcoat and vest black, pants striped, blue guernsey and striped shirt. His upper teeth are missing. Two G.T.R. baggage checks, a gold watch, knife and broken silver chain were found on his person. The checks were taken to the C.P.R. Station, and found to be for one bag containing one tent, double-barrelled muzzle-loader shotgun, an axe, etc.; also one valise, containing a Bible, a quantity of men's clothing, clean and neatly packed; also thread, buttons and other camping utensils, including razor, etc. Coroner Doran had the body brought to North Bay for identification. In the pockets were also found stones which would weigh about 20 pounds, evidently put there with intent to commit suicide. His checks were marked Bracebridge, and he appeared to have been a hunter. There was no name on the clothing or on his person to lead to identification.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 22.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in this city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every druggstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

Weaning the Chicks.

It is usually very desirable for a hen to wean chickens when about four weeks old. Hens usually carry chickens until seven or eight weeks old, but if a warm roosting place is provided, a chicken is sufficiently strong to leave the hen when four weeks old, and it is to the interest of the poultry raiser to get the hens to laying again as soon as possible. If a hen shows no sign of weaning her chickens when four weeks old, one can wean them very easily by keeping them away from the hen a few days. I have always found it advisable to let the hen wean her chickens herself, which she will invariably do when they are about four weeks old, if she is placed on the same diet as the laying hens, as soon as she hatches, for as a rule hens wean their chickens as soon as they go back to laying, and if one will give plenty of meat and other egg-producing food, hens will resume laying and wean their chickens within four weeks after they hatch, and sometimes earlier.

As soon as the chicks are weaned they should be watched very closely and not allowed to wander off in the early mornings, or sleep in filthy places at night, for they are more subjected to diseases—such as sore head and roup—as they grow older than when young. During the spring months small chickens can roost out in the open air in the south, but in the north where the atmosphere is very chilly it is best to have a small house, with a small stove, and all weaned chickens should be made to roost in it until the weather gets warm, when we think it best to let them roost out in the fresh air.—Farm and Home.

Not many business houses in the United States can boast of fifty years' standing. The business of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., whose incomparable Sarsaparilla is known and used everywhere, has passed its half-centennial and was never so vigorous as at present.

For Weak Backs, Lame Backs, Painful Backs or any kind of Bad Backs, Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound is the Great Back Strengthener.

Wm. Rogers, 8 Ottawa Street, Toronto, Ont., writes:—"For a number of years I have been troubled with a lame back. Some of the doctors I consulted called it Lumbago; others, Kidney Disease. I received no benefit from their treatment. Nine months ago I was lucky enough to try Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound, and, after taking two or three bottles, the pain entirely left me, and I have had no return of it for 8 months now."

BISHOP OF NIAGARA.

The New Prelate Consecrated in St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, With Impressive Ceremonies.

Toronto, June 25.

Yesterday in St. James' Cathedral was witnessed a gathering such as has not been within its walls since that dreary winter day almost 29 years ago when the remains of Bishop Strachan were laid to rest.

Then the vast congregation gathered together came to mourn; yesterday they rejoiced; yet there was a tinge of sadness in their joy, for, though they were gladdened at the mark of confidence expressed by the Diocese of Niagara in electing Canon Dumoulin as its Bishop, they could not but feel sorry that the gain of Niagara would be a great loss to the congregation of St. James', where for nearly 15 years he has been rector.

Among the clergy present were the Most Reverend Archbishop Lewis of Ontario, the bishops of Toronto, Huron, Algoma and Ottawa; the deans of Huron and of Montreal, Archdeacons Bedford-Jones of Brockville, Houston of Niagara, Dixon of Guelph, Canon Cayley, Sweeny, Osler and Sutherland of Hamilton, who is always welcome in Toronto, where he has attained such popularity from his lectures on Shakespeare, delivered at Trinity University last winter; Rev. Provost Welch, Rev. Henry Scadding, D.D. (Cantab), at whose ordination, nearly 60 years since, there were only two Anglican bishops in the whole of what is now the Dominion of Canada; Revs. Charles Ruttan, J. C. Mockridge, Professors Clark, Cayley and Huntingford, C. E. Thomson, J. P. Lewis, John Pearson, John Langtry, W. E. Cooper and scores of others. Among the lay representatives were: Messrs. Budham, R. Stanley, Dr. Ridley, J. J. Mason, W. Burton, W. F. Davis, all from Niagara; Hon. G. W. Allan, R. N. Gooch, Lieut.-Col. Grasett, D. Kemp and others.

The sermon was preached by the Very Rev. Dean Carmichael of Montreal, who took as his text Luke xix., 17, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." The sermon treated of the authority exercised by the ministry, and why God had given an episcopate to the church. Bishops should be "leaders of thought, moulders of thought, fathers in God."

Turning towards the bishop-elect, the eloquent dean thus concluded his sermon: "Brother, friend and companion of more than 30 years, what shall I say to you? Over our friendship not a single cloud has ever flecked its way. What can I say? Nothing. As men rudely and roughly love one another, you know our hearts beat as one together to-day. The whole heart of the church goes with you, its love, its prayers, its praises. Every hope that brother man can give brother man goes with you; every prayer is made for you. Father in God, leader, guide, the church salutes you. All hearts salute you. All the faithful in the church of God salute you. May God fill all your needs for Jesus Christ's sake."

Then followed the rest of the consecration service, the Litany being intoned by the Venerable Archdeacon Jones. It was beautifully done, and the whole scene was touching and solemn; the vast building filled with a kneeling multitude, and no other sound than that of the clergyman as he uttered the petitions; then came the musical response, "We beseech Thee to hear us, Good Lord."

The prayer of consecration followed, and the rector of St. James' rose from his knees the Bishop of Niagara. The communion office was partly choral, the singing being exceptionally good.

The service came to an end at 1.05, and immediately afterwards the Archbishop had to leave for Kingston.

MANY FAKES WERE WORKED.

Here is One That Caught the Canadians Employed in Buffalo.

Buffalo, N.Y., June 24.—The following letter, furnished by W. H. Moyer, is pronounced by Inspector DeBarry to be an outrageous forgery. Many Canadians have received such letters, and there is not a little indignation expressed:

"Buffalo, June 20, 1896: My Dear Sir,—I have received a list of names of parties who work in this state and are about going to Canada to vote in the coming Dominion elections; your name appears on this list.

"Now, I would advise you to remain where you are, as steps will be taken to prohibit your returning to New York State, should you go to Canada and cast your vote at this election. Yours very sincerely, J. DeBarry."

The letter was written on thin English linen paper, with a heraldry emblem of royalty woven in that could be seen when held up to the light. The exhibit in the possession of the inspector is of mimograph work, and the signature and general tone pronounce it to be of Canadian concoction.

THEY LOST THE CATHOLIC VOTE.

The Hamilton Machine Catered to It Without the Desired Effect.

Hamilton, June 24.—(Special.)—Politics was about the only thing discussed in this city all day, everybody looking buoyant or sad, according to their political leanings, but general surprise was felt at the overthrow of the Government, and the election of two Reformers in this city. For eighteen years Hamilton has been represented by Conservatives, and had the machine placed two men in the field pledged against the coercion of Manitoba, they would have been elected, but the machine catered for the Catholic vote. The Conservatives felt confident of victory on this account, figuring on getting 90 per cent. of the Catholic vote, but, strange to say, it appears they did not get 20 per cent. of that vote. The Orange vote went pretty solidly for Wood and Macpherson, although there were many plumpers for Mr. Boville, Mr. Barker getting Catholic plumpers, which evened things up. A telegram from A. T. Wood announces that he will sail for home on July 1.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

A St. Catharines Contractor Met Instant Death Near Hamilton.

Hamilton, June 24.—(Special.)—William McMichal, a St. Catharines contractor on the Hamilton Radial Electric Railway, was instantly killed last night about midnight, while driving over the Grand Trunk near the H.J.C. grounds. He was driving to the Beach from the city, and evidently did not see the train approaching from the east. He was right on the centre of the track when the engine struck him, killing him and the horse and smashing the buggy to pieces. The remains were removed to the Morgue at the City Hospital, and after an inquest had opened were sent to St. Catharines.

William Smith, 190 Maria-street, was arrested by Joe Carrol, a Grit worker, shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, charged with attempted impersonation.

Letters Come.

Letters come day by day telling us that this person has been cured of dyspepsia, that person of Bad Blood, and another of Headache, still another of Biliousness, and yet others of various complaints of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood, all through the intelligent use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

It is the voice of the people recognizing the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood.

Mr. T. G. Ludlow, 334 Colborne Street, Brantford, Ont., says: During seven years prior to 1886, my wife was sick all the time with violent headaches. Her head was so hot that it felt like burning up. She was weak, run down, and so feeble that she could hardly do anything, and so nervous that the least noise startled her. Night or day she could not rest and life was a misery to her. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment for her but she steadily grew worse until I bought six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters from C. Stork & Son, of Brampton, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. Ludlow took four out of the six bottles—there was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every ailment from which she had suffered, and she enjoyed the most vigorous health. That five dollars saved me lots of money in medicine and attendance thereafter, and better than that it made home a comfort to me.

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

An expert is responsible for the opinion that the heart of a cyclist accomplishes in twenty-four hours a task equal to lifting 100 tons one foot from the earth.

One of the most interesting personages to be seen in the Paris Bois is the popular Meta "Gyp." Mounted on her well-groomed thoroughbred, she dashes along the bridlepaths at a very lively gait. Her habit is a modest dark gray, double-breasted jacket, quite long, with a ripple back, and the dark gray skirt is short and is scant as possible.

Out in California Miss Frankie Lane is the woman of the hour, and that in spite of the diminutive ending of her first name. She is of Oakland. She is twenty-one years of age and is already a lawyer, an orator and a politician. Perhaps when she is older and her mental energies are less widely diffused, she will be fewer things, but just at present she is probably more interesting than she will ever be again. She has just been admitted to the bar. She is a Populist of the most ardent type, and she speaks at Populist meetings.

There seems to be a great deal of uncertainty existing as to the pecuniary part which a bridegroom takes in his own wedding. At a recent very swell affair the two young people about to be united in the holy bands of wedlock sat down deliberately and totaled up the entire expenses of the wedding—they amounted to a large sum, to be sure—and then divided them evenly between the two men—the father and the groom. In point of fact, and as a matter of good taste, he should pay only for the carriage which takes the bridal couple from the church and to the station, with all the fees incidental to a church wedding and the gifts of flowers and jewelry to the ushers and bridesmaids. This ought to be his sole money outlay, besides his present to the bride herself. 'Tis expenses come afterward.

Now one of the first questions I have been asked in regard to these rays is this: "How did you obtain a light so intense that you could take a photograph through a board an inch thick?" The answer is this: The light is not intense to the eye. It does not appear as bright as that of a fire-fly; indeed, it cannot be seen on the darkest night at a distance of 300 feet. Yet a candle can be distinguished on a similar night at least a mile. But the rays of a candle are entirely cut off from a photographic plate by a sheet of pasteboard a 16th of an inch thick, or even less. The cathode rays are intense, however, to the photographic plate, which can be termed the photographic eye.—Prof. John Trowbridge, in Scribner's

The reporter everywhere, but more particularly in America, has of late grown to feel that he is an extremely important factor in contemporary affairs. And he is right; he is extremely important. He is the most representative figure in the literature of the actuality—using the word literature just here because there is none other to take its place. He is at the centre of the situation. He is important because he embodies the most active forces of the hour; because he is their tool; their vehicle; not because he more thoroughly knows or more faithfully portrays life than others As a matter of fact he is as much a victim of conventions as the literary theorist and dreamer who beholds it only as it shows through his study window. Sometimes he is more so. The medium in which he works imposes fixed restrictions and distinct limitations upon him. And he comes to conceive all of life chiefly as it may serve his purpose and be made to fit into those limitations.—Aline Gorren in Scribner's.

In a recent London magazine Miss Christable Coleridge, the authoress, gives some advice concerning the formation of a girl's library. At the head of her list stands the Waverley Novels. Then comes Kingsley's Westward Ho! Miss Yonge's Dove in the Eagle's Nest, John Inglesant, which is not, perhaps, quite a "girl's book," but is full of suggestions for thoughtful girls. Under the Southern Cross is a much less known work, which owes its inspiration to Westward Ho! but it is very interesting and one of the highest aim. Girls are also advised to read the collection of fairy tales edited by Mr. Andrew Lang, and, of course, that universal favorite, Alice in Wonderland, is also mentioned, and Little Women appropriately finds a place in the list. Among living authors who write specially for girls, the following are named: Miss Peard, Evelyn Everett Green, Sarah Doudney, Annie Swan, Helen Shipton, Miss Bramston, Mrs. Marshall, Hesba Stretton, Mrs. Meade and Mrs. Walford. For stiffer reading, Carlyle, Ruskin and White, or Shelborne are recommended, and in poetry Shakespeare, Scott and Tennyson.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

BERRY BULLETIN.

What M. A. Thayer Has to Say to Fruit Culturists This Month.

The first growth of a plant should be its best. Keep the ground moist and mellow by frequent cultivation.

This work warms the soil, starts the plants early, makes plant food more available, and lessens the liability of injury by frost, drouth or insect pests.

Frequent cultivation conserves moisture, holds it near the surface, where it is of most value to plants and allows moisture from light showers and dews to penetrate more deeply.

Weeds are robbers of all the best elements of plant life and should not be tolerated in the garden.

Potatoes or other vegetables may be grown between bush berries the first season, but never any crop to shade the ground.

Stimulate rapid growth by liberal top dressing of fine manure and good ashes.

Success in the garden or field depends much on good care in the beginning.

Now is the time to give best attention.

Have no missing hills. If plants have failed to grow, set new ones in their places at once.

Much labor is often lost by this neglect, and profits for several years reduced.

Plants well cared for should give more than 100 per cent. profit. Neglect them and both time and money are wasted.

Value them for the dimes and dollars they will produce, not by the pennies and nickels they cost.

To secure large, nice fruit, severe pruning is necessary. New growth on both old and new currants and gooseberries should be cut back and old wood in center of bush removed. Laterals on black raspberries cut back one-third or one-half. Remove all weak canes and broken branches.

The ideal bush should be round or oval in form, stocky, and pruned to admit free circulation of air.

Currants are often injured by the borer. The egg is deposited about June 1, and as soon as hatched, the young borer eats its way into the pith and feeds on the life of the plant.

As soon as the leaves start, the affected canes, which now have a black center are easily discovered by their sickly appearance, and should be cut out and burned at once.

Feed the Nerves

Upon pure, rich blood and you need not fear nervous prostration. Nerves are weak when they are improperly and insufficiently nourished. Pure blood is their proper food, food, and pure blood comes by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is thus the greatest and best nerve tonic. It also builds up the whole system.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic, easy to take, easy to operate.

A Kitchen Wash-Stand.

Necessity is said to be the mother of invention, but out of desperation we evolved an improvised kitchen washstand. The size of the stand will need to be regulated according to the size of pail used. One large enough for a large sized candy bucket would be two feet high, exclusive of castors, and two feet square. A lid attached to the back with hinges answers both the purpose of lid and splasher; may also contain pockets for sponges and combs.

A shelf six inches from the top of the box or stand divides it into two compartments, the lower to contain the slop-pail, the upper the washbasin, soap, dishes and other toilet a a, pockets for sponges or wash cloths; b, pocket for combs; c c c c, receptacles in each corner for toilet bottles, tooth brushes, nail brushes and soap; d, shelf room enough to contain folded towels; e, opening in shelf where wash-basin rests and through which waste water reaches the pail; f, door where pail is removed when emptied.

articles. This shelf contains a round hole in the center where the basin rests, and through which the waste water can be emptied into the pail.

A door in front large enough for the bucket to pass through, can be closed either with a curtain or door—preferably a door. A common storebox, fitted with shelf, lid and door, is all that is required. Where there are men handy with tools, a much nicer stand can be obtained. A good finish of paint adds to its appearance and durability, as it can be set on the kitchen stoop during the summer months.—Fanny Love, in Ohio Farmer.

ONE HONEST MAN

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P O. CAMERONIAN DREAM.

The following tributary verses to the memory of those who fell at Airsmoss were written by James Hislop, a native of the district where the skirmish took place. He composed them only when a shepherd boy and when he had enjoyed very few opportunities of improving his mind. The version here given is an exact transcript of the poem in the Scots Magazine for February, 1831. These lines were repeated by Rev. A. McMillan, of Toronto, during his lecture in St. Paul's church here, last spring, on the "Scottish Covenanters."

In a dream of the night I was wafted away
To the moorland of mist where the martyrs lay;
Where Cameron's sword and his Bible are seen,
Engraved on the stone where the heather grows green.

'Twas a dream of those ages of darkness and blood,
When the minister's hame was the mountain and wood;
When in Wellwood's dark moorlands the standard of Zion,
All bloody and torn, 'mang the heather was lying.

It was morning, and summer's young sun from the east
Lay in loving repose on the green mountain's breast.
On Wardlaw and Cairn-Table the clear-shining dew
Glistened sheen 'mang the heath-bells and mountain flowers blue.

And far up in heaven, in the white sunny cloud
The song of the lark was melodious and loud,
And in Glenmuir's wild solitude, lengthened and deep,
Was the whistling of plovers and bleating of sheep.

And Wellwood's sweet valley breathed music and gladness,
The fresh meadow blooms hung in beauty and redness,
Its daughters were happy to hail the returning,
And drink the delights of green July's bright morning.

But ah! there were hearts cherished for other feelings,
Illumed by the light of prophetic revealings,
Who drank from the scenery of beauty but sorrow,
For they knew that their blood would bedew it to morrow.

'Twas the few faithful ones who, with Cameron, were lying Concealed 'mang the mist, where the heath-fowl was crying;
For the horsemen of Earshall around them were hovering,
And their bridle reins hang through the thin misty covering.

Their faces grew pale and their swords were unsheathed,
But the vengeance that darkened their brows was unbreathed;
With eyes raised to Heaven, in meek resignation,
They sang their last song to the God of Salvation.

The hills with the deep mournful music were ringing,
The curlew and plover in concert were singing;
But the melody died 'midst derision and laughter,
As the hosts of ungodly rushed on to the slaughter.

Though in mist and in darkness and fire they were shrouded,
Yet the souls of the righteous were calm and unclouded;
Their dark eyes flashed lightning, as, proud and unbending,
They stood like the rock which the thunder is rending.

The muskets were flashing, the blue swords were gleaming,
The helmets were cleft, and the red blood was streaming,
The heavens grew dark, and the thunder was rolling,
When in Wellwood's dark moorlands the mighty was falling.

When the righteous had fall'n, and the combat had end-d,
A chariot of fire through the dark cloud descended;
The drivers were angels on horses of white-ness,
And its turning wheels turned upon axles of brightness.

A seraph unfolded its door bright and shining,
All dazzling like gold of the seventh refining,
And the souls that came forth out of great tribulation
Have mounted the chariot and steeds of salvation.

On the arch of the rainbow the chariot is gliding,
Through the paths of the thunder the horsemen are riding;
Glide swiftly, bright spirits! the prize is before ye,
A crown never fading, a kingdom of glory!

Notwithstanding a few obvious blemishes this poem is very remarkable, when we remember that it was written by an almost uneducated lad.

RAN ON THE ROCKS.

Steamer Capulet Wrecked at Marine Cove, Nfld.

ALL ESCAPED WITH THEIR LIVES

But the Cabin Passengers Lost All Their Effects—All on Board Taken Off in the Lifeboats—Picked Up by a Fishing Schooner After Drifting Some Time.

St. John, N.B., June 24.—The British steamer Capulet, Captain Ellis, which was wrecked on the Newfoundland coast on Monday, while on the passage from Liverpool, struck the rocks on Marine Cove, St. Mary's Bay, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Though a dense fog hung over the water, the Capulet was running at full speed when the accident occurred, and it was impossible to reverse her engines quickly enough to prevent her being damaged beyond repair. She ran upon a shelving bed of rock, crushing her bows and tearing out her bottom, and it became evident immediately that she would be at total wreck. The greatest confusion prevailed when the steamer struck, and the female passengers in the first cabin, 18 in number, were badly frightened. Most of them were suffering from seasickness and had retired to their berths and lied to the deck, attired only in their sleeping garments.

As soon as the nature of the disaster was learned a box of rockets was carried to the ship's bridge for the purpose of signalling for assistance. A shipwrecked Norwegian captain, who was among the passengers, took it upon himself to discharge the rockets, and while preparing to do so accidentally set fire to the whole lot, which exploded, inflicting dangerous wounds upon the Norwegian and seriously injuring four of the other passengers. The explosion also dismantled the bridge, tore a hole in the deck and nearly destroyed a lifeboat. Eventually order was restored and four lifeboats were launched.

The women passengers were stowed in the first and the crew and the rest of the passengers in the other three, and as soon as all on board had been taken from the steamer the boats pushed off. The passengers saved nothing but the clothing they wore. Only nine bags of mail matter were saved of the 63 on board. All the bags containing letters and registered parcels were lost. This mail constituted a fortnight's accumulations—the whole of the American and Canadian mail for the entire Island of Newfoundland. The loss is practically a colonial calamity, as it will seriously hamper business. Large sums of money, including remittances from Newfoundland emigrants to relatives at home, were included in the mail. The ship's company were out of the vessel within three minutes after she struck. The fog was intense, but the sea was fairly smooth.

The ship's bottom was beginning to open when the boats left her, and the cargo was being washed out by the waves. The boats cruised about seeking some place to land, but the whole of the coast in the vicinity is precipitous the cliffs in many places being 20 ufeet high, and the surf breaking at their feet made landing impossible. After two hours' rowing two passengers, Lieut. Bartlett of the British Navy, and a man named Taylor of Halifax, swam ashore in a cove to search for a landing place. They climbed to the top of the cliffs, but found it impossible to get back. They separated and traveled away from each other, following the top of the rocks in the hope of finding an opening.

In the meantime they lost sight of the boats, which drifted seaward, the wind being off land. At nightfall the boats sighted the fishing schooner Hero, which took them on board and conveyed them to St. Mary's, reaching that place at midnight. Mr. Taylor, one of the men who swam ashore, after tramping several hours, found a fisherman, and they started for a search for Mr. Bartlett. Mr. Taylor and his guide then started for St. Mary's to report the wreck, and seek assistance, having found Bartlett, who agreed to remain on watch and endeavor to sight the boats or procure help for them from passing craft. Taylor walked 15 miles to his destination, reaching there just as the other passengers and the crew were arriving. Bartlett remained on the cliff all night and followed his companion next day.

The steamer Grand Lake left here Tuesday and reached St. Mary's at midnight. She embarked the party there and sailed for the scene of the wreck, which was reached at daybreak this morning. Captain Ellis, who is overseeing the salvage operations, reported to-day that the ship was fast breaking to pieces, and that the cargo was floating ashore. The Grand Lake continued to Placentia and transferred the shipwrecked passengers to a train, by which they reached St. John's at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The passengers are in a wretched plight, especially the ladies, several of whom were bound on European tours, which they will be forced to abandon, owing to the loss of their wardrobes. The passengers and crew regard the loss of the vessel at midday on a calm sea as inexcusable and seafaring men of the vicinity concur in this opinion. Public feeling is very strong over the loss of the mails, which, according to most of the persons aboard the steamer, could easily have been saved. The Capulet was owned by Bowring & Co. of St. John's, and was worth between $75,000 and $100,000. She left Halifax last Saturday night, carrying 25 passengers and 32 crew. Captain Ellis has had 20 years' experience as a shipmaster and this is the only vessel he ever lost. Marine cove is a perfect graveyard for steamers, a large number having been lost there in recent years.

THEY WILL RESIGN

And Mr. Laurier May Get to Work Early Next Week

IN THE FORMATION OF HIS CABINET

Conservative Politicians Think on the Ground at the Capital—A Guess as to the Probable Composition of the Coming Cabinet—Other Political News.

Ottawa, June 25.—(Special.)—At to-day's meeting of the Cabinet the political situation was thoroughly discussed and conclusion reached that as soon as certain routine business was disposed of the Ministers will tender their resignations to His Excellency. This business will only take a day or two, so that by Monday or Tuesday or next week Mr. Laurier will be engaged in the task of forming his Cabinet. Constitutional practice would have justified the Government in meeting Parliament, but of late years in England this course has not been followed. In '78 also in Canada, it will be remembered, Mr. Mackenzie submitted to the inevitable within one month of polling and the new Ministry was thus able to meet Parliament. In like manner, therefore, it will be with Mr. Laurier, that is, provided he and his colleagues are back again from their constituents. On this point the law is explicit. Members of the new Government who have seats in the Commons must be re-elected on accepting office and the contention put forward to-day does not hold good.

The Ministers present in town to-day were Tupper, Foster, Dickey, Angers, Taillon, Desjardins, Haggart, Wood and Montague. The absentees were Smith, Costigan, Macdonald, Prior, Tisdale, Ferguson and Ross, but most of these will be here by Saturday.

When Sir Charles was asked to-night whether any appointments would be made before the Government resigned he said he could not say, but his manner and a remark which he made to your correspondent implied that such might be looked for. These, however, are not likely to be of a very important character. Sir Charles pointed out that the English precedent allowed a retiring Government to make appointments. But one inference can be drawn from this statement.

Conservative politicians were thick on the ground to-day. They were mostly from Ontario and Quebec, however. Among them were Dr. Roddick, member-elect for St. Antoine Division, Mr. Quinn, who defeated Mr. McShane in Montreal Centre, J.A. Kendry, member-elect for West Peterboro, and John Carnegie, ex-M.L.A., Dr. Roome, ex-M.P., J. H. Marshall, ex-M.P., Andy Ingram, M.P., George Taylor, M.P., Darby Bergin, M.P., W. J. Poupore, M.P., and others.

Charley Devlin, member-elect for Wright, was the only Liberal member in town. He was greatly in evidence on Sparks-street, where his Cabinet Minister's attire was very noticeable.

Ottawa Liberal politicians are being simply deluged with applications for their influence to secure positions on the hill. These include not only permanent and temporary appointments in the public service, but also such situations as translatorships, sessional clerkships and messengerships. In the Senate and Commons the retiring Government recognized that Ottawa, however, was not entitled to monopolize these and that outside constituencies were entitled to a share of them.

Ex-Senator Guevremont has been appointed postmaster of Sorel.

THE CABINET SLATE.

Liberals of Ottawa Have Been Calculating the Probabilities.

The Cabinet slate, acording to the guessing in Liberal circles, assigns the portfolios as follows:

Premier and President of Privy Council, Mr. Laurier.

Justice, Sir Oliver Mowat.

Finance, Sir Richard Cartwright.

Trade and Commerce, Mr. Paterson.

Public Works, Sir H. G. Joly.

Agriculture, Mr. S. A. Fisher.

Railways, Mr. L. H. Davies.

Interior, Mr. Clifford Sifton.

Postmaster-General, Mr. R.W. Scott.

Secretary of State, Mr. L. J. Tarte.

Marine and Fisheries, Mr. D. C. Fraser.

Militia, Mr. Borden or Mr. Flint.

Controller of Customs, Mr. William Mulock.

Solicitor-General, Mr. C. A. Geoffrion.

Without portfolios, Hon. D. Mills with seat in Senate; Senator McInnes, British Columbia.

The Speaker of the House of Commons will be a French-Canadian and the Speaker of the Senate an English-speaking man. There are very few Liberals in the Senate, and it is likely, therefore, that Senator Power will have the offer of the Speakership of the Senate, now that a portfolio is conceded to Mr. Scott.

When Parliament prorogued, there was only one vacancy in the Senate, caused by the death of Senator Kaulbach (Lunenburg, N.S.). All the vacancies for the provinces were filled up the day of prorogation. Since that time Senator Desjardins resigned to run in Richelieu and Senator Angers also resigned to contest Quebec Centre. These two resignations, along with the vacancy for Nova Scotia, make only three vacant seats in the Upper Chamber.

Davin Squeezes In.

Regina, June 25.—The latest returns from Assiniboia give Davin (Con.) a majority of 2.

McNeill Gets the Seat.

Wiarton, June 25.—Full returns from North Bruce reverse the election in that constituency, McNeill, the Conservative, being now returned by 10 majority.

A Recount Sure!

Uptergrove, Ont., June 25.—The latest and full returns give Mr. Graham (Ind.) a majority of one in North Ontario. Atherly gave Mr. Graham 78 majority instead of 77 as reported.

THE ENGLISH PRESS

Make Further Comments on the Result of the Canadian Elections

London, June 25.—The Pall Mall Gazette, commenting upon the result of the Canadian election, says: "Since the death of Sir John Macdonald, the Conservative party in Canada has been losing its grip upon the electors, but its present fall is ascribed to the virulent animosity engendered by a religious and educational issue."

The Globe says: "If any Americans look to Wilfrid Laurier to betray his country, they are doomed to disappointment."

The St. James' Gazette regrets the result, and thinks that Sir Charles Tupper's pluck deserves a better fate. Continuing, the paper says: "The Liberals were perfectly loyal to the Imperial connection, yet they called dangerously with reciprocity with the United States. The Conservatives were the keenest for the establishment of a commercial zollverein among the various parts of the British Empire. The Americans are rapidly beating us out of the Canadian markets, and Mr. Laurier and his friends will not stop the process. The project to unite Canada, Great Britain and Australia by a line of fast subsidized steamers is not likely to be pushed with much vigor." The Gazette believes that Mr. Laurier is an able man and a sincere patriot, but thinks that his tenure of office is not likely to last long.

Referring to the results of the elections in Canada on Tuesday, The Times says the Liberals have achieved a decisive victory. The Daily News calls it a great upheaval, and adds that the Conservatives have been smitten hip and thigh. The Chronicle says that by this decisive election Canadians have shaken themselves free from the grip of the clerical protection party. Sir Mackenzie Bowell, when seen this morning, said the news came to him as an unpleasant surprise. Hon. Edward Blake, M.P., said the result was not unexpected by him. Mr. Sandford Fleming, C.M.G., who is here with Sir Mackenzie Bowell as a delegate to the Pacific Cable Conference, said he looked to the Government being sustained, and that the news of the Liberal victory was to him a genuine surprise. Many anti-remedialists here express the greatest satisfaction with the result of the elections. Shippers look for an improvement in trade.

The Canada Company has declared a dividend of 10 shillings per cent. The business for the half year, compared with the corresponding period in 1895 shows an increase in the land value of the company of 9 per cent.

A Banquet in Cuba.

Havana, June 25.—Gen. Bradley T. Johnson gave a banquet last evening in honor of the United States Consul-General, Fitzhugh Lee. Among the guests were the correspondents in Havana of The London Times, the Madrid and the New York newspapers, and the editors of the local press. The affair was of an elaborate, but informal character, and there were no speeches. While the banquet was in progress a police officer notified W. W. Gay, correspondent of The New York World, that by order of the Government he would be required to leave the island.

The Miners' Strike at Leadville.

Leadville, Col., June 25.—The closing down of the mines and the silence of the operators is now accepted by the Miners' Union as a determined policy to ignore the strike by a concerted action to lock out the miners. The union is holding secret meetings and admits that the contest will be a long struggle.

Mr. Gladstone Writes on the Situation.

THE MASSACRE OF ARMENIANS

Fifteen of Them Were Slain at Van Last Week—Russia Protests Against the Sale of Her Young Men to Foreign Armies—Other Cable News.

London, June 25.—The Chronicle will to-morrow publish a letter from Mr. Gladstone on the subject of the Armenians, in which he says: "Nobody uses language half strong enough against the Sultan and his agents. To describe their guilt is beyond all bounds, and the language ought to go beyond all bounds. My choice is between far out-Herodingeverybody and absolute silence, for my language abstractedly might plausibly be ascribed to temper, whereas it would be perfectly cold-blooded. I am silent only for fear of doing harm. The European mind wants plausible excuses to cover its disgrace. I do not wish to furnish them."

The Constantinople correspondent of The Chronicle telegraphs that the Armenian losses during the recent rioting at Van are estimated to have been 1500 killed while the Turks' loss was 200. The despatch adds that the Kurds are gathering from all directions for the purposes of thieving.

RUSSIA MAKES A PROTEST.

She Doesn't Want Her Young Men Sold Into Other Armies.

St. Petersburg, June 25.—The Cabinet has addressed a strong note to Berlin, protesting against the action of the German agents of English and Hollandish colonial armies in luring Russian youths across the frontier with promises of money, in order to sell them to foreign recruiting masters.

The price paid is usually 20 marks, and numerous cases are on record where Russian parents conducted the arrangements in the selling of their sons to the highest bidder.

MISSED THE GUILLOTINE.

The French Murderer Tremblie Will Spend His Life in Prison.

Paris June 25.—The sentence of death passed at Douai upon the Frenchmen Raoul Tremblie, who was convicted of the murder in Buenos Ayres of another Frenchman named Francois Farbos, has been commuted to penal servitude for life. The motive of the crime, which was committed two years ago, was robbery. The body of the murdered man was cut into a dozen pieces and scattered about the City of Buenos Ayres. Tremblie fled to France, but the authorities at Buenos Ayres, who had traced the murder to him, cabled for his arrest, and upon his arrival at Dunkirk he was taken into custody. His victim having been a Frenchman, Tremblie was tried at the Douai Assizes and convicted. He was sentenced to be guillotined, but appealed and was granted a new trial, but was again found guilty and condemned to death.

Four New Cardinals.

Rome, June 25.—The Pope held a public consistory to-day, at which the four prelates who were elevated to the cardinalate on June 22 received their hats. The new cardinals are Mgrs. Ferrata, Cretoni, Jacobini and Agliardi, respectively papal nuncios at Paris, Madrid, Lisbon and Vienna.

The Trouble in Crete.

London, June 25.—In the House of Commons to-day Rt. Hon. George N. Curson, Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, stated that the representatives of the powers at Constantinople were in entire accord as regards Crete and had jointly urged the Porte to maintain order in that island.

BLAZE AT PENETANGUISHENE.

Tessier's Planing Mill and Sash and Door Factory Reduced to Ashes.

Penetanguishene, June 25.—A disastrous fire occurred here about 11 o'clock to-day, when the large planing mill and sash and door factory of Mr. A. Tessier was totally destroyed. The fire is supposed to have originated by a spark from the furnace flying into the planing room, when instantly the whole place was ablaze. So rapidly did the fire spread that the workmen in the second storey had to escape through the windows.

Contractor Gets His Deposit.

Toronto, June 26.

Contractor W. H. Jones tendered for some street paving for the town of Barrie. When he sent his tender it was accompanied by a deposit of $200. He afterwards discovered a discrepancy between his tender and the specifications and withdrew his offer. The town refused to return the deposit. He sued, and yesterday Judge Morgan gave a verdict in his favor for $200 and costs.

Sudden Death at Waterloo.

Waterloo, June 25.—About 12 o'clock last night Mr. Thomas Harris died very suddenly of apoplexy at his boarding place, the Zimmerman House. Deceased was 66 years old and a bachelor, coming from England a great many years ago. He settled in Galt, where he was assistant in the postoffice. He afterwards came to Waterloo with Joseph E. Seagram, M.P., as his assistant bookkeeper, a position he has faithfully held for 23 years.

A Vanderbilt Road.

New York, June 25.—Articles of consolidation of the Malone & St. Lawrence Railway and the St. Lawrence & Adirondack Railway were to day filed with the County Clerk. The company will have a capital stock of $500,000. The second-named company is organized under the laws of Canada and has the greater part of its line in Quebec Province, and the officers of the consolidated road will be in Montreal. William Seward Webb is President and Chauncey M. Depew Vice-President.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1896.

MR. LAURIER'S TARIFF REFORM ATTITUDE.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier showed during the campaign that he was sincere in his public utterances, having the same things to say in sections where different appeals would have ensured pro tempore popularity. He gave the assurance that his policy of tariff reform would be gradual and of a character that would produce no revolutionary results—the business interests affected by the tariff were to have due consideration. Now that he is in power, with the opportunity of carrying his policy into effect, he maintains the same attitude, one calculated to allay the apprehensions of those who have vested interests and who might still be inclined to believe the calumnies to the effect that the advent of the Liberals to power would mean the destruction of the industries of the country. Mr. Laurier expressed himself on this subject to the Montreal Witness, and said :—

'I wish to impress upon the readers of the Witness, and upon the whole country,' said Mr. Laurier, speaking with much impressiveness, 'that the Liberal party is the party of reform, and not of revolution. The principles of the party have been before the country for years, and I need not go into a formal statement of them. We have said again and again that we stood for reform and not for revolution. If the slightest apprehension is still felt by any person having investments in the country, or engaged in the development of industries and manufactures, I wished to state that that apprehension may be at once allayed. The Liberal party has no thought of doing anything violently. Anything that will be done in the way of reforming the tariff will be done gradually, and with a due regard to all vested interests, which, in so far as any one of them will be in any way affected will receive ample notification. We shall proceed with caution, carefully considering every step we take, and assuredly it is far from our thought to produce the smallest dislocation or disruption. I wish to impress this upon the country, to reassure all parties as to the attitude of Liberal party in the premises. There will not be a single act of violence as far as any industry is concerned, and whatever changes it may be deemed advisable to make will only be made in the most gradual way, and these will be in the interests of all."

Of course an assurance positive and quasi official should be satisfactory to all who are disposed to be satisfied with reasonable conditions. But there are some, led by party organs of the penny whistle calibre who take a gloomy view. We read of this industry and that closing its doors. This is perhaps done for effect. There are many manufacturing establishments, which have doubtless been running at a loss during the election campaign, that are glad to close down temporarily, and there are other establishments that for years have been running spasmodically, closing down at frequent intervals in order to prevent an accumulation of stock that a restricted market could not absorb. But no industry that was solidly established, that was not running from hand to mouth, is, in the slightest degree, affected by the result of the elections. No; manufacturing industries have nothing to fear from the advent of a Liberal Government. What legitimate consideration they are entitled to they will receive and all manufactories will be assisted by the establishment of an equitable relation between the tariff upon the manufactured products and that upon the raw material they use.

No; the country has nothing to fear, but much to hope from Hon. Mr. Laurier. He is a patriotic Canadian, true to British connection, but conspicuously loyal to his native land. And it will be his aim to take a course that will both tend to national unification in sentiment, and to promote the material interests of the country.

Windsor Salt for Table and Dairy—Purest and Best

BRITISH PRESS OPINION.

The British journals size up the situation arising out of Tuesday's election, on the whole, pretty accurately. The London Times has the following graceful tribute to the Premier Elect of Canada :

"We are glad to see a man of the French race (Mr. Wilfrid Laurier) Premier of the Dominion, because it is another conspicuous token of the solidarity of the two races beneath the British flag."

On the subject of the Canadian tariff, the Times says :

"No very sweeping changes are to be expected. Still, any changes that are introduced are likely to be in the direction of the assimilation with the tariff of the Mother Country. There have been periods when the sentiments of the Canadian Liberals towards Great Britain were believed to be more than cold. But all hesitation has since passed away. The new Premier and his adherents are as unimpeachable in their loyalty to England as their Conservative rivals."

Regarding the "Thunderer's" remark as to sentiments of Liberals being more than cold, we, who know all the inner facts, know that such a reputation is entirely undeserved. The Liberals in Canada have always had a warm heart towards the Motherland, and that any other attitude should have been attributed to Canada is due to the slanders of the Conservative party who, while trafficing in their loyalty, have not, to magnify their own loyalty, hesitated to asperse that of the Liberals. It is to Conservatives that we owe a tariff that discriminates against the products of the Mother Country, and it is to Liberals that Great Britain will owe the removal of such an undutiful and disloyal anomoly. Honest men do not need to boast of their honesty, and while Liberals are loyal they have not felt called upon to parade a sentiment whose fittest form of expression is deeds, not words.

IF any other evidence were lacking the result of last Tuesday's election would prove that Sir John Macdonald is dead.

IF the country had accepted Sir Charles Tupper at his own estimate he would have had a majority of 213 in the present parliament.

ONE of the first acts of a Liberal government will doubtless be an act to wipe out the Franchise Act, and replace it with a fair, honest workable measure.

THE Spectator says the Conservative party in Hamilton whipped itself—and it has been eighteen years preparing for the performance.

THE Mail calls upon the Liberal ministers to be loyal—does it mean to their pockets or the country? The former has been the Conservative way, and the latter will be the Liberal way.

THE Mail might make another flop now—going over to Laurier would not be a greater change than it has made two or three times already.

HON. MR. LAURIER'S tariff position is practically that of Sir John Thompson's, who, in his well known board of trade speech in Toronto, declared that the tariff was defective and that there was mouldering branches to be lopped off. The Conservatives will admit that Sir John Thompson was not a bad head to agree with on such a subject.

THE Tory hack papers are now talking of the "treachery" of Quebec towards the Government. Pray, who set the example? When a Cabinet of traitors appeal for public support they must not complain if their own principles are applied to them. Besides in a free country like Canada, a French citizen should be allowed the free exercise of his franchise without being called a traitor and that to a "nest of traitors."

WHEN Hon. Mr. Mackenzie was defeated in 1878 he resigned as promptly as possible. The elections took place September 17th and Mr. Mackenzie, accepting the verdict of the country, resigned on Oct. 16th. The eighth parliament, the one just elected, is summoned to meet on July 16th and by a prompt resignation of the present ministers the new ministers may be elected before the 16th, especially as according to practice they will not probably be opposed on their appeal for formal re-election.

THE pencil is a political power in the hands of that brilliant cartoonist, Mr. J. W. Bengough. The Globe has reached, through the eye, the hearts of thousands of electors and the lead lead pencil in the electors' hand has transformed the political complexion of the government. The Globe's cartoons and the Globe's pages together with the little pencil of the electors, have been potent forces in bringing the change that marks the beginning of a new era of national prosperity.

IT gives the EXAMINER much pleasure to endorse the following from the Globe:—"The excellent campaign work accomplished by Messrs. John and George Bertram had a material effect in swelling the tide of victory that set so decidedly in favour of the Liberal party. Proprietors of a large manufacturing business, with important connections throughout the Provinces, their able advocacy of tariff reform had a reassuring effect on many who had unthinkingly listened to absurd threatenings of disaster. Their standing in the business community gave added strength to platform ability of an exceptionally high order, and the service they rendered has been valuable not only to the Liberal party but to the Province at large."

THE Ottawa Journal, Independent Conservative says: "It is not true that purely to Quebec the Liberals owe their success. If the sixty-five members of Quebec be left out of account altogether, the straight Liberals who have just been elected to Parliament remain in a majority over the straight Conservatives, although in last Parliament they were less than half the number of their opponents. Outside of Quebec, the figures now are, Liberals 69, Conservatives 68, Independents 11. In last Parliament, outside of Quebec, the figures were, Liberals 46, Conservatives 101, Independents 3. What folly it is to hint that Quebec is alone responsible for the upsetting of the Conservatives, when the Conservatives lost elsewhere in Canada on Tuesday 33 constituencies, making a gain to the Liberals of 66 votes on a division."

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, June 15—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine, usually evinced by physicians is is rapidly giving way so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease, through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

THE LIBERAL POLICY

As Stated by Mr. Laurier and Sir Richard.

REFORM AND NOT REVOLUTION

A Magnificent Demonstration to the New Premier on the Champ de Mars at Montreal—Twenty Thousand People Cheer the Triumphant Leaders.

Montreal, June 25.—The remarkable series of demonstrations in honor of Mr. Laurier had a fitting climax in Montreal to-night. He arrived in town from Quebec this morning and went to the St. Lawrence Hall, where he spent the day receiving congratulations of his friends, and at the same time discussing Cabinet possibilities. In the evening he was joined by Sir Richard Cartwright, and they dined at the residence of Mr. G. W. Stephens. They afterwards drove to the Champ de Mars, where a demonstration was arranged for the new Premier, which was unparalleled in size and enthusiasm. It was spontaneous, and at only a few hours' notice, but it exceeded anything ever seen even on that memorable field. There were at least 20,000 people on the field when Mr. Laurier arrived. The scene was enough to stir the heart of the oldest campaigner of the lot. Not a fraction of those present had any expectation of hearing the speeches, and not more than half could see the speakers, but they were there to cheer for Laurier, and well they did it.

Mr. Laurier stood bowing his acknowledgments for some minutes before the enthusiasm subsided enough to enable him to speak. Having expressed his gratitude at such a magnificent reception, he referred in warm terms to some of those beside him, Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Tarte, Mr. Ethier, Mr. McShane, Mr. Penny and others. Having recalled the results in the other provinces, he added: But the Province of Quebec has done its duty most nobly. In 65 counties it elected 16 Conservatives and 49 Liberals. (Applause.) The province has taken its place at the head of the Confederation. We must not forget that. The fight was bitter, but the more bitter it was the more moderate we should be in the hour of victory. We have now a difficult task before us. Our farming interests are at a low ebb; business is stagnant; our industries are flat, and we have the school question to settle. But by using firmness, judgment and tact we shall face all these difficulties successfully one after the other. As to the school question, people are tired of the six years' wobbling of the Government, and I am confident that by making an appeal to the generosity and sense of justice of the Manitoba Government we will succeed in restoring to the minority the rights which they have been deprived of. (Cheers.) As to the tariff, I shall only say that our Canadian industries will have nothing to fear. We are not revolutionists—we are reformers. (Applause.) We will have to make changes, but it will only be after due notice to the parties interested, so that they will not pass unprepared from one state to another. From this day begins a new era, and from this day all Canadians, without distinction of origin, creed or race, will be equally loyal subjects of Her Majesty. Let us look ahead to the future of this Canada of ours, not to the future of Quebec, not to the future of Ontario, but to the future of the whole Dominion from one end to the other. (Tremendous cheering.)

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT.

Sir Richard Cartwright was received with another roar of applause. He said that on this occasion Liberal hearts from one end of the Dominion to the other were beating in unison in praise of the Liberal leader. (Cheers.) In thirty-five years of political life he never had the opportunity of addressing such an enormous assembly. "On the present occasion," said Sir Richard, "I am the bearer of a message from Ontario to the citizens of Quebec. We feel that in all our history from the days of Jacques Cartier to the present time, the people of Quebec have never shown themselves more thorough worthy than they are today, or with a better right to the title of citizens of a free community, and we entertain the highest possible hopes that the result of the past election will to no ordinary degree sweep away all those foolish prejudices which have in the past divided English from French, Catholic from Protestant. (Cheers.) I believe there never was a leader found in Canada more calculated or better able in every possible shape and way to reconcile and bring together those jarring elements which in times past have disturbed our common peace than my friend, Wilfrid Laurier. (Cheers.) As was stated by him, our object is not to destroy, but to reform. (Cheers.) We desire above all things to do equal justice to all classes and all creeds in this Dominion. (Applause.) You have shown that you are Canadians first and English or French, Catholic or Protestant afterwards. Of all the results which this election has brought about, the greatest, in my mind, is that the people of Quebec have shown themselves worthy of the noble leader which their province has given to the Dominion." (Great cheers.)

By this time the crush was so great that an accident was feared in the swaying crowd. It was, therefore, declared to break up the meeting. Mr. Laurier and the other members left the platform, and the band played "God Save the Queen."

AT ST. LAWRENCE HALL.

Mr. Laurier, accompanied by Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Tarte and Mr. Dandurand, entered a carriage and drove to the St. Lawrence Hall, followed by several thousand people. St. James-street was completely blocked and street car traffic was suspended for the evening. The crowd again insisted upon hearing Mr. Laurier. The Liberal leader appeared at one of the windows of the St. Lawrence Hall and addressed a few words amidst the wildest enthusiasm. He then introduced Sir Richard Cartwright, who was received with almost equal warmth. Sir Richard Cartwright congratulated the people on their loyalty and fidelity to the principles of truth and freedom. He admitted that not even in their most enthusiastic moments did the Liberal leaders expect such a magnificent majority from the Province of Quebec, but in giving it to Mr. Laurier the electors had done a thing which would be recorded in the history of Canada for generations to come. (Cheers.)

Mr. Laurier leaves for his home in Arthabaskaville to-morrow morning to take a few days' rest.

Sir Richard Cartwright will remain all day, and go west in the evening.

The doctor may be a good old man, but even so, medical examinations and the "local-application" treatment are abhorrent to every modest woman. They are embarrassing—often useless. They should not be submitted to until everything else has been tried. In nine cases out of ten, there is no reason for them. In nine cases out of ten, the doctor in general practice isn't competent to treat female diseases. They make a branch of medicine by themselves. They are distinct from other ailments. They can be properly understood and treated only by one who has had years of actual practice and experience in this particular line. This is true of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N.Y. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy for all derangements of the reproductive organs of women, has been in actual use for more than thirty years. It cures every form of "female weakness."

WHY SUFFER WITH PILES?

Dr. Chase's Ointment Will Cure Them at a Cost of But 60 Cents.

Piles, scrofula, eczematic eruptions, scald head, salt rheum and all other annoying and painful skin diseases can be easily cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"I had protruding piles for ten years," writes H. H. Sutherland, commercial traveller, of Truro, N.S.; "tried many remedies, and had doctors operate. It was no use. Was completely laid up at times. Chase's Ointment was recommended to me by Mr. Brennan, of the Summerside, P.E.I., Journal. I tried it, and one box completely cured me."

Mr. Statia, the editor of the Streetsville, Ont., Review, gives this unsolicited testimonial under date of Nov. 6, 1895: "Half a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured my daughter of eczema. That was six months ago, and there has since been no reappearance of the disease."

T. Wallace, blacksmith, of Iroquois, Ont., was troubled with blind itching piles for 20 years. "I tried every remedy that came out in vain," he writes, "until I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment. It was a godsend. One box cured me."

All dealers and Edmanson, Bates & Co., manufacturers, Toronto. Price 60c.

Linseed and turpentine are every mother's household remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung affections. Dr. Chase has disguised the taste and made the remedy pleasant to take. Large bottle only 25c.

STEAMING UNDER FIRE.

The U. S. Revenue Cutter McLane Chases After the Cuban Filibuster Commodore and is Outwitted.

Tampa, Fla., June 25.—When the steamer Commodore left Port Tampa this afternoon she was followed by the revenue cutter McLane, the latter having orders to stop the suspected filibusterer.

When Capt. Morton of the Commodore saw the McLane in pursuit he crowded on steam and a lively race began. As the Commodore gained the McLane sent four solid shot after the filibuster and the latter came to. The McLane's commander searched the Commodore, but nothing contraband was found. The Commodore was allowed to go and the McLane started back to port. Six miles down the bay, however, the Commodore came to and was approached by three schooners. Nearly 100 men and scores of boxes of ammunition were transferred from the schooners to the Commodore. The McLane's commander saw this transfer by means of his glasses and again pursued the Commodore. The McLane gained at first and fired on the Commodore repeatedly, but the shots fell short. The powerful engines of the Commodore soon told, however, and she began to forge ahead. When the boats passed St. Petersburg the Commodore was leading the McLane six miles. As the McLane has no coal she will have to lay to during the night and this will enable the Commodore to make good her escape.

THE WOMEN TOO.

Back Talk Not Man's Monopoly.

Mrs. Jemima Cole, Havelock, told the following wonderful story:—"For a great many years I have suffered from disease of the kidneys. The pains in my back and side were sometimes excruciating.

"My limbs were so swollen that I could scarcely lift my feet from the floor, and I was in great agony nearly all the time. I thought that I would surely die from the pain.

"I have taken dozens of advertised remedies, but got no better during their use. I was also treated by several doctors, but am sorry to say they did me little or no good. In fact they stated that they could do me no good, which made me despair of ever getting better.

"When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I sent to W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore and got a box thinking I would try them as a last resort.

"The change from the start was very great and now after one month I am free from all pain. The swelling has gone down and I feel quite strong and healthy.

"I was also troubled with rheumatism and neuralgia which have completely disappeared, thanks to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. In fact I do not think there is a medicine in the world that in such a short time could have taken me from the almost dying condition in which I was to the healthy and vigorous state that I am in now.

"I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for their wonderful virtues in curing kidney troubles."

PRENTISS GOES TO TRIAL.

The Slayer of Farmer Lingard Committed at the Preliminary Trial.

Port Hope, June 25.—The preliminary hearing of Arthur Prentiss on a charge of shooting Thomas Lingard, June 10 last, was heard before Police Magistrate Holland this afternoon. The witnesses examined were Mrs. Lingard and the granddaughter, the evidence being pretty much the same as that given at the coroner's inquest.

Without hearing any other witnesses, and as the examination before the Police Magistrate is merely a matter of form, the prisoner was committed to stand his trial at the next assizes.

The prisoner was taken back to Cobourg jail.

Geo. Carton's Table Supply House.

The attention of housekeepers is directed to the concise and business-like announcement of Mr. George Carton, grocer, on the fifth page of to day's EXAMINER. The increased energy and push which is being given to this important branch of Mr. Carton's business, is having a telling effect upon trade at this busy corner. Mr. A. G. Chambers, as the active manager, is making it pleasant as well as profitable to all the old customers, as well as to many new ones, to do their shopping at this store. A marked improvement in the neat and attractive interior arrangement of the store is plainly visible. The whole premises have been neatly painted and repapered, giving a fresh and pleasing appearance to the store. It is a pleasure to hear of the present satisfactory condition of trade at Mr. Carton's, and the sanguine hopes he entertains for the future.

A WASHOUT.

The Street Car Tracks Undermined on George Street.

The heavy rain of last night flooded the streets in a twinkling and the sewers were in several cases unable to carry off the sudden rush of water. The catch basin at the corner of Simcoe and George streets was soon filled and the pipe being too small to carry the water off, it caused a washout on the and this morning there was a huge hole yawning in the centre of the street large enough to bury a waggon and team of horses in. The corporation labourers are hard at work filling up the gap. It will hold about four loads of gravel and consequently undermines the street car tracks.

BATTALION NOTES.

Orders for the Belleville Trip—Inspection This Afternoon.

Lt. Col. Vidal, acting D. A. G., and Lt. Col. Otter, Inspector of Infantry, completed the company inspection of the 57th last evening when Captains Lech, Clegg and Hill passed with their companies under review. This afternoon Battalion inspection takes place at 5.30 p. m. on Burnham's point.

The following orders were issued last night:

HEADQUARTERS,
Peterborough, June 26th, 1896.

Orders by Lt. Col. R. W. Bell, commanding the 57th Battalion of Infantry, Peterborough Rangers:

No. 1. The Battalion will parade on Monday at 7.30 p. m., June 27th, and entrain for Belleville.

No. 2. Every Non. Com. Officer and man must provide himself with soap, towels, blacking brushes and cleaning utensils.

No. 3. The order of entraining will be under the direction of the Adjutant.

No. 4. On entering the train the men will place their rifles on the floor of the car, and each company will mount a guard on the doors of the car which it occupies. The sentries to be relieved every fifteen minutes, until Belleville is reached. The sentries will not allow any but officers to pass from car to car.

No. 5. During the camp a guard of one sergeant, one corporal and twelve men will be mounted by successive companies which will take all duties of the camp. The tour of duties will be as follows:—

From arrival in camp till 8 a.m. Tuesday, F Company.
From 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., A Company.
From 3 p.m. to 10 p.m., B Company.
From 10 p.m. to 8 a. m. Wednesday, C Company.
From 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., D Company.
From 3 p. m. to departure, E Company.

During the respective tour of duty of each company, the officer of said company will act as officer of the day.

No. 6. On arrival in camp the Orderly Sergeant of each company with a fatigue party of six men will parade at the Quartermaster's tent for issue of blankets.

No. 7. The Battalion will parade this evening at 5.30 sharp for regimental inspection by the Deputy Adjutant General and Inspector of Infantry. This is the most important parade of the Regiment as the absence of any man means the loss of his pay.

By order,
E. F. MASON, Capt.,
Adjt. 57th Battalion.

A SUBSTANTIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

The Auburn Company Expresses Its Thanks to the Fire Brigade.

The appended letter, which explains itself, has just been received by the Fire Department:

Joseph Yelland, Esq., Secretary Peterborough Fire Brigade:

DEAR SIR,—I am requested by the directors of the Auburn Woollen Co., to send you the enclosed cheque for $50 and to ask you to convey to the members of the brigade the thanks of the company for the services rendered at the fire on the 14th day of May last, and further, to say that this matter has been overlooked on account of the election contest just ended.

I am, yours very truly,
J. IRVIN DAVIDSON,
Secretary.

The brigade wishes to express its appreciation of the company's kindness in remembering their services in so substantial a manner. A special meeting of the brigade is called for this evening.

CONFIRMATION SUNDAY.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor in Hastings.

On Sunday last there were five adults and seventy-two children confirmed at St. Mary's church, Hastings, by His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, who was accompanied by Rev. Father Phelan of North Bay. Revs. Father Conway of Norwood, and Father McCloskey also assisted. The girls were beautifully dressed in white and each wore a wreath. The boys wore a white ribbon on their sleeves.

Sunday evening the Bishop delivered a very interesting lecture on Rome, its Ancient and Modern Monuments. The lecture, which contained a mine of information, was listened to by a large and attentive audience. An address was read to His Lordship by Mr. J. A. Howard, and was an expression of love and loyalty to himself, the pastor, Rev. Father Connolly, and the church of their choice.

East Riding Returns.

The returns furnished the press rather do an injustice to Ashburnham and the Liberal workers who did such excellent service for Mr. Lang. The majority given for Mr. Burnham in Ashburnham was placed at 128, whereas the correct majority is only 118. When the official returns are made it will be possible to present the exact figures of the voting.

A PROMISING CAREER CLOSED.

Death of Mr. W. H. Murray, Late of Peterborough.

Intelligence was received this morning of the death of Mr. W. H. Murray, a former well known and highly respected resident of Peterborough. Mr. Murray came to Peterborough in May, 1892, and entered into a law partnership with Mr. E. B. Edwards. He abandoned the law in October last to enter upon the study of theology at Queen's College, Kingston; but the earnestness—which was an element in his character, in whatever he undertook—with which he applied himself to the work of preparation for the ministry undermined his health, and brought on hæmorrhage of the lungs. He went to Muskoka in the hope of regaining his health, intending later to make a trip to California, but the dread disease had progressed too far and death came to him at "Yarum" cottage, his father's summer residence, Muskoka, on Wednesday.

In death of Mr. Murray at the early age of 32 years, a career which, to human seeming, promised to be a brilliant one, is brought to a premature close. His literary abilities were of an unusual order, and just being developed into their prime. He possessed a fine taste, and refined critical instincts. He was active in promoting literary culture, and was one of the promoters, and most faithful and prominent co-operators in the work, of the Fortnightly Club, and the reception tendered him on his departure from town last October was a tribute to his purity of character, literary ability and general good qualities, of which a young man only three and a half years a resident of the town might justly regard with pride. He leaves a widow, but no children.

THE LATE REV. W. C. BRADSHAW.

Death of a Well Known Clergyman in Denver.

The many friends of Rev. W. C. Bradshaw in Peterborough and especially in Ashburnham, will learn with deep regret of his death which took place in Denver yesterday.

The deceased gentleman was 48 years of age; and previous to his coming to Ashburnham on July 9th, 1876, he had charge of a parish in Simcoe county. On coming to Ashburnham, he found as the material rudiments of this now thriving parish, a small brick school house in which services were held. Almost immediately after his arrival, steps were taken for the building of the present church and in a short time the church was completed and during his pastorate of ten years the new church, new school house and parsonage were erected and stand as monuments to his zeal as a pastor; and not only this, but a flourishing congregation and a parish distinguished for its energy and Christian activity was built up almost de novo. Mr. Bradshaw was distinguished for unusual pulpit efficiency as well as for energetic pastoral work. Of unresting activity he devoted the little time left from his diligent attention to his pastoral work, to literary pursuits, in which he was particularly distinguished. During the year 1888 Rev. Mr. Bradshaw, who was predisposed to pulmonary weakness, was forced to retire, it was hoped temporarily only from active work, and with his family, to Denver, Colorado, for the benefit of his health, and the result proving that his health demanded continued residence in that climate, he resigned the rectorship of St. Luke's in 1890, settled in Denver, and became Warden of St. John's church school in that city. Here the same energy was displayed. In addition to his duties in connection with the school, Mr. Bradshaw entered upon the work that resulted in the establishment of a new parish of which he became rector. He left Denver last year to take charge of a parish at Port Arthur. After remaining a short time, he received the appointment of Rector of Christ Church, Winnipeg, but recently, ill-health again overcoming him, he returned to Denver in search of recovery, but it appears that he was too late. His old pulmonary trouble asserted itself, and yesterday a life, passed in busy work for the Master, and blessed with conspicuous success, was brought to a close, and Rev. W. C. Bradshaw passed from the arduous toil of this earthly life to the rest of Paradise. The deceased gentleman leaves him a wife and one daughter.

Rev. Mr. Bradshaw's name will be long remembered in Peterborough as a clergyman who lived faithfully up to the great responsibility of his office, whose work in building up both the spiritual life and material interest of the Parish of St. Luke's was very abundantly blessed, and worthy to be held in remembrance; as a citizen, alert and intelligent in promoting the welfare of the public, both morally, intellectually and materially, and as a friend whose friendship was something to be highly prized.

SIR LEONARD TILLEY.

Death of the Distinguished Canadian—Finance Minister When the N. P. was Introduced.

St. John, June 25th.—Sir Leonard Tilley passed peacefully away at 3 o'clock this morning. His death, though expected by relatives and friends, was heard with deep regret. He was 78 years old. His first wife was Julia Ann Hanford, daughter of the late Mr. James T. Hanford; and in 1867 he wedded Alice Chipman, eldest daughter of Mr. E. Chipman, of St. Stephen, who survives him. The funeral takes place on Saturday afternoon.

Sir Samuel Leonard Tilley, K.C.M.G., was born at Georgetown, Queen's County, N.B., on May 8, 1818, and was the son of Thomas M. Tilley, and grandson of Samuel Tilley, of Brooklyn, N.Y., a United States Loyalist, who in the close of the Revolutionary war came to New Brunswick. After attending the Grammar School of Georgetown, Sir Leonard, in his thirteenth year, went to St. John, and was apprenticed to an apothecary, finally entering business for himself as a druggist. He took an active part in politics, and was one of the foremost promoters of the Railway League, organized to secure the construction of a railway from St. John to Shediac. In 1850 he was elected to the New Brunswick Legislature for the City of St. John, entering public life as a Liberal. In 1851, however, he resigned in consequence of the result of a local contest in which he was interested. In 1854 the Liberals won, and he entered the new administration, thus beginning his long lease of power. He was a prominent temperance worker, and was chosen Most Worthy Patriarch of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance of America in 1855. In 1856 he was beaten on the liquor question, but in 1857 he regained power, and in 1860 he became leader of the Administration, which position he retained till March, 1865. He took an active part in the negotiations which led to Confederation. He was appointed Lieut.-Governor of New Brunswick, and held that office until 1878, when he participated in the campaign which resulted in the Conservative victory of that year. He again became Finance Minister, and brought in the high tariff known as the National Policy. In 1879 he was knighted. He remained in this position until 1885, when his health gave way, and although a visit to England gave him some relief, he was obliged to resign office. He was appointed Lieut.-Governor once more, and held that office for eight years, resigning in 1893. Since then he has lived in retirement.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL WORKS.

Mr. Kivas Tully Disputes Sir Charles Tupper's Claim to Being Their Father.

Mr. Kivas Tully, engineer, thus writes to the Globe:—

SIR,—I noticed in the Mail and Empire of the 11th inst. a statement which in my opinion requires some explanation. The statement was included in an address to Sir Charles Tupper, Premier of the Dominion of Canada, by Robt. Weddell, President T.Y.M.L.C. Association, and H. W. Simpson, Secretary, at Trenton, on the 10th inst: "Personally we feel indebted to you for the commencement of the Murray Canal in our midst, and the subsequent completion of the same, and it is with pride that we look back to 1878, when you, Sir Charles, as First Minister of Public Works in the Conservative Government, rescued the Trent works from the Ontario Government, realising if you had not not done so that the extensive work which was then inaugurated would have been lost." The facts are as follows: In 1870 "an order-in-Council was passed authorising the Minister of Public Works to enter into negotiations with the Government of Ontario with the view to effecting a transference to the latter of the public works connected with the navigation and descent of timber on the River Trent and in the Newcastle district." The transference was made on the 8th of October, 1878, with the conditions "that such transfer be made free from all conditions and stipulations as to any future maintenance of or expenditure on account of said works on the part of the province beyond what, if any, the Legislative Assembly may from time to time sanction or approve of." This order was rescinded on the 13th of June, 1879, on the recommendation of Sir Charles Tupper, Acting Minister of Public Works.

In the estimates of the Province of Ontario in 1869 a large sum was appropriated for "improving navigation of inland waters and surveys and drainage of lands." Of this amount $260,814 was expended from 1869 to 1895 in building locks and improving the navigation of the lakes along the line of the Trent Valley works. The Ontario Government still continues to maintain these works, and in this year's estimates there is an appropriation of $3,000 to improve the channel below Lindsay lock; also $5,000 for Gull and Burnt River works, showing that there is no intention on the part of the Ontario Government to discontinue the improvement of these inland waters. The locks at Young's Point, Lindsay and Balsam River were opened in 1871, and for twenty-five years have been most useful in developing the traffic on the inland waters during that time. These locks have always been free of tolls. Last year 1,356 steamers, 155 small boats, 290 scows, 482 rafts and 294,203 saw logs passed through them. As a contrast to the liberality of the Ontario Government, it may be mentioned that the amount of canal revenue collected by the Dominion Government in 1894 was $1,111.

If tolls were extended to the locks now under the control of the Ontario Government, a much larger revenue would be collected, but the settlers along the line of the Trent Valley inland waters would not thank the Dominion Government for rescuing these works from the Ontario Government. As an engineer I never recommended thOntario Government to expend one dollar on the Trent Valley inland waters as a through connection for inland trade. My evidence on the subject will be found in the journals of Canada for 1863 4.

What She Said.

Mrs. R. Peck, E. 15th street, New York city, visited Canada last year, and had the good fortune to pick up something which not only suited her, but her neighbours also. Writing the manufacturer of Nerviline, she says:—"I bought three bottles of Nerviline while in Canada and treated my neighbours to some of it, and all think it the best medicine for internal or external pain they have ever used."

Custom Changes.

A new form of entry will go into effect on July 1 at the Customs Department. Formerly the entry blank made provision only for the place where the goods were exported. Now the form provides that the name of the place where the goods are purchased and whether the goods are imported direct or via the United States must be declared.

THE MILITARY CELEBRATION IN BELLEVILLE.

The Site Selected for the Camp—The Sport of Dominion Day.

The Belleville Intelligencer says: "The field selected for the camp of the 57th during their visit to the city is the one south of the Trenton road on the bay shore, east of the pump. It is a beautiful spot and one that must meet with the approval of the officers and men of the visiting regiment. The wires for the electric lights are being strung to-day.

"Major Langford, who has charge of the advance party of the 57th will arrive to-morrow and the work of putting up the tents will begin on Saturday, so as to have them in readiness for Monday evening, when the 5th will arrive.

"The Dragoons will arrive from Toronto on Tuesday morning per steamer Hamilton and will be quartered on the Agricultural grounds, where they will have good stabling for their horses.

"Wednesday will not have a dull moment for visitors to the city. In the morning one of the best baseball matches ever played in the city will be played on the Agricultural grounds between Belleville's strong team and the Granites of Kingston. The game will be called sharp at 10 o'clock. This will undoubtedly be a fine game, for the local team are determined to win. There will also be a quoit match and throwing the hammer in the morning."

"The grand military procession will be held at one o'clock sharp, and after marching through the principal streets will wind up at the Agricultural Park, where games, races, military manœuvres, etc., will take up the afternoon."

"In the evening there will be fireworks, band concert and a sham battle on the grounds."

"Great preparations are being made to entertain the 57th, for the officers and men of the 15th recognize that if they approach the hospitality of the 57th on May 24th and 25th at Peterborough they are bound to be alive. The non-coms. of the 15th will dine the non-coms. of the 57th at the Commercial hotel on Tuesday evening, and the bugle bands of the two regiments will dine at Fleming's restaurant the same evening. The officers are making every preparation to right royally entertain their visitors and give them a real Bay of Quinte welcome."

The Belleville Sun says: The arrangements for the visit of the Peterborough Rangers are now about complete. The Battalion will camp on the bay shore near the mineral springs, and electric light and water service will be put in the grounds. The advance party will arrive here on Saturday. The Battalion on their arrival here on Monday night will march to the camp, where a lunch will be served. The Dragoons will arrive on Tuesday morning, and will be camped on the fair grounds. The musical ride will be one of the most pleasing features of their exhibition. The music for the ride is as follows:

1. Quick step—"Men of Harlech."
2. Trot—"Money Musk."
3. Very slow for passaging.
4. Canter—"Bonnie Dundee."

The airs must change without any check between, so that the horses follow the music.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

LACROSSE.

Although Dobbin, Lipsett and Bolan were unable to go to Port Hope yesterday the local team were able to defeat the Ontario's by three goals to one yesterday.

The Peterborough's were composed as follows:—Wasson, goal; Brown, point; Main, cover point; Glover, 1st defence; Hickey, 2nd defence; Borland, 3rd defence; McDonough, centre; Phelan, 1st home; Galley, 2nd home; Rubidge, 3rd home; Begley, outside home; McCabe, inside home.

The first game went to Port Hope, but after that the Peterboroughs worked together and scored three times before the end of the match, Galley shooting the rubber through twice and Begley once.

This is the first time that Peterborough and Port Hope have played against one another with teams composed of purely local talent. It is hoped that hereafter this will be the rule, instead of the exception. Peterborough will not be the first transgressor.

The boys think that Port Hope has the makings of a great defence field.

Dr. McGrath accompanied the team to Port Hope.

The Elms of Toronto are expected in town for a game on July 1st.

THE WHEEL.

So far this season Tom Cooper has won $1,400 on the National circuit, and has won more firsts than any other rider.

A young man of philosophical turn of mind gives this out as the result of his observation of the girl cyclist:—"Ninety-nine out of every hundred of 'em," he says, "prefer a $40 wheel and a $100 suit to a $40 suit and $100 wheel.

Sam Gibboni who was in Peterborough last year with Harley Davidson, has displayed a special aptitude for quad. steering, and there is a possibility that he will become a member of the Syracuse sextette team in the near future. He has received an offer from the firm to act as steersman.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE.

The Standing of Successful Cadets During the Year—Those Who Get Commissions in the Imperial Forces.

Kingston, June 25.—The closing exercises in connection with the Royal Military College were held to day in the presence of a large number of spectators, including the parents of a number of the graduating cadets. Following are the names of the members of the graduating class, with the number of marks taken by each during the entire course of four years:

Arthur Stuart Evans, 47,970 marks; Guy Hamilton Kirkpatrick, 46,545; William Henry Northcote Cantlie, 44,450; Charles Morton Stephen, 42,900; Grant Cayle Hardie, 39,845; Francis Leach, 38,886; Richard Clare Renow Alexander, 37,903; John Hogan Parks, 36,251; Cuth. Carroll Wood, 34,956; Frank Delamere Lafferty, 34,245; John Chesne Rowan, 33,164; Arthur William Roger Wady, 30,822; Darcy Weatherbe, 30,381; Archibald Montgomery Russell, 29,182; Geo. Osborne Haine, 29,161.

The interest taken by Her Majesty in her Canadian Military College has again been marked by her bestowal on the graduates of a commission in Her Majesty's Indian staff corps. The official intimation of this high mark of favor was received only last night, and the selection of a candidate to receive the honor is still under consideration. Canada's being represented in Her Majesty's Indian forces by direct appointment will be generally and highly appreciated as an additional bond in Imperial confederation under our beloved Queen.

These graduates have been recommended for commissions in the Imperial forces: Arthur W. R. Wilby (Upper Canada College), infantry; Chas. M. Stephen (Halifax High School), infantry; William H. W. Cantlie (Montreal High School), artillery; Arthur S. Evans, Royal Engineers.

The Aberdeen medals, for the highest aggregate of marks for the whole course, have been won by the graduates named below: Bronze medal, W. H. W. Cantlie; silver medal, G. H. Kirkpatrick; gold medal, A. S. Evans.

A Small Crowd See the Toronto Win From Scranton by 9 to 8.

Although Toronto is well up in the race the attendance at the baseball games seems to grow less every day, and yesterday it was a record crowd, only about 200 spectators being over the Don. And with such a strong counter attraction as the city championship lacrosse match to-morrow at Rosedale between the Tecumsehs and Torontos, the outlook for a Saturday crowd is not too bright. The cranks enjoyed the contest and saw some good work on both sides, and best of all Toronto won. Score:

The man who stands idly by and sees the life fading out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming old and faded and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigorous, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Most women do not understand their own bodies, or the things that make them well or sick. The most frequent cause of sickness in women is the cause last looked for. A women will go to a doctor when she has a severe cold, or some acute digestive disturbance, but she hesitates and procrastinates when the trouble is with the distinctly feminine organism. And yet the latter is infinitely more serious. It is the most serious sickness that any woman can have. It is the most dreadful—the most dangerous. Its consequences are always serious, and serious right at the beginning because it is debilitating. It saps the life and strength and works on the nerves to such an extent that the whole body is disturbed. Appetite leaves, the color goes from the face and hollows sink into the cheeks. Irritability succeeds good temper and fretfulness takes the place of contentment. Little by little life becomes more and more miserable. The woman is killing herself with neglect just as surely as if she were taking deadly poison. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable examinations and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if she needs persuasion, to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This truly wonderful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for 30 years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain and infallible cure for all derangements peculiar to women. Those who care to know all about it, and to receive the best medical work ever prepared for the general public are invited to send 31 one-cent stamps to cover customs and mailing only and receive a copy of Dr. Pierce's 1008 page book, "Common Sense Medical Adviser." Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y.

OUR GRACIOUS QUEEN

MAY SOON PASS THE LONG REIGN RECORD OF GEORGE III.

The Other Long Term Monarchs of Merry England—Henry III., Edward III. and the Virgin Queen Elizabeth Ruled the State for Many Years.

Here's to the Queen—God bless her!
Here's to the life so pure and good,
Here's to the perfect womanhood,
Here's to the Queen—God bless her!

Here's to the Queen—God bless her!
Here's to the wife with tender mind,
Here's to the mother wise and kind,
Here's to the Queen—God bless her!

Here's to the Queen—God bless her!
Here's to the nature true and strong,
Here's to the judgment seldom wrong,
Here's to the Queen—God bless her!

Here's to the Queen—God bless her!
Here's to the Crown—the crown of gold,
Here's love and trust a thousandfold,
Here's to the Queen—God bless her!

Here's to the Queen—God bless her!
Here's to her oceans and her land,
Here's to the sceptre in her hand,
Here's to the Queen—God bless her!

Here's to the Queen—God bless her!
Here's to her wisdom and her love,
Here's to her faith in God above,
Here's to the Queen—God bless her!
—Jean Blewett, in the Globe.

In one of the most charming historical sketches in the English language, "The Four Georges," Thackeray, in his introduction to the life of George III., says: "We have to glance over sixty years in as many minutes. England has to undergo the revolt of the American colonies, to submit to defeat and separation, to shake under the volcano of the French revolution, to grapple and fight for life with her gigantic enemy, Napoleon, to gasp and rally after that tremendous struggle. The old society, with its courtly splendors, has to pass away; generations of statesmen to rise and disappear; Pitt to follow Chatham to the tomb; the memory of Rodney and Wolfe to be superceded by Nelson and Wellington in glory; the old poets, who unite us to Queen Anne's time, to sink into their graves; Johnson to die, and Scott and Byron to arise; Garrick to leap on the stage and take possession of the astonished theatre. Steam has to be invented, kings to be beheaded, banished, deposed and restored, Napoleon to be but an episode, and George III. is to be alive through all these varied changes, to accompany his people through all these revolutions of thought, government, society, to survive out the old world into ours."

One cannot glance even hurriedly over such a period of time, involving so many events which have influenced in such a marked degree our own individual lives, without a feeling of awe and reverence or a just appreciation of what tremendous changes are wrought upon the earth's surface and in the minds of its puny inhabitants during such a period. The analogy between the reign of George III. and his granddaughter, Queen Victoria, is in many respects most striking, while the fact that if the present Queen of England lives until the 8th of next October, or less than seven months, she will have equalled George III.'s own reign in length of time, is an event of much interest. Everyone has an idea that George III. reigned for sixty years, while as a fact he fell somewhat short of that time, his actual reign being only fifty-nine years, three months and eighteen days, counting leap years.

George III. ascended the throne upon the death of his grandfather, George II., on October 25, 1760, and while his mental state necessitated the appointment of his son as regent, afterwards George IV., on February 5, 1811, the old king did not die until January 29, 1820. There were during his reign fourteen leap years, which added to the total years, months and days, gives the length as stated above.

Queen Victoria's reign began upon the death of her uncle, William IV., on June 20, 1837, and the fifty-nine years, three months and eighteen days will therefore bring the time up to October 8 of the present year, and as the Queen seems to be in most excellent health at the present time, it is quite likely that she will complete this period and eventually break her grandfather's record.

Previous to George III. the longest reign was that of Henry III., from 1216 to 1272, fifty-six years, while his grandson, Edward III., was the next, with fifty years, and the virgin Queen herself, Elizabeth, had a reign of forty-four years.

Old George III. had by his Queen, Charlotte of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, fifteen children, nine sons and six daughters, ten of whom married and had children. His eldest son, George, afterward George IV., was born in 1762, and married his cousin, Caroline of Brunswick, from whom he was afterwards divorced. One daughter was born, who married Leopold of Saxe-Coburg, and died in childbirth on November 5, 1817, without issue. George IV. died January 26, 1830, and was succeeded by his brother, William, third son of George III., Frederick, the second son, having died three years before without issue.

William IV. was born August 21, 1765, and created Duke of Clarence in 1789. In 1818 he married Adelaide of Saxe-Meiningen, but the two daughters who were born of this marriage both died in infancy.

The fourth child of George III. was Charlotte, Princess Royal, born in 1766, and died in 1797. She married Federick, Prince (afterwards King) of Wurtemburg, and died without issue.

Edward, Duke of Kent, fourth son and fifth child of George III., was born November 2, 1767, and married Victoria, daughter of Francis, Duke of Saxe-Coburg, a sister of King Leopold, and widow of Prince of Meinkingen. Their one child was Victoria, the present Queen of England and Empress of India.

The other children of George III. were Augusta, who died unmarried in 1840; Ernest, Duke of Cumberland, and afterwards King of Hanover; Augustus, Duke of Sussex; Adolphus, Duke of Cambridge; Mary, Sophia, Octavius, Alfred and Amelia, the latter being the favorite of the old King before his poor wits left him in 1811.

Queen Victoria married Francis Albert Augustus Charles Emmanuel, Duke of Saxony, Prince of Coburg and Gotha, her cousin, and another descendant of George III., on February 10, 1840, and by whom she had nine children, eight of whom are living.

As the Prince of Wales, her eldest son, was born in 1841, being now in his fifty-fifth year, and the Duke of York, his eldest son, is already twenty-two, there seems to be but little opportunity of either of these two equalling their mother's or grandmother's record; and the kingdom will have to wait quite a number of centuries before another King or Queen will reign fifty or sixty years.

Not many business houses in the United States can boast of fifty years' standing. The business of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., whose incomparable Sarsaparilla is known and used everywhere, has passed its half-centennial and was never so vigorous as at present.

Flour—Trade is quiet and prices nominally unchanged. Straight rollers are quoted at $3.25 to $3.35 Toronto freight.

Bran—The market is dull, with cars unchanged at $9.25 west and shorts $10 to $10.50.

Wheat—The demand is slow, with little change in prices. White wheat quoted at 67c outside, and red at 65c west. No. 1 Manitoba hard is quoted at 60c afloat, Fort William, and No. 2 at 57c. No. 1 hard is quoted at 64c to 65c Midland, and 68c Toronto freight.

Barley—Trade dull, there being no demand. No. 2 is quoted at 31c to 32c, and No. 3 extra at 29c to 30c.

Oats—The market is quiet and prices unchanged. White quoted at 19½c outside and mixed are quoted at 18½c to 19c outside.

Peas—The market is quiet; there were sales north and west at 45c.

Buckwheat—The market is quiet, with no business reported, and quotations are nominal at 32c outside.

Oatmeal—Business quiet, with prices nominal at $2.00 to $2.05 on track.

Corn—The market is dull and prices easy. Yellow sold at 27½c outside.

What a Woman Cobbler Can Do.

A pretty young French-Canadian girl, Elise Lamay, is tempting the inhabitants of Lewiston, Me., to have their shoes repaired quite as often as they need it. She is an expert cobbler and works at the window of her little store with apparent unconsciousness that there is anything unusual in her profession. It is hinted, however, that pretty Miss Lamay's unusual success may not be wholly due to her cobbling ability.

ONE HONEST MAN.

Dear Editor: Please inform your readers that if written to confidentially, I will mail in a sealed letter, the plan pursued by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from Nervous Weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts.

BY THE PRAIRIE SCHOONER ROUTE.

Dan Omo and His Family Arrive Back From the States.

Windsor, June 25.—Dan Omo arrived here this morning via the prairie schooner route, and sitting in the vehicle were two women, greatly delighted because they had reached Canadian soil. They were his sister and mother, and they had jostled over rough roads for five weeks. They had come from Missouri. Their home was at Amherstburg, and seven years ago they sold the farm. Omo took up a claim in Missouri. It was in a hilly, rocky place and corn crops proved repeated failures. The women looked none the worse for the journey and said they had enjoyed it.

Think it Over.

Have you ever heard of a medicine with such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla? Don't you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla, the One True Blood Purifier, has proved, over and over again, that it has power to cure, even after all other remedies fail. If you have impure blood you may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good.

HOW THE SUN LIFE FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario, Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR.—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 13,871 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 3% per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1906 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

FUN FOR THE YOUNG CHEMIST.

Entertainment to Be Had From Simple Household Chemicals.

The following experiments will prove very entertaining. They are very simple and can be performed by a child. Care has been taken in their selection, and only those which require the simplest apparatus and chemicals of the household have been used.

Fasten a fork or spoon to a thread, the ends of which are held in the ears; slightly swing it until it touches the table. A series of pleasing musical sounds will be produced, reminding one of the notes of a great organ.

Take an ordinary piece of loaf sugar into a dark room; break it, and a flash of light will be seen resembling closely the spark from a small electric battery.

Take a common tumbler, partly fill it with clear water and place upon its surface some pieces of gum camphor. Immediately they will begin to swim around the water, and if the camphor be lighted, they will look like balls of fire floating upon the water.

Put a few drops of oil (of any kind) into the water, and the camphor will cease moving at once. And while you have the camphor at hand, put a little in a clear bottle, cork it and place it in the sun for a few hours. Then you will notice beautiful, white, silky needles begin to appear around the neck of the bottle, which are so delicate and fragile in appearance that you would hardly think they could hold together.

Pour a few drops of ordinary ammonia in a glass tumbler (the ammonia that your mother uses for cleaning and washing will do); then take a saucer which covers the top of the tumbler, and on the under side put a few drops of muriatic acid. You can get five cents' worth at any drug store. Then place the saucer over the tumbler and instantly you will see white clouds resembling smoke begin to form inside the tumbler.

This experiment is very amusing and interesting, and will afford pleasure and wonder for a whole evening: Select a straight straw from a whisk broom and allow it to rest on the first finger on the table.

Take two other pieces of whisk straw and bend them in the shape of the letter V. By placing these two pieces on the first piece, with the upper parts facing each other, and holding the fingers still, the two straws will be seen to approach each other.

Take equal parts of common salt and granulated sugar, say about half a teaspoonful of each, and mix them well. Then by means of a straw dipped in sulphuric acid allow a few drops to fall on the sugar and salt mixture. In an instant a little flash and a puff of smoke will be seen, reminding one of the Fourth of July when a trail of powder is burned.

Take a small quantity of hot water in a glass tumbler into a dark room and add to it two or three small lumps of phosphide of lime. Little flashes of light, starting like petty lightning and ascending in curling clouds then appear.

By taking some lime water and blowing one's breath into it a fine white powder will be formed in the water.

By adding some common salt to a solution of nitrate of silver, a thick white powder is produced, which, if placed in the sunlight, will turn brown.

Pour the juice of a red cabbage into a test tube or thin glass bottle; drop in very gradually a solution of washing soda, shaking the bottle every time you put the washing soda in, and you will see the red solution gradually turning blue. Go on adding the soda solution and the blue color will give way to green.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof :—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

GEO. NICHOL, Seaforth, Ont.

I can certify to the above in every particular.

W. G. MCLENNAN, Seaforth, Ont.

An Englishman can go around the world and touch on British territory all the way—viz.: From England to Halifax, N.S., across Canada to Vancouver, across the Pacific to Hong Kong; thence to Singapore, Penang, Mauritius, Cape Town, St. Helena and England, or from Penang to Ceylon, Bombay, Aden, Perim, Gibraltar. This is a "sea connection" that no other country in the world possesses.

Pneumatic tubes have many uses, but one of the latest is attracting a great deal of attention from its novelty. This is a tube for stacking straw. It is built in sections, and is controlled by metal straps, pivots and arms. The straw is drawn into the tube, carried through it with great velocity, and by a turn-table and swinging arrangement like a crane is evenly distributed on the stack. The angles can be changed at will, and the whole machine is practical and manageable.

A QUEER LITTLE HEN.

There was once a little brown hen,
A dear little, queer little hen,
Her work was to lay
Just one egg every day;
And she did it, this good little hen.

She'd fly up in a tree, and right then,
Seated high on a branch, this queer hen,
Her egg she would lay,
Her one egg every day,
This good little, queer little hen.

'Twas a strange thing to do, I must say,
Lay an egg from a tree every day.
And what good was the egg?—
Just tell that, I beg—
That fell from a tree in that way?

But some people do things just as queer;
I know it, I've seen it, my dear.
They have a good thought,
But it just comes to naught;
From the wrong place they drop it, my dear.

There's a lesson for you and for me
From a hen that laid eggs in a tree.
If we do a right thing,
If a good thought we bring,
Let's not choose a wrong place, you and me.

—Gazelle Stevens Sharp.

GREEN BONES AS POULTRY FOOD.

An Excellent Article That Seems to Be Conclusive of Its Value.

Is green bone a profitable food with which to feed poultry? This is the question I want answered. We think it is, and our reasons are that hens fed on green bones will lay a larger percentage of eggs than they would if not fed the bone. A larger number of the eggs will be fertile; the chickens hatched will be hardier than chicks hatched from eggs laid by hens that were not fed green bones, especially if these are winter eggs or your fowls are confined in yards. Why so? Because the composition of bone contains nearly all the elements of an egg, which is proof positive. Here is bone analysis by Berzeline:

Gelatine and blood vessels	33.30
Carbonate of lime	11.30
Phosphate magnesia	1.16
Phosphate of lime	51.04
Floride calcimus	2.00
So. and chl. sodium	1.20
Total	100.00

Drevenstedt says: "An egg is concentrated food weighing one and one-half ounces, composed of lime, soda, sulphur, iron, phosphorus, magnesia, oil and albumen, which are nearly all found in the composition of green bone. So if we feed the hen it we supply her with the proper materials with which to make eggs, for the hen is the mill, the crop is the hopper, the egg the grist. Every particle of the egg, yolk, albumen and shell, come from the assimilated food through the blood cells. If we feed fat and heat-forming foods there cannot follow the largest egg production." Whatever the appetite of a healthy hen craves is lacking in her food.

Fed two to three times a week, or just a very little each day, it certainly is a healthful, egg-producing, tissue-forming food, insuring rapid and great growth of chicks, and taking the place, in great measure, of the bug and insect meat fowls obtain in the natural state. It should not, understand, be forced upon them too largely, as confined fowls need coarse food, such as grass or clover as surely as they do grain and flesh, else looseness of bowels, torpid liver, indigestion and other evils must ensue.

Fowls running at large also need meat if they have but dry, grasshopperless, bugless, wormless feeding grounds. How does the chicken eat when given access to all kinds of food, at liberty? a bug or two, a few nips of green stuff, then a few kernels of grain, a sip of water now and then, and off it goes after an insect; now a scratch for one or two worms, and some seeds, a few more beakfuls of grass or weed, and it is off for a bath in the dusting place. The nearer the breeder can duplicate this natural, little-at-a-time varied manner of feeding, with his yarded fowls, so much the nearer will he come to realizing profit on his investment and pleasure for his pains.—Farm News.

What you want when you are ailing is a medicine that will cure you. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla and be convinced of its merit.

Some mathematically inclined culinary genius has filled a long-felt want by inventing a measuring cup, which tells the tyro where "one-third," "one-half," and other dimensions come. Considering that many loaves of bread and cake have been spoiled, to the trying of many digestions and tempers, by the inability of the untrained eye to decide what constituted a quarter of a cup of butter or a half a cup of sugar, this is a great invention.

The best way to make tea is to put an earthern crock on top of the range when it is quite warm, put into it the necessary amount of tea leaves, and pour over it water freshly drawn from the faucet and oiled for the purpose. Let it stand until strong enough, then pour it off gently through a cloth into a pitcher, and when cold set it away till wanted. The best way to cool it is by surrounding it with ice in a freezer, or by setting the pitcher in a bowl of ice. When serving instead of the usual slice of lemon, a little fruit acid, such as currant jicue, tamarind juice and the like may be used. This kind of tea is refreshing.

THEY TAFFY EACH OTHER.

Li Hung Chang Pays a Friendly Visit to Prince Bismarck at Friedrichsruhe—Both Great Men.

Berlin, June 25.—Li Hung Chang, the Chinese Viceroy, paid a visit to Prince Bismarck at Friedrichsruhe to-day. Count Bismarck received the Chinese statesman at the railway station and escorted him to the castle, where the ex-Chancellor awaited him in the saloon. Prince Bismarck, in greeting Li Hung Chang, said: "I feel flattered in having the privilege of welcoming such an eminent statesman; we have both long helped our masters to govern each a great country."

Li Hung Chang, in reply to this welcome, said that he was only able to direct the affairs of China, while Prince Bismarck was equal to governing the whole world.

THE WRECKED CAPULET.

She Had $550,000 Worth of Canned Lobsters on Board—The Vessel Going to Pieces.

St. John's, N.F., June 25.—The latest reports from the wrecked steamer Capulet say that she is going to pieces rapidly. A heavy sea is breaking into the cove where she is lying, making the work of salvage very difficult. Hundreds of crafts are in the neighborhood of the wreck trying to get out the tinned lobsters, of which there are 5,000 cases aboard, worth $550,000. No more mail has been saved. The agents are arranging to send a steamer with a diver to-morrow to seek the luggage and mail. Many of the passengers continued to Liverpool by the Allan Liner Carthaginian last night. The remainder will return to Halifax next week. The crew are here, awaiting the enquiry that will be held into the loss of the steamer.

DIED IN THE WEST.

Two Former Torontonians Succumb—Mr. Charles W. Armstrong Died Suddenly in Winnipeg Yesterday.

Winnipeg, Man., June 25.—(Special.)—Charles W. Armstrong, agent of the Beatty line of steamers and a prominent Winnipeger, died suddenly to-day. Toronto was his home and where his relatives lived.

The body of W. F. Henderson, commission merchant of Winnipeg, who died while on a visit to the Pacific coast, is en route to Toronto for interrment.

27,000 DROWNED.

The Loss of Life in the Tidal Wave in Northern Japan Was Something Terrible.

Yokohama, June 25.—It is now stated that 27,000 persons were drowned and 8000 were injured during the recent tidal wave and earthquakes in the northern provinces of Japan.

MONET'S SARCASM.

The Telegram Which the Member for Laprairie Sent to Mgr. Langevin of St. Boniface.

Montreal, June 25.—(Special.)—Mr. Monet, M.P. for Laprairie and Napierville, sent the following despatch to Mgr. Langevin of St. Boniface, the night of the election: "As you were greatly interested in the contest in my county, no doubt you will be anxious to know the result. I am elected by 275 majority, the largest figure ever received by a Liberal candidate in this county."

The Stage of Convalescence

Is at once interesting and critical. The patient, carefully guarded at this period and provided with the means essential for health, may be enabled once more to enjoy the inestimable blessings of health. On the other hand, neglect of even minor needs, at this period, is likely to impose upon him the life-long penalty of ill-health, resulting in a wasted life. The assimilative processes are, at this time, are sure to be impaired, and nerve tone overtaxed in its resistance to the assaults of disease, will both sadly need the impetus which Maltine with Coca Wine can give.

By the action of Maltine with Coca Wine upon the digestive processes, which it rapidly strengthens and its permanent and striking influence upon the nervous system, to which it gives vigor and tone, the restorative power of the body is immensely increased, and strength and vigor come to the invalid so quickly as to seem almost impossible. Experience, however has demonstrated its efficacy in convalescence, as well as the various forms by which debility, arising from faulty nutrition, manifests itself. Sold by all druggists.

CALLS HIMSELF A MAN!

Yet Deserts the Penniless Mother of His Six Children and Consorts With a Younger Woman.

Toronto, June 26.

Peter Ernst is the name of an hotel porter who has worked at Brown's Hotel and the Palmer House. He is entitled to a medal for being one of the meanest men on earth. For a number of years he has been living with a woman. Although not married, she is the mother of six of his children. All of them are young. A short time ago he fell in love with a younger woman, and deserted the mother of his children, leaving her totally unprovided for with the six youngsters on her hands. She is in a delicate condition and unable to work.

The woman had Ernst summoned in Police Court for non-support, but he did not appear yesterday when called. She had no food in the house for the children. Crown Attorney Curry handed her a bank note. This is an urgent case for charitable ladies. The address is 219 Niagara-street.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 23.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in this city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA

The Tupper Government Will Not Quit for a Week Yet.

A JOB FOR MR. BOB BIRMINGHAM

Can be Superintendent of the Rideau Canal at $2500 a Year if He Wants to—Belligerent Spirit Among Conservatives—The Defeated Ministers.

Ottawa, June 26.—(Special.)—From appearances to-day Sir Charles Tupper's Ministry will not be able to leave office until the end of next week. The Treasury Board met this morning, and the Cabinet had another long session this afternoon, when considerable business was transacted. Messrs. Foster and J. J. Ross, who were not here yesterday, were present to-day. The most important matter taken up was the fast line tenders. Quite a number had been sent in, but, singular to say, only one complies absolutely with the terms of the advertisement and specifications. It is from that old reliable Canadian steamship company'—the Allan Line. It is understood their figure is in the vicinity of £225,000 sterling. It was not definitely decided to accept it, but under any circumstances the contract must be ratified by Parliament.

The Premier said to your correspondent that there was no evidence on the face of the tender to show that the Dominion Line associated with the Allans in the tender.

The question of political appointments by the outgoing Ministry is still being greatly discussed. That the Government will make some is clearly apparent, and that it will be quite justified in doing so is clear. Bob Birmingham was here to-day. He has been offered the superintendency of the Rideau Canal, a position worth $2500 a year, which has been vacant for two years. He said, however, just before leaving for Toronto to-night, that he thought he would not take it.

There was a still further influx of Conservative politicians to town to-day. Amongst those whom your correspondent ran across were Sir John Carling, Senator Dobson, Mr. Stevenson, Ex-M.P., Major Hughes, M.P., Mr. Henderson, M.P., A. H. Moore, member-elect for Stanstead, and Mr. Coatsworth, Ex-M.P. Most of these gentlemen are here to wind up certain departmental matters before the Ministry leaves office. Mr. Coatsworth was asked what he thought of the cyclone on Tuesday, but had little to say.

Among Conservative members-elect in town there is a decidedly belligerent spirit. There is to be no sitting bewailing Tuesday's temporary defeat. It will be a fight from the start. Some of the new members want the Government to meet the House. But cooler heads of the party applaud the decision of the Cabinet to step out as soon as matters can be wound up. To hang on to office would create a decidedly bad impression in the country.

I hear communications have passed between the Premier and the Governor-General regarding the prospective resignation of the Ministry. The latter is at Quebec, but has intimated his willingness to return to Ottawa at Sir Charles' convenience. Mr. Laurier wired friends here to-day not to come to Ottawa until the Governor-General sends for him. A message of this character was received by Mr. Charles Murphy, President of the Ontario Federation of Liberal Clubs. As yet, therefore, the exact time of Mr. Laurier's arrival is unknown, but preparations are already under way to give the Premier-elect a big reception when he does reach the city. Mr. Murphy has decided to call a meeting of the Young Liberal Club for Monday night to arrange the demonstration.

The general impression is that Messrs. Angers and Desjardins will be reappointed to the Senate, although neither appears to be very anxious for a seat in the Upper House. Unquestionably the Government will be quite justified in filling all vacant seats. Mr. Taillon accepts his defeat in a philosophical spirit. He puts it that, as Quebec does not want him, he is prepared to accept the verdict, and will neither seek a seat in the Senate nor the Commons.

The Cabinet-makers are still at work for Mr. Laurier. Some local Liberals are showing themselves sufficiently ungracious to endeavor to crowd Hon. R. W. Scott out of the prospective Liberal Ministry, to make way for Charlie Devlin, M.P. These two gentlemen are among the few English-speaking Catholics elected to support Mr. Laurier. If the little game succeeds there will be blood on the moon, politically speaking. No one has worked harder for his party than Mr. Scott. For years he has occupied the thankless position of leader of the Opposition in the Senate, and now that the sweets of office are within reach it is felt by many of the more respectable Liberals that Mr. Scott should be one of the first men called on to enter the new Government.

Four members will be gazetted to-morrow. They are D. D. Rogers, Frontenac; C. Beausoleil, Berthier; F. Dupont, Bagot; M. E. Bernier, St. Hyacinthe.

John McDougald's appointment as Customs Commissioner will also be gazetted. The appointment dates from May 1.

The Canadian Pacific Railway will apply to Parliament next session for an Act confirming and giving effect to an agreement between it and the Grand Trunk Railway Co., by which the latter company grants to the former for 50 years, running powers over the G. T. R. between Toronto and Hamilton, as contemplated by the agreement; the compensation for such running powers being a fixed yearly sum, together with other sums which are variable and are to be ascertained from time to time as provided for in the agreement.

Application will also be made to incorporate the Toronto Radial Railway Co. That company may acquire property, rights and franchises and privileges of the Toronto Belt Line Ry Co., or by any other company operating or having the right to operate an electric or other railway in Toronto or within 50 miles thereof.

Notice is given of an application for an act to permit the Kingston and Pembroke Railway to be sold for payment of the indebtedness of the company.

At the Court House to-day Sheriff Sweetland declared Ottawa's vote to be as follows: William Hutchison, Lib., 3237; N. A. Belcourt, Lib., 2942; Hiram Robinson, Con., 2751; Napoleon Champagne, Con., 2617; Taylor McVeity, Ind., 2160.

The official return from the electoral district of Wright is as follows: C. R. Devlin, Lib., 2975; J. M. McDonald, Con., 2593.

A small consignment of Lee Enfield rifles is expected to arrive within the next few days. The expectation is that enough Lee Enfields will be here in time for the autumn camps of instruction, to distribute, at least, among a fair proportion of the troops that are expected to go out.

Prof. Prince, Commissioner of Fisheries, left for Halifax to-day to make arrangements for the shipment of 1000 live lobsters, a large quantity of oysters and some black bass, to be planted in the waters of British Columbia. Live tommy cod will be planted in one of the saline lakes of Manitoba or the Territories.

The term of lease of the ferry across the Niagara River between Bridgeburg and Black Rock has been extended for a further period of five years, from May 1.

ALFRED DAY IS PRESIDENT

Of the International Sunday School Field Workers' Association, Reorganized at Boston Yesterday.

Boston, June 26.—The general and county secretaries of the Field Workers met this morning in Lorimer Hall, and put nearly two hours into the consideration of a new basis of organization. President Marion Laurence of Ohio presided. The name of the association was changed to the International Sunday School Field Workers' Association, which is to be auxiliary to the International Sunday School Convention. Meetings are to be held in connection with the triennials of the International Sunday School Convention and at such times for conference as may be called by the Executive Committee. The following officers were elected: Alfred Day of Ontario, president; Marion Laurence of Ohio, vice-president; Miss Mamie Huber of Kentucky, secretary and treasurer; C. D. Meigs of Indianapolis, H. M. Hamill of Illinois, C. J. Keephart of Pennsylvania and E. M. Ferguson of New Jersey, executive committee.

Murder for Revenge.

Pendleton, Ore., June 26.—A section laborer at Rock Springs, Idaho, who was recently discharged from the Oregon Railway and Navigation Road, killed Mrs. Haney, keeper of the section boarding car, and her infant child yesterday and then committed suicide. It is supposed he committed the crime for revenge, suspecting the woman was responsible for his discharge.

A BURDEN OF MONEY

English Capitalists Have a Surplus of Bullion.

MILLIONS OF POUNDS LYING IDLE

Withdrawals From South Africa Have Caused a Glut in the Bank of England—Investors Afraid of the Uncertainties of the United States.

New York, June 26.—The Journal publishes the following special cable despatch from London this morning: While the West of the United States is crying for free silver England to-day is suffering from a glut of money. The banks are full, choked with idle money, for which it is impossible to find any investment that would even pay the cost of the brokers' commission. So phenomenally cheap is money in London to-day that it is possible to borrow practically an unlimited amount at the rate of 25 cents a day for every $5000. There is now on deposit in the Bank of England alone more than $250,000,000 more money than was lying there nine months ago, and the amount on deposit has been steadily mounting up during that period and is still increasing.

There was in the bank last Thursday £14,000,000 of public deposits that is Government money. The usual amount thus on deposit is from £5,000,000 to £8,000,000. This money is largely made up of funds set aside for the redemption of consols, and of funds deposited in the Postoffice Savings Bank, for which investment is desired. But there is now no desirable investment to be found and consols have gone to high that the Government will not buy them.

Private and joint stock banks have £50,500,000 on deposit in the Bank of England, which is £12,000,000 more than was so deposited last October, and £17,000,000 more than at this time two years ago.

The Bank of England's own reserve fund ten days ago was £11,500,000 more than it amounted to nine months ago, and the stock of gold and bullion on hand was more than £12,000,000 in excess of the amount on hand last October.

This condition of affairs in the Bank of England is a fair sample of the situation throughout the country. Everywhere there is a great glut of idle money, for which no satisfactory use can be found. There is thrown on the market here every year about £120,000,000 seeking investment. This vast sum of money ($600,000,000) represents the annual surplus cash accumulated in the country, saved from its income, and is altogether a part of the income reinvested in home industries.

I am told that undoubtedly the whole of last year's accumulation, and much more, remains idle in the hands of its owners.

Unsatisfactory financial conditions in various parts of the world where British capital has been invested have stopped further investment in these directions, and have also caused a considerable withdrawal of capital already put out. The troubles in the Transvaal last year brought a great deal of money back to England.

Particularly have the many and various troubles in South American countries, the defaulting of some States and collapse of many much-boomed undertakings, brought back capital from that continent and frightened capitalists from further investment. But most of all, is the British capitalist distrustful of American investment, and this, probably, is the most important factor of all in causing the present phenomenal glut of money here. Not only is money not being invested in the United States, but the withdrawal of capital from there has been exceedingly heavy in the past nine months, and particularly since the first of this year. If the financial policy and a peaceful foreign policy in the United States were positively settled, very much, if not practically all, of this vast amount of money lying idle in England would flow in immense volume across the Atlantic.

In the past two months about $50,000,000 has been invested in England in various cycle and cycle supply companies. The greatest of these companies is one organized solely to manufacture and market rubber tires. Of course this $50,000,000 is but a drop in the bucket taken from the whole amount of idle money, but it largely represents the small investor, and, therefore, in that way, means very much.

Small companies have been organized to exploit all kinds of patents, and the latest line of companies are seeking capital and getting it readily, to boom the sale of patent medicines and "health foods." A few days ago a company was incorporated to build and carry on a music hall, and, perhaps, the oddest company of all is one lately formed to establish a proprietary club. Breweries, bakeries, drygoods stores and shops of all kinds are being incorporated, and the shares of those which attract the public are snapped up instantly.

Unfortunately, there is danger that this new speculative fever will have a disastrous ending for many investors. Many of the dozens of new little companies undoubtedly have a substantial foundation, but I am told that there are many others that cannot fail to experience utter collapse in a longer or shorter period, after the first payment on the shares has been made. Undoubtedly the large capitalists are looking anxiously, many hopefully, to a satisfactory settlement of the monetary and commercial conditions in the United States as the only radical relief now discernible for the great glut of idle money in England.

RAILROADS IN THE U.S.

The Railroad Gazette Makes Some Comparison Regarding the Checking of Railway Construction.

London, June 26.—The records of new railroad building in the United States in 1896, to be published in The Railroad Gazette of June 26, show that 717 miles of road have been built in the first half of the year. The Gazette says: "Figures as to the miles of new track built in the first half of the year for seven years past make some interesting comparisons, as follows: 1896, 717; 1895, 620; 1894, 495; 1893, 1025; 1892, 1284; 1891, 1704, and 1890, 2055 miles. It will be seen how greatly railroad extension has been checked by the conditions of the past few years, and there are no substantial signs that any large relative increase is to be expected in the near future.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1896.

AN ELECTION INCIDENT.

Patriotism that remains in activity nearly a century is unusual. Mr. Charles McColl, of Douro, formerly of Bridgenorth, who has been a Liberal for 94 years, went to Bridgenorth to again poll his vote for the cause of Liberalism. He took his ballot like a boy of 25 and went into the poll and at the age of 94 marked it without glasses. This is a record which few in the Dominion can equal.

THE election takes place in Algoma on Tuesday next, and we may expect another to be added to Mr. Laurier's majority.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER never was premier of Canada by the people's choice. He was hatched premier, in a "nest of traitors," and despatched in a ballot box.

SIC transit gloria mundi. Before the elections there was some discussion as to which of the political buttons were in most demand. No doubt can exist now. A Craig street merchant, Montreal, advertises :—"Laurier buttons, 5 cents ; Tupper buttons, given away."

THE Ottawa Journal (Independent Conservative) says : "It, as reported, the Conservative administration will resign at once, they are to be congratulated on it. There is no doubt about the country's verdict, and the sooner it is loyally accepted the better.

THE enterprising resident of the Canadian Soo are not spoon-fed pessimists who think that the advent of a Liberal government to power means destruction to Canadian industries. Following the announcement of the great Liberal victory comes the cheering news that the Soo Pulp and Paper Company of that town, on the day following the election, commenced the excavation for their new buildings for the manufacture of paper and acetylene gas, the latter a new Canadian industry. The structures will be built on solid stone, 90 by 300 feet, two stories high, with basement. They will be rushed to completion as fast as possible.

Good morning, have you read Thos. Slater's advertisement for men on page 3 ?

SIZING UP THE SITUATION.

OPINIONS OF AUTHORITIES AS TO THE EFFECT OF THE LIBERAL POLICY.

Neither Friend nor Foe has Fear of the Results—The President of the Industrial League Will Extend his Works—A Bank President has no Fear For his Investments.

That the accession to power of the Liberal party will not jeopardise the commercial, financial or industrial interests of the country is the general belief of the business men and manufacturers of Toronto, as expressed by a number of representative men who were yesterday asked for their opinions as to the outlook. Gentlemen of strong political predilections adverse to the new government agreed that if radical measures were not adopted in the readjustment of the tariff no business disturbance need be anticipated. The oft-repeated declaration of the leaders of the Liberal party that their policy was reform and not revolution appeared to satisfy the representatives of large interests that every consideration would be accorded to those industries conducted upon legitimate lines, the success of which is so essential to the general prosperity of the country. One of the most interesting of the interviews published is that with Mr. A. E. Kempt, President of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, who declared that if the matter of the tariff were handled with due discretion there need be no serious interference with business. Mr. Kemp, though he fought like a Trojan to save the hide of the Tupper Government, indulges in no vain regrets over its defeat. He said that the Kemp Manufacturing Company intends to make some extensions to its premises as soon as it knows what the definite policy of the new Government is to be for the future, and that he knew of others who are in the same position.

"We should all put our shoulder to the wheel," he declared, "and do all possible for Canada. A policy on the part of the new Government which means 'Canada for Canadians' is sure to be popular."

BUSINESS WILL GO ON.

Lieut.-Col. John I. Davidson of the well-known firm of Davidson & Hay, on being asked to state his views on the defeat of the Government, said that in his opinion the red flag of the remedial bill was not the sole cause of the turn-over, but that the unsatisfactory state of business had considerable to do with it. He had no hesitation in saying that the Conservative party on account of their pronounced internal dissensions had themselves entirely to blame.

"What have you to say in regard to the statement made by the Conservative stumpers that if the Liberal party came into power it would be the death-blow to Canadian industries and cause a stagnation in business ?"

"I believe," said the Colonel, "that at the earliest moment, when the Liberal party announce their platform, business will go on satisfactorily under whatever policy the new regime care to adopt. I have advocated for several years a remodelling of the National Policy, feeling satisfied that in many cases manufacturers were over-protected, which is evidenced by their abnormally large profits, while legitimate commercial enterprises have been running at a loss. These much protected institutions should have been able to make sufficient headway to enable them now to conduct their business profitably with a much smaller rate of protection."

"Then you are not feeling very badly over the defeat of the Conservative Government ?"

"Well, I am still a Conservative, but I will say this, that I now sincerely hope that an era of prosperity for the majority of the community will soon dawn, which very much needed even if it should injure the large profits of the small minority."

Lieut.-Col. Davidson was the returning officer for West Toronto in Tuesday's election.

A TRADE REVIVAL.

Mr. W. D. Matthews, of the firm of W. D. Matthews & Co., grain dealers, and ex-president of the Toronto Board of Trade, took an altogether hopeful view of the situation :

"All that I can say," he began, "is that I am well pleased with the result of the election. Coming in contact, as I do, with many of the leading business men of the city, a number of whom are prominent Conservatives, I find that the opinion generally expressed is that now that the elections are over business will become more settled. If too radical changes are not made when the tariff readjustment takes place, the result will restore confidence and tend to create a revival that will be felt by all classes of people. My own opinion is that the tariff should be framed so as to make it a revenue tariff, and that no radical changes should be made, such as would give cause for uneasiness to any line of manufacture, except to those which have heretofore been unduly protected, and in the cases where it has been felt that protection has been bought by political subscriptions. I believe that we have reached the lowest point in the business depression, and that from this time on we will have a continuous and gradual change for the better, so that everyone will feel satisfied, Conservatives and Liberals alike, before many months are over."

TAKE THE STOCK MARKET.

Mr. W. R. Brock of the firm of W. R. Brock & Co., and President of the Toronto Conservative Association, upon being asked as to the business outlook replied :

"Take the stock market this morning ; that is my answer. If the Liberals are going to do what Sir Richard Cartwright stated they were going to do—sweep away every vestige of protection—it means ruination on a large scale to all the mercantile and manufacturing interests in this country. If they are going to pursue the policy of the late Government to the letter and do as the late Government did—make little changes here and there, as circumstances demand—I do not believe the Reform party are able to ruin this country. I think we will go ahead in spite of them. But the thing that impresses me is that they have been going about for the last ten years and with great unanimity stating that we had too much protection. If that means that they are going to remove it—mind, I do not say that they are—by reducing the tariff, it simply means that every interest in this country will be ruined. I believe, though, that there is too much patriotism in the Liberal party to deliberately take a course that is going to be so ruinous, and I think rather than do that they will get rid of those in their party who hold such extreme views."

INVESTMENTS SAFE.

Mr. B. E. Walker, Manager of the Bank of Commerce, who is in close touch with the business and financial world, said :—

"So far as my experience goes, I do not find that manufacturers and business men are disturbed at the prospect of a new Government, with ideas regarding the tariff different from those of the Government that have gone out. People believe more generally than they did that the Liberal party will be just as anxious to preserve every good industry in this country as the Conservative party were. With all the money we have at our command and the deep interest we have in the prosperity of the country, we do not believe that our investments are less safe in the hands of the party that proposes to reform the tariff than in the hands of those who advocated the National Policy."

PROMISE OF EXPANSION.

Mr. Hugh Blain, of the wholesale grocery firm of Eby, Blain & Co., and ex-President of the Board of Trade, spoke optimistically of the prospects. He said :

"People have been economizing, merchants have been restricting their business to more legitimate channels, stocks have been kept down and credits have been curtailed so that business generally is, I think, in such a shape as to promise a reasonable expansion. Some people are professing to feel timid in consequence of the result of the election, but I believe such a feeling is confined chiefly to extreme politicians. I do not think that they look at the subject impartially. Of course manufacturers, like all other lines, have been somewhat overdone, and I would not be surprised to see some of those industries that cannot maintain themselves go out of business. There are some small industries that have not been paying, even with the protection that they have had, and it would hardly be reasonable for them to expect the people to go on giving them further support after all they have had. I think it may fairly be expected that Mr. Laurier will at least reduce the duties on a number of over-protected lines, so as to compel the manufacturer to keep his prices within reasonable limits. Beyond this I do not believe there is going to be any disturbance of the business of the country. I think it would be well if Mr. Laurier could see his way as early a date as possible to make a deliverance on the subject in some form, because greater weight would be attached to assurances given now than to ante-election discussions. I do not anticipate any radical change in the tariff. It is generally understood by those who have watched carefully the utterances of Mr. Laurier and the principal men in the Liberal party that any change made would be governed by common sense and would not work injustice to any of the legitimate industries of the country."

BETTER TIMES EXPECTED.

Mr. John Inglis, of the firm of John Inglis & Sons, the west end engine, boiler and machine builders, expressed himself as being very well satisfied with a change of government. He considered that the extravagance and corruption practised at Ottawa, and the unjust tariff legislation had been a serious drawback to the prosperity of the country. The heavy tax on raw material, running up to 40 and 50 per cent. was an outrage, and should at once be reduced to as low a rate as possible, certainly as low as the rate put on the finished article, which at present was about 25 per cent. Mr. Inglis also believed that labour should have been better protected, and he felt certain this would be done now that Mr. Laurier was taking the direction of affairs. With the lowering of duties on raw material and with the assurance of economical government, Mr. Inglis now looks forward to an early return of business activity, and consequently better times for everybody.

Sour Stomach

Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because with its wonderful power as a blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it seems to have "a magic touch."

"For over 12 years I suffered from sour with severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These spells came oftener and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine." MRS. SHOULD KNOW THAT

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER

Is a very remarkable remedy, both for INTERNAL and EXTERNAL use, and wonderful in its quick action to relieve distress.

PAIN-KILLER is a sure cure for Sore Throat, Coughs, Chills, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cramps, Cholera, and all bowel Complaints.

PAIN-KILLER is THE BEST remedy known for Sea Sickness, Sick Headache, Pain in the Back or Side, Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

PAIN-KILLER is UNQUESTIONABLY the BEST LINIMENT MADE. It brings SURE AND PERMANENT RELIEF in all cases of Bruises, Cuts, Sprains, Severe Burns, etc.

PAIN-KILLER is the well tried and trusted friend of the Mechanic, Farmer, Planter, Sailor, and in fact all classes wanting a medicine always at hand, and SAFE TO USE internally or externally with certainty of relief.

Beware of imitations. Take none but the genuine "PERRY DAVIS." Sold everywhere, 25c. big bottle.

NO TRIFLING SUBJECT!

Headache a Misery and a Burden.

PERMANENTLY BANISHED BY USE OF PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

No Other Medicine in the World Has Ever Cured as Many Cases of Sick and Nervous Headache.

Sick and nervous headaches are amongst the worst ills of life.

The man or woman who is subject to headache at irregular intervals, goes through life with a load of misery and wretchedness that is terrible to think of.

When headache is accompanied by sickness of the stomach and vomiting, it is called sick headache. Without sickness and vomiting, it is known as nervous headache. In either form a disordered nervous system produces the trouble, and the only remedy is Paine's Celery Compound, which will give almost instant relief and a permanent cure.

It is a great mistake to consider headache a trifling disease. It may not be dangerous in itself, but it shows that the nervous system is out of tone and gear, and that some serious trouble is fastening itself upon the person, which in time may produce terribly dangerous results.

All danger may be averted if Paine's Celery Compound is used to strengthen the nerves and keep the digestive organs in good working condition. No medicine in the world has ever given such grand results to sufferers from headache. Scores of letters are received every month from those who have suffered for long years, and who were finally cured by Paine's Celery Compound, after failures with other medicines. Mrs. F. R. Walker of Montreal, writes as follows:

"For many years I was a sufferer from sick headache, which came on two or three times a month. My doctor could do but little to relieve me, and the many prescriptions and patent medicines I used proved useless. Once while I was laid up for three days, a friend advised me to use Paine's Celery Compound. I now thank God for her advice. An hour after the first dose I found great relief, and next day I was better. I continued with the Compound until I had used three bottles, and now I believe that I am permanently cured, as I have not had a touch of my old complaint for months."

The tiger's strength exceeds that of the lion. Five men can easily hold down a lion; but nine are required to hold a tiger.

Nervous Prostration.

Cured effectually by Scott's Sarsaparilla.

His heart was affected.

"Overwork as a student at college brought on an attack of nervous prostration," says Mr. Gilbert, a railway missionary. "I was exceedingly nervous and if I exerted myself my heart commenced to flutter violently, and I was warned that even ordinary exercise endangered my life. But thanks to Scott's Sarsaparilla I feel better than I ever expected to feel, for I can now address a meeting without effort, can walk a brisk pace for two hours or more without exhaustion and am free from that distressing palpitation. In my work I have oftentime recommended Scott's Sarsaparilla, and have seen many cases where its effects have been most marked."

Scott's Sarsaparilla acts like magic in restoring shattered nerves because it rebuilds the nerve centres. Nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia and all nerve derangements wear on the system. Scott's Sarsaparilla makes new blood and muscles and strong nerves. Of all druggists, $1 per bottle. Dose from half to one teaspoonful.

RHODES GOES OUT.

B.S.A. Company Directors Accept His Resignation.

ALFRED BELT ALSO STEPS DOWN

The Decision Reached After Anxious Consultation With Mr. Chamberlain—The Retiring Officers Thanked—Directors Regret the Occurrences in the Transvaal.

London, June 26.—The directors of the British South Africa Co. announce that they have, after anxious and considerable consideration and consultation with Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, resolved to accept the resignation of Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Belt, as directors of the company. The board record their profound appreciation of Mr. Rhodes' services to the Empire, and thank both Messrs. Rhodes and Belt. They pledge themselves to continue to devote their energies to maintain and develop Rhodesia, the administration of which remains vested in the company. The directors further say they regret that the occurrences in the Transvaal in December and January, of which they did not have cognizance, compel them to accept the resignations of Messrs. Rhodes and Belt.

NOW IN A CONVICT'S GARB.

The Once Mighty Baron Von Hammerstein Must Stand Up Monument for Three Years With Hard Labor.

Berlin, June 26.—The Supreme Court of the Empire, sitting at Leipsic, has rejected the appeal of Baron Von Hammerstein, formerly leader of the Conservatives in the Reichstag, and editor-in-chief of The Kreuz Zeitung, from the sentence imposed upon him by the Berlin Court upon his conviction of forgery on April 22 last. The sentence of the court was that he be imprisoned for three years at hard labor, that he forfeit his civil rights for five years, and that he pay a fine of 1200 marks. This sentence was regarded by both his friends and enemies alike as being one of extreme severity, it having been expected that, inasmuch as Hammerstein humbly confessed his errors and avoided making disclosures which would have involved many of his former associates, who are still in high places, he would escape the ignominy of convict labor, and receive a sentence of simple imprisonment, and the case was promptly appealed with the result as announced to day. As nothing further can be done in Hammerstein's behalf, that once influential editor and powerful political leader will have to don convict's garb and begin his term of penal servitude at once.

Lyons, June 26.—Prof. Hortel, who has experimented on guinea pigs, says his investigations prove that Roentgen rays prevent the development of the bacilli of tuberculosis.

The New University of Wales.

London, June 26.—At Aberystwith this afternoon the Prince of Wales was installed with great ceremony in the office of Chancellor of the lately established University of Wales, to which he was elected a year ago. The degree of Doctor of Music was conferred by the university upon the Princess of Wales, and that of Doctor of Letters upon Mr. Gladstone.

Presbyterians Want Peace.

Glasgow, June 26.—The Presbyterian Convention, which has been sitting in this city since June 17, unanimously passed a resolution to-day to petition the Governments of Great Britain and the United States for the establishment of a permanent board of arbitration, to settle disputes which may arise between the two nations. The delegates to the convention, included in the number of which there were 60 ministers from the United States, were entertained at the Glasgow University this afternoon. The convention will conclude its session this evening.

Buluwayo, June 26.—Capt. Laing's force has routed the Matabeles at Bellingwe, killing the famous Chief Solembo and three of his sons, together with 250 of their followers. Umtali Station is now safe.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

Mrs. Liscumbe Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Liscumbe is well known in Havelock and this is how she spoke to our representative:—

"I have been troubled for some time with severe pains in the side and back. I took many medicines of various kinds, but got no relief.

"The box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at W. H. Jeff & Co's. druggists gave me wonderful relief from the start. The improvement in my general health is not the least of the benefits which I have derived from the use of this remarkable kidney remedy.

"I can recommend them very highly to anyone troubled with any form of kidney disease."

A Residence Burned.

Springford, Ont., June 26.—The residence of Mr. Carman was destroyed by fire early this morning. The fire started from a spark from a stove in the kitchen. Only a part of the contents was saved. The house and contents were valued at $1200; insured in the Gore Fire Insurance Company of Galt for $1100.

A Free Silver Candidate.

Baltimore, June 26.—Senator Gorman will positively not go to Chicago for the National Convention. He does not think there is any chance at this late hour, to stem the free silver tide, but believes that a free silver candidate will be nominated. He says Boies will probably be chosen.

The doctor may be a good old man, but even so, medical examinations and the "local-application" treatment are abhorrent to every modest woman. They are embarrassing—often useless. They should not be submitted to until everything else has been tried. In nine cases out of ten, there is no reason for them. In nine cases out of ten, the doctor in general practice isn't competent to treat female diseases. They make a branch of medicine by themselves. They are distinct from other ailments. They can be properly understood and treated only by one who has had years of actual practice and experience in this particular line. This is true of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N.Y. Dr. Pierce's Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy for all derangements of the reproductive organs of women, has been in actual use for more than thirty years. It cures every form of "female weakness."

Norway Pine Syrup strengthens the lungs and cures all throat troubles, colds, etc.

For Dyspepsia and Bad Blood Humors Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound is unexcelled.

Mr. Geo. Reid, G.T.R. Operator, New Hamburg, Ont., under date of March 3rd, 1896, writes as follows: "I was troubled for two years with Boils and Dyspepsia of the worst kind. Tried several medicines, but none gave much relief. Until I tried Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound my blood was in a dreadful state, but I am happy to say your medicine cured me."

VITALITY in MEN Restored

Failing Sexual Strength in Old or Young Men can be QUICKLY and PERMANENTLY cured by me to a healthy, vigorous state. Sufferers from Nervous Debility, Weakness, Varicocele and all wasting diseases, should write to me for advice.

I have been a close student for many years of the subject of weakness in men, the fact is, I was a sufferer myself. Too bashful to seek the aid of older men or reputable physicians, I investigated the subject deeply and discovered a simple but most remarkably successful Remedy that completely cured me, and fully enlarged me from a shrunken, stunted condition to natural size and strength. I want every young or old man to know about it. I take a personal interest in such cases, and no one need hesitate to write me, as all communications are held strictly confidential. I send the recipe of this remedy absolutely free of cost. Do not put it off, but write me fully at once, you will always bless the day you did so. Address,

Taken to Marmora.

Howie and Doucie, the two tramps who were arrested in the C.P.R. yards on the strength of a telegram from Marmora, were taken to that village last night by Constable Boutter and an assistant who came up with him. It seems that C. R. Hubble's safe was blown open in Marmora the previous night and $40 stolen. Three suspicious characters who were in the village the day before were traced as far as the Central Ontario Junction and were suspected of having come on to Peterborough, hence the arrest of the prisoners.

The following despatch was received in connection with the case this afternoon: "The two men arrested at Peterborough yesterday morning by the Chief of Police of that place, were brought to Marmora and tried this morning before Justice Kelly for burglarizing B. C. Hubble's store. They were found guilty. Mrs. Wright identified both men."

POST ELECTION EPISTLES.

Congratulatory and Apologetic Effusions.

By one of those curious circumstances that prove that there is a loop hole in the most carefully planned precautions of secrecy, the following letters, of which a copy is printed below, came into the hands of the EXAMINER:—

John Carnegie, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—Permit me to most cordially thank you for the eminently successful services you rendered in securing my triumphant election for North Simcoe and for increasing my majority from 256 to 1171. Although you apparently spoke in opposition to my candidature the electors must have felt that you were speaking ironically for they could not realize that you could "rat" from the anti-Separate School stand you took in the provincial election in West Peterborough, when I had the pleasure of speaking in your favour. I regard your assistance in the recent contest as a graceful reciprocation of the little service I was able to do you upon the platform.

Would you also kindly convey to Mr. J. W. Garvin my hearty acknowledgement of the assistance which his modest personality and brilliant oratory contributed to swelling my majority.

Yours very gratefully,
(Signed) DALTON MCCARTHY.

Another letter is in a far different strain—one of regret:—

James Stevenson, Esq.:

I very sincerely regret that the obstinancy of the electors of Canada, who entered into a hellish conspiracy to defeat the best government, under the most brilliant leader that Canada ever saw, make it impossible for me to keep my promise. I recognize the claims you have arising out of the fact that you retired from West Peterborough on being "provided for," and I exceedingly deplore my inability to "deliver the goods." These pestilent Grits have had the impudence to put a guard on the boodle box which I would gladly have thrown open to my friends. I am afraid the good old days are gone.

Yours despondently,
(Sgd) CHARLES TUPPER.

PERSONAL.

Mr. R. Fairweather was in Lindsay yesterday.

Miss Glover was visiting friends in Lakefield this week.

Miss Martha E. Beatty, of Ashburnham, is visiting friends in Lakefield.

Miss Dot Hackett has returned from Montreal to spend the holidays.

Mr. John Sawers and family left to day to occupy their summer cottage at Stony Lake.

Mr. Guy Rogers is home from the Royal Military College, Kingston, on his holidays.

Rev. J. J. Rae went to Bowmanville to-day to conduct anniversary services in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stratton left to-day for Quebec. While in the East they will take in the Saguenay trip.

Miss Etta Reynolds, of Lakefield, has returned home after visiting friends in Peterborough and other places.

Mrs. Rolster, Ennismore, was in town during the week, visiting old neighbours, friends and acquaintances in town.

Miss Stella and Albert Lemay, of Watertown, N. Y., are visiting their sisters, Mrs. R. P. Gough and Mrs. H. LeBrun.

Mr. W. C. Bourne, of the Post Office, and Mrs. Bourne, leave to-day for a two weeks' visit to friends in Montreal and the province of Quebec.

The Campbellford Gazette says:—Mrs. Rohrer and Miss Lander, who have lately been the guests of Mrs. D. Kerr, left on Wednesday for Peterborough and Lindsay.

Mr. Harry McCleary, of New York, brother of Rev. J. W. McCleary, arrived in town last evening, having wheeled from Albany to Rochester and from Fort Hope to Peterborough. After spending a few days in town with his brother, Mr. McCleary will wheel on to Toronto, for a visit.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 23.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in this city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

REMEMBERED BY HIS PUPILS.

Mr. W. J. Drope Presented With Some Handsome Gifts.

The school term practically closed yesterday, though examinations will continue for many weeks yet. The pupils of the Collegiate Institute seeing that it would be the last occasion when Mr Drope, the Commercial Master, would be amongst them, as he is leaving for other fields, took advantage of the opportunity to make him a presentation.

After the closing of school Mr. Drope received a note to the effect that his presence was required in one of the class rooms, and hurriedly repaired thither without a suspicion of what was in the wind. It was a genuine surprise, and the reading of the appended address by Miss Grace Kendry was almost too much for him:

Mr. W. J. Drope, B. A., Peterborough, Ont.

We, the students of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, have gathered here this afternoon to express our appreciation of your work as a teacher, our regret at your departure, and our hearty well wishes for your future success.

During the six years that you have been in the Institute you have, by the interesting way in which you have given your instructions, succeeded in creating such an interest in the branches you have taught, as has led to very successful results in your school work.

We believe that long after our school life closes that interest will continue.

We feel that your concern for our welfare has not been one-sided, and that, whilst you have been very painstaking as regards our mental development, you have not forgotten that one of the first requisites to success in life is to have a good physique. To this end, the intelligent direction you have given to the school sports, has greatly contributed. We can assure you that your presence amongst us in the field of sports has conduced to make our efforts in that line a means of culture.

For the work upon which you have chosen to enter on leaving here, we know that your success is assured. Your work in this, one of the first Collegiate Institutes of the Province, is a guarantee of the most desirable kind of success.

In expressing a very high regard for you personally, and a sincere appreciation of your work as a teacher, we voice, not only our own sentiments but also, the sentiments of the pupils who have attended the Collegiate since you have been here.

As a slight memento of the high estimation in which you are held by the students of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute we ask you to accept this gift.

Signed on behalf of the school,

W B Beer,	H M Cahill,
H E Howson,	J H Fessenden,
M C Boswell,	N Lee,
E E Lewis,	J L Maude,
E C Judge,	G Owens.

June 26, 1896.

Mr. Jack Fessenden then stepped forward and presented Mr. Drope with a suitably inscribed gold headed ebony cane, and a most handsome solid silver smoker's set of beautiful design, consisting of half-a-dozen pieces, including ash tray, cigar holders, etc.

The thoughtful action of the pupils in remembering him in this way, was almost too much for Mr. Drope, who was barely able to reply.

The magnificence of the gift bears testimony to the esteem in which the popular Commercial Master is held among his pupils, in whose studies he has always taken such interest as to win for himself their love and respect. The gifts were purchased from Mr. W. A. Sanderson.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

A paper will be read at the Young Men's meeting to morrow p.m., entitled "Lot, or the life of Compromise."

We regret having to say good-bye to Mr. Arnold Prest, who has during the week accepted a lucrative position in Brantford, Ont. Mr. Prest was always alive to bringing a new man into the membership, and will be a valuable helper in the association to which he now goes.

Yokefellow's band meets at 7.30 to-night as usual.

The chorus club has decided to take a vacation until September 1st.

Young men and old should not fail to read Thos. Slater's advertisement on page 3.

THE ANNUAL INSPECTION.

The Rangers Put Through Their Facings by the D.A.G.

The annual inspection of the Rangers took place last evening on Burnham's Point and a large number of the citizens were on the grounds to watch the execution of interesting military manœuvres.

The Battalion marched on the field at about 6.30 o'clock and formed in line to receive Lt.-Col. Otter, Inspector of Infantry, and Lt.-Col. Vidal, D.A.G. Arms were presented as the two officers rode up and the band, which was drawn up in the rear, played a few bars of the National anthem.

The D.A.G. and the Inspector of Infantry then went through the lines inspecting the men, after which the mounted officers of the 57th put the Battalion through its facings for an hour and a half.

At the conclusion of the inspection the Deputy Adjt. General briefly addressed the men pointing out a few defects, but commending their general appearance, which he thought showed that the material was possessed for attaining even higher honours than those hitherto won by the Battalion.

After marching back to the drill shed a muster parade was held and the name of every man enlisted called, showing the strength of the Battalion to be two hundred and sixty four.

After dismissal of the men the officers were examined orally.

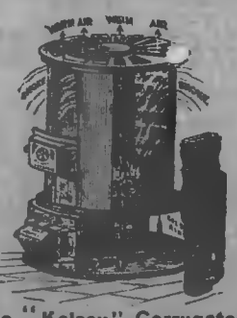
The Most Economical House Warmer



The "Kelsey" Corrugated Warm Air Generator.

Any ordinary Hot Air Furnace will produce heat if you will only supply enough fuel. The "Kelsey" has several special and valuable features but most important is that it will give more heat with less fuel and is the most durable heater made.

The "Kelsey" fire pot being constructed of several upright, tubular, corrugated, cast iron sections (see cut) around which the fire passes and up through which the cold air passes while being heated, and this entire section being wrapped with a heavy steel casing which becomes heated by the fire striking it when passing down outside of upright sections towards smoke pipe, it in turn warms the air that passes up between this steel casing and the galvanized iron casing, this explains why the "Kelsey" has three times more radiating surface and warm air capacity than an ordinary Furnace. The "Kelsey" heats every room evenly, wherever located, with a nice, mild, healthful warm air that will not injure your furniture.

The "Kelsey" will heat rooms 60 feet distant.

The "Kelsey" does not heat your cellar.

The "Kelsey" is absolutely gas and dust proof.

Who Lost an Umbrella?

The Lakefield News says,—One day last week a lady from here went down to Peterborough taking an umbrella with her. She went into a store to do some shopping and put her umbrella down. Coming out she picked it up again, but on getting back to Lakefield, she found that instead of her own it was a new umbrella which had never been used. Her surprise may be imagined, and the queerest part of it is she does not know where she left the umbrella.

Lindsay Railroaders Pass Through.

The annual excursion of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen of Lindsay passed through yesterday by train. The train consisted of nine coaches and a baggage car, was in charge of Conductor W. Crozier, and was hauled by engine 639, Engineman David Clarke. The Lindsay band accompanied the party. The train ran on to Belleville where the excursionsionists took the steamer Ella Ross for Massassaga park, where they picnicked. A programme of sports had been provided and was carried out. The baseball club of Lindsay also were along and played a game with the Belleville nine in the afternoon. The excursion returned at eight o'clock.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

THE TORONTO PRESS AND THE CABINET VACANCY.

The selection of a member to fill the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, caused by the retirement of Sir Oliver Mowat, is engaging the attention of the Toronto newspapers, and the following remarks made may be of some local interest:

Toronto World.

The race between Speaker Balfour, E. J. Davis and J. R. Stratton for the Crown Lands portfolio, to be rendered vacant on the accession of Hon. A. S. Hardy to the Premiership of Ontario, when Sir Oliver goes to Ottawa, is becoming a keen one, and a fourth entry is now on the political books in the person of Mr. Garrow, the member for Huron. Mr. Garrow visited Toronto yesterday and consulted James Sutherland, the Dominion Liberal whip, but it is considered that, as he is a member of the legal profession, he has too great a weight up to make a showing on the home stretch.

Of the three others, Mr. Stratton seems to have got away first and he is now on the inside track and leading his opponents by several lengths.

He certainly has everything in his favour. In the first place, being a man who has depended on himself to make his own mark in life, he has developed good fighting qualities, and would therefore be considered a decided acquisition to the Government.

Secondly, he is a newspaper man, and will, therefore, have the support of the press, which, as the recent Dominion elections prove, carries a lot of weight these days.

Thirdly, five members of the Government come from Western Ontario, while only two hold seats in the east, and Mr. Stratton's appointment would help to even things up.

And last, but not least, though Mr. Davis is depending upon his standing in the Methodist church, to help him through, Mr. Stratton also has a big pull in the same direction.

The member for Peterborough, therefore, seems likely to distance the other entries for the Crown Lands steeplechase.

Toronto Star.

Of the three, four or five aspirants to the vacant position in the Ontario Cabinet which Sir Oliver Mowat's retirement will create, Mr. J. R. Stratton seems the most favourable of all those named.

Mr. Stratton is an able and energetic debater, and outside of the Cabinet has probably done the best of the speaking during this Parliament. He isn't a lawyer, but a newspaper man, and that is in his favour, for the Ontario Government is a little in disfavour, because so many legal gentlemen sit around the Cabinet board.

The larger share of the Government comes from the west, and only one of the six lives east of Toronto. It is a principle of all Canadian legislatures, where other things are equal, that localities should count.

Then the Mowat administration is in the habit of selecting in every possible case a Cabinet Minister from a thriving city. Thus Mr. Gibson is from Hamilton, Mr. Hardy from Brantford, and Mr. Harty from Kingston. Now, Mr. Stratton comes from Peterborough, as thriving a place as any of those named. Mr. Balfour, one of the possibilities, has already a position in the Government, and cannot well complain of hard usage.

It seems, accordingly, as though Mr. Stratton would be successful, and the Government will not make much of a mistake in choosing him.

Toronto World, June 27.

Nothing will be done in the matter of the re-formation of the Ontario Cabinet until Sir Oliver's return from the east, which will probably be on Tuesday or Wednesday next. The fight for the odd portfolio seems to have narrowed down to a two-men contest, with the chances in favour of Mr. J. R. Stratton beating out E. J. Davis. Mr. Davis, by the way, was up at the Parliament buildings yesterday, trying to work his cards with Hon. Hon. A. S. Hardy, the Premier to-be.

Toronto Mail and Empire.

Through the turnover at Ottawa Sir Oliver Mowat will be able to cut the string attached to his Premiership and pass the position to his successor. It has been hinted that Mr. David Mills may succeed him. But while Mr. Mills is an able man and a fine constitutional authority, Mr. Hardy, who has been acting Premier for some time, and who really led the House during the last session, has stronger claims, and these, no doubt, will be recognized. It will be Mr. Hardy, Premier of Ontario, in a few days, and Sir Arthur Hardy after a year or so. With Sir Arthur as Premier a good man will be required for the Crown Lands Department, which is the most important of the several bureaus. There can be little doubt that Mr. Gibson will be placed in control of that branch. This will render the Provincial Secretaryship vacant. The filling of this office necessitates a look around. As it is Mr. Hardy, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Rose and Mr. Harcourt represent Western Ontario in the Cabinet, while Mr. Dryden, Mr. Harty and Mr. Bronson sit for the East. Mr. Bronson's position is purely honorary, and Mr. Harty, although coming from the East, represents not the East specially, but an important element throughout the entire province. As a matter of fact there is but one Minister who can be regarded as exclusively and actively Eastern. It follows then that Mr. Hardy, unless he is prepared to disappoint that part of the province, will have to look to the East for a wise man as his colleague. Mr. Stratton of Peterborough, has been mentioned in this connection. He is a clever business man—the head of important institutions—a good debater, and an able journalist. The Conservatives, possibly, would rather that somebody else were selected. But the Liberals do not usually consult Conservative preferences in matters of this nature. They look for what they regard as the best man for the position. If they call upon Mr. Stratton, as seems possible, it will have to be confessed that they have made a good choice.

ONTARIO CABINET REPRESENTATION.

Now that the Dominion elections have returned Mr. Laurier to power, Sir Oliver Mowat is called to his councils, creating a vacancy in the Ontario cabinet and necessitating a rearrangement of portfolios, owing to Hon. Mr. Hardy being advanced to the position of Premier. In filling the vacancy that exists it seems that some circumstances, that have not hitherto been given their due weight, should be taken into consideration. One of the principles of the Liberal party is representation by population in Parliament, and it does not seem unreasonable that in cabinet construction or re-arrangement, the principle of representation by support, in relation to district, should be recognized. Time was when the Ontario Government depended chiefly upon Western Ontario for its support, but in recent years the efforts of Liberals in the eastern part of Ontario have resulted in the government receiving an equally strong support in the eastern half of the province. In fairness the changed conditions demand that this fact should be taken into consideration. Of the present Cabinet Ministers four are in or west of Toronto, leaving only three east of that point. But as a matter of fact there are only two Cabinet Ministers representing Eastern Ontario—Mr. Dryden and Mr. Bronson. Hon. Mr. Harty must be regarded not as a representative of the east but, as a representative of his co-religionists of the whole province. This disparity should receive attention. Not only has Eastern Ontario increased its representative importance, but its development has been so marked that more direct ministerial representation is emphatically suggested. In presenting these facts there is no intention of reflecting upon the well known capacity and administrative ability of any of the ministers, but it is intended to call attention to a disparity of distribution of the personnel of the Cabinet, which in fairness should not exist, and we sincerely hope that in the pending re-arrangement of the Ontario Cabinet the matter will receive due attention.

From time to time the EXAMINER has been called upon to defend the Government for its failure to recognize the importance of the eastern section of Ontario in the matter of appointments and in the matter of Cabinet representation, and now that the opportunity presents to remedy this condition of affairs, it should certainly be practically accepted, by selecting the new member from among the representatives of Eastern Ontario. Fair play in the premises is all that is asked, and the opportunity of exercising that fair play which now presents, should not be ignored. The new member of the Cabinet should not be selected from Western Ontario.

VIAVI.
VICTORIOUS OVER PREJUDICE.
No Morphia or Other Harmful Drugs.
The proprietors of this remedy have been subjected to much trouble and expense at the hands of the Medical Council.
Their lecturers, who are chosen for their womanly qualities and refinement, have been dragged into the police courts upon the charge that they are engaged in the practice of medicine, contrary to the Medical Act.
All these proceedings have properly failed, for it has been openly stated by the chief informer of the Council that the proceedings were taken to drive the proprietors out of business.
Having failed in this line, another method of attack was chosen and a wanton information was laid at the instance of the chief informer that the remedy contained morphia. Five of the leading analytical chemists in the Dominion of Canada, one of them employed at the instance of Police Magistrate Denison as an independent expert, testify that morphia is not found in the remedy.
The charge is false, and has been proved to be false.
VIAVI has asserted it power against prejudice and professional jealousy. Its proprietors wage no war against medical men. VIAVI has a work of its own to perform outside the work of the physician. It has a remedy which is prescribed by physicians, who have studied and understand its qualities.
Its Tuesday afternoon lectures have been attended by thousands of the leading women in Toronto, who testify that delicacy and good sense mark the instructions given by the lecturer.
VIAVI is an absolutely pure vegetable food, and assists nature perform her duties by feeding the weakened tissues, removing inflammation and purifying the the blood. Women need not suffer on, when they are positively assured that all forms of growths, displacements, congestions, inflammation and nerve disorders are being cured every day. VIAVI cures all these disorders, and often has to do it after some physician has made a wreck of the patient. VIAVI is doing more for the health of the women of Ontario than all other means combined. This statement is proven by testimonials in black and white.
Investigate this treatment. A competent lady physician in attendance who interviews free, either in person or by mail.

The man with a weight on his leg can't hope to win in the race. A man with a weight on his health can't expect to compete in life and business with those who are not handicapped. A man who spends two-thirds of his time in business, and one-third of his time being sick, cannot be expected to accomplish more than two-thirds as much as the man who attends to business all the time. If his brain is heavy, and his blood sluggish, because of constipation, he will not succeed in doing anything very well. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of all sickness. It isn't considered sickness by most people, but it is just the same. It is serious sickness, because it causes almost all of the ill-health of mankind. Symptoms of it are sallowness, listlessness, poor appetite, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness, biliousness, and lassitude. Constipation can be cured easily and certainly by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are perfectly simple—perfectly safe. They are not at all violent in their action, and yet they are more certain than many medicines which are so strong that they put the system all out of order. The great advantage of the "Pleasant Pellets" is that they cure permanently. You don't have to keep on taking them. You don't acquire a "pellet habit." Take them regularly for a while, and you are cured permanently. After that, take them only when you find yourself suffering from indigestion. There are many medicines offered for the same purpose on which druggists make a bigger profit. For this reason, some druggists would rather sell the other things. If your own health is of more importance to you than the druggist's prosperity, you will insist on having what you ask for.

ANOTHER GREAT TRIUMPH.

THE BOWMANVILLE NEWS INTERVIEWS MR. JOHN HAWKENS.

And is Given Particulars of a Nine Years' Suffering from Asthma, from Which He Has Been Restored to Health When His Case Was Looked On as Hopeless.

From the News, Bowmanville.

During the past five years the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have developed into a household word, and from several cases that have come under our personal observation, there is not the least doubt in our minds but that they are a boon to mankind, and in scores of instances have saved life, when everything else had failed. The case of Mr. Sharp, whose case we published some time ago, was one of the most remarkable that we have heard of. To-day he is as well as ever he was in his life, and is daily knocking about in all weathers attending to his farm duties. Recently another triumph for Pink Pills came under our observation, and, after interviewing the person cured, he gave permission to make the facts public, and we will give the story in his own words. Mr.

John Hawkens, who resides in the township of Darlington, some ten miles north of Bowmanville, and whose post office is Enniskillen, came to the county from Cornwall, England, some 45 years ago and up to the time of his sickness had always been a hard-working man. One day, however, while attending his work, he got wet, took a chill and a severe cold followed, which finally developed to asthma. During the succeeding nine years he was a terrible sufferer from that distressing disease and gradually grew so bad that he could not work, frequently spent sleepless nights, and had little or no appetite. Finally he could hardly walk across the room without panting for breath and would sit all day with his elbows resting on his knees—the only position which seemed to give him ease, and at one time he never laid down for six weeks. As it was a hardship for him to talk, all he asked was to be left alone. During this time he had been doctoring and had tried nearly everything, and spent over $100, but got no relief. Finally someone recommended him to take Pink Pills. He thought they could do him no harm at any rate, and procuring a supply he commenced taking them. After he had taken three boxes he found that he was improving, and after taking two more boxes, to the astonishment of all, he walked across the field to the woods and cut up a cord of wood. He continued the pills and took two more boxes, making seven in all, and to-day is as well as he ever was, but always keeps a box of Pink Pills in the house. The neighbours all began to ask him what he had done, as the asthma had left him, and they never expected to hear of him being well again. To one and all he tells that it was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that did it, and has recommended them to scores of people since his recovery.

With such wonderful cures as these occurring in all parts of the Dominion it is no wonder that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have achieved a greater reputation than any other known medicine. All that is asked for them is a fair trial and the results are rarely disappointing.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills strike at the root of the disease, driving it from the system and restoring the patient to health and strength. In cases of paralysis, spinal troubles, locomotor ataxia, sciatica, rheumatism, erysipelas, scrofulous troubles, etc., these pills are superior to all other treatment. They are also a specific for the troubles which make the lives of so many women a burden, and speedily restore the rich glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. Men broken down by overwork, worry or excesses, will find in Pink Pills a certain cure. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail postpaid, at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2 50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Beware of imitations and substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

YELLOW FEVER IN CUBA.

A Fear at Washington That the Disease Will Become Epidemic—The U.S. Taking Precautions.

Washington, June 26.—The most alarming report from Cuba with respect to yellow fever comes from Sagua La Grande, where the marine service is advised by its last report there are 41 cases and 4 deaths. It is expected that within a very short time the fever will become epidemic, and if it does not become virulent in the city of Havana all previous experiences will be set aside. The department has, however, received no advices to the effect that cholera has appeared anywhere on the island. The present war and its relation to the sanitary conditions of Cuba is referred to in the last annual report of Surgeon-General Wyman, and the statement then made which report the conditions of this summer, only in a more aggravated form. On this subject General Wyman then said that the insurrection had interfered to a great extent in the transmission of exact information from the disturbed provinces and the normal condition of health in the island had been largely modified by the presence of a great body of non-immune Spanish soldiers. These persons have taken the disease and added to the natural number of cases annually prevalent in that island. The difficulties experienced last summer will be met with again this year. Absolute knowledge as to the number of troops stricken with the disease is denied by the Spanish Government. The reports from Havana last year showed a total of 1593 cases and a mortality of 30 per cent. This summer special precautions will be taken to prevent the introduction from Cuba into the United States of yellow fever. Each of the four revenue cutters patrolling the Florida coast carries sanitary inspectors to intercept the fishing smacks and other vessels coming direct from Cuba, with no intent to enter legally any port of entry, and also for the purpose of intercepting any returning filibustering expedition or refugees seeking to land surreptitiously. Sanitary inspectors either have been or will be stationed permanently in Havana and Santiago, and such inspectors will be sent to every seaport of Cuba to report to the Marine Hospital Service of the prevalence of yellow fever.

WHO IS THIS MAN?

Body of the Veteran Hunter Found Floating in Lake Nipissing is still Unidentified—Religious Monomaniac.

North Bay, June 26.—On June 4, a man 70 years of age registered at the Queen's Hotel as James Peters, Toronto. On Monday, the 22nd, his body was found floating in Lake Nipissing. The clothing was good. He had a 14k gold watch and a hunting outfit, also a tent and necessary utensils for camping out. The only means of identification, if such they can be called, was a card of welcome to a Bible class that was held on Sunday mornings at 11 a.m. in Shaftesbury Hall, room D. On a scrap of paper found in his pocket with the card were written a number of phrases, from the Bible, among them: "Flee into the mountains," "The church in the wilderness."

When the body was found the overcoat pockets were full of stones and there was a severe contusion over the right eye. This led some to believe that he was a victim of foul play, and Coroner Doran held an inquest, which was adjourned. Station Agent McKeown testified that the man's baggage had been checked from Bracebridge to Callender on May 30, and from Callender to North Bay on June 1. The remains have not yet been identified.

What She Said.

Mrs. R. Peck, E. 15th street, New York city, visited Canada last year, and had the good fortune to pick up something which not only suited her, but her neighbours also. Writing the manufacturer of Nerviline, she says:—"I bought three bottles of Nerviline while in Canada and treated my neighbours to some of it, and all think it the best medicine for internal or external pain they have ever used."

RECIPROCITY.

A Good Feeling for Closer Commercial Relations With Canada Views of Republican Leaders.

Washington, June 26.—(Globe special)—The success of the Liberal party is the subject of much comment here to-day and is very favorably received by the Republicans, who will likely control this Government after March 4 next. Closer commercial arrangements between this country and Canada have long been desired by leading Republicans, as is shown by the resolutions for commercial reciprocity introduced in former Congresses by Mr. Hitt, now Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the House, and Mr. Sherman, Chairman of the same committee in the Senate. Republican leaders have all along recognized the hollowness of the pretensions of the Conservative party on this question, and that fact was the real cause of the coolness which met Sir Charles Tupper, Sir John Thompson and Mr. Foster when they came here to talk reciprocity five years ago. The interest in the subject shown by the Liberal leaders has convinced the Republican leaders here that with the success of the Liberals in Canada and the prospective success of the Republicans here next November, much closer commercial relations between Canada and the United States will be assured.

Not many business houses in the United States can boast of fifty years' standing. The business of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., who incomparable Sarsaparilla is known and used everywhere, has passed its half-centennial and was never so vigorous as at present.

A Steamer Scuttled.

Liverpool, June 26.—The British steamer Lucerne, while loading for an eastward voyage, was discovered to be on fire at midnight and was scuttled and sunk to prevent her total destruction. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp. The steamer is now being pumped out.

School Regents' Convention.

Albany, N.Y., June 26.—The Regents' convocation adjourned to-day, after discussing papers on "Best Methods of Inspection of Schools," by Director William Houston of Ontario, Canada, and F. A. Hill, Secretary of the Massachusetts Board of Education, and "The Regents' Duty in Protecting University Institutions from Unfair Competition," by Regent T. Guilford Smith of Buffalo.

British Exports to the U.S.

Washington, June 25.—A remarkable falling off in the exports to the United States from the Bradford Consular District in England during the past four months has caused considerable surprise in commercial circles. The decrease is most noticeable for May, which shows a falling off of $1,703,502, equivalent to 70 per cent., while as recently as January there was an increase of $489,932, equal to 21 per cent. February shows a decrease of 12 per cent., March a decrease of 36 per cent., and April a decrease of 50 per cent.

The Mashonas are Fighters.

Buluwayo, June 25.—Capt. Turner with a British patrol made an attack yesterday upon a native kraal at the Beatrice Mine. The Mashonas resisted the attack and poured a heavy fire into the patrol, compelling Capt. Turner to abandon his wagons and retreat. He was successful in saving his ammunition. The men composing the patrol declare that trained white soldiers are assisting the Mashonas.

AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING

Two Box Cure

MILVERTON, 29TH JULY, 1895.

Gentlemen,—For the last ten years I had been troubled with kidney disease, being so bad at intervals that I could not lie in bed at night nor stoop to the ground.

I had tried all the remedies I could find without effect, but heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and procured a box.

I am most happy to say it for my own sake as well as for others that I am perfectly cured after using four boxes.

TO THE MARK.

In all diseases that affect humanity there is some weak link in the chain of health, some spot that is the seat of the trouble. It may be the liver, it may be the stomach; perhaps it is the bowels or the kidneys; most likely it is the blood. Burdock Blood Bitters goes straight to that spot, strengthens the weak link in the chain, removes the cause of the disease, and restores health, because it acts with cleansing force and curative power upon the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood.

With good red blood health is assured, without it disease is certain to come and Burdock

THE BEST

FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

This Season's Shirt Waists.

Although there were many predictions to the contrary, the recent hot waves have proved conclusively that shirt waists are certainly to be fashionable again this season, says Harper's Bazar. The truth is, in our severe hot weather there are no garments quite so cool or comfortable to wear, and as they are sold at prices ranging from 50 cents to $8, it can easily be seen why so many of them are worn. But there are shirt waists and shirt waists, and the cheapest qualities bear very little resemblance to the expensive ones that are made to order by the leading haberdashers. To order shirts from these same haberdashers involves providing one's self with a good stock of patience, for six weeks' time is now the earliest period in which they will promise to fill any order. Two weeks, as a great favor, may insure the delivery of two or three, but never any more.

A COOL SHIRT WAIST.

The materials used for the most expensive shirt waists are entirely different from the materials that are bought by the yard in the shops. They are imported expressly for the purpose, and consequently are quite distinctive. Madras of different qualities, but all cool and sheer, fancy muslins—the latter not so smart as the Madras ginghams—and a thin weight of fancy white duck are used. The solid colors with a hair stripe of white, while not the newest, still rank among the most desirable patterns. The old-fashioned flowered chintzes that are associated in our minds with curtain hangings have been reproduced in the Madras shirtings. A pale pink and white square pattern will have sprays of tiny pink roses, a purple and white will have also pink, in the dull colors used in old English goods. The accepted pattern for these shirts has a yoke at the back with a little fulness directly in the centre, which is held in at the belt by a stitched band that only extends to the side seams; from there a tape ties down the fulness in front. There is no yoke in front of the shirt, but four narrow side pleats. Stocks of this season are quite old, and a novelty which will not be very popular. A straight band of satin or silk is fastened in the back, having very much the effect of a clergyman's collar, and a black satin tie in a stiff bow in front finishes it off. Shirts made to order cost anything the makers choose to ask, but for stout people are desirable in so far that the careful fitting over the shoulders, and the equally careful arrangement of the fulness, produce much better results and longer lines.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

HIS REMARKABLE COURTSHIP.

A Psychic Phenomenon Vouched for by a Confirmed Bachelor.

"Four or five years ago," said a bachelor in conversation with a reporter; "I had a sweetheart that I was deeply in love with, and wanted to marry, but I was afraid to ask her. At that time I was making a study of psychic phenomena and that sort of thing and it occurred to me to make a psychical proposal by projecting my subjective mind around the corner to where the girl lived and fixing it up all ready for me when I should take my objective mind around to have the affair ratified. I went to see her Thursday evening and felt sure that if I asked her I would get her, notwithstanding she was about equally interested in a friend of mine, whom I shall call George. Having doubts as to my courage, I determined to make a test the next evening, instead of going to see her, so I retired early, that is about 8 o'clock, and, according to formula, I exerted my mental faculties to their utmost, and directed all my mental energies upon the girl and willed with all my power that she accept me. For half an hour, fully, I shut out every thought but this important one, and went to sleep, or into a trance, under the mental strain. I awoke an hour or two later and felt that my efforts had been a success, and that it would be all right next day when I called. I felt so encouraged that I went to sleep and dreamed beautiful dreams of her till morning. At 3 o'clock next afternoon I called to make my real proposal. I talked to her on some trivial subject or other for half an hour and then came to the all-important matter.

"'Did you feel any peculiar mental or emotional sensations last evening?' I asked.

"She blushed violently, and I was sure my subjective proposal had hit centre.

"'How did you know anything about it?' she replied, laughing somewhat nervously.

"'Oh, that's all right,' I smiled triumphantly. 'What time did it occur?'

"'Really, I don't know, but it must have been about 9.30. I remember that I thought it odd that the clock should strike just as it happened.'

"'Wasn't it remarkable?'

"I was coming to it by degrees and wanted to see just where I was.

"'No, I don't think it was,' she answered indignantly. 'George has always loved me and his proposal last night was quite what I expected. We are to be married in June.'"—Washington Star.

Boer Courtship.

Courting among the race is a novel proceeding. A young man, having, of course, asked permission of his father to court the hand and heart of some neighboring damsel—by neighboring I mean anywhere within fifty miles—proceeds to purchase the most loudly colored and decorated shadefrduunun colored and decorated saddle cloth for his horse that he can possibly find. He will spend large sums on this article of equine adornment, and one knowing the country can never mistake a young Boer going out courting. Mounted on his most spirited steed, he approaches the house of the father of his lady love. Unlike the youth of more civilised life, he avoids the lady and seeks her father, from whom he reventially asks permission to court his daughter. The old man returns no answer but consults his vrou, and the youth joins the young folks.

No more notice is taken of him during the day, but if his request be agreeable to the parents, when the hour for his returning comes, the mother solemnly approaches the young man and maiden with a long tallow candle in her hand. This she places on the table, lights, and bidding the couple a affectionate good night, retires. This is the silent signal to the lover that his suit is successful. The young couple are permitted to sit up together in the kitchen so long as the candle lasts, when the lady retires to the one dormitory of herself and her sisters, and the youth shares the bed of the brothers or male portion of the family.—Forum.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB COLUMN.

No. LXVIII.

Naturalism and Æsthetic.

1. We are to consider the consequences which flow from a purely naturalistic treatment of the theory of the beautiful.

What are the causes which enable us to derive pleasure from some objects and forbid us to derive it from others? Is there any fixed and permanent element in beauty, any unchanging reality which we perceive in or through beautiful objects and to which normal æsthetic feelings correspond?

What is the cause of our delight in music? Some say that it originated in the ancestors of man, through the action of sexual selection. Spencer says:—"Strong emotions are naturally accompanied by muscular exertion, and among other muscular exertions by contractions and extension of the muscles of the chest, abdomen and vocal cords."

2. The natural view would not maintain that there anywhere exists an intrinsic and essential quality of beauty independent of the feelings and tastes of the observer. Naturalism is committed to the distinction between the primary and secondary qualities of matter.

It may be said that the beautiful is sufficiently permanent for all human purposes insofar as it depends on the fixed relations between our senses and their material surroundings. But not even this degree of objectivity can be claimed for the quality of beauty. The variations of opinion on the subject of beauty are notorious. We may appeal from the opinion of the vulgar to that of persons of trained sensibility. But in forming their opinion experts rely on other things besides their trained sensibility. They take account of the long accepted opinion about the work of art. They are partly the creature and partly the creators of a critical tradition.

3. Why has every public a taste, and why is this taste so apt to alter? Dress; why do all wear bonnets modelled on the same type? We cannot explain it on the ground of utility as in changing a steam engine; nor can we say that it is due to some important combination of historic causes. Nor can we say that development causes one production of fashion to succeed another.

It may be said that it is uniformity of practice alone, not of taste or feeling. But our admiration for a well dressed person contradicts this.

This tendency in matters æsthetic is only a particular case of a general tendence to agreement which plays an even more important part in other departments of human activity. Its operation may be traced through all social and political life. It is a factor among the forces by which nations are created and religions disseminated. The æsthetic likings which fashion originated are perfectly genuine.

4. This tendency to agreement cannot itself determine the objects in respect of which the agreement is to take place. It may cause the same bonnet to be liked, but it cannot determine what that bonnet shall be. Somebody must set the fashion. There is a difference between the way in which the public and the artist respectively promote æsthetic change. The public want some new thing, but not often some new kind of thing. The artist is moved by a desire that the work should be his own. And so he will vary either in substance or in form. The cause of change in any particular direction is determined in part by the relations between the artists and the public for whom they produce, and in part by the condition of the art itself at the time the change occurs. There is a tendency to change, arising out of the artist's insistence on originality and a limitation of change imposed by the character of the age in which he lives. The movement of art does not necessarily imply progress. Look at music. Wonderful progress has been made. Yet the music of earlier ages was just as adequate to them as ours is to us. Great as has been the musical development, it has added little to the felicity of mankind.

5. It follows that those who, like Goethe, long to dwell among "permanent relations," will not find them in or behind the feeling of beauty. Such permanent relations do exist binding in their unchanging framework the various forms of energy and matter which make up the physical universe, but it is not the perception of these which stirs æsthetic emotion. That which is beautiful is not the object as we know it to be, the vibrating molecule or the undulating ether, but the object as we know it not it not to be, glorious with qualities of colour and sound.

There is no ground for believing that there is in nature any standard of beauty to which all human tastes tend to conform. Consider the differences in taste. Natural selection has no tendency to keep our tastes uniform and stable. In this respect our tastes differ from ethical sentiments and beliefs. Deviation from sound morality are injurious either to the individual or to the community, hence the similarity in the accepted codes of different nations.

While the effort to show that the beautiful is a necessary and unchanging element in the general scheme of things has not been successful, it is a proof that mankind will not easily reconcile themselves to the naturalistic view. We may tolerate it in the matter of bonnets, or even when it deals with important elements in the highest art, but in the case of beautiful objects which raise us to the vision of things far above the ken of bodily sense or discursive reason, we cannot admit an explanation which confines itself to the bare enumeration of psychological or physiological causes and effects. We must believe that somewhere and for some Being there shines and unchanging splendour of beauty, of which we see each of us from our own standpoint only passing gleams and stray reflections.

The Stage of Convalescence

Is at once interesting and critical. The patient, carefully guarded at this period and provided with the means essential for health, may be enabled once more to enjoy the inestimable blessings of health. On the other hand, neglect of even minor needs, at this period, is likely to impose upon him the life-long penalty of ill-health, resulting in a wasted life. The assimilative processes are, at this time, are sure to be impaired, and nerve tone overtaxed in its resistance to the assaults of disease, will both sadly need the impetus which Maltine with Coca Wine can give.

By the action of Maltine with Coca Wine upon the digestive processes, which it rapidly strengthens and its permanent and striking influence upon the nervous system, to which it gives vigor and tone, the restorative power of the body is immensely increased, and strength and vigor come to the invalid so quickly as to seem almost impossible. Experience, however has demonstrated its efficacy in convalescence, as well as the various forms by which debility, arising from faulty nutrition, manifests itself. Sold by all druggists.

LACROSSE.

The Port Hope Times has the following to say of Thursday's Lacrosse match in that town:

"Many familiar faces were seen on the Peterborough team and the way they sprinted around and manipulated the 'crosse,' clearly demonstrated to the spectators that they had lost none of their old time cunning. Ernie Wasson—he of the smiling visage—protected the flags in his old time manner, while Walter Phelan sprinted as of yore, but Walter had a superfluity of avordupois, and was not quite so tricky as on some occasions when Port Hope and Peterborough have been pitted against each other.

The home team was the same as that which opposed Cobourg with the exception of Colman, who resumed his place on the home division, and Richardson who played first on the defence. That the latter was a tower of strength, was quite evident from the magnificent work he did, returning the ball up to the home time and again when it seemed almost impossible.

When referee Nattrass blew his whistle for the line up, it was an easy thing to see that the visitors were by long odds the bigger and heavier team, the contrast being very great between say Lang Crowhurst and Percy Rubidge. After time was called a fierce onslaught was made on the Ontario's flags, Raymond and Richardson relieved and the home had an innings. Giddy Burt flim flammed his man on the bicycle track and the home division did some very nice passing together with some inaccurate shooting. Peterborough flags ceased to be in danger, mainly owing to Mr. Wasson, who sent the sphere sailing towards the Port Hope citadel. Galley, Phelan and Rubidge successfully handled the rubber, but were unable to score. Several of the participants had a slight altercation behind the goal, but everything got straightened out and Crowhurst transferred operations to the opponents' end. Burt, who was very much "en evidence" all day seized the ball and passed to L. Crowhurst, he in turn to Tutton. The latter too exhibited a tendency to monopolize the rubber a great deal more than is necessary without any appreciable danger of negociating the visitors' flags. This was the best game Port Hope spectators had seen for a good long time. The excitement was intense, and everyone was delighted to see the Ontarios holding their own so well. The play was of the brilliant order—first one team's home would make a fierce attack on goal, to be brilliantly combatted by the opposing defence. From a pretty throw of Tuer's, Burt passed to George Tutton, who ran in and scored Port Hope's first and only goal of the match. The next three games went to Peterborough. Each was of the exciting order, and was of the end to end description. The local defence was all that could be expected and saved the goal times ennumerable. The home played great combination, but the shooting was wretched. Opportunity after opportunity was lost in a way that was amazing. The home field near centre fed beautifully but to no account.

The defeat of the Ontarios was not a bad one by any means. The boys played remarkably well considering the strong team pitted against them. The visitors had to work tooth and nail for their victory and were quite willing to admit that they had met foemen worthy of their steel.

We are sure yesterday's defeat will only urge the boys on to diligent practice, and that the year's record will only contain but one defeat, and that one on June 25th.

PYNY-PECTORAL

The Quick Cure for COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, HOARSENESS, etc.

Mrs. Jessie Norwich, of 68 Somerset Ave., Toronto, writes: "Pyny-Pectoral has never failed to cure my children of croup after a few doses. It cured myself of a bad cough, after several other remedies had failed. It has also proved an excellent cough cure for my family. I prefer it to any other medicine for coughs, croup or hoarseness."

H. O. Barbour, of Little Rocher, N.B., writes: "As a cure for coughs Pyny-Pectoral is the best selling medicine I have ever sold. My customers will have no other."

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

OTTAWA, June 15—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patent medicine, usually evinced by physicians is is rapidly giving way so far as Dodd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease, through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent and the sworn statement of the former leaves no foothold for disbelief.

ANOTHER MONUMENT

Erected and Unveiled in Queen's Park, Toronto.

IMPOSING CEREMONY ON SATURDAY

All the Military of the City and Thousands of Civilians Attend the Solemn Function—Patriotic Speeches by Lieut.-Governor Kirkpatrick and Others.

Toronto, June 29.

On Saturday afternoon thousands of the citizens of Toronto and vicinity assembled in the Queen's Park to witness the ceremony of unveiling the monument which had been erected by Toronto to commemorate and to keep green the memory of those of her sons who in answer to the call of their country went forth from their homes and loved ones full of hope and courage to suppress rebellion, which threatened the integrity of this fair Dominion, but who were called upon in the performance of their duty to lay down their lives. Though somewhat tardy in paying honor to those who merited it, Toronto showed on Saturday that deep down in the hearts of the people are cherished, bright and green, the memories of those stirring events which marked the spring and summer of 1885, and of the loyalty, zeal and devotion of her volunteer soldiery which characterized this era of Canadian history.

Drawn up in line on the roadway which circles the Park on the east were the Governor-General's Body Guard, under the command of Lieut.-Col. George T. Denison; on the north side of the enclosure were the Royal Regiment of Canadian Infantry; on the west were the Queen's Own Rifles, Royal Grenadiers and 48th Highlanders. The military forces were under the command of Lieut.-Col. Otter, D. A. G. of the district, who commanded the Battleford column during the campaign of 1885. To the south were massed thousands of citizens, who cheered enthusiastically the complimentary references of the speakers to the prowess of the volunteer forces.

The monument consists of a base and pedestal of Canadian granite, bearing a bronze statue in heroic size of Canada proffering in the extended right hand the olive branch of peace and wearing a sheathed sword. The statue is the work of a young Torontonian, Mr. W. S. Allward, who was the recipient of the congratulations of the multitude upon the beauty of the design and finished execution.

On the south face of the granite pedestal is a brass plate with the following significant inscription:

KILLED IN ACTION.

R. C. Artillery, Gunner de Manolley.
R. C. Artillery, Gunner Cook.
R. C. Artillery, Gunner Phillips.

N.W. Mounted Police, Constable Cowan.
N.W. Mounted Police, Constable Gibson.
N.W. Mounted Police, Constable Elliott.
Battleford Rifles, Pte. Dobs.

On the north side of the pedestal is another plate containing the remainder of the names of those who gave their lives for their country:

Prince Albert Vols., Capt. John Morton.
Prince Albert Vols., Corp. W. Napier.
Prince Albert Vols., Pte. S. C. Elliott.
Prince Albert Vols., Pte. D. McPhail.
Prince Albert Vols., Pte. D. McKenzie.
Prince Albert Vols., Pte. J. Bake.
Prince Albert Vols., Pte. R. Middleton.
Prince Albert Vols., Pte. J. Anderson.

R. C. Artillery, Gunner Charpentier.
Infantry School Corps, Pte. Watson.
Boulton's Scouts, Trooper D'Arcy Baker.
90th Batt. Rifles, Lieut. Swinford.
90th Batt. Rifles, Corp. Code.
N.W. Mounted Police, Corp. Lowry.
N.W. Mounted Police, Constable Arnold.
N.W. Mounted Police, Constable Garrett.
N.W. Mounted Police, Constable Burze.

On the east face, which is the front of the monument, is a bronze shield, bearing the arms of the Dominion, and above it a bronze plate of dedication, bearing the inscription, "Erected to the memory of the officers and men who fell on the battlefields of the North-west in 1885, 'Dulce et Decorum est pro Patria Mori.'"

On the four corners are shields bearing the names of the four actions fought during the campaign, "Fish Creek," "Batoche," "Cut Knife" and "Duck Lake."

Upon the elevated platform sat Lt.-Col. Grasett, the Chairman, together with the speakers and Mrs. Kirkpatrick and party from Government House. The speakers were listened to with the greatest attention, and many of the references brought tears to the eyes not only of those who still mourn the loss which they sustained, but of those who had passed unscathed through the ordeal.

The Chairman, in opening the proceedings, referred to the patriotism which inspired a few ladies to undertake the work of erecting a monument to the memory of those who had fallen in the campaign of 1885. It had at first been intended to erect a national monument, but in consequence of the difficulty in reaching the thousands throughout the Dominion who would have been willing to subscribe that project had been abandoned, and the present monument was the product of the modified scheme. The Dominion and Ontario Parliaments had most generously contributed $1000, which had been supplemented by a donation of $500 from the City Council of Toronto, the balance of the cost being partly met by subscriptions, gathered mainly through the indefatigable exertions of Mrs. Fletcher, honorary secretary of the Ladies' Committee. He expressed his pleasure that the figure which surmounted the pedestal is the work of a young Torontonian, who, he doubted not, would rise to eminence in his profession. On behalf of the committee, he thanked Messrs. McIntosh & Son for the spirit in which they had undertaken the work. "The firm took large chances," said the chairman, "and some of them may not yet be realized," referring to the fact that the committee yet lack funds with which to meet their indebtedness.

Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, the Lieutenant Governor, made a patriotic speech, and addressing Mayor Fleming, handed over the monument to the city. The Mayor accepted it as a splendid tribute to the men who fell in defence of their country.

Speeches were also made by E. F. Clarke, M.P., O. A. Howland, M.L.A., ex-Mayor Kennedy, Ald. Hallam and the sculptor and Mr. Allward.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

A Philadelphia Young Lady Seriously Injured While Out Driving at Niagara Falls, Ont.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 28.—Miss Amelia Buckley, daughter of Mr. E. P. Buckley of Philadelphia, who is visiting her uncle, Ex-Mayor Morton M. Buckley of this town, met with a very serious accident this afternoon while out driving with her cousin, Miss Amelia Waldron and Miss Mella of this town. The girls were seated in a two-seated phaeton, facing each other, and when near South End in Stamford the horse, from some unknown cause, let both his heels fly at the dashboard of the phaeton with much force, smashing it into atoms. Miss Buckley was sitting with her back towards the horse's heels, and was struck on the back of the head, and fell out of the phaeton unconscious, striking on her head. The other girls were more or less hurt in the scramble to get out. Miss Buckley is lying at a farmer's house in a precarious and semi-conscious condition.

WORLD'S W.C.T.U.

The Gathering Will be Held in Montreal Next Spring or Next Autumn—British Delegates.

Washington, June 28.—London advices received here state that the World's W. C. T. U., of which Miss Frances E. Willard is president, will meet in Montreal, Canada, either next spring or next autumn. The following have been appointed delegates to the convention from Great Britain: Lady Henry Somerset, Miss Agnes Slack, Mrs. Hannah Whitall Smith, Miss Agnes Weston, Mrs. Wardpole, Miss Mary Phillips and Mrs. Hughes. Mrs. Hughes is a leading journalist in Wales. Miss Agnes West is known as the sailors' friend. Last year she lodged 150,000 sailors in homes that she has built at Portsmouth. Miss Mary Phillips is a wealthy Quaker lady of London.

Rhodesia Whites Safe.

Cape Town, June 28.—Many white settlers who lived in isolated parts of Rhodesia and who were in danger of being massacred by the rebellious Matabeles have been taken in safety to Umtali by the troops sent to their rescue. The telegraph line between Umtali and Salisbury was cut by the rebels to-day.

EX-MEMBERS AND MEMBERS-ELECT

Swarming at the Capital and Urging a Fight to a Finish—Where the Liberals Made a Hit—Cobden Club and Canadian Elections.

Ottawa, June 28.—Conservative members of Parliament and ex-members continue to flock to Ottawa, accompanied by others, who are after something. There is always a grab for the apples at the bottom of the barrel, the following are a few from among the visitors: Col. Tyrwhitt, M.P., Major Carpenter, ex-M.P., Mr. Dennett, M.P., Dr. Reid, M.P., Mr. Guillett, M.P., Mr. E. Cochrane, M.P., Mr. E. Coatsworth, ex-M.P., Mr. Demers, Quebec, and Mr Cleveland. Taking Messrs. Kendrick, Henry, McLennan, Henderson, Taylor, Hughes and other members here on Friday, there have been in Ottawa since the election enough members to make a quorum of the House, and the wonder is that Sir Charles Tupper does not assemble them in room No. 16 and vote through the supplies. The wisdom of the Opposition last session in refusing to vote supplies for the fiscal year beginning July 1 is now clear, because if they had Sir Charles Tupper would have hung on to office until the middle of the next winter. As it is, some of the Government supporters are urging the Government not to resign until the House meets. Sir Charles Tupper is too experienced a public man not to give in to the argument of public convenience, which stands out strong against such a course. The whole public service would suffer, and not only that, but every member of Parliament would be greatly inconvenienced, and the new Administration would be embarrassed and the country would be put to the expense of paying $5000 a day for a Parliament that would have to stand round with its hands in its pockets for two weeks while the new Ministers were being re elected.

The Cabinet met yesterday, and made a number of new appointments and superannuations. Mr. Webster, who is Hon. J. F. Wood's law partner in Brockville, has been apointed Chief Clerk in the Customs Department, a position kept vacant for three years.

AS VIEWED IN GREAT BRITAIN.

The Canadian Election Described as a Godsend to the Cobden Club.

New York, June 28.—Mr. Isaac N. Ford cables from London to The Tribune: The Canadian election was a godsend for the Cobden Club, which celebrated the 50th anniversary of the repeal of the corn laws by a dinner at the Ship Hotel, Greenwich. It gave Chairman Leonard Courtney his only source of consolation. In the course of a long and melancholy speech, in which Mr. Chamberlain's zollverein scheme was assailed as an invention of that enemy of Cobdenism, Sir Charles Tupper was described as a false guide, who had inspired the Ottawa Conference and had attempted to show the way to unite the empire by surrendering free trade, but now that the election has been held it was clear that Canada was not at his back. Mr. Courtney regarded the election as an uprising in favor of free trade and a special Providence on behalf of the Cobden Club. Mr. Courtney condemned Mr. Chamberlain's recent proposals as double-faced, with free trade on the one side and protection on the other, and ridiculed the idea that the cost of living and production should be increased in the empire for the sake of augmenting one-fourth of the volume of trade, while diminishing the remaining three quarters.

Lord Playfair spoke in the same strain, attacking the zollverein scheme and denying that free trade had been in any sense a failure.

Lord Kimberley also spoke of the customs union with colonies as an astounding proposal from a responsible minister and one that was utterly impracticable.

The assemblage at dinner was large, with many distinguished guests. But for an anniversary celebration it was a gloomy and depressing affair. Nearly all the speakers were on the defensive explaining why Cobden's predictions had been falsified and the peace millennium had been indefinitely postponed. They also united in denouncing Mr. Chamberlain's plan and revealed their consciousness of the destructive blow which he has dealt to the cause of English free trade.

BIKE CRAZE IN FRANCE.

There Are Now 337,000 Bicycles in Use in the French Republic on Which Taxes Are Paid.

New York, June 28.—A London special says: Recent facts and figures from all parts of Europe prove that the bike craze has now become universal. The increase in France, where exact returns are collected, is typical. Three years ago, when the tax on cycles was first levied, the number in the country was 120,000. Last year the total had exactly doubled. When the estimates for 1896 were drawn up the financial officials deemed justified the calculation that there would be 40,000 additional bicycles. It turns out that their sanguine hope is considerably short of the mark. The total this year is 322,000, or 202,000 more than the number in 1893.

MURDERED MAN IDENTIFIED.

He Was James Mullin of Flos Township and Was Killed for a Few Dollars.

Parry Sound, June 27.—The preliminary investigation before Judge McCurry into the circumstances of the murder at Seguin Falls on June 11 was concluded here to day, and the prisoner, Christian Hanson, a Swede, was committed for trial. The murdered man was proved to be James Mullin, from the Township of Flos. He was on his way to the railway, looking for employment, and was evidently murdered for the few dollars that he had about him. He left a family of eight at home, the youngest an infant 4 months old. County Crown Attorney Johnson appeared for the Crown. The trial will take place here July 14, at the High Court, before Mr. Justice Ferguson.

It Will Be No Trouble

TO HEAT YOUR HOUSE THIS WINTER IF YOU PUT IN A

PRESTON Hot Air or Hot Water FURNACE

PUT IT IN NOW—THIS SUMMER.

1st.—Because these Furnaces combine all the Requisites for maintaining a Warm, Balmy, Spring Atmosphere throughout the Building, regardless of the severity of the winter weather outside.

2nd—Not only this—but we know of many instances where these furnaces are Comfortably Heating ENTIRE DWELLINGS with THE SAME QUANTITY OF FUEL that was previously used to Improperly Heat ONE ROOM WITH A STOVE.

3rd—Not only this—but the necessary Furnace and Attachments cost VERY LITTLE MORE than to provide stoves for the different rooms to be heated, while THE COST OF FUEL IS LARGELY DIMINISHED.

Pleasant Home WITH RADIATOR.

A Tubular Furnace for Coal or Wood.

Made in four sizes.

The heavy castiron Tubes in Dome add largely to the heating capacity.

We supply them brick set or portable as desired.

THE GRAND TRUNK NOT AFRAID.

Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, the president of the Grand Trunk, has been interviewed in Toronto on the result of the general election. On being asked to state his views as to what effect a change of government would have on the business of the country, Sir Charles stated that while the Grand Trunk had taken no part in the elections, yet he felt bound to say that so far as he was concerned he was very well satisfied, and, he would say, pleased, that that the Liberal party had been returned to power. He had no doubt, whatever, he said, but that certain interests had been over protected, and he believed that a modification of some of the high duties would be of great benefit to the community at large. So far as he had watched Canadian politics, and more particularly the utterances of Mr. Laurier, he believed that sound legislation would be enacted, and as soon as the Presidential election in the United States is over, which election, he said, generally causes in some degree a suspension of business in that country, consequently hurting the business in this country, he (Sir Charles) believed that business would at once begin to improve, and that, providing the country was blessed with a good harvest, prosperity would at once begin to dawn.

LONDON, Ont., is not satisfied with a Conservative representative elected by questionable methods, but it wants in addition the Grand Trunk car shops.

HYMAN does not intend to accept the verdict of last Tuesday's election. The return of Beatty is to be protested, and it is alleged that there is abundant evidence of crooked methods sufficient to unseat him "in a canter."

ALTHOUGH Ontario did not do as much for the Liberals as we expected, she yet did very well. In the old Parliament says the Globe, the Government had a majority of twenty in this Province. The elections changed that to a minority of ten. There was, therefore, a change of thirty seats, or about one third the total members elected.

THE Conservatives are not bad fellows after all. They have been badly beaten but they do not hold spite—they are very obligingly selecting a Cabinet for Mr. Laurier. This is indeed kind and relieves the Liberal leader of a severe responsibility. With the past few years our Conservative friends have had so much experience in erecting Cabinets and manipulating cabinet shuffles that they doubtless feel that they possess special aptitude.

THE Brantford Expositor says:—"The removal of Sir Oliver Mowat to the federal sphere will lead to a slight reconstruction of the Ontario ministry under Prime Minister Hardy, and one vacancy will have to be filled, for which the names of Messrs. Balfour, Davis and Stratton are being put forward. It would be a pretty safe thing to throw the three names into a hat and make a selection at random. All three are good men, and capable of assuming ministerial responsibilities with credit."

THE turn-over in last Tuesday's election was a tremendous absolutely, but it assumes greater proportions when the many adverse influences with which the Liberals had to contend are recalled. When we consider the villianies of the gerrymander; the oppression of the franchise act; the adverse influence of the contractors, manufacturers, and civil servants; the money and power which the possession of office gave an unscrupulous Government—when we camly consider these things we dimly realise how tremendous the revolution has been.

THE Hamilton Spectator thus moralizes: "Is it not about time that this persistent endeavour to secure the Catholic vote was dropped by the Conservative party? Is it not about time that the Conservative party recognized the fact that the Catholics of Canada are men of intelligence and men who have opinions of their own; that they cannot be driven like a parcel of women by clerical mandament nor led into any designated enclosure by a self-appointed political bell-wether." This is a lecture the party badly needs. It was the Conservatives that went to the country on the anti-Catholic cry on two or three general election occasions in Ontario, and that it adopted an opposite policy in the recent Dominion contest was for the double purpose of courting favour and of distracting attention from its own monstrous record of misgovernment.

The doctor may be a good old man, but even so, medical examinations and the "local application" treatment are abhorrent to every modest woman. They are embarrassing—often useless. They should not be submitted to until everything else has been tried. In nine cases out of ten, there is no reason for them. In nine cases out of ten, the doctor in general practice isn't competent to treat female diseases. They make a branch of medicine by themselves. They are distinct from other ailments. They can be properly understood and treated only by one who has had years of actual practice and experience in this particular line. This is true of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N.Y. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy for all derangements of the reproductive organs of women, has been in actual use for more than thirty years. It cures every form of "female weakness."

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 20.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says:—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

Mr. Chas. Smith, Dawn Mills, Ont., says:—"For several years I was troubled with pains in my limbs, which continued getting worse until I thought I would have to quit work. In fact the pains were so severe that I could not rest at nights. I took one box of Miller's Compound Iron Pills and am perfectly cured." Although it is nearly a year since Mr. S. took the Pills he has had no return of the pains, and feels splendid. Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

Mothers

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely qured and her health has been the best ever since." MRS. ADDIE PECK, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

"I will say that my mother has not stated my case in as strong words as I would have done. Hood's Sarsaparilla has truly cured me and I am now well." CORA PECK, Amsterdam, N. Y.

MINERS ENTOMBED.

One Hundred of Them in a Shaft at Pittston.

FEARS THAT NONE WILL BE SAVED

Desperate Efforts Being Made to Rescue the Unfortunates — Pittston People Thought it Was an Earthquake — Women and Children in Awful Suspense at the Shaft's Mouth.

Wilkes Barre, Pa., June 28.—At 3 o'clock this morning the city of Pittston, nine miles from here, was thrown into the wildest excitement by three distinct and separate shocks, accompanied by rumblings resembling an earthquake disturbance. They were so strong as to awaken the people throughout East and West Pittston. Immediately after fear took possession of the entire population, which was added to by the blowing of the whistle of the twin shaft at Pittston Junction, accompanied by repeated fire alarms. Hundreds of people rushed in mad haste to the Twin Shaft, operated by the Newton Coal Company, from which the alarm came, where they learned that the shock was due to an extensive cave-in, accompanied by an explosion which had occurred in the sixth or lower vein of the shaft. Rumors soon gained currency that no fewer than 100 men and boys were entombed in the pit. The fearful and distressing news spread with lightning rapidity, and by 8 o'clock this morning the head of the shaft was thronged by thousands of men, women and children.

The hours following the alarm were full of harrowing scenes. The anxious suspense of the workmen, the grief of the friends and the tender sympathy for the afflicted ones manifested by the spectators were painful to witness. Efforts were made to quiet the friends of the men in the mine by tendering the little encouragement possible, but unavailingly were those efforts put forth as the mothers, fathers, daughters, sons, brothers and sisters reasonably feared the worst, and upon the first information received their fears were found to be well grounded.

The first to come to the surface from the shaft after the explosion was John Gill, who was at the bottom engaged in labor. The force of the concussion threw him with terrific force to the wall, and with intense fear, more dead than alive, he crept to the foot and with great difficulty signalled to the engineer at the surface to hoist the carriage. When he was brought up his story added to the doubt as to the safety of any of the men and boys below. From him was secured the first information of the number of men in the shaft. It is thought that not less than 100 workmen have suffered a most horrible death.

John Riker, a runner boy; Jacob Adam and Frank H. Sheridan, company men, were next brought to the surface, and confirmed Gill's story.

It appears that several days ago the officials discovered that the rock between the fifth and sixth veins had commenced "working," and, to prevent an accident, all day Saturday and Saturday night the full complement of day-men and such others as could be pressed into service were at work pillaring and propping the sixth vein, so as to ensure the safety of the workmen who were to go to work on Monday. Saturday night the regular night force was working at a point about 2000 feet from the shaft at the foot of No. 3 plane at a point under what is known as the Flats, a little east of the Coxton Railway yards. The force was under the supervision of Superintendent Langan and his assistant, Michael Lynot. Orders were given about midnight that as many men as possible should be sent down to assist in this dangerous work. In accordance with this order, between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning about 30 additional workmen left their homes and journeyed to what now seems their grave.

The new force of men enlisted in the work were placed at a point beyond that of the night hands, and the terrible news brought to the surface by the four men who likely will be the only ones to live to tell the tale of the disaster was that all of these 100 or more men had been caught and either crushed to immediate death or imprisoned to perish a death most horrifying. Upon learning this discouraging news the excitement became more demonstrative.

It was found that all the mine foremen, superintendents and bosses who had gone to supervise the work were with those who were imprisoned. This gave the work of relief no systematic head, but the rescuers, providing themselves with safety lamps, hurried into the mine carriage and were lowered 1000 feet or more on the mission of relief. They were John Doyle, John Daily, Charles McDonald and James Tenyon. After a half hour of suspense they returned with expressions of discouragement, and the story that the cave-in had become more extensive, that the search party faced inevitable danger, and that no news had been secured of the unfortunate men. With no delay, however, they again went down to the foot of the shaft with other men, and again made heroic efforts to get what information they could, but again baffled and discouraged they repeated their story of defeated effort.

For a third time, at 2 p.m. to-day, with renewed vigor and still more men, they went beneath the surface into the pit, and tried by the countergangway to reach, by a circuitous route, the unfortunate prisoners. After a journey of nearly a thousand feet, they met obstructions innumerable, the force of the concussion having created disastrous havoc, brattice work, pillars, air conduit doors, cars and top rock having been piled promiscuously so as to interfere with all efforts that could be made by any human being. Then, to add to the trouble, a congregation of gas had occurred so as to endanger any efforts to reach anywhere near the imprisoned miners. Not subdued by these obstacles, they again ineffectively tried their last resource to relieve and recover the men.

General Manager John B. Law, who has been ill for several days, made his appearance to give instructions. Special messengers called to the shaft all of the company workmen. It having been learned that the mine was still caving, thereby making it practically impossible to continue the labor without propping up the way as the rescuers went in, carriage after carriage of props were sent to the bottom, and under charge of Foreman Eagan of the Phoenix mine, Messrs. Maloney of the Raven shaft and McMillan of the Barnum shaft much progress was made in this work, and soon the imminent danger was prevented, and at least 50 men were pushing their way to the foot of No. 3 plane, the scene of the extensive cave-in.

To the encouragement of those who feared the explosion had ended the life of everything in the mine, word was sent up that the mules were running about. The fact of these mules living unscratched gave the impression that the explosive sounds heard were due to no gas explosion, but only to the rush of air created by the sudden cave-in.

At 6 o'clock this evening Mine Inspector McDonald was on the ground, and went to the foot of the shaft, where he made a thorough investigation. He determined that no rescue could then be made, and his report only confirmed the stories of his predecessors in the work of rescue.

To the encouragement of all it was found that the fan-house had suffered no injury. This fact gave hope to those in control that perhaps a sufficient volume of air could be forced to the rear of the cave-in by sending it in a roundabout way, but this afternoon, at a consultation of the leading superintendents of the Lackawanna and Wyoming Valleys, it was feared that this idea was not to be depended upon.

At this conference reports were made by experienced foremen who had made the rescuing trips, and the work done was fully endorsed and commended. The fear was expressed that possibly the Susquehanna River near by the cave was running into the mine. At the meeting the possible number imprisoned was mentioned. As the entire force of bosses and company men, in fact all from whom this information could be derived, are in the pit the number of the missing is entirely conjectural.

After a careful search it is believed the list appended may be accepted as a reliable one of some of the men who are in the mine:

M. J. Langan, mine superintendent and mayor pro tem of Pittston, leaves a wife and ten children; M. F. Lynett, line foreman, married, seven children; Alex McCormick, fire boss, married, ten children; Thomas Tenpenny, assistant boss, married, three children; Thomas Cardon, assistant fire boss, leaves a wife; John O'Berile, assistant fire boss, two children; Anthony Kane, driver boss, single; Thomas Murphy, driver boss; Condy McGuire, track layer, married, four children; Michael Hughes, night fire boss, married, one child; James Daily, footman, single; Michael Connell, footman, single; John Hart, footman, single; M. Gaughan, footman, single; James Golden, married, two children; James Walls, married, eight children; and his son Frank; Edward Delaney, married, four children; Peter Martin, laborer, single; Martin Gilberide, laborer, single; Dominick O'Malloy, miner, single; James McDonald, married, two children; Thomas Barrett, miner, single; John and Thomas Gaffney, brothers, former single, latter married, seven children; Peter Joyce, single; Peter Kelly, laborer, single; John Silvester, married, threee children; Patrick Costello, miner, single; T. F. O'Brien, leaves a wife; Timothy Derrig, laborer, single; Patrick Ruane, married, seven children; James Burke, laborer, single; Michael Burke, miner, single; Edward Kildea, married, two children; Thomas Duewig, laborer, single; Robert Haston, master mechanic, single; Daniel Ward, machinist, married, two children; Edward Hughes, married, two children; Anthony Tollaski, married, one child; Peter Savaski, married, five children; Andrew Slowmaski, married, two children; Simon Mascovitz, married, two children; John Candanish, single; Anthony Gordon, footman, single; Owen Lee, door boy; Daniel Gavin, miner, single; Michael Ford, miner, single; John Oberile, laborer, single; J. W. Hart, married, three children; John Holsterich, married, three children; Joseph Zuringo, married, five children.

The accident is similar to the Avondale disaster, which occurred on Sept. 11, 1896, when 109 miners and laborers lost their lives. The rescuing party have cleared nearly 900 feet of the debris away, and are propping as they go along. The report sent out that the body of Superintendent Langan had been found is not true. At this hour there are no signs of finding the men. It may take until morning before they can be reached.

At 11 o'clock to-night a force of 60 men from neighboring collieries went into the shaft to aid the rescuing party until they are relieved to-morrow morning. The men are expereienced miners. The work of the rescuing parties is being pushed forward with all the rapidity possible, and very little is being made known to the outside world by those in charge.

At midnight, after looking over the situation carefully, the rescuing party decided that the best thing to do was to drive a gangway through the coal from the Clear Spring Colliery adjoining into the Twin Shaft, when it is expected it will be possible to locate the entombed men. The work was at once begun and is being pushed with all the speed possible. Four shifts of men, each comprising five experienced miners and laborers, are employed in this task, which is expected to consume at least three or four days. In the meantime the work will be pushed by the rescuers in the fatal shaft also. It is now the opinion of the most able miners that it will take several days to find the entombed men.

At 12.30 a.m. a gang of men belonging to the rescuing party who went in at 6 o'clock came to the surface and reported that they were making headway, though it was slow work. The roof continues to settle and danger is imminent. They are within 300 feet of the cave-in. Gas appears to be accumulating, which makes the labor difficult and delays the work to a great extent. No hopes are now entertained for the safety of any of the men.

Josias Moore, of Bancroft, Ont., one of the oldest and best-known residents of Hastings County, can boast of wonderful health and vigor for his age.

"Although I am over 84 years of age," he says, "I feel as young as ever I did."

Mr. Moore, however had a narrow escape from death about a year ago. "I was so bad with indigestion," he writes, "that the doctors gave me up. I tried various alleged remedies but found them no good. One day our popular druggist, F. C. Humphries, sent me a sample of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to try. The result was marvellous. After taking two I was able to get up. Then I sent for a box. I could soon eat anything. In a short time I was able to walk two miles, to Bancroft and back, with ease."

WHEAT WILL YIELD HEAVILY.

Corn will be an Average—Oats, Rye and Barley Good—Cotton Also Good.

Washington, June 28.—There is hope for the farmers. The year 1896 promises to bring them rather better returns for their labor than last year and better than the year before. The wheat crop of the country is sure to be the largest since 1892, and larger than the average of the last 16 years.

This year's wheat crop is unofficially estimated by the Department of Agriculture at 475,000,000 bushels. This has been exceeded only six times since 1880.

The wheat outlook is particularly good in the Western States, taking them as a whole.

The condition of spring wheat indicates a prospective yield that closely approximates a full or normal crop, the average for the country being 99.9 per cent. The average for the year 1895 was 97.8.

As yet the Department of Agriculture has no official returns on the corn crop, but unofficial advices indicate a normal crop, probably equal to last year's large yield of 2,151,000,000 bushels. Prices are stiffening up a trifle, and the outlook for a greater total value than last year is counted good.

The outlook for oats, rye and barley is good.

In the Southern States there is a renewal of confidence in the future on account of the fine outlook for cotton. The acreage this year is reported at an increase of 16 per cent. over last year, and the average condition of the crop is excellent. The present condition of the cotton crop, taken as a whole, is unusually favorable for this season of the year.

HOW

THE SUN LIFE

FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario, Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,871 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely, (Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

After marching up town an adjournment will be made for dinner, after which all will proceed to the Riverside Park, where an admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

A YEAR IN THE CENTRAL.

Joseph Franks Convicted of Stealing a Watch from Baptiste Lefort.

This morning Joseph Franks pleaded guilty to the stealing of a watch from Baptiste Lefort and was sentenced to a year in the Central Prison by the Magistrate.

The manner in which the evidence was procured to convict Franks was very odd indeed and sufficiently interesting to relate.

Lefort, it seems, was sleeping in the rear of a Hunter street store and when he awoke missed his gold watch. He informed the police of the affair but could supply no clue as to who was the perpetrator of the theft. Inquiries by the police, in the neighbourhood, elicited the fact that Franks had been seen hanging around in the vicinity and he was described as wearing a brown fedora hat. Franks was arrested a few minutes later but had on a straw hat.

All this occurred a week ago Friday and the prisoner was remanded for a week, but the police could find no trace of the watch or of the brown fedora, so it was thought the suspect would have to be let off.

On Thursday last the Chief met Mr. Jack LeBar walking along the street with a uniform over his arm. It was that of Franks and as he was in durance vile the uniform was being taken for someone else to wear for inspection, which was to take place the next day.

The Chief casually asked Jack where he was going with the suit, and Jack stopped to tell him all about it.

"Let's have a look at the suit," says the Chief, and Jack handed it over. The Chief ran his hand into the breast pocket, and there lay Baptiste Lefort's stolen watch.

LeBar took the Chief back to the room where he got the clothing, which was in Dr. Boucher's barn, and was occupied by his driver Martin. Franks had asked permission to keep his uniform there and Martin had allowed him to do so.

The whole affair was easily explained. Franks must have run up to the barn and slipped the watch into the pocket of the uniform in the interval elapsing between the theft and the arrest.

The Chief noticed a multiplicity of hats hanginging up, and remarked to Martin that he was well provided with headgear.

"That one belongs to Franks," answered Martin, as he picked out a brown fedora.

This was all the Chief wanted to known, and as soon as the prisoner heard of the facts of which the police were in possession he wilted and entered a plea of guilty, and sentence of one year in the Central was accordingly passed on him this morning.

FELL FROM HIS HORSE.

Will Hooper's Collar Bone was Broken on Saturday Evening.

William Hooper, a son of Mr. Thomas Hooper of North Monaghan, met with a serious accident on Saturday evening. He went out to the pasture to bring in a horse, and catching it sprang on its back without either bridle or halter. The horse started to run, and he was unable to check it. In entering the stable yard the animal ran against a cow and fell, throwing young Hooper to the ground and rolling on him. He fortunately escaped with no more injury than a broken collar bone. Dr. Carmichael is in attendance.

Fishing.

When the fishermen return to the hotels in the evening from the lakes, and settle down after supper to telling their experiences and other things, it is a little surprising that the village does not have an earthquake or tidal wave or something. The fish that are brought to the boat and then get away never weigh less than 15 lbs., and some are known to go as high as 45 lbs. That is maskinonge. The weight depends somewhat on the time in the evening and the exigencies of the occasion. Bass, and fine ones, are taken from the locks. A gentleman with an eloquent outfit, a ten cent catgut and a can of lovely worms, was sitting on the lockgate the other evening and when asked what luck, said, "Splendid, got a beauty a short time ago. Four pounds if an ounce. By George he was a great one. And you should have seen him play. Gamey? — never struck such a fighter. Had to let out all my line three times after getting him nearly up. And would you believe it?—the deuced thing got off! By Jove, you know he was a walloper.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

The Bike a la Bloomer.

Gilmour street takes the palm for progressiveness. The second bloomer outfit for wheel use made its appearance on the person of a young lady to-day, and it is one of the neatest and most commonsense equipments that has yet adorned a wheel in Peterborough. The costume consists of a fine navy blue serge jacket, with leg-of-mutton sleeves. The portion below the waist consists of wide trousers, fastened with an elastic band below the knee, the redundant length falling in graceful folds a few inches above the boot tops. This permits of the most perfect freedom of the limbs when awheel, and there is no drawing across the knee, and no sharp outlining of the figure as takes place with the average skirt. The rider skimmed along to-day with a graceful freedom and ease, and an entire absence of the clumsy bulging of voluminous skirts that characterizes a great many wheels driven by ladies. When off the wheel the costume demands very sharp eyes to discern the divided nature of the nether portion. It is graceful and fetching and ladies are assured that they do not know what real comfort in cycling is till they try it inside a costume like that referred to. Only to the most depraved can it suggest the first idea of immodesty of appearance.

HAMILTON—BERTRAM.

A Pretty Wedding Which Was Performed in Toronto Thursday.

The First Unitarian Church on Jarvis street, was crowded Thursday afternoon by a fashionable congregation, which gathered to witness the marriage of Mr. William A. Hamilton, son of Mr. W. B. Hamilton, the Front street wholesale merchant, to Miss Florence Bertram, daughter of Mr. George H. Bertram, and neice of Mr. John Bertram, formerly of Peterborough. Rev. W. H. Woude, pastor of the church, officiated. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Mabel Bertram, and the groom by Mr. W. H. Moore. Miss Lily Strong acted as maid of honour, and Messrs. Robert Bertram, Fred Killiar and Dr. Harold Clark efficiently carried out the duties of ushers. The bride was exquisitely gowned in ivory satin, trimmed with honiton lace, and her sister in white organdy silk. A dejeuner at the residence of the bride's parents followed the ceremony in the church, after which the young couple left for New York and the White Mountains, where they will spend a couple of weeks. The list of invited guests included the following:—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Strong, London; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McMurty, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. R. Spier, London; Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Brown, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bertram and Misses Bertram, Hamilton; Miss Scarf, Miss Harris, Brantford; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. JUNE NUPTIALS.

Two of Ashburnham's Young People United in the Bonds of Wedlock.

St. Luke's church was the scene of a very pretty but quiet wedding on Saturday evening, being the occasion of the marriage of Miss Lizzie Long to Mr. Ernest T. Byshe, both of whom have been active members of the choir.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herbert Symonds in the presence of a few guests. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Sam. Long, while Miss Edith Byshe, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Percy Byshe.

The bride was prettily attired in white with corn-coloured trimmings and also carried a beautiful bouquet of lillies. Among the guests invited were:—Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Symonds, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Peck, Mrs. Gerrans, Miss Hettie Peck, Mr. Harry Westbrook and Mr. Burt Gerrans.

After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of Mrs. Thomas Byshe, where a light informal supper was partaken of, after which the happy couple left on the midnight train for Montreal amid the usual shower of rice and slippers.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Kel. Hall left last night to attend the C. W. A. meet at Quebec.

Mr. Harry Stevens is confined to his home with a bad attack of inflammation.

Messrs. C. LeBrun and Charles Legros left to-day for Quebec to attend the big meet.

Mr. Walter Connors, who has been in Milwaukee for the last six months, has returned to Peterborough.

Miss R. Netherout, of the Post Office department, has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Cleveland.

Mr. H. R. H. Kenner leaves to-night for the city of Quebec, where he will witness the bicycle races at the big meet.

Mr. A. B. Spellman, of the Clarendon House, Hastings, and lessee of the Idyl Wyld summer resort hotel, is in town to-day.

Mr. John Allen leaves to-night for a visit to the Old Country. Mr. Allen will go via New York, where he has two uncles residing.

Mr. J. T. Tucker of Montreal, who has been spending a few days at Dulce Domum Cottage, Stony Lake, returned to the city this morning.

The Port Hope Guide says: Mr. Will Warmington, Peterborough, is in town, called here on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Millward.

Mr. Harry Womp, formerly of town, but now of Cleveland, spent Sunday here looking up old friends. The Yankees are evidently using Harry well. He is the city salesman for a large wholesale hardware firm.

Miss Susie McQueen, of Owen Sound, is in town visiting her brother-in-law, Mr. Geo. Dies, at the Grand Central. After spending a few days in Peterborough, Miss McQueen will go to Belleville and join Mr. Dies' sister, and both will spend the summer at the Thousand Islands.

Miss Aggie Barnett, of Almonte, who has been visiting her sister in town for the past several weeks, returned home on Saturday, accompanied by her sister, Miss T. Barnett, of town. Miss Barnett will remain in Almonte until the first of August before returning to town to resume her duties as trained nurse.

Dr. W. T. Harrison, of Keene, passed through today on his way home from attending the eighth International Sunday School Convention of America, which has just closed its sessions in Boston. Upon the doctor was conferred the honour of being elected Vice-President of Ontario, a very proper recognition of his zeal and active work in Sunday School interests.

OTONABEE.

Nonagenarian Electors Exercise the Franchise.

Otonabee must be a healthy township, where men live to a grand old age. At the recent election eight residents of that township who had reached the age of at least 90 years and one of 92 years, polled their votes, all with one exception for Mr. Lang. The following are the names and ages of those nonagenarian electors:—Messrs. Wm. Lang, uncle of Mr. Lang, aged 92 years; Jas. Lang, father of Mr. Lang, 90 years; James Garvin, 90 years; Wm. Learmoth, 90 years; John Grady, 90 years; Andrew McDermott, 90 years; Charles Thompson, 90 years; Robert Weir, 90th year. The last named voted for Mr. Burnham.

A NARROW ESCAPE

A Young Lady's Clothing Takes Fire From a Spark.

Miss Maud Perry met with an accident on Friday last which was fraught with the greatest danger, but through which she fortunately came without serious injury.

Miss Perry was taking a trip up the back lakes on the day in question and was sitting on the rear deck of the steamer Golden City, when a spark from the smokestack lodged in the folds of her dress unnoticed. How long it lay there smouldering is, of course, unknown, but its presence was suddenly made known when the whole bottom part of her dress was discovered to be on fire. It was with difficulty that the flames were smothered out and before they were finally extinguished the dress, as well as her underskirts were almost burnt off her.

Miss Perry's many friends will be pleased to learn that beyond a few slight burns she was not injured to any extent and is presiding as usual at the working end of the local telephone system.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

Good for Frank.

As a rule Peterborough boys give a good account of themselves abroad, and among the latest to gain literary fame is a disciple of the art preservative, Mr. Frank McNaughton, who has developed into a clever Shakespearian student. The "Critic," a Cleveland theatrical journal, has the following in reference to Frank:—"A young aspirant for honours is Mr. Frank McNaughton, who evinced himself an earnest student of Shakespeare and developed considerable ability of expression last Saturday evening. In connection with a lodge programme he gave a lecture on the immortal bard which showed much thought and research, and was well and interestingly constructed. He briefly sketched Shakespeare's life, his surroundings conditions, dwelling at some length on the Baconian theory, which he rejected, presenting an able argument that Shakespeare was the author of the plays that bear his name. The lecturer devoted half his time to the rendition of characteristic and prominent passages from the poet, displaying much judgment in the selection. His voice is well adapted to this work, and painstaking instruction and serious study would repay his ambitious efforts."

LINDSAY CHEESE.

Only Seven Cents Received at the Lindsay Board.

(Lindsay Post)

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Victoria County Cheese Board was held in the council chamber in Lindsay on Thursday morning, when the salesmen for the following factories boarded the number of boxes set opposite:

Star	114
Lornevile	80
Cameron	77
Dunsford	58
Gamebridge
Mariposa	80
Derryville	60
Cambray	66
Janetville	70
Manilla (not making)
Fenelon Falls	112
North Ve ulam	88
Minden	60
Lossdale	60
Valentia	70
North Ops	50
Maple	65
Kinmount	70
Reaboro	100
Bobcaygeon	150

The buyers present were Messrs. Whitton, Spence, Flavelle, Cuff and Fitzgerald.

Mr. Read said an episode had occurred with regard to Bobcaygeon's sale at the last meeting of the board that demanded some explanation—the buyer had rejected some of the cheese and had insisted upon the number boarded being made good. For future guidance he wished to know if factories were bound to follow the same rule.

President Robinson said that at the last meeting the factories had boarded the last half of May make; a couple of factories had a few boxes made earlier than that, but the fact had been made known to the board. He did not think it would be good policy to allow buyers to encroach in the way referred to.

Buyer Whitton said Bobcaygeon had boarded a certain number and he had found some fodder cheese in the lot. To say that the number boarded should not be made good would be a jug-handled proceeding—if buyers contracted to sell a thousand boxes they would have to ship that number, and they would be handicapped is factories were not compelled to keep faith.

Mr. Read said he did not wish to say very much regarding the matter, but he would like a rule established for the future.

President Robinson said Mr. Whitton's plan was not allowed on the Peterborough board, and he thought it should not be allowed here.

Mr. Whitton pointed out that no buyer on the road would take fodder cheese and pay the same price as for the prime article. In the Belleville and Campbellford districts buyers were entitled to the number boarded.

Mr. Cruess said the number boarded should not be looked upon as "more or less"—factory men always reserved the right to sell a few cheese to local dealers out of the number boarded.

Mr. Flavelle said if he had purchased instead of Mr. Whitton he would not have been willing to pay as much for the first part of May make.

President Robinson said buyers knew there were a small number of early May make, and Mr. Whitton should have made his objection at the time.

The salesman for Kinmount factory said the cheese boarded by him at last meeting had been pronounced a first class article, but had been refused by Mr. Whitton, who had offered nearly a cent per pound less than the price paid for the board.

Mr. Whitton said he was willing to arbitrate in the matter.

Bids were then called for by the president, and in response Mr. Flavelle offered 6½c for selections. Mr. Whitton bid 6¾c for further selections.

President Robinson—"I don't think it is of any use to ask the salesmen to take that figure. Can't you raise a bit, gentlemen?"

Mr. Whitton—"There are several factories on the board which I cannot inspect; will they consent to undergo inspection here?" He then raised it to 7c, and Mr. Flavelle followed suit.

Yesterday's sales as reported in the daily papers were read, when it was seen that 7c was the top price.

Mr. Whitton named Reaboro, Maple Leaf, Janetville, Derryville, Mariposa, Dunsford, Cameron, Lornevile, North Verulam and North Ops, all accepting at 7 cents.

Mr. Flavelle then offered 7c for further selections, and named Star, Cambray, Fenelon Falls, Bobcaygeon, Minden and Kinmount.

Mr. Whitton took Lossdale at the same figure, providing the patrons ship to Belleville to be inspected. He cautioned the salesmen of the factories not to send any cheese cracked on the top or ends.

The salesman for Valentia then refused to sell subject to inspection at Lindsay, and told Mr. Whitton that he would hold till the next board meeting, which will be on Thursday, July 9th.

It is in the Nature of Things

That, as age advances with concomitants of wear and tear, some parts of the delicate machinery of the body, upon which health and vigor depend, should suffer derangement. Feelings of weariness, listlessness or despondency are the signals that nature throws out to warn, and woe to him who neglects these warnings, for severe are the penalties she exacts. To quicken into new vigor the failing energies; to impart, with certainty, tone to the nervous system, these are the special tendencies of the wonderful tonic and nutrient, Maltine with Coca Wine. It gives strength to the nervous system, and is thus a "nerve restorer;" it increases nutrition, and is therefore, a "body-builder." Maltine with Coca Wine, by its power to add to nerve force and to increase weight, will be found by the debilitated and weak a veritable "life-giver." Maltine with Coca Wine is not a patent medicine. Its composition may be known to you, as it has long been known and subscribed to by the medical profession. Sold by all druggists.

To Tired Ladies.

When you are exhausted and feel played out take a glass of Calcutt's Porter; it will freshen you up and make work a pleasure. Should be used by everybody during house cleaning. tf

THE CABINET VACANCY.

Stratton Stock Rising—West Peterborough's Popular Member Likely to to Join Sir Oliver's Cabinet.

The following refers to the probable new incumbent of the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet. The Toronto Telegram speaks under the above heading:—

Ontario's Cabinet Council will not meet again till Tuesday. Sir Oliver Mowat is in consultation with Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and the other Ontario Ministers are resting quietly after the hard work of the campaign, in which they have all taken an active part.

Much speculation is being indulged in as to the probable change in the Mowat Cabinet. Sir Oliver, of course, will go to Ottawa. That Hon. G. W. Ross would like to be back in Dominion politics there can not be much doubt, say they who know; but Mr. Laurier's supporters who fought the Liberal battles in the Dominion arena, can scarcely be set aside to take in Mr. Ross.

The vacancy left by the all-round change occasioned by Mr. Hardy's accession to the Premiership and the transfer of Messrs. Gibson and Harty will leave the Public Works Department without a head.

There are several men on the Government benches who might aspire with varying degrees of justice to the position. The veteran Jacob Baxter, an ex Speaker of the House, Mr. Speaker Balfour and Messrs. Davis, McNish and Stratton are all eligibles, and one of these gentlemen is almost sure to be selected.

All these members, except Mr. Stratton and Davis, are from the west. Mr. Davis sits for North York, and since Nicholas Awrey's resignation has been chairman of the Public Accounts Committee. Mr. Stratton sits for West Peterborough, and is chairman of the Printing Committee.

Chances seem to favour Mr. Stratton, who is a man in the prime of life, a successful journalist, a clever speaker, and thoroughly well posted upon the affairs of the province. Hon. John Dryden and Hon. Mr. Harty are the only two Ministers with portfolios who represent eastern constituencies, and the location of Mr. Stratton's constituency, coupled with his known ability, is a strong argument for his admission to the Cabinet.

Wherefore most of those conversant with Ontario Government affairs confidently predict that Mr. James R. Stratton will be added to Sir Oliver Mowat's Cabinet next Tuesday afternoon.

Belleville Sun.

Sir Oliver's going to Ottawa will leave a vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, to which it is said Brer. Stratton of the Peterborough EXAMINER will be called. Newspaper men and people generally will be pleased if the EXAMINER men gets the honour.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NOTES.

Confirmation Services To-morrow Night.

It was announced in St. John's yesterday that his Lordship, the Bishop of Toronto, would conduct confirmation services at St. John's to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. This is an extra confirmation service, and the number will not be so large on account of confirmation having been held recently. Two of the members of the class to have been confirmed to-morrow night received the laying on hands at Lakefield yesterday when about thirty were confirmed.

To-day the Bishop is holding confirmation services in Rev. Mr. Hartley's mission, Haultain and Young's Point, and to-morrow confirmation takes place at Buckhorn, where the choir of St. John's and some of the local clergy will be present to assist.

Rev. Mr. Davidson, rector of Peterborough, will, on Monday, July 5th, start on a journey around the missions of Northern Peterborough and Haliburton. He expects to be absent about a fortnight.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH NOTES.

The choir of St. Luke's is deprived of its leading soprano by the marriage of Mr. E. T. Byshe to Miss Lizzie Long. Miss Long has for several years occupied the leader's position in St. Luke's. The ceremony was performed in the church on Saturday evening, and Mr. and Mrs. Byshe left for Montreal, where they will reside, on the 11.35 train.

Reference was made to the lamented demise of Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, in St. Luke's church, yesterday, by the Rector. Mr. Davies played the "Dead March in Saul," and appropriate hymns were sung. Many of the old members of St. Luke's were deeply affected, for Mr. Bradshaw's memory is still, and will long continue, green in Ashburnham. The Rector will preach a memorial sermon on Sunday morning next.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Yesterday was review Sunday in the George street Methodist Sunday school, and an address on the life and character of St. Luke was given by Mr. J. Jeffreys. Rev. Newton Hill, of Omemee, also spoke, taking as his subject "Traps." Mrs. R. A. Hamilton sang a solo in splendid voice and a chorus with motions was very prettily executed by some of the members of the primary department.

Mr. E. H. Povah, of Detroit, sang Lindsay's beautiful solo, "Come Unto Me," in a most pleasing manner in St. John's South Ward Mission last evening. Special mention should be made of the creditable manner in which the Mission choir is progressing.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 22.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in this city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine, the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

THE old man who looks out at the world with clear and healthy eyes cannot help feeling great gratification at the thought that his children and his children's children have inherited from him no weakness nor tendency to disease. The healthy old man is the man who has throughout his life kept his digestion good and his blood pure. Once in a while you find such a man who has never taken any medicine. That man has lived a perfectly natural life. Not one in a thousand does do it. Sometimes very slight indiscretions or carelessness pave the way for serious sickness. The germ theory of disease is well authenticated, and germs are everywhere. This need make no difference to the perfectly healthy man. Germs go through the healthy body without effect. They are hurried along rapidly and thrown off before they have time to develop or increase. Let them once find lodgment or let them find a weak spot, they will develop by the million and the blood will be full of them. Instead of rich, life-giving properties, the blood will be a sluggish, putrid tide of impurity. Instead of giving strength to the tissues, it will force upon them unwholesome and innutritious matter, and the man will lose flesh. The more flesh he loses and the weaker he becomes, the more susceptible he is to disease. His trouble will become complicated and serious consequences will follow. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the only medicine that absolutely and infallibly cures all blood diseases, and almost all diseases are blood diseases. It isn't a medicine for some one particular so-called disease. It is a medicine for the whole body. It forces out all the germs of disease, replaces impurities with rich, red blood, feeds the tissues and makes strong, healthy flesh.

HARRISON RELEASED.

The Venezuelan Government Did Not Recognize the Arrest of the English Engineer and His Men.

Washington, June 26,—Minister Andrade at noon to-day received the following cablegram, and immediately sent a copy to Secretary Olney.

Caracas, June 26.—From Rojas, Minister of Foreign Affairs, to Venezuelan Minister at Washington: I; was yesterday when the National Commissary of Cuyuni telegraphed occurrence. Harrison and 19 others crossed to the left bank of the Cuyuni to open a road. The Sub-Commissary of Acarabesi protested in writing. Harrison insisted, and the Sub-Commisary took him to the post of Eldorado. As soon as the Government was informed thereof, it ordered the release of Harrison and asked details.

The post of Eldorado referred to in the cablegram is directly across the river from the British station of Uruan. The despatch confirms the impression that the Venezuelans were not at fault, and that the statue quo observed for several years was broken by Harrison's surveying party. Secretary Olney will notify Sir Julian Pauncefote of Harrison's prompt release and the circumstances under which he was arrested.

THE BASEBALL GAME.

Providence Too Strong for Toronto—Beaten by 7 to 4.

Although there were many errors, it was a well-played game yesterday over the Don. Providence hit Dunn hard and often, while the Torontos earned three of their four runs. The fielding was frequently sharp, no less than six double plays being recorded. Wright made a phenomenal left-handed catch of a long fly from Knight's bat in the seventh that saved a home run. Dixon batted perfectly. His home run was a long drive to left centre. Score:

Providence	0 2 0 2 0 0 0 2 1—7
Toronto	0 0 0 1 0 1 1 1 0—4

Earned runs—Providence 4, Toronto 3. First base on errors—Providence 5. Left on bases—Providence 9, Toronto 10. First base on balls—Off Dunn 4, off Hodson 7. Struck out—By Hodson 5. Home run—Dixon. Three-base hit—Smith. Two-base hits—Lyons, Delehanty, Lutenburg. Stolen bases—Lyons, Canavan, Murray, Delehanty. Double plays—Smith to Padden to Lutenburg, O'Brien to Padden, Padden to Lutenburg, Cooney to Canavan to Dranby 2. Hit by pitcher—By Hodson 2. Umpire—Stearns. Time of game—2.25. Attendance—800.

MANITOBA'S VOTE.

Premier Greenway and Attorney-General Sifton Discuss the Result—Lisgar and Selkirk Safe.

Winnipeg, June 26.—Lisgar and Selkirk are both safe seats for the Liberals Complete returns received to-day elect Mr. Richardson, Liberal, by 66 majority for Lisgar, and Mr. Macdonell, Liberal, by 29 in Selkirk. The Conservatives will probably apply for a recount in the latter constituency, which they had always regarded as safe for their side.

Hon. Mr. Greenway, who returned from Southern Manitoba on Thursday after his vigorous campaign on behalf of Mr. Richardson, the Liberal member-elect for that riding, was seen by a reporter and asked for his views with regard to the result. "As you can imagine," said the Premier, "I am highly pleased with the general result throughout the Dominion. After a long period of such misrule as to blight the prospects of the country a new era is about to dawn, in which decent politics and decent methods will prevail, because the Government will be in the hands of decent men. There are a great many knots to untie and tangles to unravel, but with patience and application the new Liberal Government may safely be expected to accomplish the great task set."

"What do you think of the results in Manitoba?"

"With regard to Manitoba, you can easily understand how entirely disgusted and disappointed I am. My disgust and disappointment are to some extent mitigated when I observed the influences that were brought to bear to defeat the Liberal candidates. Positive information has been furnished me, in addition to what I saw for myself, that the most corrupt practices were resorted to in order to prevent the election of a single Liberal in Manitoba. Playing for high stakes, as the Government was, and expecting to carry the country every energy was bent upon carrying Manitoba, as it was reckoned that a pronouncement from this Province in favor of the Government, whose program was coercive legislation, would enable it to keep itself solid with Quebec by passing coercion legislation. We know that the C.P.R. have violated their pledges of neutrality and elected Hugh John Macdonald in Winnipeg, and that they did not fail to use their influence in other constituencies in Manitoba. In Marquette and Macdonald, continued the Premier, it must be obvious that the defeat of the Liberal candidates was due to the unwonted action of the Patrons, whose candidates succeeded in defeating ours. With a fair election, I am satisfied that my prediction would have been realized. Instead of there being 4 to 3 in favor of Tupperism, there would have been 5 to 2 in favor of Mr. Laurier and non-interference with Manitoba.

Interviewed by a reporter of The Tribune, Attorney-General Sifton said he was fairly well satisfied with the general result. With Winnipeg of course he was disappointed. Brandon went just about as those best informed expected.

"How will this affect the school question?"

"Oh, I think, with D'Alton McCarthy, that coercion is dead."

"But will not Manitoba's position affect it?"

"I think it is pretty well known how that is. The Liberals will understand how Winnipeg was carried—by means best known to the Government side. The vote in Macdonald and Marquette was against the Government, and but for the Patrons our candidates would have been elected. The way in which the rest of the province had gone required no explanation."

SIR OLIVER GOES EAST.

Will Confer With His Leader in Regard to Plans for the Future.

Toronto, June 27.

Sir Oliver Mowat left for Montreal yesterday to consult with Hon. Wilfrid Laurier regarding the formation of a Dominion Cabinet and to talk over plans for a settlement of the Manitoba school question.

Nothing will be done in the matter of the re-formation of the Ontario Cabinet until Sir Oliver's return from the east, which will probably be on Tuesday or Wednesday next

The story circulated in some quarters that Sir Oliver Mowat has an eye on the Gubernatorial mansion is rated as absurd. Men high in public affairs, who intimately know Sir Oliver's mind, stated yesterday that the Ontario Premier would never accept such a position. He was a man who could never stand being idle, and could not content himself unless he had a lot of hard work before him. Sir Oliver is one of those men who want to die in the thick of the fight.

Another reason why the Little Premier would not take the Governorship is that he has no ambition to shine in "society."

Another political rumor flying about is that Sir Oliver Mowat, instead of being appointed to the Senate, will have a constituency opened for him and run for the Lower House. Mr. Laurier, it is said, wants his Minister of Justice beside him in the commons.

It is stated that Mr. J[illegible]r is to be Minister of Railways [illegible] Canals in Mr. Laurier's Cabinet.

Blood-purifiers, though gradual, are radical in their effect. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is intended as a medicine only and not a stimulant, excitant or beverage. Immediate results may not always follow its use; but after a reasonable time, permanent benefit is certain to be realized.

Burglars in Marmora.

Marmora, Ont., June 26.—About 2 o'clock this morning three burglars entered B. C. Hubbell's store and blew open his safe, getting about $50. The explosion was so great that it broke the front windows and sash. The burglars were seen coming out, and were traced to Central Ontario Junction, where they boarded the express going west. They were closely chased by wire, and the Chief of Police of Peterboro arrested two of them. The third made his escape.

A $35,000 Fire.

Alexandria, June 26.—The flour mills belonging to J. O. & H. Mooney of this place were totally destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The loss is between $25,000 and $30,000, partly covered by insurance. Origin of fire unknown.

BAD BLOOD.

Bad blood courses through the veins and arteries just the same as good blood does, but good blood carries with it health, while bad blood distributes diseases throughout the whole body.

Good blood means vigor. Bad blood sows the seed of scrofula, ulcers, abscesses, boils, blotches, skin diseases, and almost all the ills that flesh is heir to. To get health we must cure the bad blood, and

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Are Fixed Upon South American Nervine.

Beyond Doubt the Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

WHEN EVERY OTHER HELPER HAS FAILED IT CURES

A Discovery, Based on Scientific Principles, that Renders Failure Impossible.

In the matter of good health temporising measures, while possibly successful for the moment, can never be lasting. Those in poor health soon know whether the remedy they are using is simply a passing incident in their experience, bracing them up for the day, or something that is getting at the seat of the disease and is surely and permanently restoring.

The eyes of the world are literally fixed on South American Nervine. They are not viewing it as a nine-days' wonder, but critical and experienced men have been studying this medicine for years, with the one result—they have found that its claim of perfect curative qualities cannot be gainsaid.

The great discoverer of this medicine was possessed of the knowledge that the seat of all disease is the nerve centres, situated at the base of the brain. In this belief he had the best scientists and medical men of the world occupying exactly the same premises. Indeed, the ordinary layman recognized this principle long ago. Everyone knows that let disease or injury affect this part of the human system and death is almost certain. Injure the spinal cord, which is the medium of these nerve centres, and paralysis is sure to follow.

Here is the first principle. The trouble with medical treatment usually, and with nearly all medicines, is that they aim simply to treat the organ that may be diseased. South American Nervine passes by the organs, and immediately applies its curative powers to the nerve centres, from which the organs of the body receive their supply of nerve fluid. The nerve centres healed, and of necessity the organ which has shown the outward evidence only of derangement is healed. Indigestion, nervousness, impoverished blood, liver complaint, all owe their origin to a derangement of the nerve centres. Thousands bear testimony that they have been cured of these troubles, even when they have become so desperate as to baffle the skill of the most eminent physicians, because South American Nervine has gone to headquarters and cured there.

The eyes of the world have not been disappointed in the inquiry into the success of South American Nervine. People marvel, it is true, at its wonderful medical qualities, but they know beyond all question that it does everything that is claimed for it. It stands alone as the one great certain curing remedy of the nineteenth century. Why, should anyone suffer distress and sickness while this remedy is practically at their hands?

THE BEST

FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. May Johnson, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

THE FETCHING TYPE.

THE APPEARANCE OF THE SUMMER GIRL OF THE SEASON OF 1896.

She Will Don Shirt Waist and Bell Crowned Sailor or White Swiss, Grass Linen and Fluffy Parasol, but in Either Will be Charmingly Delightful.

The summer girl has made her appearance. She came out along with the early buds and blossoms that burst forth during that midsummer week in May. It's a pity there isn't a new name for her, for the term has become almost as hackneyed as the new woman. But whatever may be said of the term, the girl herself is as fresh and blooming as ever—more so, indeed, for she has been giving more attention to physical culture and development than ever before.

It was funny to see shirt waists and straw hats when one carried an umbrella every day in preparation for the expected shower. A number of the waists worn during the hot week I have been speaking of were those left over from last summer. Among the new ones, there Persian waists seemed to be the favorites. Nearly all the new waists are made with removable white collars, hence the other waists are cheaper. It is quite correct to wear a ribbon around the neck in place of the white collar, but there is nothing to replace the cuffs, unless one ties narrow ribbons around the wristband. An inch ribbon tied in a fetching little bow at the back of the arm is rather effective, and coincides with the general tendency to make shirt waists more elaborate.

Some very dainty waists are shown made of white dotted Swiss over green silk, and trimmed with butter lace.

In regard to waists in general, I have noticed that if stripes or bands of lace insertion are used as trimming, the stripes are made to run up and down on an ordinary garment, and round and round for an elaborate evening dress.

Sleeves of thin materials are very elaborately trimmed. Zig-zag trimming on the puffs is a great favorite. An embroidered ecru net gown was furnished with sleeves that almost lost their identity in the mass of flounces and puffs that composed them. Another peculiarity about this gown was the trimming of the skirt. Flounces, accordeon pleated, were made to curve down in front and up the back, and they covered the entire length of the skirt.

It is hardly possible to make skirts of thin materials cut in the present fashion, without using some trimming. Ribbon and lace in alternate diagonal strips of eight or ten inches are set on around the bottom of the skirt. Vandyked flounces of lace are also in favor.

Many waists are made of a plain material with figured sleeves and skirts. A figured organdy has a white Swiss and lace wrist with sleeves like the skirt.

A beautiful dress worn by a beautiful woman last Sunday was made of dark blue silk with a fine, pale yellow stripe. The jacket was made coat fashion in the back with tabs that were lined with yellow. In front the whole waist was yellow chiffon. The sleeves were of silk, tight to the elbow with a little band of yellow simulating a cuff. She wore a yellow straw hat with pink rosebuds, and yellow gloves, and she was just in style of blonde that looks well in yellow. A dark silk like the one described, with light trimmings, is the safest kind of dress to buy if one cannot afford many. It is cool in hot days and never looks out of place on a cool day. It also admits of wearing a jacket with it, which is a great advantage, for nothing looks so forlorn on a cool summer day as a white or light colored dress dangling below a dark coat.

THE SUMMER GIRL.

It is interesting to follow the summer girl about when she is doing her shopping for the coming campaign, says the Philadelphia Press. There is no difficulty in spotting her, for the first place to which she rushes is always the shirt waist material counter. There she buys percale for morning wear. For these she buys a plaid silk tie. She also purchased at this counter a couple of Persian dimity waists and if she can afford it she gets one made of grass linen. These admit of either white or black satin butterfly ties, or any pretty four-in-hands.

She does not buy a narrow gilt belt; she has already done that and she is sorry for it. She gets a narrow leather one. Spangled belts need not necessarily match any tint in the waist. A pale green spangled affair, that reminded one of mermaids and seaweed and the like, looked very pretty with the blue dotted grass linen with which it was worn.

Next in the route of the summer girl comes the millinery department. Here she has already bought the hat she is wearing with its nodding blossoms and fluffy tulle, but she wants a hat to wear at the beech and she comes back to her old friend, the sailor. The newest sailors have bell crowns and they are not the kind that curve gently in at the middle, but they have a sharp angle between the upper and lower sections of the crown. A very fine straw is used in hats of this kind, after the fashion of the Panama sailors that are working their way up from the tropics.

Some of the daintiest things that the fair shopper buys are the pale pink and blue and green dimity night dresses and petticoats, trimmed with lace. The skirts are especially pretty to wear under thin summer dresses.

The last thing, but far from the least important, that the summer girl buys is her parasol or—more properly speaking her parasols, for she has one to match every dress if possible. There is the grass linen one, either plain or dotted and laid over tinted silk to wear in the mornings, or with a grass linen gown at any time of day.

Then there are the Dresden silks which can be carried with any kind of costume. Most of these have enameled handles, or what have always been called Dresden handles. Some have little glass marble-like knobs at the ends.

Then comes the lace and chiffon sunshades. These have very little that is substantial about them. There is a centre piece of silk about sixteen inches in diameter, with net or chiffon draped from it to form the edge of the parasol. One has two ribbon stripes around the edge, with an open stripe between, through which a naughty ray of sunlight might easily slip and burn her ladyship's nose.

A pretty trimming is alternate rows of lace and old rose ribbon running around the parasol. Indeed, all the new parasols have stripes running around and not up and down on the silk, but never the whole length.

An exquisite black chiffon parasol has a bow of velvet satin ribbon and a bunch of violets on the small end. There is also a bow and a bunch of flowers underneath on the handle.

All the handles have some sort of decoration, either a bow or ribbon, a silk rosette or a tassel.

An unique design is a cherry handle with red cherries carved out of ivory and beautifully and perfectly stained. These vary in price according to the silk covering used.

Altogether the summer girl will be known by her parasol this season more than by any other accessory to her costume.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof :—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Frills of Fashion.

Many of the expensive imported skirts are deeply plaited in shell-shaped festoons with a row of lace at the edge of each plaiting.

Great use is made by the modiste of the new Huguenot frillings and puffings of silk, lace, net linen lawn, batiste, organdie and grenadine.

Newest satin and brocaded taffeta silk petticoats are made with flounced lace-edged borders, four or five in number or one-half a yard deep, above three tiny pinked ones.

Pin check and inch-wide block patterns in fine wool rival the mohairs and cheviots in the making of natty costumes for traveling and walking costumes this summer.

Leghorn hats are crinkled and bent into fantastic shapes and decorated with plaited chiffon frills, Venetian lace and roses that shade from deepest jacque red to faintest pink.

A NEW SURVEY.

Mr. Niven will Start on an Interesting Expedition in the Nipissing District—Important Results Expected.

Alex. Niven of Haliburton, will start on Monday with a party to survey a line northward on the boundary between the districts of Nipissing and East Algoma. This line has already been surveyed to a point 30 miles north of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Mr. Niven will continue the line thence towards James Bay, and it is expected that he will complete 100 or 125 miles of it this season. This tract of country is almost wholly unknown, but there are extensive areas of Huronian rocks, and it is not unlikely that they may be found to be mineral bearing. Mr. Ed. Burwash will accompany the party to examine it as to its geological structure with a view to making out the several rock formations and will do exploration work for a distance of several miles on either side of the boundary line and note carefully all occurrences of veins and minerals. The line will run down the head waters of the Montreal River, which is a promising field for mining explorers. This survey, when completed to James Bay, will give useful information of a part of the province which is now little known. It may possibly prove that here is a region is that locality as large and as valuable for soil and timber as the tract of 50,000 square miles recently discovered on the Quebec side of the line between the two provinces. In a summary report of the Geological Survey for 1895 Dr. Geo. M. Dawson says:—"There can now be very little doubt that every square mile of the Huronian formation of Canada will sooner or later become an object of interest to the prospector and that industries of considerable importance may yet be planted upon the foundations far to the north, which for other reasons are at present regarded as barren and useless." From a mining point of view it is a matter of great importance to know the locality and limits of the Huronian areas and the survey of the projected line will have that as one of its principal objects. Mr. Niven will be engaged in the work for six or seven months.

RAILWAY NOTES.

Sparks From the Wheels—Cinders for the Eye.

Further important changes in the officering of the G. T. R. are said to be imminent. Mr. Fitzhugh, assistant to General Manager Hayes, is to be appointed master of transportation for the lines east of Toronto, and Mr. Cotter of the Wabash R.R., for the lines west of Toronto. It is also probable that Mr. J. M. Riddell, assistant superintendent at Montreal, and Messrs. Morris, Tiffin and Webster, district superintendents, will be asked to resign.

ONE HONEST MAN

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P.O. Box 383, London, Ont.

BASEBALL.

Belleville won from Lindsay on Friday by a score of 25 runs to 0 and only five innings were played at that. The Bellevilles have a semi-professional team this year.

LACROSSE.

The Elms, of Toronto, will play the local team on the P. A. A. A. grounds on the afternoon of the First. The game will be one of the best of the season. It will be remembered that the Junior Elms were down last year and defeated the Junior Peterboroughs by 3 to 2. If the juniors are so fast it argues that the senior team will be a first-class organization.

The Peterborough juniors are having hard luck this year as they cannot get a game on anywhere. Belleville, Madoc, Campbellford, Stirling, Norwood, Beaverton, Port Hope II, Orillia II and Cobourg II have all successively declined to try conclusions with them.

THE WHEEL.

Although three days in advance of the two principal racing days Quebec is rapidly filling up, and to-night there are over four hundred bicyclists in the city from Montreal, Toronto and the Maritime Provinces. The McCready team, Alf. Young and John H. Wills, arrived this morning. The number of entries is something extraordinard, in one race alone there being over thirty six. Most of the championship races have from ten to twenty entries. Payson Davidson, manager of the Brantford team, stated that he was of opinion the contests would surpass anything ever held in Canada and the United States, as far as interest and time were concerned. He thinks that many records will be broken owing to the excellent condition of the track, which is termed by nearly all the racing men as being equal to any track they have ever wheeled on. The total number of entries in eighteen events is 350. The war ships arrived in port this afternoon and were the object of much curiosity, many of the wheelmen visiting them and being right royally received.

The Peterborough racing team, consisting of Little, Walker, Lytle and Phillips, left on Saturday night for the meet, and it will be a great surprise to the boys if that team trophy is not brought home as well as a few other prizes.

TORONTO WINS FROM PROVIDENCE.

The Score Seven to Five in Favor of the Home Team.

A crowd numbering about 2000 saw the Torontos defeat the Providence team over the Don on Saturday afternoon in a close and exciting game. But for the stupid base running of Dineen and Dwyse the home team might have done ever better. Both pitchers were a trifle wild, but effective at times, though Dineen carried off the honors. Paiden distinguished himself by his brilliant fielding and came in for well-merited applause when he secured Lyons' fly in the seventh innings.

CLYDESDALE.

From our own Correspondent.

The country has settled down again after the election, and the people are turning to their crops once more and leaving the politicians to fight it out among themselves. Mr. Lang did have as large a majority here as was expected, as Mr. Burnham polled twenty-three votes out of a total of sixty, or nearly double of what even his friends had thought he would receive.

On Tuesday evening Pat. Mahoney and James Cleary went down to Peterborough with a load of wool, returning again on Friday.

Peter Goodey and Michael Hobbins have gone back to work on the railroad near Whitney. The work was too heavy for bigger men than they, and we do not know how they will stand it.

Wm. Cleary, who has been working with his team on the canal at Peterborough, was up on election day and did good work for his party. In the evening he started back to town.

Now that the fear of drouth has passed over a new danger to the late crops has presented itself. There are millions of hungry grasshoppers in the fields, some busily engaged cutting down the wheat and oats, and others sitting where the buckwheat has been sown, waiting for it to come up. Fred Hobbins is ploughing them in to get rid of them, and says they will make excellent manure.

On account of the high price of flour in Coe Hill the farmers in this vicinity are buying what they need in Lakefield, and Mr. John Minogue has had a carload shipped to him this week for the use of the patrons of the cheese factory.

Last week the directors of the cheese factory made their first shipment, making a sale of 50 cheese at 7 1-16c a pound, freight being paid besides.

There have been several dances during the last few weeks which, together with the hot weather, have completely turned the heads of some of our young men. One's life is scarcely safe if he attempts to make a joke, as there are several giants living in the country who are able to handle anything that walks on two legs.

Narrow Escape From Death of Viscount Milton and His Bride on the Eve of Their Wedding.

New York, June 24.—A London special says: "The most notable wedding in London for years was that in the vast nave of St. Paul's Cathedral this week of Viscount Milton (heir of Earl Fitzwilliam, one of the richest peers of England,) and Lady Maude Dundas, a daughter of the Marquis of Zetland. It was the third wedding celebrated in St. Paul's in a century. It is now said that both the youthful bridegroom and his bride narrowly escaped death the night before, having been poisoned in some unexplained way by something eaten at dinner. Only prompt emetics saved them. They were hardly able to attend the ceremony.

The Tupper Cabinet Will, it is Said, Step Out.

A WILD SCRAMBLE AT THE CAPITAL

Place-Hunters Thronging the Place—A Protestant Clergyman Rejoices at the Independence Shown by the Quebec Electors in Defying the Church's Commands.

Ottawa, June 29.—The Cabinet held another session to-day. Messrs. Costigan, Macdonald and Prior were not present. Claims for appointments are blowing in from all parts of the Dominion, and even from outside. There are men here from all parts of the country with axes to grind and schemes to put through and appointments to secure. After eighteen years of patronage the hungry crowd are not yet appeased. The Ministers are filching favors right and left. They are trying to create vacancies by superannuation in order to fill the mouths of the greedy. Among those who are here to day are the following: Major Beattie, London; Mr. Henry, South Brant; Mr. J. J. Stewart, Halifax; Mr. Rosamond, North Lanark; Mr. Clancey, of Bothwell; Mr. Pope, of Compton; Mr. Hazen, ex-M.P. for St. John; Mr. Mills of Annapolis; Mr. Ferguson of Renfrew; Mr. Hugh Ryan, Mr. N. K. Connolly and Mr. Marter, M.L.A. Hon. Hugh John Macdonald of Winnipeg arrived to-night and Col. Prior will be here to-morrow. The talk of the Government hanging on until the House meets has no foundation except in the bitter desire of disappointed politicians to make trouble, if possible, for the new Administration Sir Charles Tupper knows that if he were to keep power for six weeks the wolves would still be howling around the doors of the Privy Council. He will resign to-morrow or next day, in all probability. At least that is the present intention. There will be another Cabinet Council to-morrow.

The Tory press are now saying that the Quebec Liberals accepted the mandement of the Bishops, and that this is the reason that the Liberals won. It will not do. Here is what a representative Quebec Liberal told his constituents in the thick of the fight after the mandement was issued: Mr. C.A. Geoffrion said: "It had been said that Mgr. Langevin expressed approval of the Remedial Bill. I respect Mgr. Langevin, and I believe him a high authority upon religious questions. But I do not accept him to show me the law. (Cheers.) When he has occasion for legal advice, let him come to me. He may consult me if he likes; but I shall not consult him. Was I sent to Parliament by the electors of the County of Vercheres to vote according to the judgment of another? I was sent to vote and to act according to my own judgment, and to follow the dictates of my own conscience." These remarks of Mr. Geoffrion were well received, says The Montreal Star report.

A special patriotic service was held at Stewarton Presbyterian Church yesterday in honor of Coronation Day and the approaching holiday in honor of the Dominion. Rev. R. E. Knowles, pastor, preached a patriotic sermon, giving many reasons for national thanksgiving. During the sermon he made reference to the recent elections. He said: "While a sanguine mind may easily discover many causes for national exultation, yet it seems to me that the cause pre-eminent has been revealed in the recent elections, whose result is just disclosed. Whatever either Liberal or Conservative may have felt of gladness or of gloom at the result, all must alike rejoice at one feature to which I am about to refer. That feature is the courageous independence of the Catholics of Quebec in their admirable disregard of hierarchy despotism. This is the most significant sign of the times which this generation has been privileged to behold. A new and better era has been ushered in. Our brethren of Quebec have given us a grand solution of the problem which perplexed all serious minds, and whose gloomy portent had darkened with the passing days. They have stepped out in response to the heroic words of him who led them into the open plain of liberty, and we grasp their hands with words of hope for the glorious future of an undivided Canada."

One of the most difficult tasks which falls to the lot of the Sergeant-at-Arms on the election of a new House of Commons is the allotting of the seats of members. In view of a change of Government, this task is rendered all the more difficult now. The principle which has governed in the past has been to give the old members their choice of seats, allotting of what are known as the front benches, coming specially under the supervision of the Government and leader of the Opposition respectively. It is not at all unlikely that a few Liberals will have to find places on the Conservative side, as well as the Patrons and Independents, but a difficulty has cropped up in that some old members, notably Mr. Charlton, Mr. Scriver and Dr. Sproule, desire to retain seats which they have held for a number of years past. Dr. Sproule had one of the front seats on the Conservative side, and if he desires to be considered a Conservative, as every one knows him to be, and a good one at that, he ought to go over and sit with his political friends. Similarly, Mr. Charlton, seated on the front Opposition bench, will not be persona grata to the Conservatives. If he remains in his own seat he would have an ex-Minister on his right and Dr. Bergin on his left.

The three front rows on the Opposition benches have been reserved for re-elected Conservatives, and after them come the new men, Messrs. Clarke, Osler and J. Ross Robertson, together on the fourth row of the Opposition benches. Clarke Wallace, who occupied second seat on the first Ministerial row, has applied for a similar seat to the left of Mr. Speaker, the seat held by George Casey for a number of years.

Mr. Forest of Nantes, France, had an interview with Prof. Robertson on behalf of a large French company which is seeking to open up an export trade in butter and horses from Canada to France. The Agricultural Commissioner has promised to furnish full information to the company.

The Department of Marine and Fisheries has received a report of Capt. W. H. Smith, who, in conjunction with Capt. Douglas, R. N., and Capt. Thomas, was appointed a commission to enquire into the stranding of the steamer Belgravia of Glasgow off Black Point, near St. John Harbor, N.B., on May 22 last. Capt. William Laird is adjudged to have made a serious and unfortunate mistake in the navigation of his vessel, but in consideration of his long and faithful service the requirements of the case will be met by suspension of his certificate for three months. Second Mate Douglas is reprimanded.

Mr. M. P. Davis, contractor for the Cornwall Canal, was in town to-day. He states that the new stretch of water made by the construction of Sheik's Islands dam will be ready for navigation on Dominion Day, while the new bridge across the canal at Mille Roches will be ready for traffic. By the construction of the dams, navigation will be greatly facilitated.

The official figures of polling in Carleton County are: Hodgins (Con.), 1337 votes; McKellar (Lib.), 1128 votes; Heinrichs (Con.), 299 votes; Butler (Con.), 90 votes; plurality for Hodgins, 209.

Judge Ross gave judgment this morning in the Division Court case of Beardsley v. Jordan, the dispute over an Italian greyhound, which had been heard at the last court. It was that defendant was entitled to the dog. In giving judgment, His Honor did what he said he always did when any person connected with the case approached him. He had been seen by one of the Beardsleys since the case was heard, a very improper thing, His Honor considered.

MR. LAURIER'S MOVEMENTS.

Premier Fielding and Mr. Sutherland in Consultation With the Leader.

Montreal, June 29.—Mr. Laurier arrived in town this afternoon from Arthabaskaville. He was met there on Saturday by Premier Fielding of Nova Scotia and Mr. J. Israel Tarte and the political situation was discussed. Mr. James Sutherland, M.P., the Liberal whip, joined the party here. Mr. Laurier and Premier Fielding were the centre to night around the Windsor, which was crowded with politicians. Mr. Fielding's address here last December in Windsor Hall created a fine impression, and many Conservatives to-night admitted that he would be a great source of strength if he joined Mr. Laurier's Cabinet. As he has come this far with Mr. Laurier, the probability is that he will be one of the new Ministers, Premier Blair of New Brunswick and Premier Mowat of Ontario are expected here to-morrow. A great deal of talk took place here over the report that Sir Charles Tupper would not resign until defeated in the House, and that there was a plan to capture a number of the seats now held by Liberals. One of these seats is Argenteuil, and it was reported that Mr. Abbott had been elected by 64, as the deputy returning officer at a poll where Mr. Christie had a majority did not initial the ballots. The report, however, was untrue, as a messenger from Lachute to-night says the returning officer has declared Mr. Christie, Liberal, elected by 73.

Montreal Conservatives are unanimous in saying they hope that Sir Charles will accept the inevitable and resign. Hon. L. H. Davies is now on the way here and will arrive to-morrow.

MR. LAURIER TO BE KNIGHTED.

Impression That the New Premier Will Meet the House as Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Montreal, June 29.—(Special.)—Your correspondent learns upon excellent authority that Lord Aberdeen lost no time, as soon as it became known that Hon. Mr. Laurier had carried the country, in recommending the Liberal leader to Her Majesty for knighthood, and that it is the impression in vice-regal circles that when the new Canadian Prime Minister takes his place at the Speaker's right in the House of Commons he will do so under no other title than that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A most important piece of informa-

Mr. Davies on His Way West.

St John, N.B., June 29.—Hon. L. H. Davies passed through here this afternoon en route from Montreal. At the depot a very large crowd of prominent men met the Maritime Provinces leader. He was given hearty cheers as the train moved out for Montreal.

BIG TIME AT QUEBEC.

Everything in Readiness for the Opening of the Great C.W.A. Meet This Week.

Quebec, June 29.—Several members of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association Meet called upon Vice-Admiral Erskine on board H.M.S. Crescent to-day. The admiral was very much pleased with the program of the coming week's events, and said that the fleet would co-operate with the executive towards making the meet a success. The war ship's string band gave a public concert on the terrace this evening.

A meeting of the C.W.A. Executive Committee was held to-night, when all sub-committees reported arrangements completed.

Hundreds of wheelmen are pouring in. They are being looked after by a special committee.

Mr. P. Campbell, proprietor of the Frontenac livery stables, has placed a very large and convenient building for the storing of bicycles of visiting wheelmen. Thousands of wheels will be handled in this storehouse.

NO HOPE OF RESCUE.

Pittston Colliery Victims All Doomed to Death.

Fears That the Entrance to the Twin Shaft Will Soon be Closed—Grief-Stricken Relatives Hoping Against Hope—Disaster Attributed to Recent Heavy Rains.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., June 29.—There are no new developments this morning at the Twin Shaft of the Newton Coal Co. at Pittston, the scene of the terrible mine accident. It is learned that the work of the rescuers toward reaching the entombed miners is progressing rapidly. The timbering is going up fast, and if the same progress is continued for 24 hours the rescuers will be right on the cave proper and then the digging will begin. How far beyond or under this cave the men are cannot, of course, be stated. It may be two days or it may be two weeks. James McMahon, one of the bravest miners in the valley, crawled about the mine this morning, and it is claimed he was within 100 feet of where the unfortunate men are supposed to be. He called out to them on many occasions, but could get no answer. That they are dead is beyond any further question.

One of the chief officials of a neighboring mine stated that the heavy rains of the last few days had caused water to go into the Twin Shaft and down into the fifth vein, which caused the roof of the Red Ash vein to become weaker. An official investigation will follow, and it is believed that it will in every respect be thorough and impartial.

7 p.m.—The situation at the scene of the Pittston disaster remains practically unchanged to-night. The company is making every possible effort to reach the victims, but there is absolutely no hope that any of them will be recovered alive.

The friends and relatives of the entombed men haunted the head of the shaft all day, hoping against hope that some of the rescuing party may bring up a word of cheer.

The rescuing party that went into the shaft this morning returned at 6 o'clock this evening, and as they jumped from the carriage the foreman said: "No hope of rescue as yet."

The situation is changing almost hourly owing to the continuous caving or "squeezing." On this account nothing whatever can be told as to when the men can be reached. The work of rescue is most dangerous.

11 p.m.—When it became known tonight that it was more than probable that the men would never be found the excitement was renewed. The rescuing party that came out of the shaft at 10 o'clock reported that the situation was worse than at any time to-day. The workings are crushing nearer the foot of the shaft and the outlook is very dubious. The night shift of rescuers were driven back by the roof caving in and closing up the work that had been accomplished during the afternoon. It is now feared that the entrance to the Twin Shaft may be closed within the next 24 hours.

FIVE OF THEM DROWNED.

The Abrupt and Sad Ending of a Party That Started Out for a Week's Holiday.

Sharon, Mass., June 29.—What was intended to be a week's enjoyable outing was brought to an abrupt and sad close at Lake Massapoag this afternoon. Assistant Pastor Joseph Maxwell, Choirmaster Frederick Brackett, Clerk George R. Keyes and 16 choir boys of St. John's Episcopal Church, Charlestown, came to Sharon to-day to camp out at Lake Massapoag for a week. They arrived about 12.30 p.m. and pitched their tents on the shores of the lake. After dinner Mr Brackett and six of the boys went out in a boat. They paddled around the edge of the pond in shallow water, being not over 40 feet from the shore, when a little boy named Parker fell overboard. Frank Cox, aged 13, immediately jumped after him, swam ashore, got a rope and by means of it saved the Parker boy, but in the confusion resulting from the accident the boat was overturned and Mr. Brackett and the other four boys were thrown into the water. None of the party save the Cox boy could swim, and before help could reach them from shore, all five were drowned. Assistance was summoned from Hotel Massapoag and the bodies were recovered shortly after. The camp was at once broken up and the grief-stricken survivors returned home this afternoon. The names of the drowned are: Frederick Brackett, Thomas Parker, Harry Laker, William S. Atkins and Benjamin Bibbs.

SIX PEOPLE DROWNED.

They Went With a Yachting Party on Lake Shawano on Sunday Evening.

Shawano, Wis., June 29.—Word reached here of the drowning of six persons at Shawano Lake during a gale last evening. A party consisting of O. A. Risum and wife, Herman Drackrey and wife, Louis Gokey, wife and child, of Pulciver; Miss Emma Garbrecht of Shawano, and Miss Margaret Crow of St. Nazins, Manitowac County, started from Cecil about 5 o'clock in O. A. Risum's yacht, en route for a few days' outing on the north shore of the lake. When about three miles from shore the boat was capsized by a sudden squall and the party precipitated into the water. Mr. Risum and Mr. Drackrey clung to the capsized yacht for several hours, the latter holding the child in his arms, when they were rescued by parties from Cecil, who were attracted by their cries for help. The bodies of the other six have not been recovered.

UNFORTUNATE NEWFOUNDLAND.

Forest Fires Now Sweeping the Northern Portion of the Island.

St. John's, N.F., June 29.—Dreadful forest fires are sweeping over the northern portion of this island. On Friday 20 families were rendered homeless at Botwoodville. On Saturday night Pilley's Island was swept by fire. The Methodist Church, Court House, Salvation Army barracks and 75 houses were destroyed. Women and children almost naked had to seek refuge in open boats in the harbor. The Government is sending relief.

WHY TARTE IS HATED.

The Opposition papers have never a decent word for Mr. J. Israel Tarte. Mr. Tarte had extensive knowledge of crooked Conservative methods, and because he exposed the iniquity, he has been since hounded down by those who, in the first place, politically profited by the corrupt methods Mr. Tarte exposed, and who in the second place were damaged by the disclosures. The Montreal Witness is a high-minded and independent journal that does not hesitate to condemn wrong-doing by whatever party it is committed. It has often severely criticised Mr. Tarte, but with a fairness that distinguishes it. That journal is willing also to give both sides of of the account and strike a balance in Mr. Tarte's favour, as shown by the following from the Witness:

"Mr. Laurier, in introducing Mr. Tarte on the Champ de Mars, declared that, though Beauharnois had been stolen from him, he would yet recover it. We sincerely hope so, as Mr. Tarte, so far as we have been able to watch his course, seems to be a personality whose absence from Parliament would be a loss to the nation. He was originally an out-and-out advocate of the Church. In that he expressed manfully the views in which he had been brought up. He was narrow in his race loyalty. In that he was also true to the best he knew. He was a very blue politician, being true to that which was highest in his then limited horizon. That he was trusty is proved by the fact that he was trusted with the election funds of his party. That in managing those funds he was associated with methods not very noble goes without saying. What is it to be noted is that his heart rebelled against those ignoble methods, and when he became privy to unblushing and gigantic bribery he revolted and exposed it. He no doubt knew at what expense he did this. In doing so he faced a whirlwind of vilification before which all but one in a thousand would have quailed. It is to him that the country owes the firing of the mine which blew up the gates and led to the later downfall of the fortress of corruption. When a patriot in material war gathers the spears of the enemy into his own bosom that his countrymen may rush through the breach to victory his memory is reverred for centuries as that of a hero. What we have noticed with regard to Mr. Tarte has been that as climbing life's hill gave him an ever-broadening outlook, his sympathies have greatened in proportion. When he saw over the little ecclesiastical hills which surrounded his nativity he has gladly greeted the larger prospect; and in like manner have the boundaries of race become less in his eyes as he saw that Canadians of every tribe and tongue were his fellow-countrymen. We hope, therefore, that Mr. Tarte will yet be able to represent Beauharnois."

POST-MORTEM APPOINTMENTS.

That the American Government patronage system—"to the victors belong the spoils"—is vicious in principle all will admit, and the absurdity of greed is reached when the defeated try to secure the spoils. A government in making appointments is justified as a general principle, all other things being equal, in preferring its friends, but the action of the late moribund, and now defunct, Dominion Government, is to the last degree reprehensible. We all beheld during the last session of Parliament, a supernumerary session for whose holding there was no constitutional warrant, when the Government was practically without the confidence of the people, the most shameful abuse of power in the way of making appointments as rewards to members for slavish support of the Government, and that, too, against the known wishes of their constituents; and even after the House was dissolved, when there was no Parliament, when Ministers only held power as locum tententes, other appointments were made. Senators, judges and other officials were pitchforked into places solely as rewards for party services. And now, after being overwhelmingly defeated, the Government has the brazen assurance to hang on to office and to exercise the functions of office of which the popular verdict has virtually, and according to the demands of political decency, deprived them. This dead cabinet met on Saturday and made several appointments and superannuations, among the former being the law partner of Hon. J. F. Wood to the office of chief clerk in the Customs Department—to fill a vacancy that has existed three years. This is positively indecent, and though we do not advocate reprisal as a rule, yet it would be no more than proper for the Laurier Government to cancel all these appointments made when the Government had no authority and after they were pronounced dead by the electors. The Opposition, before they can claim magnanimous treatment, must show themselves deserving of some such consideration.

THE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT.

It is a fortunate thing for the Province, says the Ottawa Journal, that Sir Oliver Mowat is able to step out of the Premiership without leaving us all in a state of uncertainty and fear as to how the affairs of the province are to be managed. Sir Oliver knows to a nicety the value of good lieutenants, and there is hardly a man in the Ontario Cabinet who could not step into his shoes to-morrow and retain public confidence. Mr. Hardy, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Ross and Mr. Harcourt, are all men of exceptional capacity, and the honest and economical Government that Ontario has enjoyed under their administration of affairs, has won them the respect and esteem of Conservatives and Reformers alike. Mr. Harty is a newcomer who has yet to win his spurs, but if he serves the country half as well and half as faithfully as did his predecessor, the late Hon. C. F. Fraser, our people will have reason to congratulate themselves on his addition to the Cabinet. One thing that contributes greatly to the strength of the present administration is the weakness of the Opposition since Sir W. R. Meredith stepped aside. Mr. Meredith was one of the ablest, cleanest men that the public life of Canada has ever known, and his retirement from politics was a public loss, for all that the Bench was the gainer by his elevation to the woolsack.

THE CAUSES OF DEFEAT.

Referring to the recent defeat of the Tupper Government the Toronto World, strongly Conservative, says:—"The Curran bridge, the McGreevys, Tay canal, a dozen other things, were talked of, and the ministers implicated never thought that it was incumbent on them to resign and relieve their party. They insisted on their party carrying them. How different it is in England! A man who does something wrong, or is charged with wrong-doing, or with making even a mistake, doesn't wait to be asked to get out and relieve his party; he goes out, even if he is unfairly treated, and saves his party the trouble of carrying him. The evil-doers, the makers of mischief, the men of bad policy in the Canadian Conservative party for five years back have insisted on the party carrying them. They hadn't that poorest of all virtues, the virtue of resigning when found out."

A firm in Hamilton has closed down owing to over production and no market probably, and the Tory papers are proportionately jubilant in their effort to attribute this to the result of the general elections. But, oddly enough, says the Ottawa Journal (Independent Conservative), at the last council meeting in that city a manufacturer applied for exemption from taxation, on the ground that he wished to extend his operations and anticipated doubling his output in a year.

The Globe says:—Mr. J. B. McColl, the Liberal candidate in West Northumberland, who by the way is a brother of Rev. Father McColl, Ennismore, made an admirable fight for the seat represented for so long by Guillet and the railway. In his own town he pulled down the Government majority, and throughout the constituency he developed great strength and popularity. He is a good speaker and a man of first-rate all-round capacity, and had there been no patron candidate in the field he would unquestionably have captured the riding for the Liberals.

Apropos of the claim that the Conservatives would have been all right in the the recent election but for Quebec, the Ottawa Journal says, it is interesting to note that in the dozen chief cities of Canada they lost thirteen seats and gained one, namely Winnipeg—Canada's little lamb. In two other cities, London, Ont., and Victoria, B. C., they held their own. The Liberals made gains in Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, Ottawa, Halifax, St. Johns, Quebec, Kingston and Vancouver. And all of these have large manufacturing interests.

ERNE AND DOWNEY.

A Third Draw by the Brooklyn and Buffalo Pugs—Fought 12 Rounds.

New York, June 29.—The bout of the evening, the star attraction, was a 12 round contest between Jack Downey of Brooklyn and Frank Erne of Buffalo, which ended in a draw. The lads had already fought twice, the decision on both occasions being a draw. Referee Eckhardt was unable to pick a winner after 12 rounds had been fought and the rivals had to be content with a third draw. If anything, Erne had a shade the best of a fast and well-contested battle, but the decision was fair.

Erne came up the worst punished of the two for the last round, while Downey was strong and fresh. Downey rushed with his right on Erne's jaw. Erne went back at him with a stinging blow on the wind. Downey smashed the Buffalo lad with a right and left on the head and followed this up with a swinging right on the same spot. Erne found it impossible to land, while Downey got in repeated lefts. They clinched. Separating, Downey swung right and left, while Erne jabbed Downey over the eye with a left. They clinched and the referee had hard work to separate them just before the bell rang.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 22.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in the city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every druggstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

A NASTY TONGUE

Is Proof Positive that You are in Danger.

Thousands Die Each Year from Liver Troubles.

Paine's Celery Compound Promptly Cures this Insidious Disease.

The liver is the great housekeeper of our health. On its right and proper action depends our enjoyment of life.

One of the simplest indications of a disordered and diseased liver is a nasty tongue—furred and coated. The coated tongue is proof positive that your liver is not working well. Other symptoms are as follows: Nauseous taste in the mouth, pains under the shoulder blades, and in the region of the kidneys. The mental symptoms of liver trouble are often far worse than the bodily ills. Sufferers experience mental anguish, gloomy forebodings, melancholy, and a general feeling of disgust with life. When these bodily and mental troubles are experienced your liver tells you its wants help. If help is not given at once sickness and death must result.

Thousands have found Paine's Celery Compound a sure and certain cure for liver disease. It always acts promptly on the great nervous system and restores that healthy and natural action that the liver must have at all times. Paine's Celery Compound drives from the system all the poisons that have accumulated, and the sick one regains his old-time vim and energy; the muscles and tissues are made hard and firm, the skin clear and fresh, so that perfect health is the result.

Read the letter written by Mrs. George Durant, of Elma, Ont. No stronger proof can be given of the virtues and powers of Paine's Celery Compound in the cure of liver troubles:—

"For many years I have been a sufferer from liver troubles, and have doctored with several physicians, but only found relief for a very short time. My husband advised me to try your Paine's Celery Compound. I did so, and found so much relief from the first bottle that I continued, and I am now using the third bottle. Your Compound has done more for me than any physician. For months before using the Compound I never had one night of sound sleep; but now I can go to bed and sleep soundly and naturally, and feel like a new creature in the morning."

Custom Changes.

A new form of entry will go into effect on July 1 at the Customs Department. Formerly the entry blank made provision only for the place where the goods were exported. Now the form provides that the name of the place where the goods are purchased and whether the goods are imported direct or via the United States must be declared.

Weak, Nervous Women.

One to whom a night's rest was unknown.

Strength and good health restored.

I was subject to frequent attacks of nervousness that seemed to sap all my vitality and left me in a state of weakness and misery. I could not relish food and such a thing as a good night's rest was unknown. Incapable of any exertion and with an ever present tired and despondent feeling. Medicines that I took did not do any good; it was a case of gradually becoming weaker and weaker. Hearing of Scott's Sarsaparilla and its success with similar cases to mine, I used it, and from the first few doses began to get better, appetite returned, got natural and refreshing sleep. I grew stronger, in fact life seemed to be fanned into activity.—Lottie Graham, 174 Crawford Street, Toronto.

For any weakness of the nerves, pale and sallow complexion, loss of appetite use the best blood and nerve remedy extant, Scott's Sarsaparilla. Insist on getting Scott's—imitations do not cure.

M'KINLEY'S THANKS

When Told Officially of His Nomination at St. Louis.

PROTECTION AND RECIPROCITY

The Twin Measures of a True American Policy on Which He Expects to be Carried to Victory—His Ideas on the Great Money Problems.

Canton, O., June 29.—Governor McKinley was to-day officially notified of his nomination by the Republican convention. In his reply, he said: "Great are the issues involved in the coming election and eager and earnest the people for their right determination. Our domestic trade must be won back, and our idle working people employed in gainful occupations at American wages. Our home market must be restored to its proud rank of first in the world, and our foreign trade, so precipitately cut off by adverse national legislation, re opened on fair and equitable terms for our surplus agricultural and manufacturing products.

"Protection and reciprocity, twin measures of a true American policy, should again command the earnest encouragement of the Government at Washington. Public confidence must be restored, and the skill, the energy and the capital of our country find ample employment at home, be sustained, encouraged and defended against the unequal competition and serious disadvantages with which they are now contending. The Government of the United States must raise enough money to meet both its current expenses and increasing needs. Its revenues should be raised so as to protect the material interests of our people, with the lightest possible drain upon their resources, and maintain that high standard of civilization which has distinguished our country for more than a century of its existence. The national credit, which has thus far fortunately resisted every assault upon it, must and will be upheld and strengthened. If sufficient revenues are provided for the support of the Government, there will be no necessity for borrowing money and increasing the public debt.

"During all the years of Republican control, following resumption, there was a steady reduction of the public debt, while the gold reserve was sacredly maintained, and our currency and credit preserved without depreciation, taint or suspicion. If we would restore that policy, that brought us unexampled prosperity for more than 30 years under the most trying conditions ever known in this country, the policy by which we made and bought more goods at home and sold more abroad, the trade balance would be quickly turned in our favor, and gold would come to us and not go from us in the settlement of all such balances in the future.

"The money of the United States and every kind or form of it, whether of paper, silver or gold, must be as good as the best in the world. It must not only be current at its full face value at home, but it must be counted at par in any and every commercial centre of the globe. The sagacious and far seeing policy of the great men who founded our Government, the teachings and acts of the wisest financiers at every stage in our history, the steadfast faith and splendid achievements of the great party to which we belong and the genius and integrity of our people, have always demanded this, and will ever maintain it. The dollar paid to the farmer, the wage earner and the pensioner must continue forever equal in purchasing and debt paying power to the dollar paid to any Government creditor.

"The platform adopted by the Republican National Convention has received my careful consideration and has my unqualified approval. It is a matter of gratification to me, as I am sure it must be to you and Republicans everywhere, and to all our people, that the expressions of its declaration of principles are so direct, clear and emphatic. They are too plain and positive to leave any chance for doubt or question as to their purport and meaning. But you will not expect me to discuss its provisions at length or in any detail at this time. It will, however, be my duty and pleasure at some future day to make to you, and through you to the great party you represent, a more formal acceptance of the nomination tendered me.

"No one could be more profoundly grateful than I for the manifestations of public confidence of which you have so eloquently spoken. It shall be my aim to attest this appreciation by an unsparing devotion to what I esteem the best interests of the people, and in this work I ask the counsel and support of you, gentlemen, and of every friend of the country."

A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tuba" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many year's study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless article.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Samuel Curran, a Hamilton Cigar Maker, Meets Death Near Hitches Crossing by a Beach Train.

Hamilton, June 29.—(Special.)—Samuel Curran, a cigarmaker, who boarded with Flynn Bros., at 158 Mary-street, was killed by a Beach train on the northern division of the G.T.R., near Fitch's Crossing, about 5 o'clock this afternoon. It is said he was sitting on the edge of a trestle, preparing to set a fish net, and the train was nearly past when he arose and was struck by some protruding part of the rear car and thrown violently against a post. He lived but a few minutes after the accident occurred. William Flynn and John Allman, two of his associates, were not far distant at the time. An inquest will be conducted by Coroner White.

TWEED TOPICS.

Mrs. James Davenport Makes a Statement for the Benefit of Others.

Mrs. Davenport is well-known in Tweed, and this is how she spoke to our representative concerning Doan's Kidney Pills. Said Mrs. Davenport:—

"I have suffered for some years from dizziness, puffing under the eyes, pains in the side and back, sleeplessness, poor appetite, and, in fact, was in a bad state generally.

"I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at P. K. Newton's drugstore, and experienced immediate relief from their use.

"I am now very much better indeed; appetite improved, pain almost disappeared and I feel stronger and healthier in every particular.

"I can heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

HOW THE SUN LIFE

FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario, Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,571 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1908 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely, (Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

THURSDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

A Generous Concession of Businessmen to Their Employees.

Below is presented the copy of an agreement by which our chief business men have agreed to close their establishments on Thursday afternoons during the months of July and August:

We, the undersigned merchants of the town of Peterborough, after carefully considering the question of a public holiday for our employees and ourselves in the weeks of July and August, 1896, have come to the conclusion that, satisfactory to one and all, we have decided to set apart the Thursday Afternoons on the following dates, July 2, 16, 23, 30, and August 6, 13, 20, 27, as a half holiday, and will close our respective places of business at 12 a.m.

THE RANGERS OFF TO BELLEVILLE.

Thousands at the Station to See the Scarlet Heroes Off.

Last night the ever popular Rangers drew the usual multitude of lads, lasses and more staid citizens, to seem them entrain for Belleville. Shortly after eight o'clock the volunteers left the drill shed, and marched by way of George and Charlotte streets to the Grand Trunk station, the band playing, and the battalion with fixed bayonets at the slope, marching along with the steady rythmic tread of a line regiment. The special train, in charge of Conductor Hewson and Driver Clarke, stood on the rails between Simcoe and Charlotte streets, and in a very few minutes—such is the value of discipline and order—the regiment was entrained. At half-past eight, the special pulled out of the station to the cheers of the assembled thousands, en route to the City of the Bay, where the train arrived about 11.30 p.m. They were accorded a royal welcome, and marched at once to camp where an excellent lunch was provided them. The boys will have a splendid visit, for the Belleville people are striving to outdo the hospitality that was accorded the 15th on their visit to Peterborough on May 25th.

DOMINION DAY DOINGS.

What Will be Done and Enjoyed—A Quiet Day Generally at Home.

To-morrow will be rather a quiet day in town, owing to the departure, principally of the 57th. Of course all business will be suspended and we, as patriotic Canadians, will duly keep high holiday.

ST. JOSEPH'S PICNIC.

The annual picnic in aid of the funds of St. Joseph's Hospital will be held in the grounds of the hospital to-morrow. A splendid programme of sports will be provided—a good orchestra, dancing pavilion and superb refreshments. Gates open early in the morning. Admission to the grounds 25 cents.

THE SONS OF ENGLAND.

About 500 visiting brethren of this order will invade Peterborough to-morrow. They will be met at the 11.20 train and escorted in procession up town. In the afternoon a splendid programme of sports and games will be run off at Riverside Park.

LACROSSE.

At 2 o'clock sharp a first rate game of lacrosse will be played on the P.A.A.A. grounds between the senior Elms, of Toronto, and the senior Peterboroughs, A splendid game is promised. See it.

S. O. E. Demonstration.

The Sons of England propose holding a demonstration on the Riverside Park grounds on the afternoon of the 1st of July, when a splendid programme of games and sports will take place. About six hundred visiting brethren of Toronto are expected and the members of Landsdowne Lodge will meet in their rooms at ten o'clock in the morning and forming in procession, headed by the Sons of England band, will march to the C. P. R. station to meet the visitors, who arrive on a special train at eleven o'clock. After marching up town an adjournment will be made for dinner, after which all will proceed to the Riverside Park, where an admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

THE ONTARIO CABINET VACANCY

Newspaper Comment Upon the Situation—All in Favour of the East Having Larger Representation and in Favour of West Peterborough Get the Portfolio.

The newspapers still continue to take a large interest in the filling of the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet caused by the retirement of Sir Oliver Mowat, and below we give a few more extracts bearing on the subject:

Belleville Ontario.

There is much speculation indulged in at present as to who will be selected to fill the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet caused by Sir Oliver Mowat's retirement. There are several names of prominent Liberals mentioned, among them being Mr. J. R. Stratton, Speaker Balfour and Mr. E. J. Davis. We sincerely hope the choice will fall on Mr. Stratton, of Peterborough. Without belittling or at all discouraging the claims of these other gentlemen, all of whom are able men, we think Mr. Stratton's appointment would bring greater strength to the Government than any other name as yet mentioned. There are at present four members of the Cabinet from Western Ontario and only two from Eastern Ontario. Hon. Mr. Harty can hardly be termed an eastern representative, because he represents the Catholics of Ontario rather than a geographical section of the province. It is then desirable that the new Minister should be from the east in order to properly balance the representation. There was a time when the Ontario Government received its principal support from the west, but now Eastern Ontario gives an equal support and deserves equal representation in the Ministry.

Mr. Stratton is one of the ablest and most popular members of the Legislature. His influence is not confined to his own county but extends all over the Midland District, and his appointment to the Cabinet would be a popular one and would greatly benefit the Government in this portion of the province. We hold up both hands for Mr. Stratton and hope to see him soon filling a position he is so well qualified to worthily occupy.

Port Hope Guide.

Now that Sir Oliver is slated for the Dominion and the Hon. A. S. Hardy, it is conceded, will be the Premier of Ontario, a new member of the Government will be chosen, and at as present five members of the Cabinet are Western men it is not only fair but natural that Eastern Ontario is clamoring for another representative. The people would be extremely well pleased to see J. R. Stratton, Esq., of Peterborough, selected to fill the vacant position caused by the retirement of Sir Oliver. Mr. Stratton is a journalist of repute and an able business man as well; he has also captured West Peterborough from the Conservatives and we hope and trust that the Hon. Mr. Hardy will select our brother journalist of THE EXAMINER to round out his Cabinet. We can assure him that the selection of Mr. Stratton would be unanimously popular throughout the eastern portion of Ontario. The Hon. Mr. Harty is looked on as the representative of a worthy class of citizens, who richly deserve recognition in the Government; hence he is not a representative of eastern Ontario in its truest and fullest sense. It is manifestly unfair to hive the Government; the should represent every portion of the Province. We again most respectfully upon the new Premier to give us Mr. Stratton. He will fill the bill in every particular.

Peterborough Times.

This journal is always anxious that the deserts of this town should be recognized, and the present rearrangement of the Ontario Cabinet presents an opportunity. Our readers are aware that Hon. Mr. Hardy succeeds Sir Oliver Mowat, leaving a vacancy in the Cabinet, and among the names mentioned is that of Mr. J. R. Stratton, the popular member for West Peterborough, and the Times believes that for many reasons he is the best man for the position. As a matter of simple justice to this district, that is the portion of Ontario, East of Toronto, there should be additional Cabinet representation. All of the Cabinet Ministers, with three exceptions, are West of Toronto, and of these three only one is an actual representative of Eastern Ontario, and that is Mr. Dryden. Mr. Broonson, of Ottawa, is the ornamental member—without portfolio—and Mr. Harty, of Kingston, by virtue of his religious affiliation represents Western Ontario as much as the Eastern Section. Besides Mr. Stratton is a faithful and energetic representative. Of late years he has developed no mean degree of oratorical ability. He is a well known and successful business man, and it seems to us that apart from the special claims he possesses as a representative of an Eastern Ontario constituency, he has excellent claims arising out of his fitness for efficiently discharging the duties of the office. Mr. Stratton deserves the appointment also on other, if not as high, grounds. He has done excellent work for his party, and has been successful in gaining to the support of the Government a strong opposition riding. He is a splendid campaigner, popular, and with a faculty for winning friends, and we believe that he would add strength to the Government, both personally and as the representative of a section of the Province which all will admit has no adrquate Cabinet representation. We question very much if there is another campaigner in this district who has done as much service for the Liberal party, and we doubt if there is another Liberal who could have ranged the constituency of West Peterborough so strongly on the side of the Government as has the present energetic representative.

Lindsay Daily Post.

The Reform victory in the Dominion elections will result in the translation of Sir Oliver Mowat to the larger arena at Ottawa, where his wisdom and experience will find wider scope in helping to settle the vexed questions there to be found. This important change will involve a recasting of the Ontario cabinet. Hon. A. S. Hardy will become premier, as a matter of course. He is the senior member of the ministry, and will receive the promotion to which his ability and experience entitle him. Mr. Gibson will, it is understood, become Commissioner of Crown Lands. We are not aware that there will be any other change of portfolios, but there is a vacancy to be filled by calling in a new man. We have carefully viewed the situation as to local claims, personal services, and practical ability and fitness, and our conclusion is that Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P. for West Peterborough, should stand in the first place for promotion. Mr. Stratton is a young man of ability and energy. He has rendered valuable services to the Reform party; for many years in his newspaper, in the House, and in the political arena. He captured a riding then considered Conservative, and has carried it in three successive elections by constantly increasing majorities, and is now so firmly established in his seat that an election by acclamation could be predicted should he be called to the Government. In the distribution of the higher honours of the Provincial Government it is fair to say that while the western part of the Province received a larger share—and to which we did not object, and do not now object—the central and eastern portions should now receive equally fair consideration, based upon the increased support accorded the party. The preponderance of ministers has always been from the west, and the Speakership has always fallen to the lot of a western man. It is now proper to urge the claims of this portion of the province when we have the man for the place. Mr. Stratton would make a shrewd and judicious Cabinet Minister; he is a ready debater and a pleasant, approachable man, who would be popular in charge of a department. He is not only a representative of an important portion of the province, but he would represent the Fourth Estate—not an unimportant factor in the work of moulding public opinion. As an able and popular newspaper man, Mr. Stratton's appointment would be gratifying to his confreres, irrespective of political lines, for he is popular with both parties. We trust, therefore, that the vacant portfolio will be placed in Mr. Stratton's hands.

A Conservative correspondent of the Morning Times, writing under the heading "Eastern Representation in the Ontario Cabinet," says:

SIR—The subject stated at the head of this letter is one that is somewhat agitating the public mind of Ontario at the present time, more particularly among politicians on the Government side of the House. Already the claims of several gentlemen have been put forward and are no doubt being pressed by their friends, but whatever may be the merits of the different aspirants to the coveted vacant position, it cannot be gain said that an equilibrium of representation in the Cabinet, which by general consensus can only be maintained by proper regard to the locality from which the different members of the ministry are selected, requires that the new appointment shall be given to a member of the assembly whose constituency lies between Toronto and Ottawa. The Government may rely upon it that acting upon this principle they will meet with the support of the Opposition as well as the great majority of their own party.

Looking at the matter as I do from a Conservative standpoint and voicing to some extent the views of my party—officiously and not officially—I may say that the elevation of our worthy member, Mr. J. R. Stratton, to Cabinet rank would be hailed with pleasure and satisfaction. However much we may oppose him at a general election, we candidly recognize the painstaking and efficient manner in which he looks after the interests of all his constituents, Conservatives and Reformers alike; his admirable business qualities together with his unvarying courtesy, render him eminently fitted for the position of a Cabinet Minister. Mr. Stratton's claims certainly appear to be as good as those of anyone else and it would be difficult to find a member of the Assembly so capable in diplomacy as the member for West Peterborough.

Your Obedient Servant,
LIBERAL-CONSERVATIVE.

Peterborough, June 29th, 1896.

Toronto World, June 30.

At yesterday's Cabinet meeting the respective eligibility of each of the candidates for an Ontario portfolio—Speaker Balfour, E. J. Davis and J. R. Stratton—was considered at length, but no definite decision was arrived at.

This much may be said, however, that Mr. Hardy will be left tolerably free-handed to choose whichever of these gentlemen he pleases as his colleague in office, and the World hazards a prophecy that the member for Peterborough will be the lucky individual.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Rev. W. Limbert and family have gone to Selby, to engage in his labours as pastor of the Methodist church at that place.

Miss Martha E. Beatty, of Ashburnham, spent a few days in the village.

Miss Glover, of Peterborough, is visiting friends here.

Mr. Wm. Baptie, of the Government dredge Rosedale, was in the village this week.

Mr. Henry Garbutt, of Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting his uncle, Mr. Isaac Garbutt, sen.

Rev. T. J. Edmison is now resident minister of the Methodist church, having moved here with his family this week.

Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Eden, of Peterborough, were in the village on Thursday.

Rev. H. Symonds, of Peterborough, spent Thursday afternoon in the village.

Mrs. Leonard and daughter, of Geneva, N.Y., are the guests of Mrs. A. W. McKenzie.

Mr. Jas. Campbell, of Millbrook, is home for a few days.

Mr. Charles Carter, of Pittsburg, Pa., was in the village for a few days.

Messrs. Allan and Charles Bell, of Rochester, N.Y., are home spending their holidays. They are spending a couple of weeks at Elfin Nook, Stony Lake.

Mr. T. H. Lingwood and wife, of Kingston, are the guests of Mr. C. Atwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carter, who spent the winter in Pittsburg, Pa., returned home on Thursday.

Mr. Mitchell, of Kingston, is the guest of Mr. J. L. Madill.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Henderson, of Port Hope, have passed through en route for their cottage at Stony Lake. Mr. Henderson is having a new cottage built.

The Golden City will meet the 2 p. m. train this week.

"Viamede Cottage," Mount Julian, Stony Lake, situated on the old hotel grounds, is now a very popular summer resort. It has been clarged and improved to accomodate twenty-five guests at very reasonable prices. Rooms may be secured by addressing William M. Graham, Lakefield.

A very pleasant time was spent on Thursday at the garden party held at the "Homestead," the residence of Mr. R. C. Strickland. A law tennis tournament took place during the afternoon and was won by the Peterborough club. At night the grounds were very prettily illuminated by Chinese lanterns, etc. The ice cream and strawberry stalls were well patronized during the evening. A concert brought the evening's entertainment to a close. A large contingent were present from Peterborough, some of whom took part in the concert and added greatly to the pleasures of the evening. The proceeds amounted to about $75.

The Golden City is a very popular excursion steamer. On Thursday she carried a large excursion from Bethany, on Friday one from Salem and on Saturday another from Millbrook. Several other excursions are already booked, among which are the Lakefield Presbyterian Sabbath school excursion, Tuesday, July 7th, and the Lakefield Methodist Sunday school, on Thursday, July 9th.

Confirmation service was held in the English church on Sunday morning last, when eighteen were confirmed by Bishop Sweetman, of Toronto. Rev. J. C. Davidson, of Peterborough, took part in the service. The Bishop also occupied the pulpit at the evening service. There were large congregations at both services.

R. Graham & Son are offering extra inducements to cash buyers of parasols, gloves, hosiery, capes, trimmed and untrimmed hats. Now is the opportunity to secure bargains.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

The work on the canal is steadily progressing. There is now a large cut made from the river up to the foot of Katherine street, stripping the earth off down to the rock. Mr. M. Buchanan is the walking boss on this section. He has at present employed twelve teams and twenty-five men. What are our council doing about the bridge across the canal? The people in an emphatic manner in their petition declared themselves in favour of a swing bridge. Let us have the swing bridge by all means.

Council Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of the Court of Revision was held in the clerk's office on Friday evening, June 26th, Reeve Cassement in the chair; all members present.

Mr. John Hull's assessment was lowered $1,750 and Mrs. Finney's $400; struck from the roll in both cases on land taken by the Dominion Government for canal purpose. The roll was then confirmed and the Court adjourned sine die.

A special meeting of the council was then held, and the Finance Committee presented a report recommending payment of accounts:

Wm. Cox, lumber, stringers, etc.	$91 20
J. C. Sherin & Son, ticket C.P.R., charity.	9 85
E. Sherin, dog tags	3 85
Murray Printing Co., summer resort guide	50 00
D. Smith, salary engineer	25 00

Report on motion adopted.

A by-law to borrow money for current expenditure received its several readings, was passed, sealed and signed.

The Sons of England applied for the band instruments and assistance to start the band. Laid over for fuller information. Council adjourned to meet at call of reeve.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine, the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whiteus, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

CANADA'S COMING MINERAL BOOM.

A Promised Boom—Coal Oil and Gold.

(Toronto World)

The discovery of new and promising oil wells in the vicinity of Bothwell is causing some stir in that neighbourhood. The flow is so great that teams are required constantly to haul the oil to the cars, there not being sufficient tankage at the wells to hold the oil for any length of time. The discovery has caused considerable activity among prospectors, who are seeking new locations. Crude petroleum is now quoted at $1.50 a barrel in the Petrolia district. There seems to be little prospect of oil getting down to the dollar mark again, as it was last year. Petroleum properties all over the world are being developed with increasing activity. None of the new and coming discoveries for producing light will adversely affect the production of oil or the manufacture of coal gas. The former has an immense field before it as fuel for locomotives, motor carriages, steamships and stationary engines. It will not be many years till the carting of coals through the streets and dumping them in cellars will be a thing of the past. People of the next decade will wonder how such a nuisance was ever tolerated when the whole heating of the cities can be more economically effected by the distribution of gas through underground pipes.

CANADA'S COMING GOLD BOOM.

We will be very much surprised if Canada does not soon become the centre of a genuine mianing boom. Not only is there great activity in the gold-bearing districts of British Columbia, but nearer home we have a country that gives every indication of possessing immense mineral wealth. Several gold mines in the Lake of the Woods district are being developed and the prospects are highly satisfactory. French and English capital in considerable quantities is beginning to flow into Canada for the development of mining properties, while the Americans have already invested large sums. Within the next few years extravagant fortunes will be made out of Canada's gold mines, but we are sorry to say that foreigners will get ten dollars for every one dollar that goes to Canadians.

W. E. McCALL.

Why is one woman attractive and another not? It isn't entirely a question of age or features or intellect. The most admirable and attractive thing about an attractive woman is her womanliness. Everybody admires a womanly woman. Everybody doesn't realize just what it is that makes her womanly. She must have health, of course, because without it she would lose the brightness of her eyes, the fullness of her cheeks and her vivacity. Health brings all these things but health means more than most people think of. Real health must mean that a woman is really a woman. That she is strong and perfect in a sexual way, as well as in every other. That she is capable of performing perfectly the duties of maternity. Upon her strength in this way depends to a large extent her general health, her good looks and her attractiveness. Some women are born stronger than others. Some are born with what is called "constitutional weakness." It is easier for some women to retain health and strength than it is for others. Some seem able to do anything they like, whenever they like, without serious results. Still, there is no reason why women should not enjoy perfect health. Those who do not, need only take the proper precautions and the proper remedy to become perfectly well and strong. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism. It is absolutely certain. There are some who have neglected themselves so long that a complete cure is next to impossible, but even these will find comfort and improved health in the use of the "Favorite Prescription." It has cured hundreds of women who have received no relief whatever from years of treatment with good physicians. It is absolutely unique in the history of medicine. Such a remedy can be discovered only once. There is nothing in the world like it, nor has there ever been. Hundreds of things that every woman ought to know, are contained in Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, which will be sent absolutely free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover customs and mailing only. BISHOP DUMOULIN

Was Formally Installed in His High Office at Hamilton Yesterday by Archdeacon Dixon.

Hamilton, June 29.—(Special.)—In Christ Church Cathedral this morning Bishop DuMoulin was installed as head of the Anglican Church of the Niagara Diocese. The Bishop of Ottawa and nearly all the local clergymen were present, and among the visitors were Rev. Charles Darling, Toronto, and Rev. Dr. Sweeny, Toronto, and Ven. Archdeacon Dixon of Guelph.

At 8 o'clock Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of Ottawa, and at 11 a.m. His Lordship Bishop DuMoulin signed the declaration of occupation. The signing was witnessed by the Chancellor of the Diocese, E. Martin, Q.C., and Churchwardens Dr. Ridley and J. M. Burns. The letters of consecration and the Metropolitan's mandate were read by Rev. Canon Bland, and the Bishop made the following promise:

"I, John Philip, Bishop of Niagara, do hereby promise to respect, maintain and defend to the best of my power the rights, privileges and liberties of this church and diocese, and to rule therein with truth, justice and charity, not lording it over God's heritage, but showing myself in all things an example to the flock. So help me God. Amen."

Archdeacon Dixon then enthroned the new bishop, giving him full possession, authority, etc.

After preaching a brief but impressive sermon, His Lordship received the clergy and communicants in the Cathedral Sunday school, where refreshments were served.

His Lordship was given a hearty reception at the Court House this evening.

Simple Precautions Insure Complete Victory.

A Child Can Use Diamond Dyes Successfully.

When using the world-famed Diamond Dyes for home dyeing, use fresh, clean, soft water; hard and impure water will mar the beauty of the shades. Wooden, earthen or enamelled vessels are best.

Old articles before dyeing should be well cleansed with soap and water to remove dirt or grease, and rinsed in hot water, and dyed while damp. When any particular shade is wanted, the dye should be tested by dyeing a small piece of the stuff.

If these few precautions are observed you will be able to produce richer, brighter and more lasting colours than any steam dyeing house can give you. Be sure your dealer gives you the Diamond Dyes; they are the only warranted dyes in the world.

DEATH AT A BALL GAME.

Little Four-Year-Old Freddie Springer Killed by a Ball Thrown by a Detroit Pitcher.

Detroit, Mich., June 29.—Freddie Springer, only 4 years old, was taken by his mother to see a baseball game yesterday. His father, Frank Springer, was playing in the game, and had finished four innings, when the ball thrown by the pitcher struck Freddie on the head. He dropped to the ground instantly and was carried into the nearest house, but died shortly afterwards without gaining consciousness.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

Houston, Tex., June 29.—Shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon a boiler in the office of The Daily Age exploded, killing Engineer Henry Lyons, Miss Mattie Loeb, a stenographer in the office of W. G. Van Vleck, Vice-President and General Manager of the Atlantic system of the Southern Pacific Railway, and Edward R. Emery, telegraph iperator in the same office, and seriously injuring Mr. Van Vleck himself.

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 29.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says:—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

It is in the Nature of Things

That, as age advances with concomitants of wear and tear, some parts of the delicate machinery of the body, upon which health and vigor depend, should suffer derangement. Feelings of weariness, listlessness or despondency are the signals that nature throws out to warn, and woe to him who neglects these warnings, for severe are the penalties she exacts. To quicken into new vigor the failing energies; to impart, with certainty, tone to the nervous system, these are the special tendencies of the wonderful tonic and nutrient, Maltine with Coca Wine. It gives strength to the nervous system, and is thus a "nerve restorer;" it increases nutrition, and is therefore, a "body-builder." Maltine with Coca Wine, by its power to add to nerve force and to increase weight, will be found by the debilitated and weak a veritable "life-giver." Maltine with Coca Wine is not a patent medicine. Its composition may be known to you, as it has long been known and subscribed to by the medical profession. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. C, a leading politician, says:—"Miller's Compound Iron Pills has cured me of nervousness and wakefulness." Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist

A PET IN OFFICE.

Germany's New Minister of Finance is Just the Man to Please the Emperor.

New York, June 29.—A special despatch from Berlin to The Journal says: Count Von Brefeld, the new Minister of Finance, is the Kaiser's special favorite. While serving as Secretary of the State Council, over which William sometimes likes to unexpectedly preside, Brefeld proved indispensable to His Majesty, as prompter. He is thoroughly acquainted with all the ins and outs of politics and, besides, is reported to be the best railway expert in Germany. He has no political preferences, and is expected to execute his master's orders blindly.

Blood-purifiers, though gradual, are radical in their effect. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is intended as a medicine only and not a stimulant, excitant or beverage. Immediate results may not always follow its use; but after a reasonable time, permanent benefit is certain to be realized.

That hacking, persistent cough can be quickly cured by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It cures all throat and and lung troubles.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal. says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50c. Sold by John Nugent, 399 George Street.

OUR MAIL.

B.B.B. CURES

Our mail brings us every day dozens of letters about Burdock Blood Bitters. Some from merchants who want to buy it, some from people who want to know about it, and more from people who do know about it because they have tried it and been cured. One of them was from Mr. J. Gillan, B.A., 39 Gould Street, Toronto. Read how he writes:

GENTLEMEN,—During the winter of 1892 my blood became impure on account of the hearty food I ate in the cold weather. Ambition, energy and success forsook me, and all my efforts were in vain. My skin became yellow, my bowels became inactive, my liver was lumpy and hard, my eyes became inflamed, my appetite was gone, and the days and nights passed in unhappiness and restlessness

For some months I tried doctors' and patent medicines of every description, but received no benefit. Being advised by a friend to try B.B.B., I am glad to have the opportunity of testifying to the marvellous result. After using three bottles I felt much better, and when the fifth bottle was finished I enjoyed health in the greatest degree, and have done so from that day up to date. Therefore I have much pleasure in recommending B. B.B. to all poor suffering humanity who suffer from impure blood, which is the beginning and seat of all diseases.

J. GILLAN, B.A., 39 Gould St., Toronto.

THE BEST

FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."—Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 366 Rider Avenue, New York City.

He Brilliantly Limns Israel's Place Among the Nations—The Work the Jew Has to Do Ere He Be Extirpated—The Fraternization of Humanity.

In commemoration of the thirteenth anniversary of the Temple Emanu El, Rabbi Dr. Joseph Krauskopf of Philadelphia delivered a lecture in Montreal Association Hall upon "Israel Among the Nations." Starting out with the oft-heard term of contempt, "Only a Jew," he touched on the insults and persecutions heaped on the poorest of the Israelites, alluded to Rothschild, who was courted and dreaded because of his power, and spoke of the fact that Jesus was worshipped the world over for the grandeur of his teachings. And yet each was only a Jew. Only Jews they were, it was true, but where or when had lived the people whose lot or privilege it was to be, at one and the same time, the despised and rejected, the feared and the courted, the honored and venerated, as were the Jews and as they had been from the first. They had ever been the simultaneously despised and dreaded and distinguished of mankind. It often happened that the same hand that thrust them out besought their return; that cast them down, lifted them up; that sought their destruction, opened the portals that led them into a newer and happier life. This was shown by the fact that whilst Pharoh was seeking to annihilate Israel he raised, within his own court, their emancipator and leader, Moses; Vespasian, whilst preparing to destroy Israel's political capital, helped to build up their spiritual capital at Jamnia; Spain, whilst driving the Jews from its soil, opened for them the portals of the New World. Referring to such terms as "Rich as a Jew," "Mean as a Jew," "Tricky as a Jew," he said it was true that Jews had been mean, they had been vulgar and vile, they had been dirty and tricky, they had shunned the country and had infested the cities, they had turned their backs upon agriculture, and with their rapacious instincts seized upon the profitable commerce and finances of the nations. They had been parasites and usurers, they had been Shylocks and Iscariots. They had been all this, were all this, and, for all he knew, even worse than this. A portrait of the historic Jew without these dark shadows would be a false picture. If you wished to paint the Jew as he was, never omit the Fagin trace; it belonged there, nor must anyone be surprised to find it there. The wonder is that the face was not wholly Fagin. What other peoples that had not been half so much persecuted and degraded as the Jews, had been completely demoralized and in their demoralization had found their end. The Jew, however, with the exception of a few marring lines, was intellectually and morally as vigorous and as advanced to day as were the most vigorous and the most advanced of the peoples among whom he lived. But far from being a disgrace to the Jew, these shadowy lines and disfiguring daubs only bore witness to his tenacity and to the cruelty of his persecutors. And what was the crime, the lecturer asked, that had brought martyrdom and persecution upon the Jew? He was guilty of being "only a Jew," of having given to the world a God before whom half of humanity bent the knee to day, of having furnished the first to acknowledge that Saviour and to do homage to Him, of having produced prophets and bards and law-givers to whom the whole civilized world did homage. He was guilty of having given to the world a Bible, a Sabbath, the decalogue, the golden rule, of having been the first to proclaim the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, the first to enjoin peace and goodwill on earth. He was guilty of the crime of furnishing proportionately the greatest number of stars to the galaxies of the world's greatest lights, and he was guilty of the crime of being among the most peaceful, most law-abiding, most industrious, most loyal and patriotic and most domestic of peoples. Had the Jews been destined for annihilation, their destruction would have been accomplished long ago. No task could have been easier, for they were, physically, one of the weakest of peoples. And if only a Jew could have survived the countless attempts at extirpation, it must be because Providence destined him to live. It must be because there was work to be done, which only a Jew should do. No other explanation of his marvellous endurance and escape was possible. He had drawn the plans of civilization, laid its foundations, started its superstructure; he must finish the work he had begun. He had conceived the great religious truth he must make supreme with all. Therfor had he been spared, therefor had he been scattered, therefor should he wander over the face of the earth until the people of the Messiah should have become the Messiah of the people, until the despised of men should have become the distinguished among the nations. The marvellous intellectuality which the Jew was developing in these days was but a means to an end, was but a fitting for his great work approaching. The age of persecution had passed, the age of mere tolerance was passing; the age of equality was dawning; the winter of his sorrow was changing to a spring of joy. What was denied the Jew in former ages would be granted him in this. In this dawning spring he would put forth the greatest effort of his life for the fraternization of the human family under the fatherhood of God. When this shall have been achieved, when there shall be peace in earth and goodwill amongst all men, then would he be ready to die, having achieved what, according to the will of God, could be achieved by only a Jew.

Sure to Win.

The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures—absolutely, permanently cures. It is the One True Blood Purifier. Its superior merit is an established fact, and merit wins.

The Strawberry-Raspberry.

The strawberry-raspberry is a remarkable fruit, which like many novel and valuable fruits, comes from Japan.

JAPANESE STRAWBERRY-RASPBERRY.

It is said to be a hybrid between the strawberry and raspberry. By the habit of the plant, a reproduction of which was taken from a plant in bearing, it will be seen its habit is that of neither the fruits named, but a compromise of the two; it being a spreading, low growing bush, producing its fruit in branching clusters of three or more at the ends of the stems. In form and appearance of fruit it is about as good a combination of a strawberry and red raspberry as one could well imagine—in size about midway between the two and the form of neither, but half-way between each, being formed of globules or drupes resembling a raspberry, but in color a crimson equaling in brilliancy the most beautiful strawberry. It is said to be entirely hardy.—Farm and Home.

Cultivation of Apple Orchards.

The principal growth of apple trees is made in spring, and ceases about the end of June in ordinary seasons. That is the time to cultivate. Plow very early or in fall and cultivate until growth ceases.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

MR. J. H. HUTTY, Chemist, 348 Yonge St., Toronto, writes: "As a general cough and lung syrup Pyny-Pectoral is a most invaluable preparation. It has given the greatest satisfaction to all who have tried it, many having spoken to me of the benefit derived from its use in their families. It is suitable for old or young, being pleasant to the taste. My wife with me has been wonderfully, and I can always recommend it as a safe and reliable cough medicine."

Lamps and Shades.

Lamps grow more artistic every day, and in most homes a standard lamp for the floor seems almost a necessity. The lamp itself is nothing, but it is the shade which gives it beauty.

A most artistic shade is made of white satin cut to plainly fit the frame and then painted with scenes or flowers in transparent colors.

Quite new ones are those made of plain muslin, one of pale yellow looking exactly like a huge yellow poppy. Plain silk shades, having wreaths of flowers as a border, with a soft frayed out frill beneath are very dainty.

With the electric light most beautiful effects can be obtained, but it should be kept in mind that pink is the only shade that is becoming the complexion when used over such a brilliant light.

Many lamps that are made to fasten to the wall are in lantern form, with frames of scrolled ironwork hanging from an arm of the same. With amber or pink colored hammered glass globes they are effective additions to a dining room or a hall.

Toronto Got 12 of Them and Springfield 10—Many Hits and Errors.

Shorty Fuller and Third Baseman Reilly gave an example of how to fumble grounders yesterday, and as a consequence Toronto won a game that also abounded in many other errors and heavy hitting. Springfield pounded McPartlin for four singles and a home run in the third, and with a base on balls and a batter struck seven runs resulted and Dunn came in. Toronto caught up in the fourth, and for three innings it was a tie. Then in the eighth, with two men out and two on bases, Casey made a hit. Score:

U. S. ARTILLERY VISIT LONDON.

A Boston Company's Departure Was Marred by a Fatal Disaster.

Boston, June 29.—The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, 175 strong, with a number of ladies, sailed at noon to day on the specially chartered Cunard steamer Servia for their annual field day trip, which this year is to London, where extensive preparations have been made for their entertainment. Before leaving they marched from Faneuil Hall to the State House, escorted by militia companies, and were addressed by Acting Governor Wolcott, who presented, in behalf of the Commonwealth, a stand of Massachusetts colors to the command, making an appropriate address, which was feelingly responded to by Col. Walker of the Ancients. Large crowds lined the streets, and congested the wharf to see the Ancients off.

At City Point, South Boston, this afternoon, a wharf, upon which a large number of persons were viewing the departure of the Servia, with the Ancient and Honorables on board, collapsed. Thirty persons were precipitated into the water. Two were drowned, and all the others saved. Several were badly hurt, and it is stated that two will die.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

AN ENGLISH EDITOR DEAD.

Henry Dunckley a Well-Known Writer, Passes Away at Manchester.

London, June 29.—Henry Dunckley, M.A., LL.D., died at Manchester to-day.

Mr. Dunckley was born at Warwick Dec. 4, 1823, and was educated at the Baptist Academy at Accrington and the University of Glasgow. In 1848, the year of his graduation, he became minister of the Baptist Church at Salford, retiring from that position in 1855 to undertake the editorship of The Manchester Examiner and Times, of which he became co-proprietor a few years later. He was connected with this paper until 1889, when the paper was transferred to new proprietors. He was a contributor to some of the leading periodicals.

ONE HONEST MAN.

Dear Editor: Please inform your readers that if written to confidentially, I will mail in a sealed letter, the plan pursued by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from Nervous Weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts.

I have no scheme to extort money from anyone. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank Heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong, and anxious to make this certain means of cure known to all.

Having nothing to sell or send C.O.D., I want no money. Address, JAS. A. HARRIS, Box 239, Delray, Mich.

SOME GREAT RACING

At the Big Bicycle Meeting in in Quebec.

DAVIDSON TAKES THE FIVE MILE

McLeod and Lougheed Ride a Dead Heat and Will Have to Race Off—Team Race Goes to Montreal Wanderers—Wheelmen Capture the Fortress City.

Quebec, July 1.—(Special.)—For the first time in many generations Quebec, the proud "Fortress City," has surrendered to one invading force, and an army of wheelmen is in possession. To-day the bicyclists occupied every hotel and house of entertainment, and from early morn till late at night swarmed about the city, visiting the Citadel and other places of historical interest, as well as the harbor and its warships and ocean liners.

Over 3000 visitors are here for the C.W.A. meet. Of this number nearly 500 come from Toronto, the remainder coming from every point of the compass.

The first public number of the C.W.A. program was a parade at 9 this morning, and as by some unknowable means the procession of wheelmen was conducted through and about the city by an altogether downhill route, the parade was a success. The Wanderers' Band, which arrived by this morning's special train, was a feature of the procession, which included some twenty clubs. In St. Joseph street Lord Aberdeen was seen in an open carriage, and he was given an ovation by visitors and townspeople.

The races were well attended and successful in most respects, but many of the cyclists seemed to prefer trips to Levis, Montmorency Falls, St. Anne de Beaupre and like resorts to an afternoon with the racers. In the evening a most successful concert was held in the Quebec skating rink. Vice-royalty and Quebec's best society were in attendance.

There were 5000 people in the stands and on the grounds of the Q.A.A. and other thousands watched from the adjacent heights when the races commenced this afternoon. The track is of clay, four laps to the mile, and rather slow. The day's racing was fair, and although there was a remarkable number of falls no one was at all seriously injured. Several of the hitches betrayed inexperience on the part of the managers, but on the whole no real fault could be found with the first day of the meet. The Toronto contingent enjoyed itself, waxing particularly enthusiastic over the finish of the 5-mile race, when the triumphant Wanderers bore their champion to the club-house on their shoulders. Following are the racing results:

Mile novice, amateur—First heat: G. D. Pelletier, Montreal, 1; W. Thibault, Montreal, 2; F. S. Charles, Torontos, 3. Time 2.32 3-5.

Second heat: H. G. Beemer, W.B.C., 1; P. Thompson, Woodstock, 2. Time 2.33 1-5.

Third heat: W. Blesirer, Ottawas, 1; R. W. Palmer, Torontos, 2. Time 2.47 3-5.

Final heat: The placed men in heats, with W. Langford, who fell, started, which was paced by a tandem. W. Thibault won, with Beemer a good second and Charles third.

Mile championship, professional—First heat: Harley Davidson caught the tandem at the start in the first heat and tried to run away from Lougheed, last year's champion, who is riding for an American firm. Fred held on, however, and won the heat, with Alf Young second and J. Gratz third, in 2.24 1-5. Davidson ran off the track at the last turn.

Second heat: McLeod, MacIntosh and Fred Young finished in that order in 2.39, Wills, Westbrook and Elliott falling at the first turn.

The final resulted in a beautiful finish between Lougheed and McLeod, who crossed the tape at the same tick in 2.23 4-5. MacIntosh was third, ahead of Fred Young, who has apparently lost his speed.

When the run-off was called McLeod appeared on the track, but Lougheed refused to ride for the reason, his trainer said, that he believed he was cheated in the race. An effort is being made to arange a match race between the two to be run at Hanlan's Point on July 11. A purse of $100 is offered.

Half mile championship, amateur, 1; F. A. Moore, Torontos, 2; J. Drury, A. Coussirat, Montreal, 3; R. T. Axton, Brantford, 3. Time 1.11 3-5.

Second heat: R. O. Blayney, Simcoe, 1; F. A. Moore, Toronto's, 2; J. Drury, Montreal, 3. Time 1.12 2-5.

Third heat: H. Cooke, Montreal, 1; H. Cassidy, Toronto, and F. J. Graves, St. Catharines, tied. Time 1.13 4-5.

Final heat: Blayney, who was a post entry, won handily, with Hulse second, Coussirat third. Time 1.19.

Mile, 3.25 class, amateur, first heat: L. G. Cameron, Montreal, 1; S. N. Sanction, St. John, N.B., 2. Time 2.31 4-5.

Second heat: J. B. Shilling, Campbellford, 1; A. McEachern, Tourists, Toronto, 2. Time 2.45.

Final heat: Cameron won, following the tandem throughout; McEachern was second and Shillinglaw third. Time 2.26.

Two mile tandem championship, professional. This resulted in a remarkably pretty race and a surprise to the knowing ones, for McColl and Gratz came with a great sprint in the stretch and defeated Wills and Alf. Young, who seemed to have the race in hand. Cecil Elliott and Fred Young beat out MacIntosh and Davidson. Time 5.34.

The 5-mile amateur championship produced 25 entries. The trial heats were at one mile.

First heat: J. F. Davidson, W.B.C., Toronto, 1; W. A. Coussirat, Montreal, 2; H. F. Carman, W.B.C., Toronto, 3. Time 2.25.

Second heat: R. O. Blayney, Simcoe, 1; F. A. Moore, Torontos, 2; W. Thibault, Montreal, 3. Time 2.33 1-5.

Third heat: R. E. Aston, Brantford, 1; A. W. Stackhouse, Ottawa, 2; A. McEachern, Tourists, Toronto, 3. Time 2.34.

The finish in the final was most exciting. John Davidson, the Wanderers' crack, who held the tandem all through, beating Blayney by a narrow margin. McEachern was third.

Half mile open, professional: F. Lougheed, 1; Cecil Elliott, 2; A. Young, 3. Time 1.25 2-5.

Team race, 3 miles, for W. G & R. trophy: Montreal Wanderers, 23; Torontos 25, Peterboro 19, Ottawa 16, Quebec 3. The finish was so close that the decision seemed to be at the best mere guess work.

Mile, 2.40 class, professional: E. Cooper, Brantford, 1; J. Wills, 2; R. H. McColl, 3. Time 2.37 1-5.

BAD SMASH AT THE FALLS.

Head End Collision Between a Train of Flat Cars and an Excursion Train Several Persons Injured.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 1.—The Michigan Central had a lucky head-end collision on the Niagara branch at 11.10 o'clock this evening, when a train of empty flat cars in charge of Michigan Central Conductor John Neil and Engineer McBain struck a Niagara Central special passenger train running from St. Catharines with the Niagara Falls fire department and friends, where they had been attending the firemen's demonstration to-day. The collision occurred on Park street crossing, about a block west of the Clifton depot. Both engines were badly damaged.

The Niagara Central engine had behind it a combination car and day coach, both packed with excursionists, and was running about six miles per hour when they struck. The front of the combination car was completely demolished. The passengers were pitched over the seats on top of each other and escaped death miraculously. About a dozen of them were more or less bruised and cut about the head and body, the worst being Mr. Russell of Niagara Falls Centre, whose back is badly injured.

Miss Louise Martin of this town was carried out of the car badly shaken up and suffering complete nervous prostration.

Albert Newman of this town was knocked insensible from being pitched over a seat.

Mr. Baker of Suspension Bridge, N. Y., was rendered unconscious and was found doubled up under the seats. He was supposed to be dead at first, but after restoratives being administered came to and complained only of being hurt on the thigh, and left for home with assistance.

The baggageman and one or two passengers were pitched out of the baggage car head-long and escaped with a few scratches. Who is to blame for the accident seems to be unknown at present.

SIXTY WERE DROWNED.

The Red Star Packet Boat Rahmanieh Foundered on a Reef With Disastrous Loss of Life.

Suakim, July 1.—The Red Star packet boat Rahmanieh, bound from Suakim for Suez, broke her shaft yesterday and drifted upon a reef, where she foundered. Sixty persons were drowned. The most of them were Greeks.

WELSH IS OUT NOW.

Members of the Patron Grand Board Meet and Square the Little Difficulty Over the Combine Letter.

Toronto, July 2.

Several members of the Patron Grand Board were at the Grand Union Hotel yesterday, settling up the little difficulty consequent upon Grand Secretary Welch's exposure of an alleged Grit Patron-McCarthy combine in the recent election campaign. Grand President Mallory and Messrs. J. Lockie Wilson, Haycock, Gifford and Welch were present, and Mr. Welch left the hotel as soon as he had turned over the books and correspondence in his possession. The meeting was of a very formal nature and very few words, and those not pleasant ones, were spoken at the conference.

Messrs. Mallory and Haycock were seen at the Grand Union last night and both seemed rather down-hearted over the turn events have taken.

On being asked how many straight Patrons he counted on in the Dominion House, Mr. Mallory said he didn't know exactly, but thought there were five or six.

And Mr. Haycock being appealed to, exclaimed with some bitterness of tone that he wasn't "good at calculating up in the high numbers."

The Grand President said he was not disheartened over the result of the campaign just ended, although he would have been better satisfied if more Patrons had been elected to Parliament.

He gave as a reason for the poor showing made by the party's numerous candidates that the election was fought out on unexpected questions—questions that were not Patron issues. Had it been known earlier upon what the campaign would hang the candidates would have taken a different course and more of them would have been elected.

Mr. Mallory further stated that the quondam grand secretary would likely leave the Patron body altogether, but when asked if it were true that Mr. Welch would start a farmers' society of his own in opposition to the Patrons the Grand President simply said that the gentleman would not have a very big following if he did.

A Most Peculiar Case Which Came to Light in Toronto—A Family Greatly Agitated.

Toronto, July 2.

The funeral of Mrs. Samuel Bacon of Blackburn ave., who died on Monday morning last aged 69, was conducted on Tuesday afternoon amidst a large concourse of friends and relatives. On Tuesday morning Mr. Bacon, who, unconsolable over his great loss, was sitting alone with her body in his room, approached the bedside once more and lovingly stroked the face of the departed. To his astonishment the eyes opened wide and looked at him with such intelligence that he ran downstairs and summoned the family to the room, thinking that perhaps after all not death but a trance had overtaken her. Mrs. Bacon gazed upon her sons and daughters in a wide-awake manner for a few moments and then, to their great grief, the loving eyes slowly closed again forever.

A reporter yesterday called on the physician of the family, Dr. E. J. Barrick of Bond-street, who courteously gave the facts of the case. "Mrs. Bacon," said the doctor, "had a stroke of paralysis some months ago, and has been an invalid ever since, latterly not being even able to walk. I was called in to see her on Sunday, when, finding she was dying, told the family that it was a matter of a few hours only. On Monday morning, when I called again, there was crape on the door, and I found that my patient was dead, and not a doubt about it."

"What, then, do you think, doctor, was the cause of the opening of the eyes?" asked the reporter.

"Well, do you know," was the reply, "that if the eyelid was brushed up in the caressing motion of the hand the stiffened condition of the muscles would keep it raised until the force of gravity slowly brought it back again, and what you say about the look of intelligence in the expression could be accounted for by the imagination and nervous state which the family were in."

"In the course of my practice," the physician went on, "I have had several cases where people would have it that their dear ones were not dead, and insisted upon my returning to look at them again. I remember one case last winter of a poor old mother who had nursed a paralytic son for 15 years, who, seeing a slight color come into his face as he lay dead upon the bed on the very day of the funeral, wouldn't let the proceedings go on until she had come for me and brought me back to make sure that they were not little signs of life that she had seen in her boy."

Asked if he had come across cases in Toronto where persons who had been thought to be dead had come to life before burial, Dr. Barrick said that none such occurred to him.

The reporter instanced a case where the heaving of the breast of a young girl supposed to be dead two days and the escape of a sigh had brought hope back to the family as they were moving the body preparatory to placing in the coffin.

This the doctor accounted for by the escaping of air from the lungs. "Yes, I've been the family doctor for ten years," added Dr. Barrick in conclusion. "Mr. Bacon was formerly superintendent of proof butts at the Woolwich Arsenal in London, England. They feel very keenly over their loss."

WILL THE C.P.R. GO IN?

Sir William Van Horne Confers With the Joint Traffic Association in New York Diplomatic Talk.

New York, July 1.—Sir Wm. C. Van Horne, President, and T. G. Shaughnessy, Vice-President of the C.P.R., enjoyed a friendly conference with the members of the Joint Traffic Association in this city to day. The question under consideration was whether the Canadian Pacific was ready to join the association in its efforts to maintain rates.

President VanHorne assured the members of the Joint Traffic Committee of his earnest desire to have the rates of railway transportation kept on a stable and uniform basis. He intimated that the Canadian Pacific would be willing to join the association providing that such action would not interfere with or injure the Northwestern eastbound traffic which originates on this line.

Messrs. Ingalls, Thomas and Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, members of the committee, endeavored to point out that in loyal co-operation lay the only hope of putting a stop to the mischievous practice of rate cutting. Each road concerned, it was argued, should be willing to make some small sacrifice in order to secure a much better benefit.

The Canadian Pacific officers did not offer any suggestions as to what concessions their road might demand, and the committee avoided touching upon this point. In a general way both parties to the conference seemed to agree, and another meeting will be held to-morrow to discuss details.

Commissioner Blanchard and General Manager Hays of the Grant Trunk were present at to-day's conference.

WHEELER MUST HANG.

The Murderer of Annie Kempton Will Depart This Life Sept. 8.

Kentville, N.S., July 1.—The jury in the case of Peter Wheeler, charged with the murder of 15 year-old Annie Kempton, at Bear River, after two hours' deliberation returned a verdict of guilty.

Judge Townshend sentenced the prisoner to be hanged Sept 8.

Big Blaze in Brooklyn.

Brooklyn, N.Y., July 1.—A fire started at 11.40 o'clock last night in the boiler room of G. W. Piper's Kindling Wood Company, at Page avenue and Stauket-street, on Newton Creek, and burned seven buildings belonging to the company. The flames rapidly extended to the lumber yard and box factory of E. C. Smith & Co., which adjoins on the west, and thence to the iron works of Post & McCord. The fire is still burning. The territory devastated covers a full block and a half. A rough estimate places the loss at a quarter of a million.

McKinley Greets Hobart.

Canton, O., July 1.—At 10.30 o'clock this morning the Republican candidate for President and the candidate for Vice-President met and shook hands. It was their first meeting since the St. Louis convention. Mr. Hobart left this afternoon for Cleveland, where he will spend the night with Mark Hanna. He will return to the East Thursday.

HERE IS A CHANCE

For Tomato Growers to Open Up a Good Trade.

OLD ENGLAND WANTS OUR PRODUCT

A Shipping Firm Making Enquiries—Instructions Issued From the Experimental Farm as to the Best Varieties and How to Pack Them for Shipment.

Ottawa, July 1.—An enquiry has been received by the Agricultural and Dairy Commissioner from Messrs. Elder, Dempster & Co., on whose line of steamships cold storage accommodation is being provided this year, for the names of growers or merchants who might be disposed to send shipments of tomatoes to the British market. Messrs. Elder, Dempster & Co. carry large quantities of tomatoes from the Mediterranean, have exceptional facilities for the sale of the fruit in Great Britain, and are disposed to make an effort to introduce and expand the trade in Canadian tomatoes. The Canadian fruit is known to be much superior in flavor and solidity to what is imported from the Mediterranean.

Mr. Craig, horticulturist at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, has arranged the following notes for the guidance of those who may be inclined to have a share in the development of this business. It is known that tomatoes may be shipped safely to England with or without cold storage; and there is every reason to believe that they may be exported with profit after the 1st of September, when there is little demand for them in the home market. Whether or not it will pay to export them during August, when the demand in Canada is fairly brisk and the price remunerative, is a question that can be decided only by actual trial.

Those which are of medium size, smooth and regular in form, solid, with small seed cavities, and of a bright red color, are the best kinds to cultivate and select for this purpose. General Grant, Canada Victor and Atlantic Prize belong to the earliest ripening varieties, which fetch high prices in the home market and are not suitable for export. Among the most reliable, smooth, medium early tomatoes, suitable for export, are: Livingston's Beauty, Favorite, Early Ruby (sometimes irregular) and Ignotum. It is possible that the pink and purple (like Mikado) tomatoes might take well upon the British market, and it would be worth while to send a few cases of them on trial.

Only sound, smooth tomatoes should be selected, when they are fully developed and beginning to color. They should be so carefully picked as to be entirely free from bruises. Small-sized packages only should be used. Tomatoes will not carry long distances, if packed several rows deep in large cases or baskets. Indeed, all fruit will carry better to distant markets if packed in cases, instead of baskets. Cases also occupy proportionately less space in the storage compartment of the vessel. It is safe to say that tomatoes should not be packed in cases exceeding five and a half inches in depth, outside measurement. A convenient size for handling and shipping this fruit would be cases measuring outside 22 inches long, 10 inches wide, 5 1-2 inches deep; and provided with a partition cross wise in the middle. The boxes should be made of light planed lumber and so constructed as to allow of ventilation. The thickness of the lumber might be five-eighths of an inch for the ends and partition, and three-eighths of an inch for the sides, top and bottom. Ventilation could be provided for by using side pieces slightly narrower than called for by the depth of the box. The top and bottom pieces should come flush to the corners. This would leave a ventilating slit along the side without weakening the package. Such a case would hold about four dozen medium sized tomatoes.

Each tomato should be wrapped in tissue paper, or in a light cheap grade of printer's paper. They should be carefully packed, stem-end down, in such a manner as to leave them firmly in place when the case is filled.

Each case should bear the shipper's name, with the quantity or number of tomatoes it contains. The brand "Canada," or "Canadian," should also be put on conspicuously.

KILLED BY A BULL ANT.

A Georgia Boy, Stung by One of the Insects, Died Ten Minutes Afterward in Great Agony.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 1.—Ben Harris, the son of a farmer, was baling cotton in a large field near Pond Springs, Ga., when a laborer working near him heard the boy give a wild scream. The young man then ran a few feet and sank to the ground, writhing and screaming in agony. In ten minutes the boy was dead. An examination showed that Harris had been stung by a "bull ant," as the insect is called in that country. The ant was found clinging to the swollen purple ankle of the unfortunate lad, and was secured and preserved by David Hall, a Chattanoogan, who was in the vicinity. Mr. Hall said that "bull ants" are numerous in the Pigeon Mountans, the scene of young Harris' death. They are about an inch in length, and have a stinger which is fully half an inch long. One other case is on record where the bite of the insect proved fatal.

Chinese Lost 112 Killed.

The Hague, July 1.—Official despatches received here from the Dutch Indies say that there has been renewed serious fighting between the Dutch and Chinese at the fortress of Nakgalo-Eng. The Chinese lost 112 killed, and the Dutch had 9 killed and 39 wounded. It is also announced that the Dutch have captured the Sibreh fortress, meeting with slight resistance.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 22.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in is city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

Mr. Chas. Smith, Dawn Mills, Ont., says:—"For several years I was troubled with pains in my limbs, which continued getting worse until I thought I would have to quit work. In fact the pains were so severe that I could not rest at nights. I took one box of Miller's Compound Iron Pills and am perfectly cured." Although it is nearly a year since Mr. S. took the Pills he has had no return of the pains, and feels splendid. Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

Shiloh's Cure:

is sold on a guarantee, it cures Incipien Consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a dose. 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00. Sold by John Nugent, 389 George street.

HARVIE'S MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

Coroner Stone of Parry Sound is Trying to Ascertain the Cause—Was the Young Man Poisoned?

Rosseau, Ont., July 1.—On Monday evening Dr. T. W. H. Young of this village was called to the house of Mr. James Harvie to see his son, Albert James Harvie, 27 years of age. He found him in an unconscious condition and he died two or three minutes afterwards. Coroner Stone of Parry Sound was summoned and an inquest was called for 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The evidence went to show deceased had drunk three glasses of beer at Raymond's Hotel in the afternoon and ate his supper in the evening as usual with the other members of the family and went out between 9 and 10 to visit some friends, Rev. Mr. Pullar and his family. While there he complained of feeling ill and commenced vomiting. They sent for a young man to take him home. While going home he vomited several times and also while there and refused to have a doctor at first, but finally consented, saying he was going to die. The doctor was summoned, with the result mentioned. After all the witnesses had been called, the coroner decided about 10 o'clock this evening that he could do nothing further with the case until they held a post-mortem examination, which, he considered, under the circumstances, very advisable. The inquest will be resumed at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning.

MR. LAURIER HAS TWO SEATS.

His Election in Saskatchewan is Now Conceded—Body of James Ross Found in Red River.

Winnipeg, July 1.—(Special.)—The French of Quebec gave Conservatives no greater surprise than have the French half-breeds of Saskatchewan given Conservatives of that constituency. The returns from the far northern polling stations, composed principally of half-breeds and Indians, for whom the Government has done so much, were awaited with confidence by the Conservatives who had no doubt they would roll up a big majority for McKay over Mr Laurier. However, two of these remote stations were heard from to-day, and it was found that Mr. McKay only had a few votes the best of it. Including these returns, Mr. Laurier now has a majority of 94 and his election is assured. Two northern polling stations are yet to hear from, but they can scarcely make any material change.

Selkirk is still in doubt, the missing ballot boxes not having turned up. The official declaration is fixed for to morrow morning, but there will probably be a further postponement.

This afternoon, floating in Red River, was found the body of James Ross, barrister. Mr. Ross while ill and despondent jumped off Broadway bridge Sunday night, having previously arranged his affairs and left letters to relatives. The body had floated a mile from the bridge.

ON THE BASEBALL DIAMOND.

Bisons are Easy for Toronto—In the Canadian League.

Toronto, July 2.

If there is one team in the league that Toronto can beat it is the aggregation from Buffalo. Local patrons must have an idea that the Bisons can play the game, for they turned out in big numbers morning and afternoon.

Buffalo was extremely lucky in getting a start of three runs in the first innings in the morning game. After two had retired, with two on bases, Gremlinger sent a safe hit to centre field. Wright let it past him and they all scored

The afternoon game was one-sided from the start. The Bisons were first at bat, and retired in rotation after Clymer had got his base on balls. The Torontos found Herndon in the first innings for six runs, but after that the Buffalo twirler kept them pretty well puzzled

It is in the Nature of Things

That, as age advances with concomitants of wear and tear, some parts of the delicate machinery of the body, upon which health and vigor depend, should suffer derangement. Feelings of weariness, listlessness or despondency are the signals that nature throws out to warn, and woe to him who neglects these warnings, for severe are the penalties she exacts. To quicken into new vigor the failing energies; to impart, with certainty, tone to the nervous system, these are the special tendencies of the wonderful tonic and nutrient, Maltine with Coca Wine. It gives strength to the nervous system, and is thus a "nerve restorer;" it increases nutrition, and is therefore, a "body-builder." Maltine with Coca Wine, by its power to add to nerve force and to increase weight, will be found by the debilitated and weak a veritable "life-giver." Maltine with Coca Wine is not a patent medicine. Its composition may be known to you, as it has long been known and subscribed to by the medical profession. Sold by all druggists.

'TWAS A GREAT FEAST

Sir Donald Smith Entertains Lavishly in London.

MANY OF THE NOBILITY PRESENT

The High Commissioner Marked Dominion Day by a Grand Reception at the Imperial Institute—The Canadian Dinner—Loyal Speeches and Canadian Music.

London, July 1.—(Special cable.)—There are so many Canadians in London at the present time that Dominion day was celebrated with more than usual eclat. Sir Donald and Lady Smith issued a large number of invitations for the afternoon reception, and the Imperial Institute seemed as if all the Canadians in the Kingdom were present.

Miss Marie Hollinshead of Montreal, Miss Edith Miller of Winnipeg, Mr. Cunningham of Montreal and Mr. Holmes Cowper of Toronto gave a number of Canadian and other songs, and the Blue Hungarian Band played a selection of excellent music.

The company numbered 500 to 600, and among the visitors were the following: Marquis of Lorne, Earl and Countess of Selborne, Marquis and Marchioness of Lansdowne, Marquis and Marchioness of Ripon, Lord and Lady Herschell, Lord and Lady Playfair, Lord and Lady MacNaghten, Marquis and Marchioness of Breadalbane, Lord and Lady Rayleigh, Lord and Lady Russell of Killowen, Marquis and Marchioness of Lothian, Lord Haddo, Lord and Lady Balfour, and Burleigh, Earl and Countess of Lichfield, Earl and Countess of Jersey and the Ladies Villiers, Lord and Lady Knutsford, Earl and Countess of Derby and Lady Isabel Hunky, Right Hon. Joseph and Mrs. Chamberlain, Right Hon. George J. and Mrs. Goschen, Sir John and Lady Lubbock, Sir William and Lady Dawson, Rev. Principal Grant, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir Arthur and Lady Hallburton, Sir Frederick Abell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blake, Professor and Mrs. Peterson, Sir Francis and Lady De Winton, Lady Tupper, Miss Tupper and Mr. Tupper, Judge and Mrs. MacMahon, Judge and Mrs. Gwynne, the Archbishop of Rupert's Land, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Newcombe, and Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, Mr. C. R. Hormer, Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Sperling, Miss Alice and Miss Lillie Robson, Miss Beatrice Hamilton, Mr. A. F. Gault.

In the evening the usual dinner took place at the Westminster Palace Hotel. Sir Donald Smith was in the chair, and was supported by the Marquis of Lorne, the Earl of Selborne, Lord Welby, Sir Stafford Northcote, M.P., Sir Mackenzie Bowell, the Hon. Edward Blake, M.P., Sir Albert Rollit, M.P., Sir Francis De Winton, Admiral Field, M.P., Sir Frederick Abel, Lieut.-General Laurie, M.P., the Archbishop of Rupert's Land, Principal Grant, Dr. W. Peterson, Sir Henry Edwards, Mr. Sandford Fleming, Col. Ivor Herbert, Captain Kirkpatrick, Capt. Ogilvie, Mr. E. L. Newcombe, Q.C., Mr L. J. Seargeant, Mr. W. H. Beatty, Mr. James Ross, Mr. C. R. Hormer, Mr. William McKenzie, Mr. Alexander Lang, Mr. A. F. Gault, Mr. Thomas Skinner, Mr. Hanson, Mr. Sperling, Mr. Joseph Wrigley, Mr. John Huddart, Col. Cotton, Mr. S. A. Alexander, Mr. Peter Byrne, Mr. John Howard, Mr. Forbes Vernon, Mr. J. C. Colmer and the staff of the High Commissioner's Office.

The room was prettily decorated with Canadian flags and flowers and covers were laid for 185 persons. It was the largest Canadian dinner ever held in London.

The local toasts were given by the Chairman.

"The Navy, Army and Reserve Forces," was responded to by Admiral Field, Sir Francis De Winton and Col. Herbert.

"The Dominion of Canada," proposed by Sir Donald, was responded to by Sir Mackenzie Bowell.

The toast of "The Governors-General, Past and Present," was proposed by the Hon. Edward Blake and responded to by the Marquis of Lorne.

Principal Grant proposed the toast of "The Houses of Parliament," responded to by Lord Welby of Allington and General Laurie.

The toast of "Our Sister Colonies" was placed in the charge of Mr. Forbes G. Vernon and responded to by the Agent-General for Natal.

The Archbishop of Rupert's Land proposed the toast of "The Chairman," who responded in his own neat manner.

The band played during dinner between the speeches. Songs were sung by the ladies and gentlemen who rendered similar services in the afternoon. Among the songs were, "May God Preserve Thee, Canada," sung as a quartette, and the "Maple Leaf Forever," sung by Mr. Cunningham of Montreal.

THE "BIG" FOUR.

A Quartette of Remedies that are Effecting Wonderful Cures.

"I was sick for three years," says James Simpson, of Newcomb Mills. "I tried various alleged patent cures and several boxes of a certain pill which has been greatly cracked up. I got no relief. Then I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Since, I have been able to work every day and feel like a new man. Your pills alone cured me at a cost of 25c."

"I have been subject to severe colds every fall and spring," says Miss Hattie Delaney, of 174 Crawford street, Toronto. "I used many cough medicines, but none cured me until at a cost of 25 cents I tried Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine."

"My husband was troubled with the worst kind of piles," writes Mrs. Jane Potts, of Meyersburg. "He was often unable to work. Since using your Chase's Ointment he is completely cured. It is truly worth its weight in gold instead of the price you charge, only 60 cents."

"I bought a box of your Catarrh Cure for 25 cents at Mr. Boyle's drug store here," says Henry E. Nicholls of 176 Rectory street, London, Ont. "I am thankful to say it cured me."

ALASKA MINERS ARE STARVING.

They Would Like to Get Away From the Country But Cannot Get Transportation.

Tacoma, Wash., July 1.—William Hutchinson has just returned from Cook's Inlet, Alaska, where he spent two months. He came down on the schooner Norma, which left Kollak June 16, with 32 passengers, all she could carry, though 90 wanted to come. Hutchinson says there are 1,750 people on Six Mile Creek, and about as many on Resurrection Creek. About 750 of them are making from $2 to $15 per day at placer mining, but the remainder, he says, are absolutely helpless and unable to find enough to keep them alive. As a rule the gold consists of such light flakes that a breeze blows it away. Many of the prospectors would like to go to the Yukon country. That, however, is 200 miles away, and it is currently reported that the Copper River Indians who live there are on the warpath. Hutchinson thinks there will not be enough steamers to accommodate the people who want to leave Cook's Inlet this summer. Prospectors are still pouring in there, the steamer Dora landing 125 men from Sitka, June 8.

TURKISH TROOPS REBEL.

Claim That They Have Not Been Paid Since 1894 and Want Their Money.

Constantinople, July 1.—Advices received here from Jiddah, Arabia, say a serious revolt of troops has occurred at that place. According to the reports two battalions of Turkish troops en route for Hauran, Syria, refused to go any further than Jiddah unless they received their arrears of pay, the men declaring that they had not been paid since 1894. An attempt was made to compel them to proceed, but the rebellious soldiers barricaded themselves in a mosque and resisted all attempts to dislodge them.

A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many year's study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless article.

London—Opening—Wheat off coast dull, on passage very little doing. English country markets dull. Maize off coast quiet, on passage steady.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

HOW THE SUN LIFE

FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,371 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely, (Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

The funeral took place yesterday under the auspices of the Iron Moulder' Union. Deceased was forty years of age and was a widower, his wife having died four years ago. He leaves behind him two children, mother, brother and sister.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

Two Weddings on the Last Day of the Month.

WEIR—COX.

"There is nothing so fair as a day in June, then, if ever, come perfect days," and the 30th of June, 1896 proved the truth of the sweet old poem, and was an auspicious one in the lives of two young people well known in town, being the occasion of the marriage of Miss Emma M. Cox, only daughter of Henry Cox, Esq., Armour Place, Otonabee, and Mr. Alfred E. Weir, son of Mr. Robert Weir, town councillor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. J. Rae. Miss Eva Colling, of Belleville, cousin of the bride, and Miss Maggie Cox were the bridesmaids, Mr. Weir being supported by his brother, Mr. Sidney Weir. The bride looked beautiful in a gown of white swiss muslin, with lace and ribbon trimmings, and carried a shower bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids completed the symphony in white, wearing white dresden muslin and carrying pink and white roses. Each of the bridesmaids wore a beautiful pearl and turquoise ring, the gift of the groom. After the ceremony, which took place at 4 o'clock p.m., the guests, to the number of about fifty, sat down to a recherche wedding breakfast. The happy couple, who are general favourites among a large circle of friends, were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. They departed on the evening train for Kingston and points east, followed by the good wishes of other friends who had gathered at the G. T. R. station to wish them bon voyage. Upon their return they will reside on Wolseley street.

WESTLAKE—GIBBS.

On the same day June 30th, a quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. John Gibbs, Chambers street, when his daughter, Miss Laura Gibbs, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Westlake. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Rae in the presence of the relatives of the interested parties. The bride, who was attired in cream, was assisted by her sister Miss Elsie Gibbs, while Mr. Geo. Russell, of Ashburnham, supported the groom. After the ceremony, the guests enjoyed a wedding supper and the happy pair took the 9 o'clock G. T. R. express for a honeymoon tour east. The many friends of the newly wedded couple give their congratulations and best wishes for lives of wedded happiness.

OBITUARY.

An Old Resident Gone—Death of Mrs. John Sanderson, Formerly of Smith.

Mrs. Martha Sanderson, widow of the late John Sanderson, formerly of the township of Smith, died at her home in Toronto on Monday last, after a brief illness, although she has been in failing health for a considerable time. She was the mother of Wm. Sanderson, M.A., and Frank Sanderson, M.A. She was born near Dublin, Ireland, in 1828, and was well known in the township of Smith. About 1881 she removed to Toronto, to be near her sons while attending the university. She leaves four sons and two daughters. The funeral took place on Wednesday from her home, No. 215 Huron street, Toronto, to the Little Lake Cemetery, here. Rev. Dr. Thomas conducted the servies in Toronto, and Rev. Mr. Trotter in Peterborough.

OTONABEE.

A Great Gathering of the Fife Clans.

A family gathering of the Fifes was held Dominion Day at the residence of John H. Fife, Esq., Otonabee, the homestead of John Fife, of Kincardine, Scotland, who settled there in 1820, and from whom the present large connection has sprung. Those of the family who were present organized themselves into a society to be known as Clan Fife. A register was made and over one hundred names enrolled. So successful was the inaugural meeting of the society that a resolution was passed to meet annually. The clan elected Dr. Fife, of town, their chief, and Jas. Fife, B.A., of the Collegiate Institute, their secretary-treasurer.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION

Delightful Outing of the Park Street Baptist School.

Yesterday the Park street Baptist Sunday school had a most successful excursion and picnic. The steamer North Star took a large and happy party down the river to Victoria Park. Mr. Pady, the former pastor of the Mission, came down from Toronto to attend the outing, and a decidedly delightful and successful day of pleasure finding was spent at Victoria Park. There were the usual picnic recreations and sports and games for the juveniles. The party reached home in good time after a fine day's enjoyment.

WEEKLY HALF HOLIDAY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR—The gratifying success which has attended the efforts of the promoters of the petition for a weekly half holiday during July and August should not be allowed to pass without a word of grateful acknowledgement to all those merchants who have consented to close their stores during the Thursday afternoons of July and August.

I am informed that the petitioners met with no grudging reception, but that the response was generous and hearty. I feel that at the end of August the merchants will find that they are not a cent the poorer for this concession, whilst they will be greatly enriched with a better value than dollars and cents, by the knowledge they have successfully fostered those ties of mutual esteem and good will between employers and employed, upon which the happiness, contentment and prosperity of the community so largely depend.

Yours, etc.,
HERBERT SYMONDS.

ST. JOSEPH'S PICNIC.

A Successful Annual Event on the Hospital Grounds — A Grand Baseball Exposition — A Good Attendance — Sports and Games and Miscellaneous Recreations.

The annual picnic under the auspices of the ladies of St. Peter's Cathedral was held upon the beautiful grounds of St. Joseph's Hospital, Ashburnham, yesterday, (Dominion Day.) The weather was very warm, which prevented a large attendance during the day, but towards evening there was an increase of visitors, so that during the day there was a large number present.

The clergy was well represented, including His Lordship, Ven. Archdeacon Casey, Rev. Father Conway, Norwood; Rev. Father McColl, Ennismore; Rev. Father O'Connel, Rev. Father Scanlan, Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Rev. Father Calnan, Rev J. F. O'Sullivan and Rev. J. O'Brien, G. S., Montreal, and Messrs. J. O'Brien and T.J. Crowley, St. Michael's College.

THE BASEBALL MATCH.

The first event of the day was the grand baseball match between teams representing the C. M. B. A. and Court St. Peter's, C.O.F. It was an original and most interesting exhibition of the game, and being, in the style of the players, and the general features of the game, unlike any baseball before played, the ordinary procedures were ignored and no score according to code was kept. The following are the names of the players, or rather performers, with the highly respectable scores made appended:—

C. M. B. A.		FORESTERS.
J J Lynch	4	M. Henry	1
M Giroux	5	J Clancy	0
J Tromsley	4	J Desault	1
E McFadden	3	C Clancy	1
T Guerin	3	J Murphy	1
J Coughlin	3	A J Gough	0
W J Devlin	3	P C McGinty	1
T Giroux	3	J Lynch	0
A Sharp	3	J Hayes	0
Total	29		5

T Kelly umpire.

It will be observed that the C. M. B. A. administered a Waterloo to their opponents. Among the incidents of the game was the desperate slide of Mr. Devlin from third to the home plate. Police Constable McGinty, though "it's forty years since he played baseball," deserves credit for the single run he added to the Foresters' score. He seemed to have more trouble in arresting the ball than in arresting a criminal. It was a great game and unique in the annals of sport. The batteries were for the C.M.B.A., G. H. and T. Giroux, and for the Foresters M. Coughlin and A. J. Gough. There were some "dandy" curves pitched, but it is only fair to say that they were not intentional on the part of the pitchers.

THE GASTRONOMIC DEPARTMENT.

The old time revelries of the ladies of the several wards were as active as ever, and as a result splendid tables beautifully laid and lavishly burdened with tempting edibles were liberally patronized.

The following ladies had charge.

No. 1 Ward—Mrs. J. Dunn, Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. T. Cahill, Mrs. T. LePlante, Mrs. T. Corkery, Mrs. L. LePlante, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Crowley, Mrs. Sero, Mrs. O'Malley, Mrs. McCabe, Mrs. Forster, Miss Kate Simons and others. One special feature of this table was the service rendered by the Masters Picard, who in their snow white aprons waited upon table and established a precedent which will be more numerously followed next year. Miss Annie Simons also had a practical and profitable Hibernian paradox in the shape of a portable stationery department. From the sale of stationery, envelopes, etc., she added $20 to the funds. No. 1 Ward ice cream booth was presided over by Mrs. Riley and Mrs. McHalpin.

No. 2 Ward—Mrs. Doherty, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. McGrath, Mrs. Dolan, Mrs. (Dr.) Moher, Mrs. J. McCarthy, Miss McLaughlin, Mrs. E. Phelan, Mrs. T. Giroux, Mrs. M. Giroux, Mrs. Donoghue and Mrs. Heffernan and others. Ice cream booth, Miss Doherty, Miss Baker and Mr. Keogh.

No. 3 and 4 Ward—Mrs. McFadden, Mrs. (Dr.) O'Sullivan, Miss M. O'Brien, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Dineen, Mrs. Dwyer, Miss Haggerty, Mrs. T. Cavanagh, Miss Moran, Mrs. Archambault and others. Ice cream booth (very prettily decorated) Mrs. Geo. Ball and Mrs. Lynch.

Ashburnham—Mrs. Brennan, Mrs. Cleary, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. J. C. and Miss Sullivan, Mrs. O'Connell, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Clancy, Miss Mercier, Mrs. Jas. Drain and others. Ice cream—Mr. W. Collins, Miss O'Connel and Miss Wall.

Otonabee—Mrs. Wm. Leahy, Mrs Coughlin, Mrs. John Lynch, Mrs. Roger Devlin, Mrs. T. Lynch, Mrs. J. Rahally, Miss Ella Hayes and others; ice cream booth, Mrs. J. Duffs.

The dancing platform was liberally patronized during the day to the excellent music of an orchestra.

There were other amusements for different tastes. Mr. J. Hayes had charge of a shooting gallery and Mr. P. Begley conducted an archery range.

THE SPORTS AND GAMES.

An excellent well contested programme of sports and games was run off under the supervision of Messrs. W. J. Devlin, M. Giroux and A. McPherson:

200 yards race—1 F McPherson, 2 J Murphy.
200 yards race (boys)—1 P Kelly, 2 J Connors.

THE PETERBOROUGHS DOWN THE ELMS.

The Home Team Overcome the Elms of Toronto by a Score of Three to Two Games.

Toronto, on former occasions, has not sent a twelve to Peterborough which could give the local team anything like a good game, but yesterday it was represented by one of the best clubs playing the game in the city, and the crowd present witnessed what is said to be the fastest games ever ever played in town. The teams lined up as follows, with Mr. H. Phelan, referee, as follows:—

Peterboroughs.			Elms.
Dobbin	goal		Angus
Brown	point		Turnbull
Mein	cover point		McElroy
Glover	defence		Carr
Borland			Godfrey
Hickey			Soules
McDonough	centre field		Jelfs
Lipsett	home field		Soules
Galley			Comet
Rubidge			Wilkinson
J Begley	outside home		DeLaurier
John McCabe	inside home		Greatrix
L King	field captain		Wyld

The games were scored in this order:—Elms, 1st, Peterborough, 2nd, Elms, 3rd, Peterborough, 4th and 5th, with 30 minutes of play in which no goal was taken. Galley, Lipsett and McCabe did the trick for Peterborough.

The first game was a long and stubbornly contested one, with the the honours in favour of the Elms, their home playing right around the town defence, as was also the case in the fourth game, although Brown, Mein and Dobbin relieved the flags well. Outside of these two occasions it was anybody's game. Two of Peterborough's goals were taken in almost a minute each, which goes to show that the combination of Galley, Lipsett and Rubidge is very effective.

The game scored by McCabe was taken after a pretty catch of a long throw and Begley's close checking of the point man.

During the last 30 minutes play Peterborough's defence played well, Borland's catching and Brown's blocking and throwing being particularly noticeable.

Angus in goal and Turnbull and Godfrey on the Elm's defence can play fast enough lacrosse for any senior league team. Their home did not take advantage of all the openings they had, otherwise the score might have been different. Their combination is a little imperfect.

Some rough play was indulged in on both sides, but it is pretty certain that the Elms have left town with a feeling that they were fairly treated by the local team.

Lionel King makes one of the best field captains the club has had, and it is to be hoped he will "stay with it."

There were several interruptions during the match but they did not amount to much, the excitement of some of the spectators being the chief cause.

Every member of the Peterborough team is urged to turn out to practice and get in shape for the Port Hope match on July 13th.

The Junior team would like to arrange a match with any of the junior teams, particularly Lindsay, Millbrook 1st, Hastings 1st or Belleville. Address Alf. Terrill, secretary.

The Elms are the best runners throughout of any team ever seen in Peterborough.

McDonough was about the only Peterborough man who could show his heels to any of the Elm players.

Hickey played his old time game on defence, and with as little practice as he has had, did well.

SONS OF ENGLAND.

The Toronto Brethren Invade the Town 500 Strong—The Day Delightfully Spent in Town.

It was a jolly and respectable party of about five hundred that arrived here from Toronto yesterday morning. The brethren were met at the station and escorted to the town by a procession headed by the Sons of England band. The local lodge rooms were thrown open to the visiting brethren, who received well appreciated attentions during the day. The gathering at the Riverside park, where the band was in attendance in the afternoon, was not large, the majority of the excursionists scattering as they listed to all parts of the town; consequently the programme of sports was not presented, but an improvised cricket match took place between the visitors and the home Englishmen. There was no regular score kept, but it may be mentioned that the local brethren had the best of it, a fact largely due to the fine work with the bat of Rev. H. Symonds and Mr. Walter Stocker. The majority of the excursionists left by an evening train, though several stayed over till to-day. They were all well pleased with their outing and with the hospitality received from the local brethren.

PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Smart, of Toronto, is in town on a visit to friends.

Mr. A. R. Plummer and Mr. Will Smart, of Toronto, spent Dominion Day in town visiting friends.

Miss Flo Wilson and Miss Bella Donnelly of Toronto, are in town, the guests of Mrs. W. Scott, Gilmour street.

Miss Emma Sherlock left this morning by the early express for Chicago, where she will spend a month visiting, the guest of her brother, Mr. Thomas Sherlock.

Mrs. W. H. Graham, after a visit with her father, Mr. H. Denne, returned home yesterday, accompanied by her sister, Miss May Denne, who will spend her holidays in the Limestone City.

Mr. R. T. Hartley left Tuesday evening for Quebec. "Roll" will take in the wheel meet, and no doubt will favour THE EXAMINER with full details as regards the Ontario boys during their outing.

BEAUTIFUL BELLEVILLE'S RIGHT ROYAL RECEPTION

OF PETERBOROUGH'S GALLANT RANGERS.

They Capture the City and are Taken Captive Themselves—Handsome and Hearty Hospitality—Every Branch of the Corps Catered to Splendidly—A Merry Round of Festivites and Receptions—The Lamps Shone on Fair Women and Brave Men—The 15th Repay the 57th with Compound Interest—The Most Successful Holiday Jaunt of the Battalion.

The 57th have returned home from Belleville, positively surfeited with pleasure. The men, non-come. and officers have each and every one of them had a royal good time, and are frank in their avowal of the fact. The good citizens of Belleville left no stone unturned in their efforts to extend a warm welcome to the boys, and that they were successful in their endeavour is proven in the outspoken praise which is being bestowed by the Battalion to-day upon every detail of the programme which was arranged for their entertainment in the Bay City.

Peterborough's greeting to the Belleville Battalion on the 24th of May was a cordial and hearty one, but Belleville this time, and the trip just ended without a doubt takes rank with, if it does not outrival, the best of previous years. Nothing can describe the heartiness of the welcome the Rangers received. Every detail was perfect, and apparently every member of the 15th from the whole-souled Colonel down to the rawest recruit, had a duty assigned him in assisting to entertain the Rangers. No one could feel neglected, but on the contrary, in order to take in all the fun it was almost necessary to be on the move forty-eight hours out of twenty-four, in other words the time was too short to do justice to the entire programme prepared.

HAS GONE US ONE BETTER

By appearances and by the hearty wishes expressed for a return visit at some future date, it is evident that the 57th have not worn out their welcome in Belleville and have left behind as

as they have done in the numberless other cities which they have visited from time to time.

The friendships which were made on the 24th in Peterborough were renewed and cemented firmly and it is pleasing to note, that not a single disagreeable circumstance is to be recorded in connection with the trip. Other battalions when on an outing may get into brawls with the local militia, but such is never the case with the Rangers. They are out for fun and that is all they want, but they must have it. They didn't have far to look in Belleville in search of this commodity and hence the reason for the enthusiasm which mention of Belleville awakens in the bosom of both the officers and privates of the 57th.

THE EMBARKATION.

Orders had been issued for the 57th to parade at the drill shed at 7.30 on Monday evening and by eight o'clock the force was on the march for the train. At a quarter to nine the line was announced to be clear and as the men and baggage were all aboard the special train of eight coaches pulled out for Belleville in charge of the following crew:—Conductor, J. Hewson; Brakesmen, W. Hodgson and J. Grieve; Engineer, Dave Clarke, and Fireman, George Stopley. After a quick run Belleville was reached at a quarter to eleven and the train ran down to the market place in the heart of the city. Here the Fifteenth and its officers were drawn up to receive their guests and, headed by the band, marched to the grounds, where under Quartermaster Langford's supervision tents had been erected and preparations made for the reception of the visitors.

AS THE TWO BATTALIONS

marched through the streets cheer after cheer arose and it was evident that the Rangers had made a good impression from the very first.

Preparations had been made to meet the wants of the inner man, and as the boys were hungry, they immediately took advantage of the 15th's thoughtfulness in this respect and ample justice was done the spread.

The officers were invited to the residence of Lieut.-Col. Ponton, where they partook of his hospitality in the shape of a most elaborate luncheon. A number of prominent residents of the city were present and several hours were spent most enjoyably in discussing the luncheon and afterwards in listening to and participating in the post-praudial wit which always flows so freely in an assemblage of military men when presided over by a host who possesses the nice tact of making each and every guest feel perfectly at home.

COLONEL PONTON'S ACQUIREMENTS

as a host are, as everyone knows who has partaken of his hospitality, of this nature, and his name will pass down amongst the officers of the 57th as a prince of entertainers indeed.

After being refreshed by their midnight luncheon the Rangers broke bounds, and in parties of ten or a dozen made a tour of the town, and if there were any of the residents who were not serenaded it was not the fault of the boys, as their songs and choruses could be heard on the corners until the robins began to bestir themselves in the morning. Being out for a good time they had to make the most of their two days, and the majority of them can tell to a nicety how every hour was spent.

On Tuesday morning the men had a little drill. At least those who could be drummed up and hadn't escaped were "marched out," a few times and then dismissed for the day.

THE BEAUTY OF THE SPOT

chosen for a camp ground is worthy of special mention. It is a portion of Col. Ponton's large estate, and consists of a beautiful field sloping gently to the bay shore. The spot appeared to be particularly suited for camping purposes as, whilst the trees did not interfere with the pitching of the tents, yet there was plenty of them scattered around the edge of the grounds. Belleville's mineral springs are in the eastern portion of the camp, ground, and the men had free access to the waters, of the medicinal values of which there is no doubt. The field is only about ten minutes walk from the centre of the town, and yet is sufficiently secluded for the men to be able to enjoy the privilege of a plunge in the bay each morning. That this privilege was taken full advantage of goes, of course, without saying.

THE VIEW FROM THE GROUNDS

is a pretty one indeed, the shores of Prince Edward County across the bay, a mile away, being well wooded and the strand presenting a fine picture for the eye with its many indentations and pretty little inlets. Far away on the horizon can be seen the cottages and hotels on Massassaga Point, that well known summer resort, whilst spanning the bay within plain view is the famous Quinte bridge, one of the latest achievements of mechanical skill, being about a mile in length.

Zwick's Island lays directly in front of the camp grounds about six hundred yards from the shore, and was recognized by many as an old camp ground of the local cavalry corps and the Durham Field Battery, to which many of our boys belong.

ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON

the 15th chartered three large steamers and took the entire visiting battalion, as well as their own men, out on the water. The afternoon was a delightful one to be spent in this manner, as a pleasant breeze was blowing and the sun was not sufficiently warm to make sitting out on the deck disagreeable. The steamer Merritt took the privates, the Ella Ross, the non-coms. and the Varuna the officers. After running up the Bay and down again, the Varuna stopped at Massassaga Point long enough to allow the officers an opportunity of a brief stroll through the fine grounds which surround the large summer hotel.

Port was reached again at about six o'clock, and officers and men hurried back to camp in order to be in readiness for the evening's pleasure, which had been provided for in this issue.

THE OFFICERS WERE INVITED to a reception in the magnificent drill shed of the 15th Battalion and afterwards to a "smoker."

The non-coms. at the invitation of their brethren of the 15th partook of their hospitality in the shape of a supper. The buglers dined with the Belleville corps at Fleming's restaurant, whilst the privates were well looked after individually, as well as collectively, by the rank and file of the 15th.

The reception in honour of the officers at the drill shed was indeed a most enjoyable affair. Belleville may well boast of her pretty girls. There were scores of them in attendance and it wasn't very long before the officers of the Rangers was each supplied with a pretty partner for the promenade, and if each and every one of those officers didn't put in two very pleasant hours it wasn't the fault of the

as they sacrificed their own pleasure without reserve in keeping an eye on their guests and seeing that they were well supplied with introductions.

The drill shed was most prettily decorated for the occasion, and being admirably adapted for this kind of thing, it was made resplendent with bunting and flags. Tents were erected in the corners for those who wished a quieter talk than afforded by the promenade, and the younger officers of the Rangers showed their appreciation of this act of thoughtfulness by taking prompt advantage of these corners every time an opportunity offerded itself. Refreshments were served during the evening.

At half-past ten the band struck up the National Anthem, and the ladies took their departure, but their escorts were soon back at the officers' quarters to participate in the "smoker."

The proceedings were opened by a neat speech from Col. Ponton, who emphasized his previous and in a few subsequent remarks spoke of the similiarity existing between the 57th and the 15th. Although neither battalion could expect to equal the proficiency of the big city battalions with their metropolitan advantages, yet both thought themselves a grade better than the balance of the Canadian volunteer militia. Another tie which should unite them in common was the fact that representatives from both battalions had marched shoulder to shoulder in the Midland Division at the quelling of the Northwest rebellion. He concluded by expressing the hope that the friendship now existing between the two battalions would be yet further increased and more firmly cemented.

In a brief reply Col. Bell neatly complimented Col. Ponton on the manner in which he and his men were entertaining the 57th and expressed the conviction that although many visits between the 57th and other battalions, yet the interchange of 1896 took precedence over any of those of previous in the pleasure derived from the trip.

During the course of the evening a splendid programme of vocal and instrumental music was rendered and an exceptionally good supper was served at the close. Special mention is deserved by the Belleville male double quartette for their several numbers which so greatly pleased the visiting officers to cause many of them to state that they would not mind coming all the way to Belleville at almost any time if they could have the privilege of again listening to such perfect harmony.

ON WEDNESDAY MORNING

the officers and men were invited to a baseball match which had been arranged between the Granites, of Kingston, and the Bellevilles, both semi-professional nines and a fine exhibition of ball playing was witnessed. The game stood 6 to 6 at the end of the seventh innings, but the Kingstons didn't think they were getting fairness from the umpire on a close decision and left the field, which gave the game to Belleville. Quoit pitching contests and heavy weight hammer throwing also took place.

In the afternoon the following grand programme was presented:

Parade of Royal Canadian Dragoons and visiting and city cavalcas through the principle streets of the city to the Agricultural Park at 1 p.m.

1. March past in quick time and at double, and general salute by all corps at 2 p.m.

The hundred yards foot race was won by Bugler H. C. King, of the 57th.

of the Royal Canadian Dragoons were greatly enjoyed by all, particularly by the militia. They are a fine-looking body of men and their neat uniforms and smart trappings are greatly admired. The horses are in excellent condition and and a fine lot of animals, especially Major Lessard's "Dodo."

The detachment consisted of the following men and horses:

Major Lessard in command, with celebrated charger "Dodo;" Regimental Sergeant-Major Dingley, horse No. 15; Sergeant Instructor James Page, horse No. 7; Squadron Sergeant-Major Stephen, horse No. 13; Sergeant Hunt, horse No. 5; Corporal Zetland, horse No. 32; Corporal Medburst, horse No. 19; Corporal Allen, horse No. 14; Corporal Male, horse No. 6; Private Lamothe, horse No. 31; Private Kinsley, horse No. 41; Private McCoy, horse No. 35; Private Skinner, horse No. 11; Private Finch, horse No. 38; Private McAdam, horse No. 30; Private Reading, horse No. 18; Trumpeter Evans, horse No. 30.

THE 57TH WAS COMPOSED as follows under Commanding Officer Lt.-Col. Bell, Major Edwards, Quartermaster Langford, Adjutant Mason:

Company A — Capt. Stevenson, Lt. Ames; Sgts. Rabey, Chevral, Reynolds and Webster; Corporals Campbell, Mitchell and Maitland.—Strength, 33.

Company B—Capt. Clegg: Lt. Cluxton, Lt. Bennett (attached); Sgts. Edwards, Bridgewater and Green; Corps. Langford, Wright and Langford.—Strength, 33.

Company C — Capt. Hill, (absent), Lt. Eastwood; Sgts. Gaskins, LeBar and Cox; Corp. Green.—Strength, 35.

Company D—Capt. Leah, Lt. McGill, Lt. Cockburn (attached); Sgts. Distin, Coveney and Smith. Corps. Jordon, Bell, Tremain and Evans.—Strength, 15.

Company E—Capt. Miller, Lt. Matthews, Lt. Hounsell; Sgts. Hounsell, Roberts and Murphy; Corps. Pratt and Anderson.—Strength, 35.

Company F—Capt. Hayes, Lt. Mills; Sergeants Bell, Green, Connors and Matthews; Corporals Blodgett, Evans and Bell. Strength 30.

Sergt.-Major Peters, Pioneer Corps, Sergt. Connal and 8 men.

Ambulance Corps, Sergt. Sharp, and 12 men.

Bugle Band, Bugle Major Sharp and 20 men.

Brass Band, Drum Major Pakenham and 30 men.

The men entrained at the camp grounds at about eleven o'clock and shortly after midnight the train pulled slowly out of Belleville for Peterborough amidst the heartiest cheers and after expressed wishes for another opportunity of meeting.

NOTES.

The buglers had a grand time of it at their supper. Speeches were made by J. Bedser, Corp. Stethem, Corp. Hammell, Andrews, R. Green, Sergt. Sharp and Bugle Major Pringle, of the 15th. The quartette singing of Messrs. Brown, Reynolds, King and Brown was greatly admired. The receipts beat the record.

Lt. Col. Bell was Brigadier of the day.

Honours lay even between Surgeon Halliday and Lt.-Col. Harry Rogers as to who was "General."

Lt.-Col. J. Z. Rogers also accompanied the Battalion to Belleville.

A good one is told on Major Langford. It seems he was taking a look through the tents to see that the men were comfortable when a raw recruit got his eye on him and taking him for a civilian, called out the guard to arrest the Quartermaster.

The cordial manner in which Chaplain MacLean, of the 15th, greeted his Peterborough friends was greatly appreciated.

A large number of Pictonians were up to renew acquaintances with the 57th.

Genial Major Fitz Horrigan, of the Picton regiment, was attached to the 15th for the occasion. The 57th recognized in him an old friend.

Mr. F. J. Taylor wheeled up from Deseronto to meet his old Peterborough friends.

The Peterborough press desires to most cordially thank the 15th for the many courtesies extended.

ENGLISH CHURCH ADVANCE.

A Series of Confirmation Services at Lakefield, Young's Point, Buckhorn and Peterborough — 125 Candidates Confirmed.

The ecclesiastical interests of the Church of England are extending in a most gratifying manner in Peterborough town and county and in a way to lend colour to the claim of this town being the See city of a new diocese. Within the past few days about 125 have been admitted to the full privileges of church membership through the solemn ordinance of confirmation.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday were busy days for His Lordship Bishop Sweetman. At Lakefield on Sunday he confirmed a class of 25 candidates. On Monday he confirmed the parish of Rev. F. H. Hartley, who is doing an excellent work in northern Peterborough. On this day twenty persons were confirmed at Young's Point. The following day was a red-letter day for Buckhorn. Although services have only been held here for six months, on Tuesday Rev. Mr. Hartley presented to the Bishop a class of 41 candidates for confirmation, only a few of whom were reared in the faith. A canvas church had been erected, consisting of a large tent for the congregation and a smaller one, by way of chancel, for the accommodation of bishop, clergy and choir. There were present, the Bishop and seven clergymen:—Rev. E. F. Hurtley, parish priest; Rev. Mr. Jupp, Apsley; Rev. Mr. Lord, Rev. W. L. Baynes Reed, Keene and Allandale; Rev. C. B. Kenrick, Port Hope, and Rev. E. V. Stephenson, St. John's. The choir of St. John's, to the number of about twenty-four—ladies, lads and gentlemen—were present to assist in the solemn ecclesiastical office. There was a large congregation present on the occasion, and by their excellent singing the choir added greatly to the interest of the occasion.

AT ST. JOHN'S.

On Tuesday evening confirmation services were held at St. John's. There was a large congregation present to assist in the solemn function. The altar and chancel were appropriately decorated with white lilies, the communion table being adorned with a beautiful cross composed of these fragrant flowers. The services began with the singing of the stirring processional hymn, "Brightly Gleams Our Banner," to which the procession entered the church from the schoolhouse. It consisted of the choir, led by Rev. E. V. Stephenson and the following clergy—Rev. C. B. Kenrick, Rev. W. L. Baynes Reid, Rev. Carl Smith, Rev. H. Symonds, Rev. J. C. Davidson, and the bishop and the candidates for confirmation to the number of thirty six, consisting largely of ladies. Among these were several from St. John's mission. The comparatively small number is due to the fact that the confirmation was an interimone, the regular confirmation services coming biennially.

Rev. H. Symonds sang the shortened form of Evening Prayer, Rev. Baynes Reed reading the lesson and Rev. C. B. Kenrick reciting the preface to the confirmation office. His Lordship, of course, laid his hands upon the candidates presented by the rector, Rev. J. C. Davidson. His Lordship prefaced the ceremony with a brief admonitory address, setting forth the significance of the ceremony, its apostolic origin, and its complementary relation to the baptismal vows taken by the candidates or in their behalf. The short address was earnest, simple and impressive. During the service appropriate hymns were sung, the inspiriting hymn, "Fight the Good Fight," being sung during the offertory.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine, the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whiteus, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

Fruit Jars.

China Hall has received a full carload, 1440 cases, of fruit jars. Do not buy a jar till you have seen their jars and got their price. Their jars are guaranteed not to crack in filling and will be replaced in case they do. Prices the lowest in town. See the "Beaver" or the "Bese" before buying the ordinary jar.

Genuine Bargains

For one week including Saturday, June 27th, A. Clegg will place in his show window each day some genuine bargains in useful and fine furniture. Look out for them.

It's Settled

Now that we have got through with the painters and paper hangers, we are ready to talk to you. IN THE FIRST PLACE WE WANT YOUR TRADE and in order to do so have thoroughly renovated our store, which is now the brightest and most enticing place in town. It will be a pleasure for you trade here and with good goods, courteous treatment and strict attention to the wants of our patrons, we hope to merit a share of your patronage.

TEAS AND COFFEES

are our hobby, and to this end we have engaged an experienced Tea and Coffee Blender to look after this department—doing our own blending, combining the different characters, and so obtaining the essentials to good Tea or Coffee, viz:—Strength, Flavour and Aroma. We can assure you a Tea or Coffee that will please you and give you something entirely different from the general run of Grocery stores. Be pleased to have you call and obtain samples.

The dream of Ponce de Leon was that he might discover the fountain of perpetual youth. He died searching for it. The fountain he was looking for was an impossibility, unnatural and chimerical. The nearest thing to the fountain of perpetual youth is a fountain of perpetual, perfect health. Health keeps people young. Sickness makes them old. Health means first of all, strength and regularity in the digestive functions. Put indigestible matter into the stomach and it is likely to find lodgment in the bowels. It will stop their action. Poisonous, refuse matter, which should have been thrown off, is retained in the body, and as it cannot go any place else, more or less of it gets into the blood. That's constipation. It is such a wonderfully simple thing that people do not regard it seriously. They let it run on, let it grow worse, become chronic, and show itself all over the body in fifty ways before they consider it important. Constipation causes nine-tenths of all human ailments. Its first symptoms do not seem very serious, but even they are very disagreeable. A few of them are sour stomach, flatulence, heartburn, distress after eating, foul breath, coated tongue, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sick and bilious headaches, general lassitude and debility. When any of these symptoms show themselves, you should immediately take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, according to directions. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, made on purpose to cure constipation. They do this perfectly and quickly, and they are the only preparation in the world that will do it. There are plenty of medicines that will give relief as long as you keep on taking them, but you can't stop. They don't cure; they give merely temporary relief. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets give immediate relief and produce a permanent cure.

A MISSING MESSENGER.

He Was Sent to Collect Ballot Boxes in Selkirk and Was Caught in a Storm on Lake Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Man., June 29.—(Special.)—The returning officer was to have officially declared the result of the election in Selkirk constituency to day, but was unable to do so. He sent a man to collect nine or ten ballot boxes at stations on the shores of Lake Winnipeg, and this man, with the boxes, is still somewhere on the lake and cannot be heard from. As there was a big storm on the lake yesterday, there are fears for his safety

SENATOR READ DEAD.

Heart Failure Was the Cause of the Death of the Representative of the Bay of Quinte District.

Ottawa, June 29.—(Special.)—Senator Robert Read of the Bay of Quinte district died here to night of heart disease in his 82nd year. He was taken ill about the close of the session. He suffered greatly, but passed away quietly At his bedside were his daughter, Miss Read, and his second wife, whom he married only two years ago, a Mrs. Wartman. The body will be sent to-morrow to Belleville for burial.

The deceased Senator was the eldest son of Robert Read, an extensive farmer in the County of Suffolk, England. There he was born in 1814. He came to Canada in 1836. He was for many years engaged in tanning, distilling and agricultural pursuits. He sat for Quinte division from October, 1862, till the Union, and represented East Hastings from Confederation till called to the Senate in 1871.

LOOKS BAD FOR WHEELER.

The Man Charged With Murdering Annie Kempton Offers No Evidence for His Defence. A Reserved Point.

Halifax, N.S., June 29.—The taking of evidence in the trial at Kentville of Peter Wheeler, charged with the murder of Annie Kempton, closed this evening. The prisoner's counsel announced that the defence would offer no evidence. Some of the evidence given to day for the prosecution was strong, but altogether circumstantial. When the examination of witnesses was concluded a question arose as to which side had the right to close. Wheeler's counsel contended that as there was no Attorney-General in Nova Scotia (Hon. J. W. Longley having resigned the week before the election and no successor being appointed), the other side had no right to make the final address to the jury. Judge Townsend reserved decision on the point until to morrow.

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 29.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says:—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

Far better than soap for the bath, more cleansing and refreshing to the skin, is the use of a muslin bag filled with the following ingredients: Two quarts of bran, one ounce of orris root, one ounce of almond meal and one small cake of castile soap, shaved in strips.

"To take him down a peg or two," recalls the Saxon tankards or wassail bowls, graduated by lines running around the interior. Small holes were made partly through the sides of the vessels, and in these were placed pegs to regulate the amount drank by each participant in the feast. To drink a greater portion than another was to take him down a peg.

CREDIT IN A FAMILY.

A UNIQUE SYSTEM OF MANAGING THE CHILDREN.

What the Family Dressmaker Saw in One Home—The Great Contrast It Furnished to Most Others That She Worked in From Time to Time.

My business takes me into all sorts of homes, for I go out sewing by the day, but if there is one place I steer clear of, if it is a moral possibility, it is the house where there are children. Ten to one I go home every night from one of these homes with a racking headache, a temper all kinks and snarls, and a heartfelt thanksgiving that I'm an old maid with one quiet corner away from the rest of the noisy world. Yesterday, however, I found a home where I wouldn't be unwilling to sew all a lifetime. When this woman came and asked me to work two weeks for her she explained that she had six children who needed clothing made. That made me gasp. I was sewing then at a house where two urchins made my life a misery.

But I hadn't many engagements ahead so—I went, and before I left at night, I was wishing that home was mine. Yet they're what some folks would call poor, for the mother has to do all the work with only a 14-year-old girl to help. She's a rare manager, a rare governor, and the sweetest, sunniest-tempered creature above earth. I'll just tell you some of the schemes she has to bring up her little ones the delight they are instead of a torment. She doesn't possess a switch, a strap or a ruler, and I don't believe any of these youngsters understand what a spanking means. Mother to them is the dearest, lovingest, kindliest soul, somebody they take care of and try to please in every way. There is only one parlor in the house, the dining room was once the kitchen, with a clean tidy kitchen made out in the shed, while the best room in the house, a room that every other woman would have converted into a parlor, isn't fixed up with hair wreaths, glass shades and haircloth furniture, but it is just the children's room. The sunshine comes pouring in there. A warm, bright rag carpet covers the floor, and there's a wide, springy lounge made from a cot-bed and blue denim, bright pictures on the walls, and toys of every sort, most of them homemade. One thing I noticed is a slate and pencil hung by the mantel, which the mother tells me is her right hand aid in training her children. There are six names on it, painted over debit and credit spaces, and here's how it works:

"Suppose," said the mother, "Margaret knows she has every morning to make her own bed and little Ellen's, and leave everything there quite tidy before going to school. If she does it without being reminded, she gets two credit marks; if she has to be told, she gets one; if told twice, none. For three reminders she gets a debtor mark. At the end of the week the children gather round as I make up the balance. Each credit mark means a cent, each debtor mark takes a cent off their account Ten demerit marks mean some sort of punishment—being left at home from a ride, a picnic or a trip into town, for each Saturday I give them a treat of some sort for the afternoon, and you ought to see how they dread a debtor mark. The credit system is enlarged in all sorts of ways, by extra work, something done unusually well, or for minding at the first telling. So they earn their own little stock of pennies, and then they think twice as much of it as if I gave it to them. I place no command on how it is to be spent, and it is never spent stealthily, for they know mother does not scold when Saturday night they tell her where it went. I buy foolish and extravagant things myself sometimes, and if Jennie confesses that all her 10 cents went on chewing gum I remember my pretty new feather boa or father's occasional box of cigars. Children are grown-up folks on a small scale."—Kate Kraemer, in Farm and Home.

ONE HONEST MAN

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply; P O. Box 388, London, Ont.

Nervous Prostration
Complete Recovery by the Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

INJURIOUS INSECTS.

Entomologist James Fletcher of Ottawa on the June Varieties.

The month of June is not only the season when all vegetation seems to make a sudden rush forward to maturity, but also the month when insects of all kinds are most noticeable. The fruit grower and farmer must be at work early and late if he would successfully prevent injury to his crops by his insect enemies. Fruit trees must be sprayed with Bordeaux mixture and Paris green if fungous diseases and leaf-eating insects are to be kept in check.

Early in June, in most parts of Canada, the young emerge from beneath the old scales of the oyster shell bark-louse of the apple, and this injurious pest can be easily destroyed at that time if the trees be thoroughly sprayed with a kerosene emulsion wash made by diluting the ordinary stock emulsion with nine parts of water.

Spraying fruit trees is now so generally practised by progressive fruit growers that it is unnecessary to devote much space to pointing out the benefits of this operation. It has been shown by many experiments the extraordinary advantage which follows the spraying of apple trees with Paris green, 1 lb., fresh lime, 1 lb., and water, 200 gallons, to prevent injury by the codling moth. This spraying must be done within a few days after the blossoms fall. The same mixture sprayed over plum and peach trees prevents to a large measure injury by the plum curculio. Another pest of the apple orchard, which may be successfully treated by spraying with Paris green in June, is the canker worm, the green or brown caterpillars of which sometimes strip whole orchards of almost every leaf, leaving the trees brown and sere as though scorched with fire.

The second brood of the imported currant worm appears during this month, and a close watch must be kept so as to treat the gooseberry and currant bushes with hellebore as soon as the caterpillars show themselves. For the first brood, which appears in May, Paris green may be used, but for the second brood, which comes when the fruit is almost full-grown, this poison is too dangerous, and hellebore must be used. This latter is a vegetable poison and soon loses its virulence when once wetted, either when applied in water or when moistened two or three times by the dew. The injury to currant bushes consequent on allowing them to be stripped of their leaves is not confined to the year when this injury is done, but bushes stripped one year only produce small and inferior fruit the following season.

In the vegetable garden the most troublesome June pests in all parts of the Dominion are certainly the many kinds of cutworms. These are dull-colored, smooth, greasy-looking caterpillars. The head is smooth and shining and sometimes of a different color from the rest of the body. They do their injuries at night time, and lie hid by day beneath the soil; frequently much harm has been done before their injuries were observed. When full-grown these caterpillars change to a chrysalis in the ground, and eventually issue as inconspicuously-colored active moths. The habits of most kinds of cutworms are probably as follows: The eggs are laid by the female moths in autumn or later summer, and the young caterpillars hatch and make part of their growth in the autumn. They pass the winter in a torpid condition, and are ready to attack any young vegetation as soon as it starts in spring. There are many kinds of cutworms, and these differ somewhat in their habits; but most of those which come prominently before the farmer and gardener come out from their hiding places by day and cut off young plants just at the surface of the ground, and then, burrowing a short distance into the soil, devour the cut-off plant at their leisure. There are two remedies which may be successfully used against those which work in this way. One is to wrap a piece of paper around the stem of young plants when putting them out in spring so as to leave a collar an inch above the ground when the plant is set. For tomatoes and cabbages old tomato cans with the tops and bottoms melted ot form a perfectly impenetrable barrier to all cutworms. The second plan referred to is known as "poison traps," and this plan is very popular with all who have tried it. It consists of tying up bundles of weeds, grass, clover or any other succulent vegetation, and, having dipped the bundles in a strong mixture of Paris green and water, placing them about at intervals on the infested ground. The cutworms are attracted to them to feed or for shelter, and large numbers are thus easily destroyed. A plan of a similar nature has lately been adopted with good results. It consists of mixing enough Paris green with bran to give it a greenish tinge and then moistening it with enough water to make it adhere slightly. A little of this mixture (about a teaspoonful) is put at short distances along rows of beets or other plants, and is claimed to be very attractive to all kinds of cutworms. It has been used at the base of orchard trees for climbing cutworms, as well as in gardens for the ordinary varieties.

There is a class of cutworms which have rather different habits from the above, because they spend the greater part of their time in the soil, feeding on the roots of grasses, and are sometimes very destructive to the small grains. One of these has attracted a great deal of attention lately in Western Ontario. Several correspondents have sent in the dirty white or greenish white caterpillars, with accounts of their serious injuries to fields of oats, barley and wheat. Last summer, too, wide spread complaint was made of their injuries to corn. These caterpillars are about 1 1-2 inches long, of a dirty white color, with chestnut colored heads. They are most destructive to crops grown on sod, because, the natural food being grasses, the eggs are laid by the female moths on the meadow grasses the previous year, where the young caterpillars will have a supply of food. Unfortunately, it is almost impossible to suggest any remedy short of plowing up the crop and sowing something else which can be put in later, such as Hungarian millet, buckwheat, or possibly late turnips. The moths from which the caterpillars which are doing so much harm this spring originated are beautifully marked creatures with soft tints of red and gray, which is well illustrated in the accompanying cut. They were so abundant last June and July that frequent letters of complaint were received. They swarmed into houses at night and made themselves obnoxious in many ways, getting into food and dirtying house linen and papers, flying into lamps, and giving great trouble to shop-keepers by requiring frequently to be swept out of the windows.—Dr. Fletcher, in the London Farmer's Advocate.

One of the best known residents of Tweed is Mr. W. H. Houston, who relates the following interesting facts. Mr. Houston says, "I have been very bad for several years with pains in my side and back.

"I had to urinate very frequently, in fact my rest was disturbed by frequent rising at night for that purpose. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, at Newton's drugstore, and have experienced great relief from the first.

Fashion Closely Followed.

A recent gown shows a novelty in revers, one being square and the other pointed. Both are edged with gold cord, and the waistcoat is closed with gold tassel buttons.

Lace and velvet combine to make the features of many summer gowns. Both bodices and wraps are elaborately trimmed with the former, and neckbands of velvet seem to be asserting themselves, in spite of their evident discomfort.

A temptingly cool gown is of lily leaf green batiste, covered with birds-eye spotted white net. The neck is cut a trifle low and outlined with a square of soft lace that terminates in two frills down the front.

Blue and amber are seen upon some recent importations, and make a charming as well as novel effect. A notable gown of this sort is made of crinkled silk gauze in a pale shade of amber and has epaulets and waistband of the velvet.

The black and white blouse is always chic. A peculiarly elegant one of the sort is made of pin-striped silk with insertions of Valenciennes lace running from the neck to the waist. Collar and cuffs are of black muslin edged with tiny frills of the lace.

THE CABINET VACANCY.

Opinions of the Press—Favourable to the Member for West Peterborough.

Below are further extracts from the press regarding the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, caused by the retirement of Sir Oliver Mowat.

Toronto News.

Failing the acceptance of a portfolio by Hon. Mr. Bronson, the vacant position in the Ontario Cabinet will probably be filled by the appointment of Mr. Stratton, of Peterborough. The only other claimant who has any prospects of being taken is E. J. Davis, of North York, who is an older man and lacks the vigour and ability of the energetic Peterborough representative. Both aspirants are men of some experience in the House, but the younger man is far the best qualified for the position.

One of the secrets of the success of Sir Oliver Mowat in Provincial affairs is that he has gathered about him the very best material that could be obtained for the Cabinet positions. If the new Premier follows in the footsteps of Sir Oliver he will see that in the present case the selection will be J. R. Stratton.

Toronto World, July 1st.

Sir Oliver Mowat left for Montreal yesterday to keep his tryst with Hon. Mr. Laurier. He was accompanied by his secretary, Mr. S. T. Bastedo, and will not return to Toronto for a day or two, and as the World stated yesterday, in case Sir Charles Tupper resigns promptly, Sir Oliver will give up the premiership of Ontario, and remain in the East until the new Liberal Administration is formed.

The report published by an evening paper yesterday that Speaker Balfour had been awarded the Ontario portfolio to be vacated when Sir Oliver goes out is unfounded. No appointment will be made until the Premier actually resigns, and then Mr. Hardy as Prime Minister will make it. Mr. J. R. Stratton will, moreover, likely be the new Minister. Dr. McKay of Ingersoll, is mentioned as a possible dark horse in the race, and his friends are said to be backing him strongly.

Catholic Register.

Speculation is busy with the selection of a new man for the Ontario Cabinet when the changes following upon Sir Oliver Mowat's resignation take place. There is every probability that Mr. J. R. Stratton, of Peterborough, will be the choice of the Government, as he undoubtedly is the favourite of the public for the position. Mr. Stratton is a man of much ability and great energy. He is so free from partisan and class prejudices as to stand well in the esteem of men of all shades of opinion. Men of this stamp are needed in the high places of political life in Ontario. We believe our readers would be glad to see Mr. Stratton's personal qualities as well as his political services recognised.

Have You Thought of It?

For four thousand years or more the world groaned, suffered and fumed about its corns, for there was no positive relief—no certain and painless corn cure until Dr. Scott Putnam gave to the world his great Corn Extractor. If there is suffering now it is the result of carelessness, for the remedy is at hand. Try Putnam's Corn Extractor. It is sure, painless and prompt. Beware of substitutes. N. C. Marie, 157; Thessalon, 133; Fort William, 107; Port Arthur, 82; on railway West Chapleau and East Port Arthur, 2; Murillo, 56. Majority for Dyment as far as heard from, 860.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—There was a large exodus of citizens to Stony Lake and Chemong yesterday.

—Mr. A. C. McCallum and Mr. A. F. Hoover, are building cottages on Stony Lake Islands near Burleigh.

—Fishing poles of all kinds, fishing tackle, tennis balls and tennis racquets, lacrosse and baseball goods, cheapest place in town, at Salisbury's Bookstore. d

—The Peterborough team finished third at the Quebec meet. Their splendid chances for first place were destroyed, says private despatch, by the bursting of Lytle's wheel.

—The fire brigade was called out this afternoon to subdue a fire that had broken out in the vacant lots on Charlotte street, west of Park. The fire has been smouldering in the turfy soil about a fortnight and has destroyed several nice trees.

—Yesterday a party of half a dozen ladies and gentlemen made a fishing journey to Sandy Lake. The take of the party was 56 fine fish, of which the ladies caught the larger share—and they probably caught more than fish, as the records of the marriage license department will show in due time.

WESTWOOD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The annual union church picnic took place last Friday afternoon in Sharpe's grove and was a decided success, there being a very large crowd and an enjoyable time. Mr. Andrew Cameron presided. The following were the speakers,—Mr. Thos. Blezard, M. P. P.; Rev. Somerville, Norwood; Rev. Liddy, Keene; Rev. McCamus, Norwood, and Mr. Jas. Robb, Stony Lake, and Mr. Jos. McNeill, Keene. Quite a list of athletic sports was run off and keenly contested. After tea was served the crowd repaired to the football grounds to see the match between Keene and Westwood, which was fast and interesting from the first and resulted in a tie—2—2. Mr. T. Walsh, Keene, acted as referee. Among the distant visitors to our picnic were—Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Learmouth, Peterborough; Mr. Jos. McNeil, Keene; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Robb, Stony Lake; Mr. and Miss K. Perney, Principal Public School, Norwood, and a great many others from neighbouring villages.

Rev. Mr. Liddy will lecture in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday evening, August 2nd.

ENNISMORE.

Local Litigation Amicably Settled.

A long pending litigation respecting the opening of a road across the 9th concession of Ennismore was settled on Monday. It has been a source of local irritation for over two years, and involved several parties. As Mr. County Magistrate Edmison, before whom informations were laid, was solicitor of one of the parties in one of the issues arising out of the trouble, he transferred the case to Police Magistrate Dumble. There were three informations laid. By mutual arrangement the dispute was settled and the hatchet was buried on the road in question, which is to be opened the full width, according to the survey made, all the parties agreeing.

OLD CHEESE IN ENGLAND.

At first sight it would appear, according to recent mail advice from England, that the market for old Canadian cheese had taken a decided turn for the better, an auction sale of old goods being held in London, about two weeks ago, at which surprisingly high prices were realized, viz. 41s to 45s for Canadian. This would appear somewhat puzzling to the trade here had no cables been received stating that it was supposed the cheese had been bought in by the owners. In this light only can we account for the dullness of the market here, the fact being that it is the surplus stock of old cheese in England that is depressing the market for new.—Montreal Cheese Bulletin.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

STRUCK DEAD WHILE CURSING.

A Man Who Won a Bet on the Weather Killed by Lightning.

Paris, Texas, July 1.—An Arkansas man named Charles Ward, who had been working near Pecan Gap, in this State, was killed Saturday night in a way which leads church people here to call it an interposition by Providence.

There was a protracted meeting at Ladena the previous night, and Ward, who is said to have been a bad man of the worst type, was in attendance. Several of his friends urged him to the mourners' bench to be prayed for, but to no purpose. He treated the invitation lightly, and after service made a wager that it would rain in less than 24 hours.

Next evening Ward and three other farm hands were engaged in the field when the rain began to fall, and he began to rejoice, and with a volley of oaths announced that he had won his bet. Scarcely had Ward got the last oath out of his mouth before he was struck by a bolt of lightning and instantly killed.

Insanity a Ground for Divorce.

Berlin, July 1.—The Government's civil code bill passed its third reading in the Reichstag to-day. The Reichstag restored the paragraph making incurable insanity a valid ground for divorce, which was eliminated from the bill in the course of the discussion preliminary to the second reading of the measure.

Thirty-Two Miles an Hour.

Washington, July 1.—The private steam yacht Rex, which is claimed to be the fastest of her class in Atlantic waters, raced against time Tuesday and Wednesday on the Potomac. Her course was a measured nautical mile, and her best time for that distance was 2 min. and 10 sec. This latter trial was at the rate of 26½ nautical miles per hour, or 32 statute miles, the average speed of a passenger train.

Death of C. P. Payzant.

Halifax, July 1.—Godfrey P. Payzant, president of the Commercial Bank of Windsor, died to-day after a short illness. He was 84 years old, and was considered one of the wealthiest men in Nova Scotia.

THE COMING CABINET

Any Amount of Timber of the Best Sort AT THE DISPOSAL OF MR. LAURIER

Names of Some of the Probable Members of the New Administration—Lord Aberdeen Returns to Ottawa and Has a Conference With Sir Charles Tupper.

Montreal, June 2.—A general exodus of the Liberal members who have made the Windsor Hotel their headquarters during the past few days, gives an air of probability to the report that Mr. Laurier has completed his Cabinet and is now ready for the Governor-General's summons. What the names of the new Ministers are, of course, cannot be made known until they have been submitted to His Excellency and received his approval. It is safe to say, however, that it will be the strongest Cabinet that Canada has seen for many a long day. Among those from Ontario who have been in consultation with Mr. Laurier, and to whom rumor, therefore, assigns Cabinet positions, are Sir Oliver Mowat, who went west last night; Sir Richard Cartwright, who has been in town for some days, and who went west to-night; Hon. David Mills, Mr. William Paterson, Mr. J. D. Edgar, M.P., Mr. William Mulock, M.P., who arrived this morning and returned to-night. Premier Blair of New Brunswick and Hon. L.H. Davies left for the east to-night, but Premier Fielding is still here. It is said that all three will be in the Administration. Mr. J. Israel Tarte and Mr. Sidney Fisher, M. P., are mentioned as likely to be called from Quebec. Mr. C. A. Geoffrion, M.P., is a man whom every Montrealer would like to see in the Cabinet, but it is said he objects to giving up his fine law practice. Senator Pelletier, Mr. P. A. Choquette, M.P., Mr. F. Langelier, M. P., and Mr. C. R. Devlin, M.P., and others are mentioned as probabilities. The fact is that here, as in other provinces, Mr. Laurier's difficulty is an embarrassment of riches.

AT RIDEAU HALL.

Sir Charles Tupper Has a Conference With the Governor-General.

Ottawa, July 2.—His Excellency the Governor-General arrived at noon to-day and Sir Charles Tupper went down to Rideau Hall in the afternoon and had an interview, the first since the defeat of the Government on June 23. The impression still prevails that the resignation of the Ministry will not be delayed beyond Saturday. This will certainly be the limit if His Excellency puts his veto on the making of unnecessary appointments. If not, the Government would doubtless be encouraged to go on until nearly all the Government supporters in the country were in offices. Mr. George Moyer, who has been Dr. Montague's campaign assistant and helper to Mr. Robert Birmingham, has been appointed Indian agent at the Soo in place of Mr. Van Abbott, superannuated. The creation of vacancies now by superannuation is a thing entirely beyond the right of the retiring Ministry, and Lord Aberdeen may call their attention to this fact. Mr. Hughes, whose appointment on the Soo Canal staff was urged upon Mr. Haggart last year and refused by that gentleman in language more vigorous than polite, has now received the appointment, Mr. Haggart not caring apparently about the matter any longer. Most of the appointments made in council have been kept quiet until it is seen whether His Excellency will sanction them, but half a dozen have leaked out. There are dozens of others not yet announced. Mr. T. M. Daly is pressing for a judgship. He is still in England.

Among the arrivals in town to-day were Rev. Mr. Boville of Hamilton, defeated candidate; Mr. Monk, Conservative member for Jacques Cartier; and Dr. Reid, who has been re-elected in South Grenville, but about the validity of whose return there is serious doubt, which will be tested in the courts.

SIR OLIVER HOME AGAIN.

The Ontario Premier Meets His Colleagues and They Discuss Matters Both Federal and Local.

Toronto, July 3.

Sir Oliver Mowat and his secretary, Mr. Bastedo, returned from Montreal yesterday, and the Premier began forthwith to "rid up" his department, as a housewife would say, preparatory to moving out. Mr. Bastedo interviewed Housekeeper O'Brien of the Parliament Buildings and had him set apart an extra store room for the deposit of the large quantity of correspondence, letter files and state papers generally that have accumulated during Sir Oliver's occupancy of the double office of Prime Minister and Attorney-General.

The Premier has come back in good spirits from his meeting with Mr. Laurier at Montreal, and the inference is that his advice to the Liberal leader in the matter of Cabinet prospecting proved of efficient service. Sir Oliver's aid was especially required in the work of selecting the Ontario representatives in the coming administration.

The Prime Minister yesterday summoned his colleagues to meet him in council in the afternoon, and during a two hours' session of the Cabinet the situation of affairs in Ottawa and at home was discussed. Sir Oliver intimated that he would hold onto the Premiership until Sir Charles Tupper resigned, and the changes to occur in the Ontario Cabinet thereafter were discussed in a desultory manner, but no decision was come to, either as to which department should be vacated or as to who should be selected to fill it, whether Mr. Balfour or Mr. Davis or Mr. Stratton.

THIS IS VERY SAD.

Mr. Peter McRae, His Wife and Little Son Drowned at Aylmer Que., by the Capsizing of Their Boat.

Almer, Que., July 2.—Another drowning accident happened on the Aylmer Lake this evening. While Mr. Peter McRae, his wife and son, and Mr. F. H. Mercer of the Post Office Department, all of Ottawa, were out in a sail boat, a squall came on, capsizing the boat, when Mr. and Mrs McRae and their little son, aged 10, were drowned. Mr. Mercer being the only one saved. The bodies had not been recovered up to 10.20 last night

FARMER WESTGATE FOUND DEAD.

Supposed He was Struck by a Train—Ten-Year-Old Boy Killed Young Man Shot Himself.

Whitby, July 2.—Harry Westgate, a well known farmer in Pickering Township, and late first deputy reeve of that municipality, was found dead on the Grand Trunk Railway track early this morning not far from where the sideline leading to his home crosses the railway, a half-mile east of the road to Liverpool harbor. It is supposed he was struck by a passing train while driving home late last night.

Killed by a Train.

North Buxton, Ont., July 2.—At 5 o'clock this morning a westbound passenger train on the Michigan Central struck and instantly killed 10 year-old David McCarthy. The boy, who had just got out of bed, wandered over to the track, started to cross in front of the train and was caught.

Shot and Instantly Killed.

Perth, Ont., July 2.—Samuel Wrathall, a young man about 20 years old, clerk in Hart's book store, accidentally shot himself while out shooting with another young man. He was in the act of standing two small rifles together when one of them fell, causing the other to be discharged, the ball entering the nose to the brain, killing him instantly.

WARREN MURDERED HIS WIFE.

Slashed Her Horribly with a Razor and Nearly Severed Her Head from the Body—Then Suicided.

Winnipeg, July 2.—(Special.)—The coroner to-night held an inquest on the bodies of William Warren and Elizabeth, his wife. The evidence showed that last night Warren had been drinking, and his wife was so much afraid of him that she spent the night in the streets. About 5 o'clock this morning she went to a neighbor's house and borrowed some milk with which to feed the baby. She entered her home. It seems that Warren at once attacked her with a razor. She fought desperately for her life, but when she fell exhausted from loss of blood, the man sawed away at her neck until he nearly severed her head from her body. Then, covered with blood, he stood before a mirror and gashed his own throat so desperately that he died in 20 minutes.

The interior of Warren's residence was a fearful sight, carpets, furniture, curtains and bric-a-brac being spattered with blood.

WILL HAVE TO PAY

For Arresting Harrison's Surveying Party.

VENEZUELA WAS IN THE WRONG

Great Britain Will No Doubt Demand a Money Indemnity and an Apology—The Officer Who Made the Arrest Must be Punished as Well.

Washington, D.C., July 1.—State Department officials do not conceal a certain irritation in discussing the latest phase of the Venezuelan boundary dispute with Great Britain, growing out of the recent arrest of Mr. Harrison's engineering party by the Venezuelan troops. The department has been fully informed from sources whose correctness are beyond question, that the arrest of the English engineers was without justification, inasmuch as they were strictly within the limits of the territory of which the British have held possession for more than ten years. Advices received to-day state that the arrest occurred at the confluence of the Acrabisi River, at a point east of the Schomburg line. That the engineers were promptly released is a circumstance which is not sufficiently satisfying to the British Foreign Office, if its sentiment be properly reflected in the London press. The English Government will demand an apology and a money indemnity before the incident shall be regarded as closed. Coming, as it does at a time when the Uruan difficulty of a year ago was in a fair way of settlement, it complicates the situation and will undoubtedly delay that harmonious adjustment of relations between Venezuela and Great Britain, which is considered a necessary precedent of the boundary dispute. The Venezuelan legation is without later advices from Caracas than those printed in these dispatches several days since, but the State Department has used the cables freely in communication with the United States Minister at the Venezuelan capital, and it is not doubted that the embarrassments which this country must suffer in connection with the matter, have been made clearly apparent to President Crespo.

The Venezuelan Government has been flatly informed that Great Britain will not be satisfied with the payment of a small sum of money as compensation for the arrest of Sergt. Barnes and several of his subordinates a year ago, which has now become a part of the diplomatic history of the two countries, and known as the "Uruan incident." President Crespo has been informed that the punishment of the commander of the department in which the arrest occurred and the payment of the indemnity must be followed also by an apology, which must go farther than all other considerations combined. The Venezuelan contention is that an apology would be tantamount to an acknowledgement of Great Britain's ownership of the territory in question, notwithstanding it was east of the Schomburgk line. To this the British reply that if the Venezuelans did not know they were in the wrong they would have given Lord Salisbury no satisfaction whatever. In other words, if Venezuela is willing to punish the officer responsible for the arrest and pay the British subjects an indemnity for the indignity imposed upon them, it is proper that they should make a complete reparation, which would include an apology also. It is Venezuela's refusal to make this apology that has lengthened the delay in closing the incident.

CHEERS IN THE REICHSTAG.

The German Emperor Seems to be Very Popular—The Oleomargarine Bill.

Berlin, July 2.—The Reichstag to day passed the Oleomargarine Bill through the second and third readings. The bill was opposed by the Government.

The Imperial Chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, then read a message from the Emperor warmly thanking the Reichstag for its diligence and devotion to the arduous task of finishing the civil code measure and adjourning Parliament until Nov. 10.

Baron Von Buol Berenberg, President of the Reichstag, replied on behalf of the Chamber, returning thanks to His Majesty for his message, and concluded by calling for cheers for the Kaiser. The call was responded to with great enthusiasm, every member rising to his feet and cheering, except Herr Schmidt, Socialist, who remained silent. Schmidt was the only Socialist member present.

MASSACRING THE WHITES.

A Startling Story Cabled to a New York Paper About the Matabele.

New York, July 2.—The World publishes the following special from Cape Town, S.A., this morning: Massacres of white people in Matabeleland continue. Powerful chiefs are joining the insurgents. An attack on Buluwayo is expected the next new moon, July 10. The supply of provisions there is short. The Mounted Infantry of the Colonial Volunteers has left here for Matabeleland. Premier Sprigg predicts a rising of natives in the colony.

CAN LEPROSY BE CURED?

A Parisian Scientist Makes Some Wonderful Discoveries—A Hundred Lepers in Paris.

New York, July 2.—A London special to The Sun says: The discovery recently of a leper wandering homeless in the streets of Paris has been followed by the announcement that fully a hundred sufferers from the loathsome disease are at large among the poor of the French capital. Coupled with this news comes the somewhat reassuring statement to the Academy of Science, by Dr. Bouffe, that he has succeeded in curing severe cases of leprosy. He had been struck with the results obtained by the aid of graduated organic injections in cases of eczema and psoriasis. The doctor sought to "modify the condition of the nervous system by strengthening without exciting it, and soon noted the correctness of his conception. He also studied by means of a new technical process the constitution of the blood of leprous patients, and succeeded in demonstrating the presence of bacillus of leprosy, which had never before been discovered elsewhere than in leprous tubercles.

It Will Be No Trouble

TO HEAT YOUR HOUSE THIS WINTER IF YOU PUT IN A

PRESTON Hot Air or Hot Water FURNACE

PUT IT IN NOW—THIS SUMMER.

1st.—For a use these Furnaces combine all the Requisites for maintaining a Warm, Balmy, Spring Atmosphere throughout the Building, regardless of the severity of the winter weather outside.

2nd—Not only this—but we know of many instances where these furnaces are Comfortably Heating ENTIRE DWELLINGS with THE SAME QUANTITY OF FUEL that was previously used to Improperly Heat ONE ROOM WITH A STOVE.

3rd—Not only this—But the necessary Furnace and Attachments cost VERY LITTLE MORE than to provide stoves for the different rooms to be heated, while THE COST OF FUEL IS LARGELY DIMINISHED.

Pleasant Home

FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1896.

INCREASING SOBRIETY.

There has been no little criticism of the liquor license system of Ontario, as to its alleged political character. This has been founded largely upon surmise—but it cannot be denied the system in Ontario has been productive of a diminution of drunkenness. We all know that there has been a decrease of the number of licenses and our statistics show a marked decrease of drunkenness as shown by convictions for this offence. In this respect Ontario leads all the Provinces.

Ranged according to position with respect to sobriety, as tested by convictions, the Canadian provinces stand thus : Ontario, Prince Edward Island, the Territories, Nova Scotia, Quebec, Manitoba, New Brunswick and British Columbia.

The commissioners appointed to investigate the liquor traffic say :—

"The convictions for drunkenness and offences against the liquor laws, taking the whole Dominion, reached the highest point in 1888, since which date there has been a gradual reduction in the total of the combined offences. The Scott act ceased to be in force in ten counties in 1893 and in nineteen counties in 1894, in which it had been previously adopted, and the Dunkin act was put in force in one county, viz., Richmond, Quebec, in 1895.

"The convictions for drunkenness, taken separately, continued to increase from 1886 to 1890, when they reached the highest figure shown in the returns. From this date there has been a steady reduction, the ratio per 1,000 of the population being smaller in 1894 than in any year subsequent to 1891. The percentage of convictions for drunkenness to the total convictions was less in 1895 than in any year subsequent to 1890."

The more recent years, 1893 and 1894, indicate a continued improvement, especially 1894, when one in every group of 433 persons throughout the Dominion one was convicted of drunkenness as against one in every group of 341 persons in 1890.

The following table, which shows the convictions for drunkenness by provinces in 1894 and 1894, will be read with interest:

Provinces.	1893.	1894.
Ontario	4,694	3,967
Quebec	1,621	4,372
Nova Scotia	991	1,256
New Brunswick	1,635	1,227
Manitoba	1,035	855
British Columbia	225	371
Prince Edward Island	214	174
The Territories	24	24
Total	9,877	11,566

It is pretty safe to assume in addition to the reason given that the decrease in drunkenness is due to the improved public sentiment that now prevails with regard to the liquor traffic, and the very general disfavour with which the use of intoxicating liquors is regarded. The greatest decrease in the number of convictions is in the province of Ontario, where the campaign for temperance and morality has been the strongest, while in Quebec, where old customs are still honoured, there has been a steady and most lamentable increase going on in all the years since 1884.

THE WORK OF FIVE YEARS.

The general election of 1891, after the bye-elections resultant upon the unseating of a large number of candidates for violations of the law, resulted thus: Conservatives—Ontario, 60; Quebec, 34; Nova Scotia, 16; New Brunswick, 15; Prince Edward Island, 2; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6 again; Northwest Territories, 4. Liberals—Ontario, 38; Quebec, 31; Nova Scotia, 5; New Brunswick, 1; Prince Edward Island, 4; Manitoba, 1; British Columbia, 0; Northwest Territories, 0; total, Conservatives 141, Liberals 74, a Conservative majority of 67. These figures will enable the reader to realise how thorough has been the revulsion throughout the country of feeling against the Conservatives during the last five years, as shown by the reduction of the Conservative majority of 67 in 1891 to a minority of 24 in 1896.

THE Montreal Star's name should be changed to Comet, on account of the wobble of its political axis.

A PRESBYTERIAN minister writes the Globe :—"For Wilfrid Laurier, may I say, I pray. He has the opportunity of the day. The idol of the French-Canadian heart, he can do more to put down the accursed race and creed bitterness than any one man, and I believe he will do it."

THE Montreal Star is clamouring for a definite statement of Mr. Laurier's tariff policy. If the Star is really anxious, it should get Sir Charles Tupper to retire from the position he has usurped and still holds contrary to the expressed wish of the people. Mr. Laurier will speak as soon as he can "speak as one having authority," and not as the scribes—especially the scribes of the wobbling Star.

OTTAWA dispatches state that Mr. Jas. Stevenson is at the Capital looking after a Senatorship. Much as we should like to see a Senator from this district we are afraid that Mr. Stevenson is a little late. Sir Charles Tupper is not in a position to deliver the goods he promised as the price of Mr. Stevenson's retirement from the candidature of West Peterborough. Mr. Stevenson has been long enough in the ranks of Conservative politicians at Ottawa to know that it is not safe to put trust in premiers, especially those of the unreliable stamp of Sir Charles Tupper. He should have adopted the newspaper principle of pay in advance if he wished to realize on the promises of Sir Charles Tupper.

LORD DUFFERIN is bidding farewell to British official life. He certainly has had his fair share of honours, as the following list compiled by a contemporary will show :—A lord-in-waiting, Under Secretary of State of India, Under Secretary of State of War, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, Paymaster General, on a special mission to Egypt, Governor-General of Canada, Ambassador at St. Petersburg, Ambassador at Constantinople, Viceroy of India, Ambassador at Rome, and Ambassador at Paris. Nor have other honors been wanting. Lord Dafferin is a K.P., G.C.B., G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., G.C.M.G., P.C., D.C.L., LL.D. and F.R.S. His Lordship has also been Chancellor of the Royal University of Ireland, Lord Rector of St. Andrew's University, and Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Constable of Dover. And Canadians are disposed to think he has had no more than his deserts.

THE question is being asked why it was that the election for Algoma did not take place on the 23rd ult., the same as in the cases of Chicoutimi and Saguenay or Yale and Cariboo, which are said to be even more difficult of access than Algoma. We have, says the Globe, looked up the law on the subject and find no reason whatever for any delay, on the contrary, we are of the opinion, that, had the law governing the election in that district been strictly adhered to, it should have taken place before the 23rd of June last. And why was this? Can it be that the office of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery has again been forced to do party duty? The matter should receive the immediate attention of the new administration, and once for all civil servants should be made to understand, by making an example of the guilty party in this instance, that an order, even from a Minister of the Crown, is no excuse for a public servant to act unlawfully.

McKINLEY'S PROTECTION.

It is observed by a New York paper that the Republican agitators will soon begin to promise the workingmen a re-enactment of the McKinley Bill and a revival of the "prosperity" which they enjoyed under that measure. According to some reports the professional protectionist stumpers and newspapers have already entered on thbir campaign. Even in Canada the high protectionist organs have found it necessary to refer to the public clamor for "McKinley and prosperity" on the other side of the line, naturally ignoring the main issue, the currency question, which is probably the one thing that will establish "Silent William" at Washington.

The kind of prosperity that the McKinley Bill gave the workingmen is discussed in a recent report of the Commissioner of Labour on strikes and lockouts. It shows the results for the two years before and the two years after the enactment of the McKinley Bill :

BEFORE M'KINLEY BILL.

Year.	No. of Strikes.	Strikers.
1888	3,903	147,704
1889	3,788	249,469
Totals	7,292	397,203

DURING M'KINLEY BILL.

Year.	No. of Strikes.	Strikers.
1891	8,116	298,989
1892	5,540	206,671
Totals	13,656	505,610

It is pointed out that the loss of wages to strikers during the two years before the bill went into effect was $16,787,435 ; and during the two years afterwards $25,574,127.

It will be its sound currency platform that will place the Republican party at the top of the polls at the next election, and the victory will not be the fault of Mr. William McKinley.

It is in the Nature of Things

That, as age advances with concomitants of wear and tear, some parts of the delicate machinery of the body, upon which health and vigor depend, should suffer derangement. Feelings of weariness, listlessness or despondency are the signals that nature throws out to warn, and woe to him who neglects these warnings, for severe are the penalties she exacts. To quicken into new vigor the failing energies ; to impart, with certainty, tone to the nervous system, these are the special tendencies of the wonderful tonic and nutrient, Maltine with Coca Wine. It gives strength to the nervous system, and is thus a "nerve restorer ;" it increases nutrition, and is therefore, a "body-builder." Maltine with Coca Wine, by its power to add to nerve force and to increase weight, will be found by the debilitated and weak a veritable "life-giver." Maltine with Coca Wine is not a patent medicine. Its composition may be known to you, as it has long been known and subscribed to by the medical profession. Sold by all druggists.

ANOTHER MAN SHOT DEAD

Further Bloodshed Marks the Strike Trouble in Cleveland—Military Called Out.

Cleveland, July 2.—Bloodshed again marked the trouble at the Brown hoisting works this afternoon. William Rettger was shot dead by a non-union man who had attempted to leave the works on his bicycle, and was attacked by a portion of the mob. The police managed to rescue him, but had great difficulty in preventing the lynching of their prisoner. Finally a call for troops was made, and two of the four companies under arms were hurried to the scene.

There was a lively battle between the police and mob, and about 50 people were injured more or less severely. There were about 10,000 in the mob, many of whom were women and children.

LI HUNG CHANG'S TRAVELS.

The Illustrious Chinaman will Probably Visit the Falls and Toronto.

Washington, July 2.—It was said at the State Department yesterday that Li Hung Chang, the great Chinese statesman, who is now on a visit to European countries, will defer his tour to the United States until the autumn. He is now in Germany, and will shortly leave there for England and France. It is expected that he will remain longer in Europe than he originally anticipated, owing to the absence of President Cleveland from the seat of government. He has a letter from the Emperor of China to the President, which he desires to present in person.

The Chinese Minister was at the State Department to-day, making enquiry as to the time the President would probably return from his summer vacation. He stated that Li Hung Chang would probably arrive in the United States some time in September, and that he will probably remain in this country a month or more. State Department authorities are discussing a plan for the entertainment of the distinguished visitor. As Congress makes no provision for such purposes, the department may find itself embarrassed in its desires to extend the courtesies due to the rank and station of the Envoy. It is hoped that the State Governments will assist in the entertainment of this distinguished visitor.

It is expected that the Chinese statesman will also visit Niagara Falls and Toronto.

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 29.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says :—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

Closing Events of the Wheelmen's Gathering.

DAVIDSON BOYS TAKE FIVE RACES

Angus McLeod Was Only Able to Finish Third—Axton, Loughead and Parr Win Handicaps—Montreal Takes the Two Mile Tandem Championship—Blayney Fined.

Quebec, July 2.—This staid old city has never p rhaps seen so much fun and excitement as caused in the last two days by the visiting wheelmen. To the Western contingent is due the success of the meet. Though few in number, the men of the occident are keeping things going at a lively rate. The weather to-day was fair until late in the afternoon, when a terrific wind storm broke over the city, enveloping everything in clouds of dust and making pr gress through the streets awheel or afoot very difficult. In the harbor the storm was a magnificent spectacle. The hurricane raised great waterspouts, which, fortunately, did no damage. Rain fell heavily all evening. Some of the visiting cyclists have already left for home. This evening the Wanderers' band gave a concert in the Victoria Hotel and kept the fun going until an early hour.

The second day's racing was very Davidsonian in complexion. Of the nine events on the card, three were won by Harley of that ilk, while his brother Joan of the Toronto Wanderers scored first in two more.

The crowd on the grounds numbered a thousand and was apparently satisfied with the sport. The time was again slow, and there were many falls, some through careless riding, others owing to the faulty track.

Mile handicap, amateur—First heat—A. A. Smeed, Montreal (50 yards); W. S. Mitchell, Montreal (60 yards); L. J. Cameron, Montreal (30 yards); W. G. Wakes, Peterboro (50 yards); P. Thomson, Woodstock (35 yards), and W. Tuff, Montreal (scratch.) Riding in that order they qualified for the final, in which they met those men who qualified in the second heat: A. J. Parr, Ottawa (75 yards); W. Thibault, Montreal (75 yards); W. Eaves, Montreal (60 yards), A. McEachren, Tourists, Toronto (60 yards); H. G. Boomer, Wanderers, Toronto (55 yards.) In the final heat, Parr won from Beemer after a hard ride; McEachren was third and Eaves got fourth prize. Time 2.

The half-mile professional was a good race between the cracks. Harley Davidson was in great form and took the first heat from Cecil Elliott and Fred Loughead. Angus McLeod and his team mate, William McIntosh, ran away from Fred Young in the second. While the others were working against the wind on the last lap of the final, Davidson sprinted like light l g around the bunch and won from Loughead, who came with marvellous speed from the rear and beat McLeod on the tape. Time 1.11.

There were many aspirants for the mile amateur championship. In the first heat W. Coussant, Montreal, and J. Davidson, Wanderers, Toronto, ran first and second, and A. W. Stackhouse, Ottawa, qualified for pacing. F. A. Moore, Toronto, won the second heat, in which H. Hulse, Toronto; J. B. Shillinglaw, Sarnia, and R. E. Axton, Brantford, qualified. J. Davidson outgeneraled Coussant in the final, and sprinting at the right moment, won by a wheel from the Montrealer. Axton was third. Time 2.31.4 5.

Harley Davidson's wonderful sprint won the five mile professional championship for him. There was but one heat, and the men went round in line until the bell lap, when, as they bunched for the sprint, Davidson got away, winning by a wheel from Fred Loughead, who again beat Angus McLeod by an inch for second honors. Time 13.23.

The other starters were R. E. McCall, J. Gratz, A. C. Young and F.W. Young.

There was a big field in the open half mile amateur. In the first heat R. O. Blayney, Simcoe, was first, W. Tuff, Montreal, second, and J. Davidson, Wanderers, third, just ahead of Beemer, Wanderers. Drury, Montreal, won the second, Hulse, Toronto, second, and Graves St. Catharines third. Davidson seemed to have borrowed his brother's sprint, and won the final with ease. Blayney was second and Tuff third. Time 1.14 4-5. Drury and Graves fell. For looking behind him in the race Blayney was suspended for 20 days.

The mile open for professionals was a good race, but Harley Davidson and his spurt were too much for the others. McIntosh was second, just beating out Loughead, who came from a pocket in the rear with a terrible rush, and passed Cecil Elliott. Time 2.46 1-5.

Lou Robertson figured in the amateur tandem championship race, and with his club mate, Coussant of the Montreals, won in a good sprint from Hulse and Moore of the Torontos. Philips and Little of Peterboro were the other starters. The time was 5.21, but a question was raised as to the distance, a claim being made that only seven laps were covered.

Loughead had an easy task in the mile professional handicap. Davidson started with him on scratch, but slipped a pedal and Fred mowed down all his men in two laps, winning as he pleased. Fred Young, 80 yards, took second place; Elliott, 30 yards, was third, and Cooper, 40 yards, fourth Time 2.38 1-5.

Ju Davidson's many races told against him in the mile open, and Axton, Brantford, w Blayney Simcoe, second, and Cameron, Montreal, third, an inch ahead of Herb Cassidy. Time 2.31 2-5.

George H. Orr of Toronto was referee, H. B. Donley of Simcoe starter, E. B. Ryckman of Toronto was one of the many judges. A. O. Hurst was timer, assisted by J. D. Bailey and Dr. Doolittle, also of Toronto. The championship banners, two of which will hang in the W.B.C. parlors, are handsome and expensive affairs of blue and white, with gold bullion lettering.

The climbing contest took place in the morning on Mountain Hill. O. Devarennes won, Lachance was second and F. S. Stocking third. Laliberte, winner of the race last year, claimed a foul, the crowd on the hill being so thick as to compel him to dismount.

In the cake walk, Collie Ross and Vic Gianelli of the Wanderers had an easy victory, and will wear gold medals when they return to Toronto.

House of Bishops Summoned.

Winnipeg, July 2.—(Special)—The Archbishop of Rupert's Land has summoned the House of Bishops to meet at Regina, Aug. 11, for the purpose of electing a bishop for the vacant Diocese of Qu'Appelle. Under the new constitution the House of Bishops selects and the House of Delegates assents.

A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many year's study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless article.

THE C.P.R. GOES IN.

President Van Horne Decides to Join the Joint Traffic Association if the Board Agrees.

New York, July 2.—The Canadian Pacific Railway is to become a member of the Joint Traffic Association and is to have a representative on the Board of Managers. This decision was reached at a conference this afternoon between Sir William Van Horne, the President, and T. G. Shaughnessy, the Vice President of the C.P.R., and the special committee representing the Joint Traffic Association, composed of E. B. Thomas, President of the Erie Railroad; M. E. Ingalls, President of the Chesapeake & Ohio, and the Big Four Railroads, and Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, President of the G.T.R. of Canada. All that remains is for the Board of Directors of the C.P.R. to approve the action of the President and Vice President.

The Board of Managers of the Joint Traffic Association has ordered that the payment of freight commissions to steamship companies shall be discontinued after Sept. 1, and that beginning with that date the number of import agents shall be limited to one for each railroad at each Atlantic port. On and after that date commissions may be paid to such agents, but to no other, not exceeding 15 per cent on the first three classes and 10 per cent. on the three lower classes of the charges within the Joint Traffic Association territory. No commissions whatever are to be paid on green fruits. No part of the commission is to be given to shippers or consignees or to be used in any way to influence the routing or freight.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, wornout feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

IN THE MIDDLE OF THE ROAD

Is Where the Populists of Chicago Intend to Travel Just Now.

Chicago, July 2.—Dr. H. S. Taylor, the Populist leader, of Chicago, and Tillingers, National Committeemen, made the declaration yesterday that the National Convention of his party in St. Louis would, under no consideration, endorse Bland, Bois, or any other Democrat for President. "We will keep in the middle of the road in naming our candidate," he said. "Any man the Democrats may name who has always belonged to that party will not be supported by us. Teller is the only man we will endorse. In the western states there is no Democratic party now."

"One of my sick headaches," you will hear people frequently say, as if the complaint was hopelessly incurable. As a matter of fact, Ayer's Pills not only relieve sick headache but effectually remove the cause of this distressing complaint and so bring about a permanent cure.

Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

His Face was a mass of Blotches.

But now his skin is clear as a year old babe's.

Scott's Sarsaparilla his Salvation.

Nothing blights existence like the knowledge that our appearance is repellant to those with whom we come in contact, nor is there any relief like that of feeling that the disfiguring causes have been removed. Says Mr. William Alger: My face on one side was a mass of blotches, some of which were constantly full of matter. I run a bake shop doing my own work, but my face got so bad that customers drifted away. Then I hired a man and went to a doctor. He said my blood was in a horrible condition. I sold my business and moved to the city where Scott's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me. The first bottle did me much good, and after taking five bottles my skin is as clear as possible, and not a sign of my previous disfigurement. I say Scott's Sarsaparilla is the best blood medicine going and am speaking from experience.

Pimples, blotches, boils, ulcers and all diseases arising from vital exhaustion and impure blood are radically cured by Scott's Sarsaparilla, a concentrated compound of the finest medicines ever known. Your druggist has it at $1. But get Scott's. The kind that cures.

MURDER AND OUTRAGE.

Russian Soldiers Committing Depredations Against Jews in Kieff.

London, July 2.—The Daily News will to-morrow publish a despatch from Odessa, saying that a number of Russian soldiers have wrecked the houses occupied by Jews at Mizabisch in the Government of Kieff. They killed several persons, wounding a number of others and outraged many women and girls. The affair was instigated by an officer who was desirous of obtaining revenge against a Jewish keeper of a tavern who had rescued a Moujik whom the officer was thrashing. The officer and soldiers were arrested.

Have You Thought of it?

For four thousand years or more the world groaned, suffered and fumed about its corns, for there was no positive relief—no certain and painless corn cure until Dr. Scott Putnam gave to the world his great Corn Extractor. If there is suffering now it is the result of carelessness, for the remedy is at hand. Try Putnam's Corn Extractor. It is sure, painless and prompt. Beware of substitutes. N. C. A TALE OF THREE GIRLS.

They go out Driving and are Thrown Out on Charlotte Street.

Wednesday afternoon three young girls, between 17 and 19 years of age, met with an unlucky adventure which might have cost them their lives, and will likely be a lesson to them for the rest of their days.

It appears they had hired a light covered buggy and started out shortly after the noon hour for a drive. About two o'clock they appeared on George street driving down past the market building at a nice gentle trot, but it was apparent to those who noticed them that the fair driver was not accustomed to handling the reins. Just as they reached Charlotte street crossing, they decided, when a little too far past the corner, to turn eastward, when it was at once seen that nothing could prevent a catastrophe. The turn was too sharp, and as the horse got well around the carriage was seen to swerve, with the outside wheels tilted up in the air, and over the buggy went, the the three girls being pitched headlong out upon the hard roadbed. Those who witnessed the affair rushed to the rescue, certain that blood was spilled and bones broken. Before anyone had reached the spot the three luckless maidens had scrambled out from underneath the upturned vehicle, sprang on their feet and were scampering off out of further danger from the struggling horse, who had become entangled with the overthrown buggy and harness. So far as could be ascertained at the time all three luckily escaped unhurt, with the exception of the driver, and she only having the skin peeled off one side of her nose. The horse, however, was not so fortunate, for, as soon as released, blood was seen spurting from one of its hind legs. On being taken to its stable, Dr. Robinson found that an artery had been severed, and after hard work succeeded in tying the artery and staunching the flow. It cannot be known for a few days whether it life can be saved or not. The unlucky animal is the same as was stolen from Mr. Mosley some time ago, and recovered after considerable trouble and expense.

THINGS TO BE LOOKED AFTER.

A Pointer or two for the Street Authorities.

The Review, speaking without knowledge, sneers a little at "some citizens eager to have the fire department busy" by calling them out to extinguish a burning stump on the gravel road. It is true that a stump was burning, and with the dry material and a high wind it threatened the neighbouring residences, and also the sidewalk which was within a foot or two of the burning stump. This fire has been burning in the turfy soil about two weeks and has destroyed several thrifty cedars and a fine large black birch tree. If the fire brigade had been called out a week ago the circumstance would have shown that the town authorities take some interest in such matters as the public comfort and the public welfare.

Another evidence of their reminiscence is a tremendous growth of weeds that is rising up in the western portion of the town on vacant lots and on the highway itself, contrary to the law. On Homewood avenue, at its western end, there is a growth of weeds like a young forest, so high that to a person on the side walk a horse going along the middle of the street is hardly visible from the walk. This is contrary to the interests and good name of the town. There are enough citizens out of employment who could be profitably put to work to cut these weeds. The citizens wish to have the best possible return for their money paid in taxes.

MR. DROPE AGAIN REMEMBERED.

His Fellow Teachers in the Institute Present Him With a Watch Guard and Locket.

Mr. W. J. Drope, of the Collegiate Institute staff, who is retiring to establish a boys' school at Grimsby, received a very handsome evidence of esteem and good will at the close of the school on Monday evening. Mr. Fessenden and Miss Spence on behalf of the staff waited upon Mr. Drope and presented him with a beautiful solid gold chain and locket, the latter bearing the monogram "W. J. D., 1896." Mr. Drope has reason to be proud of the proofs of popularity he enjoys, and what is better, he thoroughly deserves them. His hosts of friends, which he has made in town, will wish him success in his new new field of activity.

An Ashburnham Barn Burned.
This morning about 4 o'clock a fire, caused it is said by tramps who had used Mr. Benj. Matthew's barn as a dormitory, broke out and the brigade was summoned by the ringing of the town alarm as well as by the ringing of St. Luke's Church bell. The building which had been only recently removed from the Trent Valley Canal grounds and contained a considerable quantity of hay, was entirely consumed. There was an insurance on the building before its removal.

Died Suddenly in Nicholls Hospital.
Miss Helen McGregor, neice of Mrs. C. McGregor, No. 350 Water street, died very suddenly last night at Nicholls Hospital, where deceased had been undergoing an operation a few days ago, and was considered doing nicely until a few hours before death. Funeral from her aunt's residence, 350 Water street, is delayed on account of some friends being at a distance. Notice of funeral later.

The Ontario Cabinet Vacancy.
The Millbrook Reporter says:—"Brer Stratton, of the EXAMINER, M.P.P. for West Peterborough, is being generally spoken of as likely to enter the Toronto Cabinet in place of Sir Oliver Mowat should the little premier go to Ottawa. We sincerely hope to see Mr. Stratton exalted to the position, believing his abilities eminently fit him to take charge of any department in the Cabinet. His genial disposition and thorough uprightness of character would also go far to replace the vacuum made by the absence of Sir Oliver. No other need apply."

Fishing.
When the fishermen return to the hotels in the evening from the lakes, and settle down after supper to telling their experiences and other things, it is a little surprising that the village does not have an earthquake or tidal wave or something. The fish that are brought to the boat and then got away never weigh less than 15 lbs., and some are known to go as high as 45 lbs. That is maskinonge. The weight depends somewhat on the time in the evening and the exigencies of the occasion. Bass, and fine ones, are taken from the locks. A gentleman with an eloquent outfit, a ten cent catgut and a can of lovely worms, was sitting on the lockgate the other evening and when asked what luck, said, "Splendid, got a beauty a short time ago. Four pounds if an ounce. By George he was a great one. And you should have seen him play. Gamey? — never struck such a fighter. Had to let out all my line three times after getting him nearly up. And would you believe it?—the deuced thing got off! By Jove, you know he was a walleyer.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

POLICE COURT.

A Rather Big Budget of Magisterial Business.

July 3rd.

At this morning's session of the Police Court Mr. Police Magistrate Dumble presided. The first case called was that of William Cushon, who was charged with stealing the sum of $14 from Fred Eastland. It appears that Cushon, though young in years, is an old offender, and has to his debit more than one conviction for larceny, vagrancy, etc. The prisoner, who elected to be tried by the magistrate, was adjudged guilty and sentenced to three years in Kingston penitentiary. He received his sentence with considerable coolness.

The McWilliams-Review libel suit was again enlarged—till next Wednesday.

Joseph Thompson, a street railway employee, who was acting as motorman on the evening of June 29th, charged Staff Sergeant Bartlett and Orderly Room Clerk Layfield with assault, alleged to have been committed on Monday evening as the 57th Battalion was marching along Charlotte street to the G. T. R. station to entrain for Belleville. This case is assumed to involve the question of the right of the street railway company to procedence in the use of the portion of street occupied by its tracks. The case was enlarged till next Wednesday.

Robert Duncan was charged with a breach of the health by-law, consisting in depositing rubbish on Water street, at the "Goose Pond." The defendant admitted that he had deposited there a single truck load of old plaster from a torn down dwelling and put in an order from his employer, directing him to deposit the broken plaster at the point where it was placed. In view of the fact that the rubbish deposited was not only of a harmless nature, but something in the nature of a disinfectant, the charge was dismissed.

It is, however, to be distinctly understood that no rubbish of any kind, proper or offensive, is hereafter to be dumped on Water street at what is known as the "Goose Pond."

A case of domestic infelicity was ventilated in the court. A wife and the mother of six children charged her husband and the father of her children with assault. The hearing of the case disclosed the fact that neither party had a monopoly of blame and after giving the pair a nice little lecture as to the manner in which they were to live, the charge was dismissed by the magistrate.

From this morning's record at the court it would appear that the "hot spell" ushered in with July operates as an impulse upon the unruly passions of men and women.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Will Reynolds, of Toronto, was in town for a couple of days this week.

Misses Katie and Minnie Hogan, of Toronto, spent Dominion Day with Miss Cronin, Elm street.

Mr. W. H. Miller, of Detroit, is in town for a few days, the guest of his father-in-law, Mr. J. B. McWilliams.

Mr. Alf. Reynolds, of Rochester, N.Y., is spending his vacation visiting his mother, in town. He will return on Saturday.

Mr. James Spellman spent the 1st of July with his friends in Hastings. He has always been popular among his friends, who have voted him "a jolly good fellow," and join in wishing him the best that Peterborough can afford.

Mr. J. J. Brignall, the Travelling Passenger Agent of the C.P.R., was in town to-day in the interests of Court Little John's (C.O.F.) annual excursion to Niagara Falls and Buffalo. A meeting of the excursion committee will be held to morrow evening.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—Hay is generally a rather light crop in this vicinity.

—Farmers are busy with haying, and expect to be harvesting wheat next week.

—The fall wheat is only a fair crop, some fields being excellent and others not up to the mark.

—Fishing poles of all kinds, fishing tackle, tennis balls and tennis racquets, lacrosse and baseball goods, cheapest place in town, at Salisbury's Bookstore. d

—The Hastings Star says:—The brickwork of the R. C. Presbytery will be completed this week. The contractor, Mr. P. McNamara, of Peterborough, has certainly made a fine job of his part. The building when finished will make a very imposing appearance. The finishings and fixtures inside will also be of the most modern date and fully up to outside appearances. Our Catholic friends deserve much praise for the ready response they have exhibited in the erection of this Presbytery. We wish them continued prosperity.

THE WOMEN TOO.

Back Talk Not Man's Monopoly.

Mrs. Jemima Cole, Havelock, told the following wonderful story:—"For a great many years I have suffered from disease of the kidneys. The pains in my back and side were sometimes excruciating.

"My limbs were so swollen that I could scarcely lift my feet from the floor, and I was in great agony nearly all the time. I thought that I would surely die from the pain.

"I have taken dozens of advertised remedies, but got no better during their use. I was also treated by several doctors, but am sorry to say they did me little or no good. In fact they stated that they could do me no good, which made me despair of ever getting better.

"When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I sent to W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore and got a box thinking I would try them as a last resort.

"The change from the start was very great and now after one month I am free from all pain. The swelling has gone down and I feel quite strong and healthy.

"I was also troubled with rheumatism and neuralgia which have completely disappeared, thanks to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. In fact I do not think there is a medicine in the world that in such a short time could have taken me from the almost dying condition in which I was to the healthy and vigorous state that I am in now.

"I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for their wonderful virtues in curing kidney troubles."

Dyspepsia or Indigestion
Is occasioned by the want of action in the billary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secret the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also being the principal cause of headache. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills taken before going to bed, for awhile, never fail to give relief and effect a cure. Mr. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes:—"Parmelee's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which have in stock."

An Extended Cycle of Cycling—A Trio of Pedagogic Pedal-ers.

On Tuesday next, Messrs. C. Fessenden, J. Jeffers and H. R. H. Keaney, of the Collegiate Institute staff, start on an extended bicycle tour—of several hundred miles. Their destination is Peterborough—which is at once their starting and objective point. They intend to wheel by easy stages, journeying only during the cool of the day, from Peterborough to Port Hope, thence along the lake shore and old Kingston road to Kingston, cross the lines at Cape Vincent, proceed to Rochester, thence to Niagara Falls and on to Toronto and home. It is hoped that the trio which has deserted the academic shades of birchen bowers for the ignoble pursuit of pedal-ing will have a pleasant swing around the circle.

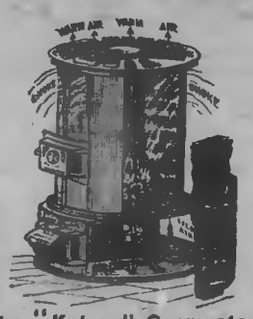
The Most Economical ..House Warmer



The "Kelsey" Corrugated Warm Air Generator.
Any ordinary Hot Air Furnace will produce heat if you will only supply enough fuel. The "Kelsey" has several special and valuable features but most important is that it will give more heat with less fuel and in the most durable heater made.
The "Kelsey" fire pot being constructed of several upright, tubular, corrugated, cast iron sections (see cut) around which the fire passes and up through which the cold air passes while being heated, and this entire section being wrapped with a heavy steel casing which becomes heated by the fire striking it when passing down outside of upright sections towards smoke pipe, it in turn warms the air that passes up between this steel casing and the galvanized iron casing, this explains why the "Kelsey" has three times more radiating surface and warm air capacity than an ordinary Furnace. The "Kelsey" heats every room evenly, wheresoever located, with a nice, mild, healthful warm air that will not injure your furniture.
The "Kelsey" will heat rooms 60 feet distant.
The "Kelsey" does not heat your cellar.
The "Kelsey" is absolutely gas and dust proof.

Canadian Order of Oddfellows.

The new organization in town, Lodge No. 164, C. O. O. F., seems to be endowed with a full share of the snap characteristic of Canadians. The Lodge met last evening, July 2nd, with a large representation of members; also a number of visiting members from Lindsay and Bobcaygeon. Sixteen new members were initiated. The four degrees, White, Blue, Scarlet and Golden were conferred on several of its members. After the lodge closed, the visiting brethren were invited to Bro. John Craig's, where a bountiful spread was provided for the occasion.

OBITUARY.

The Late Charles Bertram Millar.

The Orillia News-Letter has the following in reference to the death of Mr. Bert Millar, son of Mr. Melville Millar, well known in Peterborough :

"Mr. and Mrs. Melville Millar will have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in the untimely death of their second son, Charles Bertram, a bright young man of 22 years, who expired at the family residence on Friday morning last of consumption. Deceased, up to within a few months of his death, had been in robust health and took a deep interest in different athletic organizations in town. Last winter, on his showing signs of declining health, he went to the Western States on the advice of a physician in the hope that a change would be beneficial. He grew rapidly worse, however, and his brother Alex was despatched to bring him home. Upon his arrival home it was painfully apparent to his numerous friends that his days were numbered. The funeral, which took place on Sunday afternoon, was one of the most largely attended seen in Orillia for years, hundreds of citizens turning out to pay their last tribute of respect to one who in life had been loved and respected by all classes of the community. Elgin Camp Sons of Scotland, turned out in full force to attend the funeral of their late brother. Some beautiful floral wreaths and pillows were sent by the Sons of Scotland, the pall bearers and others. It is seldom that the death of so young a man has excited such widespread sympathy for the bereaved ones, and it will no doubt be a consolation for them to know that the entire community mourns with them the loss of one of its most promising young citizens."

ECHOES OF THE OUTING.

References of Belleville Papers to the Visit of the Rangers.

The following scraps from the reports of the Belleville papers to the visit of the Rangers to Belleville on Dominion Day will be read with interest :

Intelligencer.

The Veterans were photographed by Mr. R. M. Roy at the south side of the drill shed, for which he received three cheers from "the boys of the old brigade."

A special feature of the evening's entertainment was the singing of the quartette of the 57th buglers, Messrs. Reynolds, Brown, King and Brown. They gave several selections and were loudly applauded and encored.

The 57th's departure—As soon as the evening entertainment was over the 57th mustered at their camp for departure and shortly after midnight the battalion, tired but happy, marched to the market square, where their train awaited them. The band played as a parting salute "Auld Lang Syne," and it found an echo in the hearts of the citizens assembled. The visitors were soon on board and amid cheers and fond good-byes took their departure, "happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."

Ontario.

The 57th Battalion left for home shortly before twelve o'clock, taking with them golden opinions of the City of the Bay.

The officers of the 57th were present (at the officers' reception) and they were the recipients of much attention. They are not alone gallant soldiers, but gentlemen, and Peterborough has every reason to be proud of such citizens.

Sun.

A number of members of the Peterborough battalion treated the citizens after supper to a cooks' parade. They organized the parade and marched down Front street and along Bridge street to Hotel Quinte—a motley, grotesque group whose antics were very funny. Tin horns containing kazoos had been made especially for them, and a man with a wheelbarrow represented the ambulance corps. The parade was witnessed by a large crowd of people and the fun was kept up for a couple of hours.

The Children's Enemy.

Scrofula often shows itself in early life and is characterized by swellings, abscesses hip diseases, etc. Consumption is scrofula of the lungs. In this class of diseases Scott's Emulsion is unquestionably the most reliable medicine.

Genuine Bargains

For one week including Saturday, June 27th, A. Clegg will place in his show window each day some genuine bargains in useful and fine furniture. Look out for them.

Fruit Jars.

China Hall has received a full carload, 1440 cases, of fruit jars. Do not buy a jar till you have seen their jars and got their price. Their jars are guaranteed not to crack in filling and will be replaced in case they do. Prices the lowest in town. See the "Beaver" or the "Bees" before buying the ordinary jar.

THE OFFICIAL DECLARATION :

I hereby certify that the member elected for the Electoral District of the East Riding of the County of Peterborough, in pursuance of the within writ, is John Lang, of the Township of Otonabee, County of Peterborough, farmer.

Dated at Peterborough, this 2nd day of July, 1896.

B. MORROW,
Returning Officer.

A VOICE FROM CALIFORNIA.

An Expatriated Canadian's View of the Result of the Elections.

To the Editor of the Examiner :

DEAR SIR,—Allow me to congratulate THE EXAMINER and the people of Canada on their grand victory. You have met the enemy and fought them to a finish. Never was such a disastrous defeat inflicted upon over sanguine warriors. Bonaparte's Moscow and Napoleon's Sedan were very small potatoes compared to the way your enemies took the sockdolagers of fortune. They came after your scalps, yelling and hooting like ten thousand demons, and they went back without them, with a poor man's plaster profusely decorating them. They went in search of wool, and have gone home shorn as close as the dude's head that stand on Mitchell's corner. Their songs of triumph have been changed to wails of dismay. They went off instead of their revolvers, their commissariat is without biscuit, their artillery without wheels, but their pannikins have still some of the "stuff" that gave them such braggadocio courage when Mr. Laurier was out of sight. You have spoiled them so effectually that, like the Chinese, they can only console themselves by throwing aroma pots and shouting lugubriously. Poor Charlie and his party have fallen; yes, they fall never to rise again.

Yours truly,
P. COUGHLIN,
Jacinto, Cal.

CANADA'S GREAT EXPOSITION.

The Toronto Industrial Exhibition, now known as "Canada's Great Fair," is an occurrence to which almost every Canadian looks forward with pleasurable anticipation, as it is made the occasion for their annual holiday outing. It is to be held this year from the 31st August to the 12th of September, and as the live stock exhibitors and various associations have agreed to have their stock on the grounds from Thursday, the 3rd September, till the close of the Fair, the first week will now be as good as the second. We have received a copy of the Prize List, which is unusually gotten up. Any one desiring a copy can obtain one by dropping a post card to Mr. H. J. Hill, the Manager, Toronto. A good programme of interesting attractions is promised. Applications for space should be made early.

Mr. Chas. Smith, Dawn Mills, Ont., says :—"For several years I was troubled with pains in my limbs, which continued getting worse until I thought I would have to quit work. In fact the pains were so severe that I could not rest at nights. I took one box of Miller's Compound Iron Pills and am perfectly cured.' Although it is nearly a year since Mr. S. took the Pills he has had no return of the pains, and feels splendid. Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

LeBRUN & CO.'S GUESSING CONTEST.

Estimating the Correct Majorities in East and West Peterborough—Names of the Prize Winners.

The interesting guessing contest which was started by Messrs. H. LeBrun & Co., of the City Clothing Store, as soon as the names of the candidates were announced for East and West Peterborough excited considerable interest during the late political campaign. The valuable prizes offered for competition by this firm to the persons estimating the correct or nearest to the correct majorities of each of the successful candidates for East and West Peterborough drew out many contestants. A much larger number of ballots were "polled" than was expected, the West riding box being filled to the brim. The privilege of voting was accorded to every person who purchased a suit of clothing or at least $5 worth of goods. Every $5 worth was good for a ballot, and judging from the pile of ballots, the large number of suits sold and other goods purchased during this novel contest must have amounted to a good many dollars.

On Thursday, as soon as the official declarations of the Returning Officers were made known, representatives from the Review and EXAMINER offices were selected as scrutineers to open the ballot box and award the prizes. After a fair and impartial "recount" they made the following declaration of the state of the polls:—

WEST PETERBOROUGH MAJORITY.

A very much larger number of guesses was recorded on the majority in the West Riding than in the East Riding. The ballots were about equally divided between Hall and Kendry. The following are the prize winners and their estimates, being the nearest to the correct majority, (319):—

1st—Chas. Dobbin, Ashburnham.—365. Prize, $15 suit, to order.

2nd—G. A. Moncrief, Omemee—256. Prize, $7.50 suit, ready-made.

Only two ballots were cast favouring a majority for Newman in this riding.

EAST PETERBOROUGH.

There was a larger proportion of ballots cast favouring a majority for Burnham than for Lang, some ballots giving Burnham 400 of a majority. The following were the lucky guessers and their numbers, being the nearest to the correct majority, (615) :—

1st—J. A. Macdonald, Lakefield, 479. Prize, $15 suit, to order.

2nd—Wm. Renwick, Otonabee, 351. Prize, $7.50 suit, ready-made.

LADIE'S PRIZES.

Every lady purchasing a boys' suit, had the privilege of voting at this contest—a proof that H. LeBrun & Co. were in favour of female suffrage. No estimates were made by the ladies on the East Riding majority, and all those made for the West Riding were in favour of Mr. Kendry. The following are the names of the lucky ladies and their guesses :

1st—Mrs. Kennedy, Omemee, 300. Prize, $5 boy's suit.

2nd—Mrs. Paul Costello, Eenismore, 169. Prize, $2.50 boy's suit.

Mrs. Kennedy, of Omemee, the winner of the 1st ladies prize, made the best and closest guess of the contest

Entries Close Monday, 14th September.

$14,500 offered in Prizes, besides a List of "Specials" including 27 Gold Medals, Silver and Bronze, and Special Cash Prizes.

Exhibitors repeatedly assert that no other similar Association in existence offers such an array of "Gold Medals" as does the Central Canada, and each medal of different design.

GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS.

Over $40,000 expended in improvements since last Exhibition, the entire Grounds and Buildings have been entirely overhauled, and New Stables for Horses, New Stables for Cattle, New buildings for sheep and Swine, all constructed on the latest and most modern principles, and erected on south side of Grounds; New and enlarged Carriage Building; Machinery Hall capacity doubled; New half-mile Track; Grand Stand accommodation increased, now capable of seating over 8,000 persons and rearranged to lead from rear with turnstile system; New Art Gallery; Main Building enlarged and New Stove Building added in connection therewith; Grounds graded, enlarged and encircled by a new 12 foot fence; New Entrance from the "Elgin street side"; Agricultural and Horticultural Halls improved and made more attractive; New Lavatories and Sanitary arrangements of the very best, in fact nothing has been overlooked that would tend to the comfort and convenience of exhibitors and visitors.

The New buildings for Horses and Cattle all have proper plank walks down the centre so that the public can pass through, view the stock on each side and be under cover all the time.

Increased Prizes for Live Stock including Poultry. The special attractions and races this year will be of the very best, and excel all previous efforts.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENTS.

Commencing on Saturday, September 19th, and continuing each evening, till close of the Exhibition, Magnificent Spectacular Drama "The Siege of Algiers" and fireworks, will be produced by Prof. Hand & Co., of Hamilton, Ont., who so successfully demonstrated the "Siege of Sebastopol" at last exhibition.

The things that people see are inside of them and not outside. No two people see the same thing exactly alike. One woman may look out at a beautiful landscape and see all the beauty and restfulness and grandness that there is in it. Another one will look out at the same scene and see nothing. One will find enjoyment in a brilliant company, in music, in dancing, in an exquisitely prepared dinner. Another will enjoy these things half as much—another not at all. The things that people see are inside them. What one sees and what one enjoys depends upon the bodily condition—depends upon the capacity for enjoyment—depends upon the health and the vitality. The sick man has pain or discomfort so impressed upon him that he has no time to think of much else. A weak man has all he can do to struggle for mere existence. He has no strength to use in procuring pleasure. His performances are limited by his strength. He can do only a few things so he can enjoy only a few things. The man who is perfectly well and vigorous enjoys life to the full. The bedridden invalid enjoys it not at all. The man who is half sick and half well gets out of life about half what he ought to. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes people well. It doesn't do it in a miraculous way. There isn't anything unnatural about it—it is the most natural thing in the world. It simply puts the digestive organs, the stomach, the liver, the bowels, in perfect order and thereby makes the blood pure and rich. It doesn't have to do anything else. Nature does all the rest. All diseases live and thrive on impure blood. Keep a stream of pure, rich, red blood flowing into a diseased spot, and the disease will not stay. A man lives on rich, pure blood, and disease dies on it. That's the difference. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood—makes men and women strong and healthy; brings good appetite, good digestion and builds up solid, healthy flesh.

A STRANGE WORM.

As Yet Nameless, But Farmers' Grass Fields Are Being Destroyed.

If Professor Forbes, the State entomologist, does not come quickly, says the Chicago Tribune, to the rescue with some new-fangled insect powder potent to kill a new-fangled insect, there will not be left standing a blade of grass on farming lands in the southern half of Cook County. The hay crop on a majority of the farms in Worth, Homewood, Blue Island and the stretches that lie between will this year, to a great extent, be a failure.

On the farm of A. S. Piper, of Worth, 140 acres of the finest timothy grass have been eaten bare by the new pest. Frederick Holm of the same place, has had many acres eaten by the invading insects and they are still at work, while the farmers can do nothing but stand still and see their property destroyed.

The creature which is doing all the damage is a little more than an inch long. It is a worm in shape, its body being pointed. It has longitudinal stripes of light brown and dark brown, the darker stripes being double the width of the others. The front of the head is ginger-colored. It looks much like the cut-worm, excepting that it is darker in shade and is not as thick as the other pest.

Farmers of the infected townships met the other day and discussed the situation, but they could find no name for the devourer, nor could they devise any means for its destruction. They were all agreed it was not a cut-worm.

John Holm said yesterday he had driven all over the country lying about Worth, Homewood and Blue Island, and everywhere the worm had leveled the growing grass.

"We don't know what to do about it," he said. "It has never been seen here before. The hay crop is doomed. The creature prefers timothy to any other kind. In a field which has timothy, orchard and lawn grasses mixed the insects have just begun their work. For several yards the timothy is eaten, while the other grasses are left untouched, though the creatures will begin over again eventually and eat the inferior growth. The loss amounts to thousands of dollars already, and I see nothing ahead but the total destruction of the crop.

"The common cut-worm does its work at the roots of the grass, while this insect bites the blades off about one inch from the ground."

Blood-purifiers, though gradual, are radical in their effect. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is intended as a medicine only and not a stimulant, excitant or beverage. Immediate results may not always follow its use; but after a reasonable time, permanent benefit is certain to be realized.

QUEEN REGENT OF SPAIN.

Maria Christina and the Troubles of Her Reign as Proxy.

Since the death of the late King Alfonso the affairs of Spain have not been pleasant for the reigning family or for the government. Queen Regent Maria Christina has had a troublesome reign, and there are those who contend that the boy king will never reach the throne. Morocco and Cuba have served to embarrass the queen greatly, but her greatest anxiety has been caused by the anarchists. Two years ago the stability of the government was threatened by the anarchists, but Maria Christina adopted severe measures against anarchism, and the queen conquered. She has governed her country wisely and has forced the population to admire and respect her, although she is not Spanish, but Austrian. Alfonso XIII. was born in 1886. During his minority his mother is the head of the government. The small sovereign has an income, fixed by the cortes, of about $1,000,000 yearly, exclusive of allowances to other members of the royal family. His mother is given the administration and the use of the interest on this money until the king becomes of age. Alfonso will, therefore, have a nice little fortune if his people do not decide that the republican is a better form of government before he comes into posessin of the crown and his fortune. Queen Maria Christina has a grant of $50,000 a year, and other members of the family are provided for in proportion. The Infanta Isabella is allowed $40,000 a year. Infanta Eulalia, who married Prince Antoine of Orleans, and who was Spain's royal representative at the World's Fair, receives the same annual grant. The grandparents of the little king are allowed the modest yearly stipend of $200,000 for expenses. The total cost of the royal family to the people of Spain is $2,000,000 a year. Out of this sum is paid a reasonable living salary to the Duke of Medina-Sidonia, who is the master of the court. The Duke of Stomayor is also paid a salary out of the royal allowance.

Lady Tennyson.

Lady Tennyson is still living. She scarcely ever went into society when the poet laureate was living and is seen even less now. She has outlived her husband, but has been considerable of an invalid all her life. Lady Tennyson has always been fond of her home, and her husband's praises oft used to be heard in behalf of her domestic accomplishments. He claimed that had it ever been necessary for her own living she could easily have done so by the sale of her delicious tea biscuits.

ONE HONEST MAN

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P O. Box 388, London, Ont.

The Sleeping Chamber.

The Japanese believe in banishing from the bedroom everything which is not really necessary to that department. All things useful they make as decorative as possible; but for mere ornament's sake little or nothing is added, unless it be a vase containing flowers arranged in their own inimitable way, or something else equally simple.

Their custom will bear consideration by the housewives of our western world, says Womankind, for by the Japanese method, simplicity and repose is possible. Add beauty and daintiness, and little else is left to be desired. Bedrooms so apointed may be easily kept in order and free from dust—that foe to comfort and health.

Oil For Furniture.

There is no one of the housekeeper's duties that requires more careful attention than the care of furniture surfaces, therefore a cleaner that will keep the furniture looking nice, remove the stains and soil, and that does not cost a great deal in time and money, is a great boon to housewives. To reach this end there is nothing better than a mixture of linseed oil and kerosene. Some furniture dealers use linseed and turpentine, but it is not so satisfactory; as after repeated usings the turpentine roughens the polished surface.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

PARIS AWARD MUST GOVERN.

U. S. Government Has No Right to Make Special Laws Regarding Behring Sea.

San Francisco, Cal., July 1.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals decided yesterday that the Paris award on matters pertaining to sealing in Behring Sea must be upheld as the supreme law of the land, and that the United States Government has no right to make special laws governing its citizens in hunting seal that do not permit them equal privileges with the citizens of foreign countries on the sealing grounds. The decision is important, as it defines clearly for the first time the restrictions to be placed upon American seal hunters in Behring Sea.

B. B. B. Turns Bad Blood Into Rich Red Blood.

BBB FOR THE BLOOD — BBB FOR THE BLOOD

In Spring Time get Pure Blood by using B.B.B.

No other remedy possesses such perfect cleansing, healing and purifying properties as Burdock Blood Bitters. It not only cleanses internally, but it heals, when applied externally, all sores, ulcers, abscesses, scrofulous sores, blotches, eruptions, etc., leaving the skin clean and pure as a babe's. Taken internally it removes all morbid effete or waste matter from the system, and thoroughly regulates all the organs of the body, restoring the stomach, liver, bowels and blood to healthy action. In this way the sick become well, the weak strong, and those who have that tired, worn out feeling receive new vigor, and buoyant health and spirits, so that they feel like work. If your appetite is poor, your energy gone, your ambition lost, B.B.B. will restore you to the full enjoyment of happy vigorous life.

THEY COUNT BY THE SCORE

Yea, By the Hundreds, Those Who Have Been Cured of Dire Disease By South American Nervine.

A Remedy Widespread and Universal in Its Application.

Where Other Medicines Have Failed and Doctors Have Pronounced the Cases Beyond Cure, This Great Discovery Has Proven a Genuine Elixir of Life.

The Same Verdict Comes From Old and Young, Male and Female, Rich and Poor, and From All Corners of the Dominion.

If it is the case that he who makes two blades of grass grow where only one had grown before is a benefactor of the race, what is the position to be accorded that man who by his knowledge of the laws of life and health gives energy and strength where languor, weakness and anticipation of an early death had before prevailed? Is not he also a public benefactor? Let those who have been down and are now up through the use of South American Nervine give their opinions on this subject. John Boyer, banker, of Kincardine, Ont., had made himself a hopeless invalid through years of overwork. At least he felt his case was hopeless, for the best physicians had failed to do him good. He tried Nervine, and these are his words: "I gladly say it: Nervine cured me and I am to-day as strong and well as ever." Samuel Silva, of Meaford, was cured of neuralgia of the stomach and bowels by three bottles of this medicine. Jas. Sherwood, of Windsor, at 70 years of age, suffered from an attack of paralysis. His life, at that age, was despaired of. But four bottles of Nervine gave him back his natural strength. A victim of indigestion, W. F. Bolger, of Renfrew, says: "Nervine cured me of my suffering, which seemed incurable, and had baffled all former methods and efforts." Peter Esson, of Paisley, lost flesh and rarely had a good night's sleep, because of stomach trouble. He says: "Nervine stopped the agonizing pains in my stomach the first day I used it. I have now taken two bottles and I feel entirely relieved and can sleep like a top." A representative farmer, of Western Ontario, is Mr. C. J. Curtis, residing near Windsor. His health was seemingly completely destroyed through la grippe. No medicine did him any good. "To three bottles of Nervine," he says, "I attribute my restoration to health and strength." Neither man or woman can enjoy life when troubled with liver complaint. This was the sentiment and feeling of W. J. Hill, the well-known bailiff of Bracebridge. "I was so bad," says he, "that one of my medical attendants said that I was dying, but, thank God, I am not dead yet. From the first few doses I took of Nervine I commenced to feel better, and am to-day restored completely to my usual health." A resident of the Maritime Provinces, in the person of S. Jones, of Sussex, N.B., says: "For twelve years I was a martyr to indigestion, constipation and headache. The treatment of several physicians did not help me. I have taken a few bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say that I am a new man."

A shrewd observer of human nature has said: "The hand that rocks the cradle moves the world." How important it is, then, that health and strength should be made the lot of the mothers of this country. The women of Canada are ready by scores to tell of the benefits that have come to them through the use of South American Nervine. Mrs. R. Armstrong, of Orillia, wife of the colporteur of the Bible Society of that town, suffered for six years from nervous prostration. Medical assistance did not help. "In all," she says, "I have taken six bottles of Nervine, and can truthfully say this is the one medicine that has effected a cure in my case." Mrs. John Dinwoody has been for 40 years a resident of Flesherton, and has reached the allotted three-score years and ten. Three years ago her system sustained a severe shock through the death of a daughter. Nervine was recommended. She perseveringly took 12 bottles of medicine, with the result that she is to-day again strong and hearty. Hundreds of women suffer from impoverished blood and weakened nerves. "All vitality," says Mrs. J. Ballis, of Brampton, "seemed to have forsaken my system. I was unable to get relief from any source until I commenced taking South American Nervine. The results are most satisfactory—greater far than I could have hoped for." It came within the way of Mrs. H. Stapleton, of Wingham, to treat under the best physicians, both in Canada and England, for heart disease and nervous debility, but she failed to get any relief. "I was advised," she says, "to take South American Nervine, and must say I do believe that if I had not done so I would not be alive to-day."

Newspaper space is too valuable to permit of further additions to these earnest words of testimony from those who know just what they are talking about. In the common language of the day, they have been there, and are speaking from the heart. The dozen or more witnesses that here speak have their counterparts by the hundreds, not only in the province of Ontario, but in every other section of the Dominion. South American Nervine is based on a scientific principle that makes a cure a certainty, no matter how desperate the case may be. It strikes at the nerve centers from which flows the life blood of the whole system. It is not a medicine of patchwork, but is complete and comprehensive in its application.

Nervous Prostration
Complete Recovery by the Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hinson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

DEATH OF KATE FIELD

THE DISTINGUISHED CORRESPONDENT SUCCUMBS IN HONOLULU.

Faithfully to the Last She Endured the Rigors of Exploration in the Interior of the Island of Hawaii—Sketch of Her Career.

Kate Field is dead. This sad and startling news was cabled from Honolulu, and, aside frim giving the date and place, May 19, at Honolulu, and the cause, pneumonia the message contained no details of the unexpected end of the career of a woman who has stood for twenty years in the very fore rank of American women writers.

There had been no warning to her friends and admirers and the calamity was wholly unexpected. Her last letter was dated North Kohala, two weeks before her death, and in that she was especially enthusiastic because she had completed an expedition into the interior of the Island of Hawaii—something which had never previously been undertaken by any white woman. It is evident from this that the fatal illness was quick and terrible, striking her down in the very midst of the work, she believed would be among the most important achievements of her eventful and active life.

Miss Field was sent to Hawaii in the early fall as the regularly accredited staff correspondent of the Chicago Times-Herald. She was given the mission of a thorough study of the people from the standpoint of the possible annexation of the island to the United States. It was her desire to dig up the actual facts of all phases of this question. She was welcomed by the rulers and men of state, and her letters and documents were accepted in this country as thoroughly as though they had been government papers. She had unequalled sources of news, and many of the assertions she made with the indorsement of the officials, contained facts which had never previously been made public.

Miss Field was essentially a woman of heart and the greatest sympathy for people who were unfortunate. The more she worked among the inhabitants of Hawaii the more convinced she became that she had a great mission on the island. She became enraptured with the people. This led her to prolong her stay after the completion of her first purpose and to resolve to visit in turn each one of the islands of the group, going into the farthermost parts and trusting to her tact and good nature to get along peacefully with the natives. She was only just started on this journey, according to the letter last received. It is probable she was taken sick during one of her horseback excursions, and had only to return to her apartments in Honolulu.

There is, perhaps, no more striking index of her bravery and courage than is given by the lines of this communication. She is trying to make it clear why the dangers are small in comparison with the great result to be obtained. She asserts that it would be absurd for her to sit in Honolulu and write wisely about the condition of the island which she had not investigated with her own eyes and head.

She was not daunted by the fact that there are no hotels and no roads, but, with her characteristicly indomitable will, she conclude to set out on horseback. She went from plantation to plantation, penetrating to a section where the natives had never seen a white woman. She made speeches and addresses to the people, taking in the evening after a ride of twenty-five miles overland during the day. This work she had planned to keep up until the campaign opened here, and then she hoped to return.

Kate Field was a genius from childhood. She was born in St. Louis about fifty years ago; the exact date seems to have escaped the pen of the many who have been writing about her for a score of years. Walter Savage Landor was attracted by her talent when she was a slip of a girl and he at once assumed her tutelage. He taught her Latin. He never forgot the association and at his death, bequeathed her a valuable portfolio of drawings, inscribed with these words:

And no less brave and no less fair,
Modest as winged angels are.

She was sent to Florence very young and there she acquired music and the modern languages. She became acquainted with George Eliot, and took her harmony lessons from the best teachers in Italy. All this was of advantage to Miss Field's latter days, the association with the great English woman forming the basis for a keen analysis of the character of George Eliot and her works. She also met the Brownings there, and, from all sources, received impressions which helped to put her into the midst of the brightest critics and literature makers in the country.

This was, however, not the only way in which she became distinguished. She was a lecturer of note and ability, a politician of the shrewdest and best type, a philanthropist, an editor, a leader in a half dozen ways, the brilliancy of any one of which would have made her name a monument among the most brilliant of American women.

Her life in Washington was of historical moment. She labored there for years in an effort to establish a paper, which she called Kate Field's Washington—a mannr of free lace which was nothing more and nothing less than Kate Field. She used the columns for the furtherance of views which were sometimes radical, but always in favor of the greater good of the people. It cost plenty of money to keep the plant going, and, after a long, hard, conscientious fight, she was compelled to give up the enterprise. She even went upon the lecture platform to get money for the paper, but the strain was finally more than she could stand. She paid every cent of the indebtedness in time and never lost track of the very humblest assistant on the paper util she had secured for each and all new positions.

Miss Field had her own views about the position of her sex. She believed herself equal to the task of mind which might be the lot of man. One of her memorable editorials is very plain upon this point, and ran as follows:

If it so happens that a good deal is said in its columns about women, it is because women are an interesting study; not because they are angels in the pin-feather stage on the one hand, or poor, crushed worms on the other, waiting for somebody to turn them. Woman is a human being, seeking, like man, to find her level. Next to shutting her out of occupations and enjoyments for which nature has manifestly fitted her, simply because she is a woman, the worst thing you can do for her is to pat her on the head for her success, simply because she is a woman. The sensible course is to treat her just as you would a man. Some things she can do better, some she does worse. Don't praise her second-rate work any more than you would treat conspicuously that which is first-rate. All she needs is a fair field and no favor. Anyone who demands more than that for her is her enemy, rather than her friend.

The woman was a cosmopolitan. She was equally at home in Chicago, New York, London, San Francisco or Paris. She was educated in classics, versed in music and a critic in art. During one of her stays abroad she was correspondent of the New York Tribune, the Philadlphia Press and the Chicago Tribune. In 1874 she appeared as an actress at Booth's Theatre, showing considerable dramatic talent. Her last years have been devoted to literature and among the works she published are these:

Planchette's Diary.
Adelaide Ristori.
Mad on Purpose (a comedy).
Pen Photographs From Charles Dickens' Readings.
Life of Fechter.
Hap-Hazard.
Ten Days in Spain.
History of the Bell Telephone.

Miss Field also founded the National Review, a publication which preceded the lamented Washington.

She was unduly modest, and, in telling of her achievements as mere matters of history, she always gave credit for all the success to her ancestry. She confessed a great inspiration from the life and character of her father Joseph M. Field, who was a brilliant and versatile man. Her mother was Eliza Lapsley of Philadelphia, one of the most charming actresses of her day. However, much she was really indebted to hereditty, it is a fact that she built for herself a lasting monument as a journalist, author, editor and speaker.

Sixty Shots Were Exchanged.

Westview, Ohio, July 1.—The strikers of the Cleveland Stone Company and the sheriff's posse came into collision near here this morning. One striker pulled a revolver and fired at Special Ed. Carren. This was the signal for a fight. In the space of a few moments over 60 shots were exchanged. Three of the strikers were seen to fall. Two were dragged into the woods by their companions. Immediately after the fight the strikers fled to Berea.

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

Paragraphs of Local Interest to Endeavourers Supplied by the County Union.

WORLD'S CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR PRAYER CHAIN.

Subject of prayer for July—"The world-wide Christian Fellowship."

"Pray that the fellowship typified by the Christian Endeavour movement, based on fidelity to Christ and loyalty to one's own church, may prevail, and that it may be greatly promoted by the International Convention at Washington."

"A LITTLE LESSON IN THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER."

This month we join with the Saviour himself in prayer for the unity and fellowship of believers. Jesus thought so much of this great subject that, in the closing hours of His earthly life, when His heart was thronged with emotions, He made it a chief part of His earnest prayer. If the unity of the church meant so much to the Lord, how we, too, ought to dwell on it and pray over it! It is a beautiful and stimulating thought that in a peculiar degree Christ's prayers joins ours on this colossal theme, and that He even prayed for us as we now pray to Him. Hear His pleading words:—"Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word, (take this to your heart, O Christian, Christ prayed for you) that they may be one; as thou, Father, art in me and I in thee, that they also may be on in us; that the world may believe that thou has sent me." It is a stupendous truth, indicated here in the Saviour's prayer, that the world's belief in Christ as the one sent from God is dependent upon the unity of the saints. Furthermore, this same fellowship speaks our discipleship to the world: "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." In the light of these truths need we be urged to be constantly in prayer for the result suggested in this month's topic of our Prayer Chain? As you regard the prayers of your crucified Lord, as you desire the prosperity and fellowship of all saints, and as you long for the triumph of Christ's church, O, Christian, pray that the fellowship of the Father and Son may prevail among disciples everywhere."

THE LOCAL JUNIOR SOCIETIES.

The Charlotte street juniors held a farewell meeting a short time ago for the purpose of saying good-bye to their superintendent, Miss L. Kennedy. They presented to her a silver cruet dish. Miss Kennedy expressed her regret at leaving the society, but hoped they would be blessed in their work, as the Lord would send some one to take her place. The society still continues to hold their meetings on Monday evening. They have not got a leader as yet, but the interest is kept up by workers from the senior society.

St. Paul's juniors have held some bright meetings during the past few weeks, the members taking the lead. Last Sunday Miss Smith, a returned missionary from India, gave an address on mission work in India. The juniors were deeply interested, more especially on account of their maintaining a little native girl in one of the schools there. The Flower Committee have distributed many boquets to those who are sick and at the hospital. The chart used to illustrate the topic is prepared each week by the Juniors. Next Sunday the reports of the past two months' work will be presented. The society will then disband for the holiday season. They do not intend loosing interest in their work during this time. Each one has a plant to cultivate that will keep them interested and every boy and girl intend to try and get at least one new member to join when the society takes up their work after the holidays. At the beginning of the present term a verse starting with A and taking the alphabet. A the first Sunday, B the second and so on. They have now committed to memory 26 verses.

St. Andrew's Juniors have been holding very successful meetings, all the members taking part actively. Good work has been done visiting the sick and hospitals. Miss White, their former superintendent, sent a letter last week, which done much to encourage them. The society will discontinue their meetings during the holiday season.

The Murray street Baptist Juniors are doing good work under the superintendence of Miss Smith and Miss Pine. The Sunshine Committee have done some excellent work, as also did the Birthday Committee. The other committees are doing their little but not with the same zeal as the two mentioned. This society may also discontinue their meetings during the holiday season.

Park street Baptist Juniors are in a progressive state at present. The Missionary and Prayer Committees are doing a good work. Miss Jennie Harmer has charge of this society and under her supervision the banners must surely be raised. This week we have a letter from Mrs. (Dr.) Harrison, County Superintendent of Junior Work, which speaks for itself:—

DEAR FRIENDS,—We have not forgotten the Junior work of this county since the Easter rally. Your superintendents expect to be able to visit all the societies during this year, but in the meantime we can, through the medium of the C. E. column, accomplish a little work. We should like all the societies to give (as perhaps most of them have) special preparation to the books of the Bible, when written, by whom, and when the different translations took place. At each convention junior work has had a prominent place, but has never in our county been so emphasized as at our last rally. The reports were so good that it seemed a pity that all our dear children could not have heard them. Now, though there are many junior societies, there is no reason why we should not have many more. If Miss Roxborough, of Norwood, or I can in any way assist you, either to form new societies, to correspond with or visit you, we shall willingly do so to the best of our ability. Now what are you doing in your church to help the junior work? The children love to work. Can we not give them a chance? Train them now in church work, and when they are older we shall not hear the question asked so frequently, "How can we retain our older boys and girls?" Now that the summer vacation is coming we cannot expect to organize new societies, but plead on behalf of the children that you will think of the junior work, and talk of it, and we are sure you will soon become enthusiastic on the subject.

I am sincerely yours,
J. HARRISON,
Co. Supt. Junior Work.

Keene, June 27th.

THE LOCAL SENIOR SOCIETIES.

St. Andrew's met this week on Monday night. They will also meet next Monday evening instead of Wednesday night. Mr. Mulligan occupied the chair and conducted a question drawer, which proved profitable to all.

CHARLOTTE STREET SOCIETY.

Mr. R. E. Spence, representative of the students' missionary campaign of Victoria College, addressed the society on behalf of the special effort being put forward by the students. He stated that many were ready to go forward and proclaim the gospel in the heathen lands, but the funds were not forthcoming, therefore the work that might be done was left undone. He urged the society to make a special effort to assist them in this great work of redeeming the world for Christ.

ST. PAUL'S SOCIETY

held their monthly consecration meeting Monday night. The meeting was a union meeting, many of the church members being present. During the fore part of the meeting some of the members told of their ideal characters, how their life had helped them. Next Monday a Havergal meeting will be held. An invitation is extended to all to come out to this meeting. The monthly business meeting will take place at a quarter to eight on the same evening. On Friday evening next the Executive will hold their monthly business meeting at the residence of Miss McIntosh.

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST.

This society met on Monday evening and appointed Miss Aldridge to represent them at Washington. The meetings are interesting, although the attendance is not as large as could be desired.

THE PARK STREET SOCIETY

This society holds its meetings on Wednesday evening the attendance is good, a large number of the members of the church being interested in the work. Not a week passes without some new members being added to the roll. Miss Jennie Harmer conducted the meeting last week. It proved profitable to all who were present.

Foaming Ivorine Whitens the Teeth.

Dentists are delighted at the admirable qualities of Ivorine, the new preparation for the teeth. Commendations from the dental profession carry the assurance that fragrant Ivorine is free from the admixture of enamel destroying substances, often the most marked characteristic of tooth powders and that it is the most efficient cleanser yet discovered. Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whitens, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

SUGAR BOUNTIES IN BRITAIN.

Government Not Prepared to Take Initiative Steps Towards Their Abolition.

London, July 2.—In the House of Commons to day Rt. Hon. George N. Curzon, Parliamentary Secretary for Foreign Affairs, stated, in reply to an interrogation by Sir Charles Vincent, Conservative, that the Government were not prepared to take initiative steps towards the abolition of the sugar bounty system.

Replying to a question by Mr. J. G. Weir, Home Rule Liberal, Mr. Curzon said that there had been no negotiations between Great Britain and Brazil in regard to the island of Trinidad since Great Britain had offered to submit the question of the occupation of the island by England to arbitration. To this offer, Mr. Curzon said, Brazil had not yet given her assent.

A JACK OF ALL TRADES.

Emperor William Now Poses as a Practical Naval Officer.

Berlin, July 2.—In a speech at the banquet which followed the launching of the new German battleship, Kaiser Frederick, at Wilhelmshaven yesterday, the Emperor, referring to the construction of the ship, said: "I wish to express to you all, officials and officers, connected with the building of the vessel, my thanks for their acceptance of the hints which I, as a practical naval officer, believe myself able to give you. I hope that the officers will strive to surround the ship with a nimbus of respect and awe, and, when necessary, terror. Our German Fatherland is resolved to go her own way, courting nobody's favor, yet doing nobody wrong, and ever upholding the peace and order of the world."

BISONS AGAIN BEATEN.

Toronto's Make it Three Straights From Franklyn's Freaks.

Both pitchers did good work yesterday up to the seventh, which Buffalo opened one run in the rear. De'shauty fumbled Richie's grounder, and then six men hit safely, two of them doubles, scoring six runs. Toronto did not have to touch Wadsworth, who could not find the rubber, and retired after giving three passes on balls. Then Gunnon came in and was no improvement, he allowing four men to walk, and O'Brien wound up the fun by sending a hot single to right field that Stahl let pass him and four runs scored. Score:

Buffalo	1 1 0 0 0 0 6 0 0—8
Toronto	1 0 0 2 0 0 7 0 *—10

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 22.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in is city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvellous cures through the use of this specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

That hacking, persistent cough can be quickly cured by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It cures all throat and and lung troubles.

STILL HANGING ON.

Sir Charles Clings Tenaciously to the Reins.

THE CABINET WORKING WITH VIGOR

Providing Situations for the Clamorous Ones—Irish Roman Catholics and Newspaper Men in the New House—General News From the Capital.

Ottawa, July3.—The party with "the instinct of government" as they claim do not know enough to get out when they're licked. It is now said that Sir Charles Tupper will dawdle along for a couple of days yet, though Saturday was fixed, according to one of the Quebec Ministers, as the day for abdication. The Cabinet are, however, really earning their money now, as it is calculated they are putting through appointments at the rate of 20 an hour. There was a two hours' session of Council and a meeting of the Treasury Board this afternoon. The Treasury Board deals with offices and salaries. It is still hoped that Sir Charles Tupper will insist on resigning to-morrow as intended. Mr. Chesley, the defeated member for St. John, is pressing for the Collectorship of Customs.

Among to-day's arrivals were Hon. T. C. Casgrain, M.P., Dr. Borden, M. P., Mr. Mulock, M.P., Dr. Ryan of Kingston, and Major McLennan, M.P. Mr. Mulock is en route home, and Dr. Borden returned to Montreal this evening.

In consequence doubtless of the statement published in the calamity press that the George Mathews pork packing establishment in Hull would close down until the new tariff was announced, the firm have issued a circular to their customers and the trade setting themselves right in the following language: "We assure you that we will execute all orders with our usual care and promptitude." Business men will have to be on their guard against statements in the partisan press affecting industries. Certain Tupper newspapers appear to have entered into a conspiracy to destroy public confidence in the future of this country in order to produce a panic and make party capital out of it. It is on a par with the attempt to stir up a racial war in Canada, and both attempts will fail.

The following Irish Catholics are members of the new House of Commons: Costigan, Bergin, Clancey, Devlin, Stenson, Quinn, Poupore, Monk, MaHugh, McInerney, Carroll, Fitzpatrick and Hurley—seven Conservatives and six Liberals.

The newspaper press will be well represented in the new Parliament by the following members: Frank Oliver of Alberta; Hewitt Bostock of Victoria, B.C.; J. Ross Robertson, Toronto; W. F. Maclean, Toronto; R. L. Richardson, Winnipeg; J. V. Ellis, St. John, N.B.; and C. H. Parmelee, Waterloo, Que.

Sir Charles Tupper has taken the seat in the House lately occupied by Mr. L. H. Davies. He will have Mr. Foster on his left in Sir Richard Cartwright's old seat, and Sir Adolphe Caron on his right, in Mr. Laurier's former seat. All the seats on the Ministerial side are taken except some on the last row.

The following appointments will be gazetted to-morrow:

George R. Webster of Brockville, barrister-at-law, to be a chief clerk in the Department of Customs.

Hon. George Burbidge, Judge of the Exchequer Court, to be a Commissioner for the purpose of making an enquiry into and of investigating and adjudicating upon the claim of Gershon S. Mayes, arising out of construction of a pile trestle bridge between Brown's Point and Loch Brown Point, on the Pictou town branch of the Intercolonial Railway.

United Canada strongly urges the appointment of some prominent Irish Catholic to a position in Mr. Laurier's Cabinet.

The return of the following Ontario members will be gazetted to-morrow: West Hastings, Henry Corby; Leeds and Grenville, F. T. Frost; East Toronto; J. Ross Robertson; South Simcoe, Col. Tyrwhitt; North Oxford, James Sutherland; West Toronto, E. B. Osler and E. F. Clarke; Centre Toronto, William Lount; North Lanark, B. Rosamond; East Northumberland, E. Cochrane. Fifteen other members are also to be gazetted.

His Excellency the Governor-General is remaining in the city until the new Ministry is installed. The story was heard on the streets this forenoon that he proposed returning to day to Quebec to attend a naval review, but enquiry showed that he was likely to remain for the present at least.

It is said there will be no militia camps this year. It will be impossible to get the necessary amount put through Parliament in time for the camps being held, unless the House proceeds with business on the 16th of the present month. It is likely, however, that the foregoing statement is incorrect, as Parliament will be able to vote the appropriation for September camps.

A letter received from Capt. Jamieson of the Ottawa Mining and Milling Co., North Bend, B.C., states that after 24 hours' washing of their deposit $400 was cleaned up. This is a remarkably good showing, and the stockholders, who are almost all Ottawans, are congratulated on their good luck.

The Baroness Macdonald of Earnscliffe left for St. John, N.B., and St. Andrew's this afternoon.

A number of applications for Dominion incorporation have been filed this week. The St. Clair & Erie Ship Canal Co. will seek to revive its charter.

The British Pacific Railway Co. will seek incorporation with powers to build a line from Victoria, B.C., to Winnipeg, via Butte Inlet, Cariboo, Edmonton and Prince Albert.

The St. Catharines & Niagara Central Railway Co. will apply to Parliament for an act authorizing an issue of bonds to be applied in repairing, completing and equipping its line, such bonds to be a first charge upon the railway and the undertaking in priority to all other bonds theretofore issued, and also authorizing the company to extend its line so as to connect with the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway near Smithville.

The Canadian Electric Railway and Power Co. seeks power to build an electric railway from Cobourg via Port Hope, Bowmanville, Oshawa, Whitby, Toronto, Oakville and Hamilton to Suspension Bridge and Niagara Falls.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McRae and their son, Ivan, drowned in Lake Deschenes last night, were discovered at daybreak this morning and removed to Ottawa to-night. The funeral takes place to-morrow.

DIED AS A DREAM FORETOLD.

The Boy Disobeyed His Father, Went Swimming and the Parent's Vision Was Realized.

New York, July 3.—When William Watson, who lives at No. 928 Dean-street, Brooklyn, came down to breakfast Wednesday morning he was pale and nervous. In a dream, he told his family, he had seen his eleven-year old boy Jack drown.

"Say, pop," piped up the little chap, giggling over his coffee, "you don't believe in dreams, do you?"

The father said he didn't, but he made the boy promise not to go swimming. After breakfast off went Jack to play with his chums. Some one said a swim would be the thing. Jack said he didn't dare, because his father wouldn't like it.

"Fraid cat," cried the boys, and that settled little Jack. They set out for the "Forty-Foot Pond," within a few blocks of the house, and in a jiffy all hands were sporting in the water. It was a royal time till Jack's 14-year-old brother ran up to the pond.

"Come out!" he shouted. "Pop said not to go in," but Jack made no answer.

"He's drowning," cried another lad, seeing the little fellow beating frantically at the water with his arms.

Dressed as he was, without even taking off his shoes, Tom plunged in and struck out manfully towards his struggling brother. He reached him, but it was a death clutch that the younger boy fastened on him. Tom broke Jack's hold. The drowning boy seized him again, this time by the neck. They sank together, but rose again.

"Don't drown me," screamed Tom, loosening his hold.

"Good-by, Tom," gasped his brother, and then he sank for the last time.

Tom swam ashore and ran crying for help. Christopher McCormick, who has saved two boys from drowning there and has recovered five bodies, heard him, but too late. An hour afterwards he fished up the little fellow's body and it was taken home.

"I know just how Jacky died," said his heart-broken father last night. "In my dream Tuesday night I saw him struggling in the water, sink and then return to the surface. Then I saw him fighting with another boy who was trying to save him.

"I awoke in the middle of the night with a start. Cold drops of sweat were standing out all over me. I did not close my eyes again that night. Jacky was drowned just as I dreamed, within an hour after I told him."

CYCLONE NEAR POUGHKEEPSIE.

Pleasure-Seekers Fell Down Upon Their Knees and Prayed Until the Danger Was Over.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., July 3.—A cyclone struck Upton Lake Park, a famous pleasure resort 12 miles east of here, about 8 o'clock to-night and swept many light frame buildings away. The large pavilion which stood in the centre of the park was badly wrecked, while the one on the bridge was entirely swept away. All the boats on the lake were swept away.

To add to the destruction, a cloudburst occurred and many persons who were out rowing on the lake were rescued with difficulty. At one time it looked as if the entire number of pleasure-seekers would be killed. Nearly every woman and many men fell upon their knees and prayed until the danger was over. Trains did not attempt to run while the storm raged, and there was no shelter for the people.

JUMPED TO DEATH.

Another Man Ends His Life at Toronto.

PLUNGED FROM ROSEDALE BRIDGE

His Arms, Legs and Neck Broken—Mangled Remains Picked Up on the Roadway—No Clue as to the Identity of the Self-Murderer.

Toronto, July 4.

Another suicide from the Rosedale Ravine bridges has been added to the list. Five times during the last few months has a human being thrust himself over these bridges and in four cases with fatal results.

At 6.35 last night an unknown man walked onto the Sherbourne-street bridge until he came to the centre, and then, casting a look up and down the thoroughfare, he was seen to scale the railing and then, after holding the ledge for a moment by his hands, allow himself to drop into space. He fell into the roadway of the Rosedale Drive and was killed instantly.

The little girl who saw the act was Ethel Buckling, 157 Bloor-street east, and she told Peter Wilson, a motorman on a Belt Line car. He went for Dr. J. C. Patton, who lives in Bloor-street east.

The medical man was at the dead man's side a few minutes after the fatal jump. Dr. A. O. Hastings was also summoned and on examination the suicide was found to be in a horribly mangled condition. Both his legs were fractured in several places, his wrists and arms were also broken and his skull was probably fractured at the base.

Policemen Bowers (26) and Ross (106) had arrived by this time, and they summoned the patrol wagon. The remains were removed to the Morgue.

Coroner Greig was notified and issued a warrant for an inquest at the Morgue on Monday.

There was absolutely no mark whatever on any of the man's effects that would lead to his identity. All that was found in his pockets was four coppers, three bits of lead pencil, a pipe, a knife, half a plug of smoking tobacco and a pocket handkerchief with a pink stripe on the border.

The suicide is a largely built man, about 45 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches tall, and would weigh nearly 200 pounds. He is of rather fair complexion, the top of his head being bald, the hair on the sides being sandy-grey in color. He is clean shaven, with the exception of the mustache, which is thick and bristly and of a reddish color. His eyes are blue-grey.

He was attired in a suit of dark grey material with a reddish-brown wide check pattern in it, a flannel shirt, brown merino socks, black laced boots and brown felt hat. His trousers are of a make seldom seen here and known in the Old Country as the Spavor.

Deceased was clothed as a laboring man, but did not seem to look much like one. He had apparently been out of work for a long time, as his hands were very soft.

In police circles it is thought that the man resembles very much an old-timer named Bill Fowler, who lives in the city, but has no settled place of abode.

At the House of Providence they close promptly at 9 o'clock, and it is apparently impossible to get inside or to get communication by telephone after that hour.

Policeman Forrest visited the Morgue late last night and found that deceased was not William Fowler.

It was rumored that deceased had resided at the Victor Mission, but parties from that institution failed to identify the remains.

THIS TINY BABY IS DEAD.

Weighed But Twenty-Four Ounces at Birth and Lived Eight Months—Doll's Clothes Fitted It.

New Brunswick, N.J., July 3.—A baby that has attracted attention all over this part of the country died in this city this morning. Its fame was derived from its diminutive size.

At its birth the baby weighed 24 ounces, and the attending physician, Dr. A. V. N. Baldwin, was positive that it could not live. It was the son of Mr. and Mrs James Mehle, of No. 259 Neilson-street. They and Mrs. Mehle's mother at once set to work to disprove Dr. Baldwin's statement. The tiny child was kept in warm blankets, and all the nourishment he received came from absorption, cod liver oil baths being given him every day. Their success in keeping little James, as he was named, alive, attracted the attention of several physicians, and they also aided the baby's parents.

When seven months old the little fellow weighed but three and a half pounds. The baby wore clothes which would easily fit a doll. Except his head, which seemed slightly large for the rest of his body, every member was well proportioned, and he was considered a fine-looking baby.

After the baby had lived eight months the physicians expressed confidence that he would live. This seemed likely until a few days ago, when he became ill with marasmus and died this morning. The child weighed six pounds before his death.

JAY GOULD'S MILLIONS.

How They Are Now Being Squandered by His Dusky Daughter Anna, the Countess, in Paris.

Paris, July 3.—The Countess Castellane, formerly Miss Anna Gould of New York, gave an elaborate fete today which was, however, somewhat marred by a heavy rain, keeping many invited persons at home and causing other guests to withdraw early.

Three thousand invitations were issued for the affair, and, it is said, half a million francs ($100,000) were spent for the entertainment of the guests.

A host of workmen have been busy for the last week preparing the fireworks and transforming the grounds of the residence on the Cercle des Acacias in the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne.

The fete was opened with a dinner, and at this a series of surprises was provided for the guests. The singing of many choruses, picturesque country dances and fireworks followed.

The entertainment closed with a grand supper.

THE SENATE.

The Montreal Gazette is troubled over the Senate, and tells its readers "the political composition of the Senate is causing much unnecessary worry to Liberal writers, and perhaps toLiberal politicians." It is not. The only feeling Liberal writers and Liberal politicians have for the Senate is one of disgust tempered by amusement and contempt. For surely nothing else could come of such a lamentable spectacle as is now presented by our Upper Chamber, "Since 1878 one or two Liberals have been 'called,' but the rule has been, as in the case of all other appointments of the government of the day, to give Senate seats as they became vacant to party friends. The Liberals in the Upper Chamber number about half a dozen, the ablest of them being Hon. Mr. Scott, of Ottawa, who, in the course of things, may be expected to hold a seat in the new Laurier Cabinet. This preponderance of Conservatives should not, however, be source of alarm to a Liberal government." Then the Gazette proceeds to say in effect that the Senate will not act in a partizan spirit. Of course not. It dare not, and the Gazette need have no fear that the Liberal party feels the slightest alarm over the matter. The "half dozen" represents the new Government, and the remainder of the dried wood will no doubt have sense enough to avoid unduly intruding themselves into legislation of public importance, much less to obstruct. The policy of the new Government concerning the Senate is well known. It is to make it consistent with the Federal principle, and to so amend it as "to bring it into harmony with the principles of popular government." But meantime and until such change in the Constitutional Act as may be deemed necessary can be obtained, the Senate must remain the monumental exhibition of absurdity and uselessness it is. Death has within the past few days made a vacancy and a veteran Liberal member removed. Already, says the Ottawa Free Press, with haste, there is an unruly rush of partizans from various sections clamoring for the place. It is understood that the late member for West Peterborough affects to have a claim upon the Government, though in view of what he has already received for his locality and relatives, in all reason he ought to be satisfied. But the case falls among the appointments which the Government has no right to make. Even if they appointed a Liberal to replace the Liberal just dead, the objection would be as strong. The principle to be asserted is that no appointments of this or any minor nature by the defunct administration can be tolerated.

The Toronto World, with a degree of assurance that rhymes very closely with "cheek," says that, owing to the action of the Liberals in blocking the supplies, there is no money to carry on the public services, and none to pay the salaries of civil servants. If Sir Charles Tupper had not blocked parliamentary business by his absurd and improper juggling with the Redistrict Bill, there would have been abundant time to have voted necessary supplies, and the Liberals would not have objected. But they did object to voting subsidies and other votes of the kind to operate as bribes to constituencies in the then impending elections. If the Conservative papers are anxious to see the civil servants paid their wages, let them demand that Sir Charles Tupper do the decent thing for once, by way of a change, and retire when he is beaten. The sooner the Liberal Government is installed in power the sooner will the machinery of government begin to move.

Do not fail to read Thos. Slater's advertisement on page 3 for men.

NEW BRITISH WARSHIPS.

America's Extravagant Claims Contrasted With English Actualities.

A despatch from San Francisco on Tuesday stated that the newest United States warship Olympia has steamed for four hours under "natural draught" at an average speed of 19.04 knots per hour, "the fastest on record." The latter statement, like many of the claims made in newspapers across the line regarding the merits of new United States warships, is extravagant. Great Britain has a number of cruisers which have shown equal or greater speed, and she has no less than twenty-eight warships just built or building, the slowest of which is calculated to be faster than the Olympia.

One of the twenty-eight new British cruisers, the Doris, was launched recently and this affords the English magazine, Engineering, occasion for a comprehensive glance at the work in progress.

The two great cruisers, Powerful and Terrible, now nearly ready for their trial trips, draw too much water to pass the Suez Canal, as do also the great battleships of the Majestic class. Hence the resolution to construct a large number of modified Powerfuls, as well as the new battleships of the Canopus class, now under way. The Powerful, 500 feet long between perpendiculars, draws 27 feet of water, and has a calculated speed of 22½ knots. The new cruisers are to be as follows: Drawing 25 feet 3 inches, Niobe class, 8 ships, speed 20½ knots, drawing 20 feet 6 inches. Doris class, 12 ships, speed 19½ knots; drawing 18 feet 6 inches, Pelorus class, eight ships, speed 20 knots; in all, twenty-eight new cruisers, all of them with large radius of action and designed expressly for reaching with needful facility the waters beyond the Suez Canal.

The armored cruiser is the modern vessel charged with the functions of the frigate as distinguished from the line-of-battle ship under the old naval organization.

In the new British cruisers, there is, as compared with the Powerful class, little difference in the weight of armament. In place of the 9.2-inch breech-loaders on forecastle and poop, six extra 6-inch guns are mounted in pairs. The protection is on the same line. The armored deck is four inches on the slopes, decreasing to 2½ inches. The main battery consists of sixteen 6-inch guns. Thus it will be perceived that the new ships are formidable fighting machines.

In England's vast navy an addition of twenty-eight ships of even these formidable classes on a single order cuts no great figure per cent. in its total effectiveness. But they constitute an increase of her fighting strength at sea of the armored cruiser style greater than all the other civilized powers of the earth together are building this year. Such is the scale on which the British navy goes.

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 20.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says:—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

AN OPERATION AVOIDED.

A SMITH'S FALLS CASE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE.

Erysipelas in the Face Develops into a Running Sore—Doctors Declared That Only an Operation Could Bring Relief—A Medicine Found Which Made the Painful Operation Unnecessary.

From the Smith's Falls Record.

A famous German medical scientist once remarked that the world is full of men and women who are sick because of their scepticism. The wisdom of this remark was never more self-evident than it is today. There are countless scores of sufferers who would rather suffer than use any medicine not prescribed by their favourite doctor. To these people, perhaps, the story of Mr. Thos. E. Phillips, of Smith's Falls, may convey a moral. The following is the story as given by Mr. Phillips to a record reporter:—"Several years ago I began to fall in weight, lost my appetite and erysipelas started in my face, and then a running sore broke out on my cheek. I consulted three physicians and they all said it would be necessary to remove a portion of the bone. All this time I was unable to do any work and was suffering intense mental and physical agony when I chanced to read in the Record about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and resolved to try them, thinking they would do me no harm anyway. I had not used one box when I felt they were helping me. I continued, and after taking eight boxes the running sore on my cheek completely healed and the operation the doctors said was necessary was avoided. I regained my weight and am once more possessing a good appetite. In fact I was made a new man, so remarkable was the change. We now consider Pink Pills a household necessity." Mr. Phillips was a respectable and well to-do farmer of Wolford township until last spring, when he sold his farm and is now living a retired life in Smith's Falls. He is about fifty years of age, though looking younger, and a living witness of the wonderful curative properties contained in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This great medical discovery has reached the high position which it holds through the power of its own merits. By its timely use the weak are made strong; pale, wan cheeks are given a rosy hue; lost vigour is renewed and the suffering ones are released from pain. If your dealer does not keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, they will be sent by mail on receipt of fifty cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the company at Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Remember that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail, and do not be persuaded to take either a substitute or an imitation.

A RELATIVE OF CECIL RHODES

Now in Toronto—He Has High Opinions of Canada as a Mining Country.

Toronto, July 4.

The Rossin House register last night bore the signature of Mr. James Rhodes of Glossop, Eng., a relative of Hon. Cecil Rhodes, the King of South Africa.

Mr. Rhodes, like his distinguished kinsman, is interested in mining, and to a World representative last night he stated that he believed Canada had the greatest gold, iron and copper mines in the world. All the mines needed was development, and they would prove great wealth-producers. He hoped, he said, to see the scheme for the increase of trade between England and the colonies attended with marked success.

Mr. Rhodes is greatly pleased with Canada, speaking of it as a "magnificent country."

The Guerillas Destroyed.

Havana, July 3.—The news received from Manzanillo of the practical destruction of Oryan's guerillas proves to have been true. Capt. Oryan has arrived on the steamer Anita from Santanon. He reports that a band of rebels, 1000 strong, attacked the guerillas near Las Muchachas. The rebels poured a hot fire into the Spaniards and made several vigorous charges with machetes. All but 30 of the guerillas were either killed or wounded. Capt. Oryan adds that the rebel loss was heavy.

YOUNG HARVIE'S DEATH.

The Doctors After a Post-Mortem Examination are Convinced That He Died From Poison—Inquest Adjourned.

Rosseau, July 3.—A post mortem examination was held this morning by Dr. Young, assisted by Dr. Waddy, and the inquest on the death of Albert James Harvie was resumed at 9 o'clock this morning, when more evidence was given, some of which was contradictory to that given yesterday as to the amount of glasses of beer deceased had taken. The doctors were then called, and gave their evidence, after their post mortem examination, to the effect that they believed deceased came to his death by poison being taken into the system. The coroner then adjourned the inquest until June 17 to allow of an analysis being made by the public analyst of the different organs taken from deceased.

The funeral was held at 4.30 p.m., and was conducted by the I.O.F. Court Rosseau, of which the deceased was a member.

Winnipeg, July 3.—(Special.)—The missing ballot boxes in Selkirk constituency turned up to-day, and it was found that Macdonell, Liberal, had a majority of just one vote. However, Conservative Candidate Armstrong believes that many rejected ballots will be allowed for him, and he applied for a re-count. O na re-count it is anybody's election.

N. F. Davin was to-day declared elected for Western Assiniboia by a majority of five. Patron Candidate McInnis has applied for a re-count.

DROPPED DEAD!

Suddenly Stricken Down By Heart Disease.

"A sad and sudden death occurred to a well-known citizen on one of the leading streets this morning."

Nearly every large city paper contains daily some such heading. The number of deaths from heart failure is very large, but it is only when they occur in some public and sensational manner that general attention is drawn to them.

Palpitation and fluttering of the heart are common complaints. With the heart itself there is nothing radically wrong. But the system is disorganized, the kidneys and liver are out of order, and the stomach is not in condition to do its work porperly. Between them all, they throw too much responsibility on the heart, and the latter is unable to stand the strain.

A box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills at a cost of 25 cents will regulate the system, purify the blood and make a new person of every sickly man, woman or child.

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT

Would Not Commit Himself in Regard to the Cabinet—Sir Oliver is Again in Conference With His Colleagues.

Toronto, July 4.

Sir Richard Cartwright spent a few hours in town yesterday. It is understood that with all those who interviewed him he did not commit himself as to whether he would be Finance Minister in Hon. Mr. Laurier's Cabinet or go as Canadian Commissioner to London or Washington. Among those whom he saw while in town were Sir Oliver Mowat and Hon. A. S. Hardy, W. T. R. Preston, Peter Ryan and James Conmee also waited upon Sir Richard at the Rossin House

Sir Oliver Mowat held conference with his colleagues yesterday afternoon and the time of the council was chiefly taken up with a further consideration of the political situation. A number of applications for the vacant clerkship of the Surrogate Court were laid on the table, but it was decided to leave the office open until after the Premier goes out. It is now understood, however, that Mr. S. F. Bastedo will get the position, but that the son of the late Hon. T. W. Anglin will be allowed to fill it until the fall.

Another matter taken up was the abolition of the York county tollgates. The County Council recently passed an order doing away with these old-time institutions, but the order has to be approved by the Ontario Government before it can go into effect, and this endorsation may be delayed for some time, for a number of citizens of the county have protested against the proposition. These kickers have been informed that the decision on the question will be delayed until the new Provincial Administration is formed, and then Mr. Hardy will hear those who favor the continuation of the gates.

Mr. F. B. Ellis of The St. John, N.B., Globe was at the Rossin House last night, in the course of his wedding trip. Mr. Ellis is the son of Mr. John Y. Ellis, M.P., the proprietor of The Globe.

into trouble with the courts some time ago over an election case and spent a session in jail as a result.

Young Mr. Ellis, who was seen at the Rossin last night, was jubilant over the outcome of the elections, and he stated that Messrs. Fielding, Blair and Davies, the three leading Maritime Province Liberals, who are to be taken into the new Ottawa Cabinet, would strongly urge Mr. Laurier to secure reciprocity with the United States. He said that the leading products of the provinces by the Atlantic are lumber, fish, coal, lime, plaster, granite and horses, and the people wanted these to go across the border free. If they had a chance they could also supply many American starch factories with potatoes, the chief raw material required in the starch industry. The Canadians down by the sea, he said, also desired to be able to bring in fruits and manufactured goods generally free of duty.

RE-COUNTS IN MANITOBA.

Anti-Coercion Conservatives in Winnipeg Delighted Over the Result in East York, Which May Alter Results in West.

Winnipeg, Man., July 3.—(Special.)—Among the anti-Remedial Conservatives of Winnipeg there was much satisfaction to-day when news arrived of the election of Mr. Maclean for East York. The great fight against coercion made by The World attracted wide attention here, and there was much regret when the first returns received announced Mr. Maclean's defeat.

James H. Ashdown, Liberal candidate for Marquette, defeated by one hundred majority, has applied to the court for a re-count.

Hugh Armstrong, Conservative candidate for Selkirk, defeated by one vote, has also made application for re-count.

Mr. Rogers, Conservative candidate, defeated in Lisgar, will follow suit.

The decision as to rejected ballots in East York is expected to apply in all these cases and may alter the results.

Hon. Mr. Ballantyne, ex-Speaker of the Ontario Legislature, was one of the callers at the Government buildings here to-day.

BLAKE SPEAKS FOR DILLON.

Informs the Government That the Nationalists Would Oppose the Irish Education Bill and the Bill Drops.

London, July 3.—In the House of Commons to-day Hon. Edward Blake, member from the South Division of Longford, intimated in behalf of Mr. John Dillon, the leader of the anti-Parnellites, that the Nationalists would oppose the Irish Education Bill, owing to the compulsory clauses contained therein. Thereupon Mr. Gerald Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, said he would move the withdrawal of the bill from Parliament.

"One of my sick headaches," you will hear people frequently say, as if the complaint was hopelessly incurable. As a matter of fact, Ayer's Pills not only relieve sick headache but effectually remove the cause of this distressing complaint and so bring about a permanent cure.

MURDERER GENTRY MUST HANG.

He Killed His Fiancee, Miss Drysdale, the Actress, and Now Shows Cowardice.

Philadelphia, July 3.—Judge Yerkes, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to-day, heard argument for a new trial in the case of James B. Gentry, who was convicted on Saturday last of the murder of his fiancee, Margaret W. Drysdale, known on the stage as Madge Yorke. The motion was overruled and he was sentenced to be hanged. The prisoner bore every appearance of great suffering and he cried bitterly while the Judge was pronouncing the death sentence.

Imperial Parliament.

London, July 3.—In the House of Commons to-day A. J. Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury, announced the withdrawal from Parliament of the Irish Educational Bill.

George N. Curzon, Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, in a reply to an enquiry, said the Porte had agreed to apply immediately the measures which the powers demanded for the purpose of restoring tranquility in Crete.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

FUNERAL OF MR. WILMOT.

A Stroke of Paralysis Carried Off a Popular Resident of Newcastle.

Newcastle, Ont., July 2.—The funeral of Mr. Asa B. Wilmot, whose death occurred at the early age of 49, on June 29, took place this afternoon and was largely attended. Deceased was in charge of the Government fish hatchery at Bedford, N.S., and, receiving a promotion to this branch, came here, his birthplace, three years ago. On May 18, while assisting in loading a car of young fish fry for distribution among the northern lakes, he was stricken with paralysis, which terminated in his death.

Deceased was a son of the late Col Allan Wilmot of this place, was a staunch member of the English Church, a lifelong Conservative, and in the early part of his life he was active in military circles. During his short sojourn among us he has made countless friends. He leaves a wife and a large family to mourn his loss.

Knocked Off Two Votes.

Pembroke, Ont., July 2.—The North Renfrew re-count, held at the instance of Hon. Peter White, to-day lowered Thomas Mackie's Liberal majority from 65 to 63.

VITALITY in MEN Restored

Failing Sexual Strength in Old or Young Men can be QUICKLY and PERMANENTLY cured by me to a healthy, vigorous state. Sufferers from

Nervous Debility
Weakness
Varicocele

and all wasting diseases, should write to me for advice.

I have been a close student for many years of the subject of weakness in men, the fact is, I was a sufferer myself. Too bashful to seek the aid of older men or reputable physicians, I investigated the subject deeply and discovered a simple but most remarkably successful Remedy that completely cured me, and fully enlarged me from a shrunken, stunted condition to natural size and strength. I am a very young or old man to know about it. I take a personal interest in such cases, and no one need hesitate to write me, as all communications are held strictly confidential. I send the recipe of this remedy absolutely free of cost. Do not put it off, but write me fully at once, you will always bless the day you did so. Address,

Slave of Your Foot!

Such should be the shoe—created to protect it from the rough roads of life. But many feet today are slaves to the shoe, because their owners will not consult their feet, when buying footwear. Here is a shoe would give a springy foot-step even to old age, because in the building of the sole no peg or stitch under the foot destroys its elasticity. It is a foot-conforming shoe, and every variety of feet has been considered in its construction. Goodyear welt process—Same as hand-made, at half the price. HOW THE SUN LIFE FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR,—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,871 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

The Band at Ivanrea.

The announcement that the band would play at Ivanrea last night attracted a large attendance of citizens, who, unfortunately, were somewhat disappointed, as the band after playing two numbers were unable, owing to the absence of lights, to continue their programme.

The East and West.

In the West Peterborough election there were cast 53 spoiled ballots and 31 were rejected, about twice as many as in East Peterborough, with nearly a third larger vote. In the East out of 6,486 votes on the lists, 4,091 were polled, while in West Peterborough there were only 3,273 votes cast out of a total 6,890. Besides, according to the EXAMINER'S view, the ballots were more correctly marked in East Peterborough.

The People's Coal Company.

This company has now opened an office at 290 Charlotte street, near the corner of Aylmer, telephone 366, where they are ready to receive and fill all orders entrusted to them. They deliver their coal in bags and have it weighed on the town scales. Prices for July: $5.50 per ton cash for egg, stove, No. 4 and Chestnut; $5.35 for grate. ARTHUR J. MCCLELLAN. 6d1

Peterborough Hospitality Appreciated.

The Lindsay Post of July 3rd says:—Messrs. W. McWatters, C. W. Hanhan, Dr. White, B. E. Stinson, W. A. Leigh and B. Brown, of Lily of the Valley Lodge, C.O.O.F., drove to Peterborough last evening on special degree work for Peterborough lodge. It proved to be an all night session, but the brethren were amply repaid by the excellent supper tendered them, after which they started for home, arriving at Lindsay at seven o'clock. One of the brethren had a particular fancy to capture a "black squirrel" on the way home, but failed in the attempt.

LAID AT REST.

Funeral of the Late Sister Camilla — Mons. Laurent, V.G., Sings a Solemn Requiem Mass.

The funeral services of the late Sister Camilla, who died on Wednesday, took place yesterday morning at nine o'clock at the Mother House, Mount St. Joseph. The remains which had reposed in the Community room were transferred to the chapel, where solemn requiem mass was sung by Mons. Laurent, V.G., Lindsay, with Rev. T. F. Scanlan, deacon, and Rev. M. J. O'Brien, sub-deacon, and Messrs. J. J. O'Brien and T. Crowley as master of ceremonies and thurifer. Ven. Archdeacon Casey, Rev. Father Calnan and Rev. Father O'Connell, of the Cathedral clergy, were present. The Gregorian chant was beautifully rendered by the Sisters of the Community. After mass the Absoute was performed by Mons. Laurent, after which a solemn procession of the Sisters, among whom were those of the Congregation de Notre Dame, followed the remains to the place of interment, the Roman Catholic cemetery, Sisters of the Community of St. Joseph as pall bearers. At the grave the last sad rites were performed by Ven. Archdeacon Casey. Chief among the mourners was the mother of the deceased sister, Mrs. Sullivan, of Halifax, who was present during her daughter's last illness and death. Sister Camilla had been a member of St. Joseph's Community since its foundation in this diocese and up to her last illness had charge of the modern language department in St. Joseph's Convent, Lindsay. She was a sister of Rev. J. J. Sullivan of the diocese of Halifax.

PETERBOROUGH MINING INTERESTS.

Methuen Mica Mines to be Developed.

Mr. W. H. Miller, of Detroit, son-in-law of Mr. J. B. McWilliams, who is in town for a few days, went up to Methuen Friday to make arrangements for resuming mining operations in the mica mine on lot 13 in the 9th concession of Methuen. It is understood that work will be carried on on a liberal scale. Besides the rich deposits of mica, there is considerable feldspar, which is used in porcelain works. The McWilliams copper mine on the 10th concession of Dummer will probably be developed in a very short time. There are fine indications of copper, which will amply pay the expense of operating the mine.

—There was a fairly large market this morning. The principal offerings were small fruit, cherries, strawberries, gooseberries and currants.

—Fishing poles of all kinds, fishing tackle, tennis balls and tennis racquets, lacrosse and baseball goods, cheapest place in town, at Salisbury's Bookstore. d

This is July 4th and dear to our Yankee cousins as a national holiday. Enough powder will be burnt in Uncle Sam's dominions to blast all the rock on the route of the Trent Valley Canal.

—The Belleville Intelligencer says:—Quartermaster Langford and his fatigue party made quick work of striking the tents yesterday. They began at daylight and at 4:30 all the tents and appliances were loaded for shipment to Ottawa, and the party left for Peterborough last evening.

—Miss McAllister, from Bishop Taylor's Mission, Africa, and who is home on furlough for a short time, will speak in Bethany Tabernacle, Hunter street, Sunday, at 7 p. m., and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 8 p. m. Also weather permitting will speak in Inverlea Park Sunday afternoon, at 3.15.

—Much regret is being expressed on every hand, remarks the Millbrook Reporter, that the Grand Trunk should have seen fit to take off the local train. The inconvenience felt by our business people is great, and we think representation should at once be made to the railway authorities to have the grievance remedied. Failing that we do not see why a stage to Cavanville could not be arranged, which would be well patronized by our citizens.

After the regular business of the evening refreshments were served the brethren and a pleasant half hour spent in speech-making and social converse. The District Deputy was in his usual vein of good humour and delighted the brethren with some pointed and mirth provoking remarks.

MASONIC PRESENTATION.

Mr. W. J. Drope is the Recipient of a Gold Watch from His Masonic Brethren.

At the close of the regular meeting of Peterborough Lodge, No. 155, A. F. & A. M., held on Friday evening, Mr. W. J. Drope, the Senior Warden of the Lodge, was presented with a gold watch as a token of the esteem in which he is held by the brethren of his lodge.

Wor. Bro. D. Spence made the presentation on behalf of the officers and members of the lodge. In some well chosen and appropriate remarks he referred to the regrets the brethren had at losing Bro. Drope and also the loss Bro. Drope would sustain by vacating his present office, which was the stepping stone to his preferment to the chair in the East.

Bro. Drope, who had been kept in the dark as to the intentions of his brethren, was deeply impressed with the substantial mark of respect so suddenly bestowed upon him. He, however, asked for time to brace himself up, and on resuming his place in the West, rose again and most heartily thanked the brethren for the splendid surprise they had given him. He said he had never been more surprised in his life. He esteemed the gift very highly and would remember the circumstances as long as he lived. He certainly had reason to feel proud when he reflected that he would leave Peterborough carrying with him so many good wishes from his friends. It was with unfeigned regret that he left Peterborough, but he did not take the step without due consideration. He especially regretted severing his connection with Peterborough Lodge, as he had aspired to the proud position of W.M., which he would have liked to fill had he been able to remain until the end of the year. He regretted, too, when he reflected how he would miss the pleasant associations connected with the craft inside the lodgeroom as well as outside. He was, however, hopeful as to his prospects for the future, and while he would be separated from them by distance, he would not sever his connection with the lodge and hoped to be able to visit them frequently.

The watch, which was supplied by Messrs. Clarke & Gibson, is a handsome timepiece in gold case, fitted with a superior movement, bearing the following inscription on the back:

Presented to Bro. W. J. Drope, S.W., by the brethren of Peterborough Lodge, No. 155, A. F. and A. M., G. R. C.
Peterborough, July 3rd, 1896.

After the lodge was closed down the brethren adjourned to their refreshment hall, where an excellent luncheon was spread by Bro. J. Watt, confectioner. About fifty of the brethren sat down and enjoyed the repast, after which W. Bro. Alex. Gibson was voted to the chair, and proposed the toast of the "Queen and the Craft," and "The Grand Lodge and Grand Officers," both of which were loyally and fraternally received, the latter being responded to by V. W. Bro. C. Cameron, V. W. Bro. W. M. Miller, R. W. Bro. R. E. Wood and R. W. Bro. B. Shortly.

R. W. Bro. R. E. Wood, D.D.G.M., proposed the health of Bro. Drope, to which the latter made a fitting reply and also favoured the company with a song.

The chairman gave the toast of "Our Visitors," which elicited appropriate replies from W. Bro. P. M. Clarke, W. Bro. Dr. Eastwood and Bro. W. S. Johnstone.

Bro. W. Bamford, after some pleasant references to Bro. Drope, gave the J. W's. toast, when the brethren joined hands in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Remember the Charlotte Street Sunday School Picnic, on Tuesday, July 7th, to Jubilee Point. Tickets 40c. Boat leaves Wharf at 8 o'clock, sharp.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Kempt's family arrived in town permanently yesterday.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox is in town to-day and goes up to Stony Lake this evening.

Miss Edgar, of Peterborough, was the guest of Miss Maggie Howson for a few days.

Mrs. Olivia Mark, of Toronto, is visiting at Mrs. (Rev.) Clarke's, 386 Stewart street.

Miss Ida Bogan is spending her vacation in Toronto, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Chestnut.

Miss Edna Macfarlane left this morning for Chicago, where she will spend two months holidays.

Mrs. French, sister of E. W. Rathbun, was married at Deseronto on Tuesday to Mr. Powell, of Ottawa.

Mr. James Stevenson is in Ottawa to-day in connection with the vacant Senatorship of the Peterborough district.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chestnut, of Toronto, spent a few days in town the guests of the latter's brother, Mr. Wm. Bogan.

Mrs. A. F. Zachau and children, of New York, are home for the summer, the guests of Mrs. Zachau's father, Mr. Wm. Lech.

The Lindsay Post says that Mr. Archibald and wife, of Peterborough, were the guests of Mrs. Ewart, Kent street, on Dominion Day.

Miss Louise Daly, who made many friends during her recent visit to Peterborough, has been engaged as solo singer in the Presbyterian church, Picton, for the summer months.

Miss Mattie Robeson, who has occupied the position of organist in the Methodist church, Warsaw, was presented with an address and a well filled purse by the congregation prior to her departure for Colborne.

Mr. J. J. Turner is always to the fore when there is any good work to be done. At a concert on board the "New York" in his passage across the ocean, in aid of several seaman's societies, Mr. Turner contributed to the programme by singing "Come Along, Do."

Dr. Bingham leaves to-day for two month's vacation. His office will be closed till September 1st. The genial and jocular doctor's many friends, while wishing him a pleasant outing, will greatly miss his sly waggery and caustic comments on current events.

Good morning, have you read Thos. Slater's advertisement for men on page 3?

CONTRADICTION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—In view of a rumour that is being circulated through the town to the effect that I am leaving Chemong Park Hotel, I ask space to state that there is no truth whatever in such a rumour. I am still at Chemong and the popularity of the place as shown by the large patronage the park and hotel are enjoying is certainly no reason for my leaving, which I wish to say again I am not doing.

Yours truly,
L. G. FOSBERT.

On the last day of school the promotions were made and pupils were given a list of the books, etc., which they will require. School will re-open (D.V.) on Tuesday, September 1, and it is hoped that every pupil will be present on the opening day, supplied with everything necessary to begin work at once, as absence at the beginning of the term retards not only the absent pupils but also the whole class.

THE ONTARIO CABINET VACANCY

Mr. Stratton's Name Continues to be Favourably Mentioned.

The matter of filling the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, is still engaging the attention of the press as shown by the following extracts:

Belleville Sun.

Brer. Stratton continues to be the most talked of man in connection with the Ontario Cabinet vacancy.

Millbrook Reporter.

Brer. Stratton, of the EXAMINER, M.P.P. for West Peterborough, is being generally spoken of as likely to enter the Toronto Cabinet in place of Sir Oliver Mowat should the little premier go to Ottawa. We sincerely hope to see Mr. Stratton exalted to the position, believing his abilities eminently fit him to take charge of any department in the Cabinet. His genial disposition and thorough uprightness of character would also go far to replace the vacuum made by the absence of Sir Oliver. No other need apply.

Toronto Telegram, July 3rd.

The Ontario Cabinet Council met yesterday afternoon and spent a couple of hours discussing the outlook for the Liberals at Ottawa, and the probable changes to be made in the Cabinet, of which Arthur Sturges Hardy will be the head. No move is likely to be made until Sir Charles Tupper resigns. James R. Stratton's chances for a Cabinet position with Mr. Hardy have improved very much in the last few days, and the general opinion is that he will be the lucky man.

Persons who do not stop to think, talk of a possible Patron member of the new Ontario Cabinet. They must forget that the Ontario Government has a first-class working majority without a single Patron vote, and that those who have been faithful Grits for many years are they from whom must be selected any who are to be favoured. The same irresponsible parties talk of Hon. John Dryden influencing Mr. Laurier to appoint a Patron Minister of Agriculture, but the same state of affairs seems to obtain in the Ottawa House, and renders such action altogether unnecessary.

Kingston Whig.

The filling of a Cabinet vacancy at Toronto, consequent upon the transfer by Sir Oliver Mowat of his co-operation to the Dominion Cabinet, is attracting not a little attention. It goes without saying that Hon. A. S. Hardy will be Premier, and that Kingston's member will be offered the Provincial Secretaryship as a choice. Three men are favourably spoken of for the vacant post, as already stated, Messrs. Balfour, Davis and Stratton, all good men and true, each in his way a forcible speaker and from his personal strength and local association a tower of strength to the Liberal party. But in this case justice seems to point to the selection of Mr. Stratton. Mr. Balfour has already been honoured with the speakership, the tenancy of which will last for two years to come, therefore the choice is made easy for those who consistently advocate greater eastern representation through Mr. Stratton. Out of seven members of the Cabinet only two represent Eastern Ontario. It would seem only just that this proportion should be made the more fair in the proportion of four to three. This section of the province has felt itself somewhat neglected and despised in Liberal eyes in view of its old-time Conservative prejudices, but the clouds have been rolling away with steadiness until a bright political sky is in full sight. Its progress will be enhanced by greater representation in the Cabinet, and the people will hail with no little pleasure the recognition of their growing strength and importance. Mr. Stratton deserves the good will of his party as he is a stirring fighter and has virtually wrested a constituency from an old-time Conservative representative. This has not been accomplished without the very hardest of personal exertion, coupled with undoubted popularity. Among the kindly words spoken by political friends and opponents alike, there is a general agreement that Mr. Stratton is a good business man, an able journalist, a good debater, and one of the most promising of young politicians.

Toronto Mail and Empire, July 3rd.

Three names are now mentioned in connection with the approaching vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, Mr. Balfour, Mr. Stratton and Dr. McKay, of Ingersoll. If the position goes to the west either Mr Balfour or Dr. McKay will get it. Both are active men. Dr. McKay's friends speak highly of him as a politician, a debater and a worker, and they declare that his appointment would be satisfactory to the medical profession, seeing that while there have been lawyers galore in the Cabinet there has not been a doctor there, although, as can be readily understood, one is much needed. Mr. Stratton, however, seems to have the pull, not only because of his ability and his personal popularity, but because the East demands a fairer representation in the Ministry. The West has had the run of the Cabinet offices for years and now the East demands consideration.

Uxbridge Journal.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, of Peterborough, is mentioned for a vacancy in the Ontario cabinet when Sir Oliver Mowat leaves it. Mr. Stratton has always been a painstaking member, and combines business ability with his debating skill, so that he would be a suitable man to place in charge of a department.

Cobourg Sentinel-Star.

The retirement of Sir Oliver Mowat from provincial politics to enter the Dominion arena, will leave a vacancy in the Ontario government. Amongst those who are in the race for the vacancy there is no man possessed of more energy and ability than Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., of Peterborough, and while Sir Oliver is not generally in the habit of adopting his course on the advice of this Conservative journal, he will no doubt give due attention to the claims of a man who is supported by Liberals and Conservatives alike. Mr. Stratton is a very able man, and as there is no representative in the government from the Midland district, Mr. Stratton should be awarded the position in justice to this section of country, and as a recognition of his services to the Liberal party. We sincerely trust that our representative, Mr. Field, M.P.P., is doing his best to assist Mr. Stratton in having his claims recognised.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

MRS. HARVIE AND HER GOOD WORK.

HER RELATION TO THE CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

Her Address in St. Paul's in its Interests—The Society and its Objects—The Work it is Doing—Mrs. Harvie's Philanthropic Record.

Among the many developments of Christianity and of the civilization founded upon it, the one most akin in character and accomplishment to the spirit of the Divine Master in relation to little children, is the Children's Aid Society.

In no department of philanthropy or statecraft is the spirit of the proverb, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," more applicable than in the work of the Children's Aid Society—the rescue of children, with their untold possibilities of usefulness, from the dangers of vicious environments, and the translation to the virtuous surroundings and wholesome moral influences of Christian homes, a circumstance that involves the almost certainty of growth and development into virtuous and useful members of society, instead of growing up criminals and becoming menaces to the safety of society and burdens or, at the best, parasites upon the state.

The objects and aims of the Children's Aid Society, as founded upon what is popularly known as introduced by Hon. J. M. Gibson in 1893 and unanimously passed by the Ontario Legislature, have been so often set forth in these columns that it is hardly necessary to again refer to them. Their importance and value and comprehensive scope have been practically demonstrated.

The salient features of this great work may be briefly summarized as, first, the protection of children from neglect and cruelty on the part of either unnatural parents or depraved guardians, and secondly, the placing of neglected or dependant children in foster homes instead of in charitable institutions, a system that specialises philanthropy, individualizes it and eliminates the element of charity, which, in the lower and more material sense, implies something of degradation, or, at least, humiliation and loss of self-respect; that replaces the natural affection that vice has diverted or destroyed, and restores the home atmosphere that vice has polluted and made mephitic. To give continuity and permanence to the system, legislative sanction, as mentioned above, has been given by the establishment of a Government department devoted to the giving of advice and the supplying of suitable literature, the formation of children's aid societies, such as we have in Peterborough doing an excellent work, and the establishment of a central system of supervision, which prevents children placed in foster homes being lost sight of or allowed to be subjected to possible ill-treatment in their foster homes.

To ensure proper and judicious supervision, the Ontario Government has appointed whose duty it is to visit and look after the welfare of the 300 children placed out in foster homes under the authority of the act and to take proper measures in cases where such methods are indicated, and to see in general that the spirit of the act is carried out.

With that admirable intuition that characterizes the Ontario Government in selecting the right man for the right place or the right woman for the right work, the Government has appointed Mrs. L. J. Harvie, of Toronto, whose record as a practical philanthropist abundantly vindicates the wisdom of the choice. Mrs. Harvie has been engaged in various capacities in philanthropic work for the past twenty years. For twenty years she has been the foreign secretary of the Women's Foreign Missionary society; sixteen years president of the Haven and Prison Gate Mission work and for four years acting president of the Hospital for Sick Children and for twenty years actively associated with the latter work.

Mrs. Harvey is thus eminently qualified for the work she is engaged in and her record should prove a sure passport to popular favour and confidence.

Mrs. Harvey's visit to town was mainly in the interest of the society, with whose position and work in town she is very favourably impressed. She bears willing testimony to the admirable work done by the secretary, Mr. Hampden Burnham, and also to the valuable services of the agent, Mr. F. W. Miller. As an outcome of the fifty cases that have come under the action of the society here, about a dozen or fifteen children have been where they are receiving that Christian culture and Christian kindness that their erstwhile desolate lives were strangers to.

While in town Mrs. Harvie paid official visits to the several wards of the society, and bears testimony to the excellency of the provision for their virtuous training and preparation for lives of usefulness. Mrs. Harvie, also visited the local charitable institutions—the Nicholls Hospital, the Hazel Brae Home and the Protestant Home—and was very favourably impressed.

Yesterday afternoon she addressed a large gathering of ladies, in the school room of St. Paul's church, upon the work and needs of the society, showing the necessity of getting Christian people interested in the work, and to induce them to communicate their knowledge of suitable homes to the superintendent, Mr. J. J. Kelso, Parliament Buildings, Toronto; to co-operate with the local society in giving information that will be useful in the work of rescue; and lastly, but by no means the least important way in which the work can be advanced, is the enlistment of those who can assist in this way in the providing of the funds which are badly needed at this time for the successful and energetic prosecution of the society's beneficent work.

There are now three hundred children placed in foster homes under the Act, and these come directly under Mrs. Harvie's supervision. Her visit to Peterborough will no doubt be in the excitation of a more lively interest in perhaps the most practical and promising phase of practical Christianity, all things considered, that is engaging attention at the present day. Children's Aid Society work is reparative, preservative and preventive, a trinity of good qualities that distinguishes hardly any other agency under human conditions, as contrasted with the directly divine.

MISSIONARY INTERESTS.

While in town Mrs. Harvey sought other outlets for her Christian activities. On Thursday evening she addressed the St. Paul's Mission Band respecting the mission work in the North-west, and yesterday afternoon she gave an interesting address to the St. Paul's Auxiliary of the W. F. M. S. upon the Round Lake work in the Qu'appelle district in the charge of Rev. Hugh McKay.

A few moments spent in the genial atmosphere of Mrs. Harvie's presence impresses one with the depth of her interest in the promotion of good works and with her communicable enthusiasm which specially fits her for missionary work whether in the sphere of Children's Aid Society work or in the wider sphere of Christian activity, as represented by the aggressive work of the church.

THE ONTARIO CABINET VACANCY

Mr. Stratton's Name Continues to be Favourably Mentioned.

The matter of filling the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, is still engaging the attention of the press as shown by the following extracts:

Belleville Sun.

Brer. Stratton continues to be the most talked of man in connection with the Ontario Cabinet vacancy.

Millbrook Reporter.

Brer. Stratton, of the EXAMINER, M.P.P. for West Peterborough, is being generally spoken of as likely to enter the Toronto Cabinet in place of Sir Oliver Mowat should the little premier go to Ottawa. We sincerely hope to see Mr. Stratton exalted to the position, believing his abilities eminently fit him to take charge of any department in the Cabinet. His genial disposition and thorough uprightness of character would also go far to replace the vacuum made by the absence of Sir Oliver. No other need apply.

Toronto Telegram, July 3rd.

The Ontario Cabinet Council met yesterday afternoon and spent a couple of hours discussing the outlook for the Liberals at Ottawa, and the probable changes to be made in the Cabinet, of which Arthur Sturges Hardy will be the head. No move is likely to be made until Sir Charles Tupper resigns. James R. Stratton's chances for a Cabinet position with Mr. Hardy have improved very much in the last few days, and the general opinion is that he will be the lucky man.

Persons who do not stop to think, talk of a possible Patron member of the new Ontario Cabinet. They must forget that the Ontario Government has a first-class working majority without a single Patron vote, and that those who have been faithful Grits for many years are they from whom must be selected any who are to be favoured. The same irresponsible parties talk of Hon. John Dryden influencing Mr. Laurier to appoint a Patron Minister of Agriculture, but the same state of affairs seems to obtain in the Ottawa House, and renders such action altogether unnecessary.

Kingston Whig.

The filling of a Cabinet vacancy at Toronto, consequent upon the transfer by Sir Oliver Mowat of his co-operation to the Dominion Cabinet, is attracting not a little attention. It goes without saying that Hon. A. S. Hardy will be Premier, and that Kingston's member will be offered the Provincial Secretaryship as a choice. Three men are favourably spoken of for the vacant post, as already stated, Messrs. Balfour, Davis and Stratton, all good men and true, each in his way a forcible speaker and from his personal strength and local association a tower of strength to the Liberal party. But in this case justice seems to point to the selection of Mr. Stratton. Mr. Balfour has already been honoured with the speakership, the tenancy of which will last for two years to come, therefore the choice is made easy for those who consistently advocate greater eastern representation through Mr. Stratton. Out of seven members of the Cabinet only two represent Eastern Ontario. It would seem only just that this proportion should be made the more fair in the proportion of four to three. This section of the province has felt itself somewhat neglected and despised in Liberal eyes in view of its old-time Conservative prejudices, but the clouds have been rolling away with steadiness until a bright political sky is in full sight. Its progress will be enhanced by greater representation in the Cabinet, and the people will hail with no little pleasure the recognition of their growing strength and importance. Mr. Stratton deserves the good will of his party as he is a stirring fighter and has virtually wrested a constituency from an old-time Conservative representative. This has not been accomplished without the very hardest of personal exertion, coupled with undoubted popularity. Among the kindly words spoken by political friends and opponents alike, there is a general agreement that Mr. Stratton is a good business man, an able journalist, a good debater, and one of the most promising of young politicians.

Toronto Mail and Empire, July 3rd.

Three names are now mentioned in connection with the absorbing vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, Mr. Balfour, Mr. Stratton and Dr. McKay, of Ingersoll. If the position goes to the west either Mr Balfour or Dr. McKay will get it. Both are active men. Dr. McKay's friends speak highly of him as a politician, a debater and a worker, and they declare that his appointment would be satisfactory to the medical profession, seeing that while there have been lawyers galore in the Cabinet there has not been a doctor there, although, as can be readily understood, one is much needed. Mr. Stratton, however, seems to have the pull, not only because of his ability and his personal popularity, but because the East demands a fairer representation in the Ministry. The West has had the run of the Cabinet offices for years and now the East demands consideration.

Uxbridge Journal.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, of Peterborough, is mentioned for a vacancy in the Ontario cabinet when Sir Oliver Mowat leaves it. Mr. Stratton has always been a painstaking member, and combines business ability with his debating skill, so that he would be a suitable man to place in charge of a department.

Cobourg Sentinel-Star.

The retirement of Sir Oliver Mowat from provincial politics to enter the Dominion arena, will leave a vacancy in the Ontario government. Amongst those who are in the race for the vacancy there is no man possessed of more energy and ability than Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., of Peterborough, and while Sir Oliver is not generally in the habit of adopting his course on the advice of this Conservative journal, he will no doubt give due attention to the claims of a man who is supported by Liberals and Conservatives alike. Mr. Stratton is a very able man, and as there is no representative in the government from the Midland district, Mr. Stratton should be awarded the position in justice to this section of country, and as a recognition of his services to the Liberal party. We sincerely trust that our representative, Mr. Field, M.P.P., is doing his best to assist Mr. Stratton in having his claims recognised.

MRS. HARVIE AND HER GOOD WORK.

HER RELATION TO THE CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

Her Address in St. Paul's in its Interests—The Society and its Objects—The Work it is Doing—Mrs. Harvie's Philanthropic Record.

Among the many developments of Christianity and of the civilization founded upon it, the one most akin in character and accomplishment to the spirit of the Divine Master in relation to little children, is the Children's Aid Society.

In no department of philanthropy or statecraft is the spirit of the proverb, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," more applicable than in the work of the Children's Aid Society—the rescue of children, with their untold possibilities of usefulness, from the dangers of vicious environments, and the translation to the virtuous surroundings and wholesome moral influences of Christian homes, a circumstance that involves the almost certainty of growth and development into virtuous and useful members of society, instead of growing up criminals and becoming menaces to the safety of society and burdens or, at the best, parasites upon the state.

The objects and aims of the Children's Aid Society, as founded upon what is popularly known as introduced by Hon. J. M. Gibson in 1893 and unanimously passed by the Ontario Legislature, have been so often set forth in these columns that it is hardly necessary to again refer to them. Their importance and value and comprehensive scope have been practically demonstrated.

The salient features of this great work may be briefly summarized as, first, the protection of children from neglect and cruelty on the part of either unnatural parents or depraved guardians, and secondly, the placing of neglected or dependant children in foster homes instead of in charitable institutions, a system that specializes philanthropy, individualizes it and eliminates the element of charity, which, in the lower and more material sense, implies something of degradation, or, at least, humiliation and loss of self-respect; that replaces the natural affection that vice has diverted or destroyed, and restores the home atmosphere that vice has polluted and made mephitic. To give continuity and permanence to the system, legislative sanction, as mentioned above, has been given by the establishment of a Government department devoted to the giving of advice and the supplying of suitable literature, the formation of children's aid societies, such as we have in Peterborough doing an excellent work, and the establishment of a central system of supervision, which prevents children placed in foster homes being lost sight of or allowed to be subjected to possible ill-treatment in their foster homes.

To ensure proper and judicious supervision, the Ontario Government has appointed whose duty it is to visit and look after the welfare of the 300 children placed out in foster homes under the authority of the act and to take proper measures in cases where such methods are indicated, and to see in general that the spirit of the act is carried out.

With that admirable intuition that characterises the Ontario Government in selecting the right man for the right place or the right woman for the right work, the Government has appointed Mrs. L. J. Harvie, of Toronto, whose record as a practical philanthropist abundantly vindicates the wisdom of the choice. Mrs. Harvie has been engaged in various capacities in philanthropic work for the past twenty years. For twenty years she has been the foreign secretary of the Women's Foreign Missionary society; sixteen years president of the Haven and Prison Gate Mission work and for four years acting president of the Hospital for Sick Children and for twenty years actively associated with the latter work.

Mrs. Harvey is thus eminently qualified for the work she is engaged in and her record should prove a sure passport to popular favour and confidence.

Mrs. Harvey's visit to town was mainly in the interest of the society, with whose position and work in town she is very favourably impressed. She bears willing testimony to the admirable work done by the secretary, Mr. Hampden Burnham, and also to the valuable services of the agent, Mr. F. W. Miller. As an outcome of the fifty cases that have come under the action of the society here, about a dozen or fifteen children have been where they are receiving that Christian culture and Christian kindness that their erst while desolate lives were strangers to.

PLACED IN EXCELLENT FOSTER HOMES,

While in town Mrs. Harvie paid official visits to the several wards of the society, and bears testimony to the excellency of the provision for their virtuous training and preparation for lives of usefulness. Mrs. Harvie, also visited the local charitable institutions—the Nicholls Hospital, the Hazel Brae Home and the Protestant Home—and was very favourably impressed.

Yesterday afternoon she addressed a large gathering of ladies, in the school room of St. Paul's church, upon the work and needs of the society, showing the necessity of getting Christian people interested in the work, and to induce them to communicate their knowledge of suitable homes to the superintendent, Mr. J. J. Kelso, Parliament Buildings, Toronto; to co-operate with the local society in giving information that will be useful in the work of rescue; and lastly, but by no means the least important way in which the work can be advanced, is the enlistment of those who can assist in this way in the providing of the funds which are badly needed at this time for the successful and energetic prosecution of the society's beneficent work.

There are now three hundred children placed in foster homes under the Act, and these come directly under Mrs. Harvie's supervision. Her visit to Peterborough will no doubt be in the excitation of a more lively interest in perhaps the most practical and promising phase of practical Christianity, all things considered, that is engaging attention at the present day. Children's Aid Society work is reparative, preservative and preventive, a trinity of good qualities that distinguishes hardly any other agency under human conditions, as contrasted with the directly divine.

MISSIONARY INTERESTS.

While in town Mrs. Harvey sought other outlets for her Christian activities. On Thursday evening she addressed the St. Paul's Mission Band respecting the mission work in the North-west, and yesterday afternoon she gave an interesting address to the St. Paul's Auxiliary of the W. F. M. S. upon the Round Lake work in the Qu'appelle district in the charge of Rev. Hugh McKay.

A few moments spent in the genial atmosphere of Mrs. Harvie's presence impresses one with the depth of her interest in the promotion of good works and with her communicable enthusiasm which specially fits her for missionary work whether in the sphere of Children's Aid Society work or in the wider sphere of Christian activity, as represented by the aggressive work of the church.

A woman's headaches may come from several causes. She may have a headache arising from nervousness, or from digestive disturbances; just the same as a man might suffer for the same reasons. Nine cases in ten, however, her headaches come from disorders peculiar to her sex. Possibly the apparent cause of the headache will be nervousness or indigestion, while the cause of these is not thought of. The organs distinctly feminine are more vital than any other organs in a woman's body. Any trouble of those affects the whole body. It may show itself in the symptoms which are characteristic of a dozen disorders. Thousands of times, women have been treated for the disorders thought to be indicated by these symptoms, when the real trouble was much deeper and more serious. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was compounded for the sole purpose of relieving womankind of the ills and pains very commonly considered the uncomfortable inheritance of her sex. It cures where really good physicians have failed. Thousands of women have testified that after taking treatment from several physicians without benefit, the "Favorite Prescription" cured them completely and quickly. It has been used for over thirty years, and has an unbroken record of success. The afflicted woman will find immediate relief and ultimate cure in the "Favorite Prescription." There is no doubt about it—there is no question about it. The woman who hesitates is invited to send 21 one-cent stamps for customs and cost of mailing a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This celebrated work contains full information about Dr. Pierce's medicines, with the reproduced photographs of hundreds of people who have been cured by these world-famed remedies, also giving their names and addresses, besides plain, clear information about all of the organs of the human body and their functions. It has reached the unprecedented sale of 680,000 copies at $1.50 a copy. Thus the expense of preparation has been defrayed, and now 500,000 copies will be absolutely given away. Remember that this book is not a mere advertising pamphlet, but a genuine standard work of 1008 large pages, over 300 illustrations, some of them in colors. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y.

CANADA STANDS FIFTH

Among the Maritime Powers of the World —New Vessels Built Last Year— Ottawa Notes.

Ottawa, July 3.—(Special.)—The Department of Marine and Fisheries has just published the Canadian shipping list for the year 1895. The total number of vessels on the register book of the Dominion on Jan. 1 last, including old and new vessels, sailing vessels, steamers and barges, was 7262, measuring 825,836 tons registered tonnage, being an increase of 17 vessels, and a decrease of 43,788 tons register, as compared with 1894. The number of steamers on the registry book on the same date was 1718, with a gross tonnage of 247,007 tons. Assuming the average value to be $30 per ton, the value of the registered tonnage of Canada would be $24,775,080.

The number of new vessels built and registered in the Dominion during last year was 250, measuring 16,270 tons registered tonnage. Estimating the value of the new tonnage at $45 per ton, it gives a total value of $732,150 for the new vessels.

Canada occupies the proud position of being the fifth maritime power in the world, the comparative figures being as follows:

Great Britain	9,650,275 tons
United States	1,850,416 tons
Germany	1,549,983 tons
Norway	1,532,192 tons
Canada	825,837 tons
France	731,564 tons
Italy	706,488 tons
Russia	514,319 tons

Norway and Sweden jointly are entitled to second place, Sweden's tonnage being 486,506.

This was the 75th birthday of the Premier. Sir Charles was the recipient of congratulations from friends both in town and at a distance. The staff of the State Department placed a beautiful bouquet of roses on the Premier's office table, with a card wishing him many happy returns of the day.

Further argument was heard before Justice Burbidge in the Exchequer Court in the claim of Connolly Bros. against the Crown in connection with their contract for the Kingston Graving Dock.

Blood-purifiers, though gradual, are radical in their effect. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is intended as a medicine only and not a stimulant, excitant or beverage. Immediate results may not always follow its use; but after a reasonable time, permanent benefit is certain to be realized.

THE MARKETS.

WHEELER OWNS UP.

Annie Kempton's Murderer Makes a Confession.

THE GIRL FOUGHT DESPERATELY.

One of the Most Horrible Murders Ever Perpetrated in Nova Scotia—The Little Dining Room Spattered With Blood—A Revolting Spectacle Presented.

Digby, N.S., July 3.—Peter Wheeler, who was on Tuesday convicted of the murder of 14-year-old Annie Kempton at Bear River, and sentenced to death, to-day confessed that he committed the crime. It was one of the most horrible murders ever perpetrated in Nova Scotia.

Wheeler says he killed the girl between 11 and 1 o'clock at night, after she had made a desperate effort to save herself from assault.

In the terrible battle for honor and life the little dining room in which the murder was committed was spattered with blood, and when the body was discovered the following day it presented a sickening spectacle.

The description of the tragedy given by the prisoner is a ghastly and revolting one, showing that in his anger and desperation he took the most extreme measures to overcome the girl before he finally concluded, for his own future safety, to commit the greater crime of murder. Wheeler says he realizes the gravity of the act he committed and is now willing to die for taking the girl's life. He had been infatuated with Annie Kempton for some time, but after receiving his attentions for a while she became tired of him and afterwards repulsed all his advances. He had been known to make threats against her on several occasions. Though all the evidence at the trial was circumstantial, it was considered conclusive.

The murder took place on the night of Jan. 27, and on its discovery and the arrest of Wheeler on suspicion, feeling ran so high that for a time lynching was feared. To obtain a fair trial, a change of venue to Kentville was secured. Wheeler is under sentence to be executed here Sept. 8.

HER SIMPLE BURIAL.

The Remains of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe Committed to Earth at Andover, Mass.

Andover, Mass., July 3.—Great simplicity marked the commitment to earth of the body of Harriet Beecher Stowe this afternoon, in accordance with the wishes of the famous authoress. Her final resting place is behind the chapel of the Andover Theological Seminary on Andover Hill. The grave is set in a beautiful landscape. In the northwest corner of the lot is a sunken slab of granite. A cross, a part of the same block, rests upon it, at the foot of which is the inscription:

Calvin Ellis Stowe—Born April 20, 1802; died Aug. 22, 1887.

"The common people heard him gladly."—Mark xii., 37.

On the opposite corner of the lot, south, is a plain marble cross, set in a granite base. The inscription reads:

Henry E. B. Stowe—Who was drowned in the Connecticut River while a member of Dartmouth College, July 19, 1847, aged 19.

Between her husband and her son, the body of Mrs. Stowe was laid to rest.

Accompanying the remains were Mrs. Stowe's son, Rev. Charles Edward Stowe, Mrs. Stowe's daughters, Eliza and Harriet, Mrs. Elizabeth Beecher Hooker and her husband, John Hooker, and Dr. Edwin B. Hooker, nephew of Mrs. Stowe. Prof. John W. Churchill, Dr C. P. F. Bancroft, Prof. George F. Moore and Dr. Salahmerrill, formerly United States Consul to Jerusalem, acted as pall-bearers, and Prof. Egbert C. Smyth conducted the ceremony at the grave.

HANGED IN AN ASYLUM.

Catharine Lawless, an Inmate at Hamilton, Suicides—No Blame Attached to the People in Charge.

Hamilton, July 3.—(Special.)—Catharine Lawless, a patient in the Hamilton Asylum for the Insane, committed suicide this morning by hanging herself from the bars of the window in her room. About 9 o'clock Miss Jennie Aikins, a ward supervisor, left the patient after having attended to her. Miss Jane Whilton then took her to bed, and when she returned in a few minutes saw the woman hanging by some strips of bedclothes from the window bars. The deceased was admitted to the institution on June 5 from the jail. At an inquest, at which Coroner Woolverton presided, a verdict of suicide was brought in with no blame to the asylum officials.

NO RESERVE LIABILITY.

Shareholders of the Defunct Newfoundland Banks Heard Good News Yesterday.

St. John's, Nfld., July 3.—Justice Winter gave judgment to-day deciding that the liquidators of the defunct banks possess no authority to force the shareholders to pay their reserve liability, their obligation to this effect being abrogated by the winding-up legislation enacted last year. He holds that if any liability exists it is between the individual creditors and shareholders. This decision virtually settles the matter. It is extremely unlikely that the creditors will push proceedings, fearing to bring about a further financial disaster.

A NEW CLUB.

Name Suggested for a New Social Organization in London.

London (Special), June 22.—It has been facetiously suggested that a new social club in process of organization in this city, should be entitled "The Dodd's Kidney Pill Club" as the present members are all enthusiastic advocates of that remedy and in common with many other citizens declare that in all cases of kidney trouble no other agent has been so completely effective. Most Londoners have at their fingers' ends the particulars of the many marvelous cures through the use of this specific. In every drugstore in the city the medicine is kept in large quantities and warmly recommended.

SENT BACK TO CANADA.

A Young Man Who Could Not Get Work Attempted Suicide.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., July 2.—Leon Gaer of Canada, a good-looking young man, was charged in the police court to-day with attempted suicide. Yesterday he was about to spring into the hydraulic canal when he was seized. He said that he had become utterly disconsolate on account of inability to secure work. Gaer was sent back to the Dominion.

Bermuda's Governor at New York.

New York, July 2.—Lieut.-General Digby Barker, Governor-General of Bermuda, Mrs. Barker, Miss Barker and the Governor-General's staff arrived to-night on the White Star steamer Germanic from Liverpool, and were transferred, together with the Bermuda mail, to the steamer Orinoco, bound to Bermuda, which had left her dock in this city and had dropped anchor at Quarantine to await the arrival of the Germanic.

Feed the Nerves

Upon pure, rich blood and you need not fear nervous prostration. Nerves are weak when they are improperly and insufficiently nourished. Pure blood is their proper food, and pure blood comes by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is thus the greatest and best nerve tonic. It also builds up the whole system.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic, easy to take, easy to operate.

Mr. C., a leading politician, says:—"Miller's Compound Iron Pills has cured me of nervousness and wakefulness." Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

SKIN DISEASES

Spring firstly from impure blood, and are aggravated by a morbid condition of the system, and by local causes of irritation, etc. The real cause is impure blood, and there is no skin disease which Burdock does not cure if taken internally and applied externally according to directions. It heals up the skin and drives out the disease. Salt Rheum, Tetter, Shingles, Scurf, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Scrofulous Sores, Ulcers, Abscesses and all similar diseases are invariably cured by the intelligent use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

BLOOD BITTERS

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hixson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

Eva C. Booth, Who Has Been Appointed Commandant of the Canadian Salvation Army The Novelist, Amelia E. Barr—The Story of "Cherry Ripe."

Eva C. Booth, who has just been recalled to England from the United States to receive from her father final instructions prior to becoming commandant of the Army in Canada, knows the business of the Salvation Army from the first step to the last. Before she was fifteen she was selling War Crys in the streets of London, and since that time she has filled every grade and rank in the army, from cadet to commissioner.

This woman warrior, whose motto is "Blood and Fire," has had considerable experience with both. Following her early and humble experience in the selling of War Crys, Miss Booth settled down in the training home in London and helped her sister to turn out large numbers of women warriors from that institution.

When she was considerably less than twenty, the famous Pall Mall Gazette revelations convulsed London, and the Salvation Army took a prominent part in the trouble. Indignant citizens of the lower class who objected to being exposed or saved according to the army's methods, spent a great deal of time bombarding its headquarters and making things unpleasant for officers and privates. Day after day she and her little band of women marched out as a target for sticks and stones, and day after day they marched back very much bruised, but still full of cheerful enthusiasm. It was on one of these occasions that Eva Booth's powers of diplomacy first revealed themselves.

The attack was a particularly bitter one. The leader was a particularly depraved ruffian who had a leaning towards broken bottles and loaded sticks as missiles. It was during the heat of the conflict, and when the women warriors of the Salvation Army were getting decidedly the worst of it, that Capt. Eva Booth turned confidingly to this youth and assured him that he must take care of her. She explained to him that he was stronger than she, and she actually succeeded in making him call off his followers and escort her and her companions safely home. Subsequently, when she lay at death's door, this youth pawned his vest and bought a bunch of white grapes which he brought to the door of her sick room in the most Chesterfieldian manner. Little things like this happen frequently in books, but it is a pleasure and a novelty to meet one in real life. The truth of this incident is vouched for.

Capt. Eva Booth came through the Pall Mall campaign with colors flying, and remained at the slum headquarters until all trouble was over. During these days she learned to play the banjo, and it is said that on various occasions where other influences failed to save souls, the seductive tones of the banjo did the work.

Although she is not yet thirty years old, she has taken part in four great conflicts, such as above described. She has conquered every time and she has emerged from the smoke of battle calm and unruffled and with a large following of citizens who had been very enthusiastically opposed to her in the beginning.

The illustration shows her strong face. She is 5 feet 7 inches tall and she weighs about 160 pounds. Her chief beauty lies in her eyes and hair, which are the same soft shade of brown. The hair is very curly and the eyes are large and tired and slightly superline, just now, perhaps, because they have been turned on so many unfriendly faces. The shape of her head is hidden by the poky army bonnet she wears, but a fringe of worldly little curls softens the effect of a high forehead and a very large nose.

With one or two rather startling exceptions, her dress is the uniform with which we are all familiar. She wears a plain, navy blue skirt, which flaps dreadfully around her slender figure. She wears a little blue jacket, with plain, tight sleeves and a rolling collar. But—under that jacket she wears the very reddest jersey a woman ever wore and the front of that jersey is embellished with pictures and remarks embroidered in white silk. The chief work of art is the seal of the army—an eagle, above the words, "Blood and Fire." To this, which every woman warrior wears, Miss Booth had added a sentiment of her own in the form of the words "Blood Washed"—very heavily and elegantly done in white silk.

In speech Miss Booth is quiet and gentle. She has a way of listening to you as if your remarks had great weight, and of submitting hers as if they were of no importance in comparison. But she returns to her own when views conflict, and in important matters she takes her stand in a gentle but absolutely immoveable fashion. It would not be an easy nor an especially pleasant task to try to move her from a stand which she thought was right. In this, too, she is like Mrs. Ballington Booth, whose iron hand was frequently in evidence beneath the glove.

A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many year's study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless article.

The Holy Land bees or, as the natives call them, the Holy bees are found in Palestine, south of Mount Carmel. They are marked like the Cyprians, but their hair is so light in color, they appear to be beautifully striped. Their size is smaller than Italians, but larger than Cyprians. They are very active and far flying, most wonderful cell-builders and get honey from red clover; but they are ready to sting, become furious at the least smoke and run off their combs when one is lifted from the hive.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB COLUMN.

No. LXIX.

In Memoriam—W. H. Murray.

To many of his friends and acquaintances in Peterborough the news of the death of Mr. W. H. Murray came with something of a shock of surprise. Mr. Murray had not lived many years in Peterborough, but his enthusiastic promotion of the interests of the Fortnightly Club had made him known beyond the inner circle of domestic and personal friends, and to know was to esteem one whose character was firm and independent, yet humble and unobtrusive, who formed his own opinions with care and held them tenaciously, yet always listened with attention to views of those who differed from him, and who, whilst indifferent to mere popular applause, was yet devoted to the well-being of the whole community.

Mr. Murray's character was impressionable. He had enthusiasms and ideals. When but a youth he caught the Northwest fever of 1881-2 and went off to Manitoba, not to speculate but to farm. Into the operations of the farm he threw himself with customary energy, but his never robust frame failed to support the unwonted physical strain, and he fell dangerously ill of that terrible disease, rheumatic fever. For several years after his return he was in very delicate health, but, by degrees, he grew stronger and entered upon the study of law. It is about four or five years since he entered the office of Mr. E. B. Edwards, with whom he continued in partnership until he transferred his affections from the law to divinity. For law he never had a real vocation; his mind was cast in the theologian's mould, and he at once and easily led his class at Queen's University, carrying off all its honours at the end of the year. But whether it was the result of the assiduity with which he studied or the natural development of the germs of disease already sown, towards the end of the year he had hæmorrhages of the lungs which gradually increased in frequency until the exhausted frame succumbed, and he died in his beloved Muskoka on June 25th.

* * *

Mr. Murray was a man of too thoughtful and at the same time too honest and independent cast of mind, not to have grappled with those religious problems, which recur at every great epoch of change. The brilliant polemics of Prof. Huxley had not their unnatural effect upon a mind so candid and so impressionable. Yet his was not a soul that could be satisfied with negations. The mind was convinced, but the heart still cried out for spiritual food. It was by no mere chance that Tennyson, the perfect spokesman of the deepest spiritual experiences of the age, prayed

"Let knowledge grow from more to more,
But more of reverence in us dwell,
That mind and heart according well
May make one music as before,
But vaster."

"Mind and heart." The age has been one of intellectual development, and mind and heart have not "accorded well." Neither the pertinacious grip of the old, nor its contemptuous rejection will heal the spiritual malady of our time. In the freest possible way we must welcome every ray of truth, from whatever quarter it comes, in the strong faith that all truth is of God, and that every single truth is an organic part of the whole orb of truth. We may not be able all at once to fit the pieces together, and so in our music for the present there will be discord, but in due time mind and heart, science and faith, will make "one music as before, but vaster."

* * *

There occurs to me in this connection two much abused lines of Tennyson's "In Memoriam"—

"There lives more faith in honest doubt, Believe me, than in half the creeds."

Torn out of their context they misrepresent the Poet's teaching. He is not chanting a hymn of praise to agnosticism. He is describing the striving of a soul to escape from the confinement of a narrow creed to the freedom and vigour of a wider faith. And so the Poet says:

"Perplext in faith, but pure in deeds,
At last he beat his music out."

And again:

"He fought his doubts and gathered strength—
He would not make his judgment blind—
He faced the spectres of the mind
And laid them: thus he came at length
To find a stronger faith his own."

The inner spiritual history of man is, and must be, a profound secret. Even if it were possible it would not be right to pry into that private sanctuary wherein God and the soul hold solitary communion. But there are types, and I believe that my dear friend Murray, if he thought it would help a struggling brother, would rejoice that such an outline of his soul's history, as is expressed in the last five lines quoted, should be presented in the columns of the Fortnightly Club.

* * *

It has been well said, although it is but a partial truth, that a man's character may be gauged by the books that he reads. We all know the enthusiastic veneration and love in which Mr. Murray held the works of John Ruskin, and amongst spiritual guides there is not one, with the possible exception of Carlyle, who can be placed in the same rank. Mr. Murray had a keen appreciation of the beautiful, especially in nature, and in Mr. Ruskin he found a true prophet of nature. It is but little more than a year since he wrote an article for this column entitled "The Grass of the field," which, in both thought and style, bears witness to the influence of the Master, as he loved to consider Mr. Ruskin: "Look around you now, even now, where you stand. For the tender grass, more beautiful and beneficent than these (the reference is to flowers) is springing forth and is soon to be glorious on lawn and in field. The grass of the field! How little we regard it, yet how wonderful is the adaptation of that embroidered carpet of the earth to all our needs, and how it 'girds the hills with joy,' from the time the delicate spires spring multitudious, enamelling the landscape, to the time they wave and dance upon the August plains and hillsides, with shaking threads of fine arborescence, each little belfry of grain bells all a-chime."

* * *

But Mr. Murray readily learnt from Ruskin a deeper lesson than this. A profound love of righteousness, and a hearty scorn for that practical materialism which measures prosperity by dollars and cents, together with a sincere love of his fellowman, were the most striking features of his character. He believed in the power of ennobling thoughts. He felt the week-day lives of most men were more sordid and hence unsatisfactory, than they might be. There was in him something of that prophetic vision which saw the infinite possibilities of a human nature, which should be not only spiritually, but physically, morally, socially and commercially regenerate. It was his desire, nor was it unfruitful, that something of this spirit of Ruskin should pervade the Fortnightly Club and raise it above the status of a mere literary society.

In Mrs. Murray, who is a descendant of the famous Archbishop Ussher, Mr. Murray had a truly sympathetic partner, and to her as to his father and mother the Fortnightly Club tenders its deepest sympathy, and trusts that the knowledge of the high appreciation in which he was held in Peterborough, will be a source of some consolation in their bereavement.

Ivorine cleanses from discoloration and whiteus, hardens the gums, and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

McKINLEY TO WAGE-EARNERS.

He Says They All Want Good Times, Good Wages, Good Markets and Good Money.

Canton, O., July 3.—In reply to the address of a delegation of 1100 wage earners from Tuscarawas county this afternoon, Major McKinley said: "You are here distant from your homes, not from curiosity or from any considerations at all personal, but you are here because in your hearts you believe in the great fundamental doctrines of the Republican party. * * * Here in this country we are all dependent upon each other, no matter what our occupations may be. All of us want good times, good wages, good prices, good markets, and then we want good money always. When we give a good day's wage to our employes we want to be paid in good sound dollars' worth, 100 cents, and no less."

Heart Disease Relieved in 30 Minutes.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gives perfect relief in all cases of organic or sympathetic heart disease relieved in 30 minutes and speedily effects a cure. It is a peerless remedy for Palpitation, Shortness of Breath, Smothering Spells, Pain Left Side and all symptoms of a Diseased Heart. One dose convinces. Sold by H. S. McDonald.

Mr. Chas. Smith, Dawn Mills, Ont., says:—"For several years I was troubled with pains in my limbs, which continued getting worse until I thought I would have to quit work. In fact the pains were so severe that I could not rest at nights. I took one box of Miller's Compound Iron Pills and am perfectly cured.' Although it is nearly a year since Mr. S. took the Pills he has had no return of the pains, and feels splendid. Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

Bardock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

SILVER MEN IN CONTROL.

It Looks as if They Would Run the Chicago Democratic Convention.

Chicago, July 3.—It looks as if the Chicago Democratic Convention would be quite as lopsided as the recent Republican gathering at St. Louis. There has been no break to-day in the monotony of the signs and tokens of what is to happen. It is to be a free silver convention. Moreover, with surprising unanimity, the controlling men of the Western and Southern delegations have declared their preference for Teller. Nearly all his associates or former associates in the Senate who believe in free coinage are giving him their support. The list includes Rex Turpie of Indiana, Jones of Arkansas, Harris of Tennessee, Walsh of Georgia, Chilton of Texas and Cockrell of Missouri.

When the Eastern delegates and friends of the gold standard reach Chicago they will find that the silver men have absolute control of the situation. The conferences have been frequent during the day. Out of all this consultation but one concrete fact seems to have been developed. The platform will be concise, short and clear-cut, without so much as an ambiguous word that can be misconstrued into meaning anything other than an out and out declaration for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

Trichinosis in German Pork.

Berlin, July 3.—Soldiers of the One Hundred and Fourth Infantry, quartered in the barracks at Chemnitz, are suffering greatly from trichinosis. They were made ill by eating German pork.

It is in the Nature of Things

That, as age advances with concomitants of wear and tear, some parts of the delicate machinery of the body, upon which health and vigor depend, should suffer derangement. Feelings of weariness, listlessness or despondency are the signals that nature throws out to warn, and woe to him who neglects these warnings, for severe are the penalties she exacts. To quicken into new vigor the failing energies; to impart, with certainty, tone to the nervous system, these are the special tendencies of the wonderful tonic and nutrient, Maltine with Coca Wine. It gives strength to the nervous system, and is thus a "nerve restorer;" it increases nutrition, and is therefore, a "body-builder." Maltine with Coca Wine, by its power to add to nerve force and to increase weight, will be found by the debilitated and weak a veritable "life-giver." Maltine with Coca Wine is not a patent medicine. Its composition may be known to you, as it has long been known and subscribed to by the medical profession. Sold by all druggists.

Soothing.

Alice—Oh, Edith, the honeymoon is beginning to wane. Percy called me plain Alice to-day!

Edith—And yet you are not so very plain, dear.

Unreasonable.

"My husband," said a young wife, "is a very unreasonable man.'

"In what way?" asked a friend.

"He expects me to live on nothing and save half."

400 Acre Farm FOR SALE.

IN SNOWDEN.

I WILL SELL AT A BARGAIN A 400-acre Farm in the Township of Snowden—very convenient—about half a lot from the Village of Gelert and Gelert Station. The property consists of lots 16, 17, 18, 19, in the 11th Con. less a strip of Lots 17, 18 and 19, through which runs the Victoria branch, of the Grand Trunk Railway. There are cleared on lot 16, 90 acres; on lot 17, 60 acres; on lot 18, 30 acres, and on lot 19, 25 acres, balance good hardwood bush and well timbered. Log House. Log Barn. The property is well-watered by a branch of the Burnt River and would make an excellent farm for stock and grain and the Timber being convenient to the station can be sold at a good price or shipped as purchaser desires, and in the most profitable manner. It is close to school and church.

At a recent examination it is estimated that there are upon the four lots the following quantities of wood, etc.:—300 cords maple-wood; 300 cords birch wood; 300 cords hemlock, balsam and soft wood; 2000 cedar ties; 2000 cedar posts; about 200 acres good farming land; 100 acres good pasture land. It is one of the best farms in the country for stock raising, pasture being always good.

Well sell to a good man on reasonable terms. Apply to

SCHOOL DIFFICULTY

May be Settled Without Reference to Ottawa.

THAT IS RUMORED FROM WINNIPEG

Surmised That an Agreement Will be Reached on the Nova Scotia Plan—Sir Charles Again Confers With the Governor-General—Will Resign on Tuesday.

Winnipeg, July 5.—(Globe special.)—It is reported here to-night that negotiations are in progress for the settlement of the Manitoba school question, without reference to the Dominion Parliament. It is stated that the Greenway Government has expressed a willingness to give the Manitoba Catholics the same privileges as are enjoyed by their co-religionists in Nova Scotia. Separate schools being allowed in certain districts where the Catholics are in the majority. This is said to be satisfactory to the Catholics, who would also be appeased by a French Liberal being taken into the Manitoba Cabinet. These are street rumors to night, and will be given publicity in to-morrow's papers. No official confirmation can be obtained.

The full returns from Saskatchewan give Mr. Laurier 43 majority. Craig, the second Conservative candidate who lost his deposit, receiving only 200 votes, is responsible for defeating the nominee of the party.

Full returns from Alberta elect Oliver by 784 majority, the vote standing Oliver 3647, Cochrane 2863. Local Liberals say it is likely Mr. Laurier will sit for Saskatchewan, and it is said word has been received from him to that effect. In that case it is probable he would be returned by acclamation when offering for re-election, but Conservatives say that they will oppose any local Liberal who might offer.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE

Between Sir Charles Tupper and the Governor-General.

Ottawa, July 5.—(Globe special.)—Sir Charles Tupper went down to Rideau Hall yesterday morning at 11 and held a two hours' conference with His Excellency the Governor-General. It is said that Lord Aberdeen questioned the constitutional right of the defeated Ministry to make some of the appointments to office presented to him for his sanction, and these differences of opinion led to the prolonged conference of Saturday. It is also understood that the Premier informed His Excellency that he intended to hand in his resignation as head of the Government on Tuesday at noon. The final Council meeting will be held, therefore, to-morrow.

There was a three hours' session of Council yesterday, from 3 o'clock to 6.

Mr. Hugh John Macdonald left on the 6 o'clock train for Montreal, and intends leaving for Winnipeg on Monday evening. By that time the Tupper Ministry will have practically ceased to exist. It may be expected that Lord Aberdeen will send for Mr. Laurier on Tuesday and that the Liberal leader will on the same day undertake the task of forming a Ministry. His first duty as His Excellency's adviser, a position he assumes the moment he is entrusted with the task, will probably be to secure a proclamation postponing the meeting of Parliament called for the 16th. A delay of two weeks would probably be necessary, or perhaps three. If Sir Charles Tupper had resigned a week earlier, as he announced his intention of doing, there would have been no difficulty in meeting Parliament on the 16th.

Judge Johnston, who was appointed to investigate into the charges preferred by the Fisheries Department against Noble Bros., has been granted until the end of July in order to complete his report to the department.

Owing to the delay in the printing of new export and import entry forms the Department of Customs has given permission to use the old forms for the present, but exporters and importers will be required to give these particulars: Imports, respecting country of origin and the route by which they enter Canada, and on exports the ultimate destination of such goods, to furnish the information sought in the new forms.

The city Oddfellows to-day succeeded in carrying out their decoration ceremonies at Beechwood Cemetery. For two Sundays in succession they were prevented by rain, and, although the weather was threatening to-day, fortunately rain held off. Yesterday Jupiter Pluvius opened his floodgates, rain descending heavily all day.

Mr. McCleary, M.P. for Welland, and Henry Cargill, M.P., were in town yesterday. Mr. Stevenson, ex-M.P., was also here.

Sir A. P. Caron will be the Conservative leader from Quebec in the Commons. He has been assigned to a seat immediately on Sir Charles Tupper's right on the Opposition benches.

HARDY HAS GREAT NERVE.

The Toronto Boy's Experience on Saturday on the High Cable Stretched Across Niagara's Gorge.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 5.—James E. Hardy, the wire walker, repeated his performance on the 7-8 inch cable across Niagara's gorge this afternoon. A drizzling rain fell during the entire afternoon, making the performance more dangerous. Notwithstanding the wet afternoon, several thousand spectators witnessed the performance from the Suspension Bridge and both banks of the river. He stepped out on his cable about 4 o'clock, as announced, and started off at a good pace, increasing his speed until, when he reached nearly the centre, he was on a good easy run, when he slacked down. As he did so, one of the sand bags, weighing 40 pounds, that are used for ballast on the cable, broke its fastenings and went down with the guy rope with a splash into the river; the effect on the cable caused it to bound almost a foot. The young man braced himself on the cable and was seen to steady himself until the cable regained its normal condition. He walked across, and before reaching the American end performed several difficult feats on the cable, such as knee balancing without any assistance from his hands or arms, high kicking and the split on the wire, when he returned to the Canadian side and carried a common wooden chair out some 100 feet, and, sitting on the chair, balanced himself by having the rungs of the chair on the cable, walked out on the cable with his body encased in a headless barrel, and performed several other very difficult feats, which certainly places him in the lead of high wire performers across Niagara's gorge. Hardy returns to Toronto on Monday to open an engagement at the Island the following week, after which he expects to go to the Pacific Coast.

A VERY SAD AFFAIR.

William McCammon of Kingston Drowned at Round Island—His Fiancee Accompanies the Body Home.

Kingston, Ont., July 5.—A very sad drowning accident occurred at Clayton, N.Y., last night, in which William McCammon, youngest son of late ex-Mayor McCammon of this city, lost his life. He was electrician on the steamer Empire State, and after laying up for the night, went to take his skiff to cross over to Round Island, and in doing so stumbled or walked over the dock into the water. As the night was very dark, it is supposed he struck something in falling, and was stunned. He had on a waterproof coat and rubber boots, and also a valise, strapped across his shoulders. He was shortly afterwards brought to the surface by some of the boat's crew, and every effort was put forward by the doctors in attendance to resuscitate him, but to no avail. His remains arrived in Kingston, accompanied by Miss Edna Wilson, daughter of T. C. Wilson of this city, who has been staying at Round Island. The deceased was engaged to be married to this young lady shortly. He was a fine athelete, being a member of Queen's College football club for several seasons, and one of its strongest wing men. His funeral takes place on Wednesday afternoon.

STABBED WITH A DAGGER.

A Serious Affray Between Brothers-in-Law at Hamilton.

Hamilton, July 5.—(Special.)—William Grassett, about 30 years old, boarding at 156 Florence street, was seriously stabbed on King-street west, near Bay, about 10 o'clock last night, by his brother-in-law, Charles Gardner, who runs a laundry at 191 1-2 King street west. Grassett has six ugly wounds, distributed principally about his head, neck and face, and Gardner is in jail, having been arrested shortly after the stabbing took place. Charles Grassett and Gardner were driving down King street towards Bay, when they met William Grassett driving west with one of Gardner's sons. The father ordered the son out of the rig, speaking harshly, which aroused Grassett's anger, and both alighted from their rigs and began to fight. Grassett is big and powerful, and Gardner is small. The latter had a dagger with him, and drove it six times into Grassett's head, face, neck and breast. Charles Grassett separated the men; his brother was removed to the hospital, and his brother-in-law was taken to jail. There has been bad blood between the two for some time, caused by Gardner's ill-treatment of his wife. On several occasions recently, Mrs. Gardner has threatened to have her husband arrested. Grassett's wounds may not result seriously, but complications may set in.

ENGINEER HASKINS DEAD.

Hamilton's Well-known Official Dies Suddenly From Apoplexy After Forty Years' Service.

Hamilton, July 5.—(Special.)—City Engineer Haskins died to-night about 5 o'clock at his residence, 45 Wellington-street south. About 3 o'clock Sunday morning he was stricken with apoplexy and Dr. Ronnie was called in. Seeing the critical condition of the sufferer, Drs. Griffin and Malloch were summoned and a consultation held, but it was impossible to prolong life later than to-night. Deceased has been City Engineer for almost 40 years, and was esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a widow and five sons—William Fitzmaurice and Thomas Fitzmaurice of Dunnville, Frederick H. Haskins of Toronto of Davis & Haskins, Raymond and Gerald of this city. Deceased was a native of the County of Wicklow, Ireland.

TRAIN IN THE RIVER.

A Portion of the Canadian Pacific Undermined.

ONE MAN KILLED AND TWO INJURED

Eight Cars Loaded With Tea and One With Coal Tumbled Into the River—A Repetition of the Flood of 1894 on the Fraser River.

Vancouver, B.C., July 5.—High water in the Fraser River undermined the track between Agassis and Hope station, on the Canadian Pacific on Friday night. When the eastbound freight, without warning, struck the weak spot the train, consisting of eight cars, loaded with tea and one with coal, was thrown into the river. Brakeman Deering was killed and Fireman Coughlin and Engineer Gray injured.

Reports from Fraser River points state that the river is steadily rising. At Chilliwack considerable damage has been done to crops on low-lying lands, and the steamer Gladys has been busily engaged for the past few days in removing cattle and settlers' effects to high ground. Niceomen Island is also suffering from high water, and all down the river, on both sides, wherever low levels are not fully protected by high dykes, much damage is being done. Mission City town site will probably be under water in many parts if the hot weather continues. The opinion is expressed that, even if the waters recede very soon, the aggregate loss will be considerable.

Word has just been received from New Westminster that the water at high tide was two feet eight inches below the mark reached during the floods of 1894. The steamer Gladys brings word that Sumas is flooded and the water is up to the banks at Chilliwack. A large portion of Dewys is also under water. At Langley the water is level with the landing, and at several other places it is over the wharves.

The latest advices regarding the strike of fishermen at Rivers Inlet are to the effect that the strikers will probably soon give way, as the canners have a sufficient number of men at work to keep the canneries working. Strikers have attempted to intimidate the Indians, but several special policemen have been sent up by the Provincial Government to preserve order.

GREAT BRITAIN'S PATIENCE.

The United States Likely to Be Brought to Reason.

London, July 4.—The Daily News (Lib.), discussing the Venezuelan question this morning, expresses the belief that the arrest of Mr. Harrison, Crown Surveyor of British Guiana, by Venezuelans, will assist to a settlement of the boundary dispute, since it will open the eyes "of our friends in the United States to the nature of the problem with which we have so long had to deal".

"It will be good for the Venezuelans," the paper continues, "to experience the irritation of the United States, and the latter, having taken a certain amount of responsibility for the Venezuelan Government, will begin to realize that there are reasons for Great Britain's apparent stubbornness. When Great Britain, the pioneer in international arbitration, declines or limits it, she is likely to be in the right,, and it only requires time to prove this to the friends of the United States."

In the House of Commons yesterday in reply to a question by John Redmond, George N. Curzon, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, stated that he hoped that when the correspondence with the United States in regard to Venezuela is published a few weeks hence, the House will be in a better position to discuss the question.

BLAZE AT THE GROUNDS.

Destructive Fire at the Exhibition Buildings Early This Morning—Three Horse Stables Burned—General Alarm.

Toronto, July 6.

The fire brigade had a run at 2.15 this morning.

The fire was found to be at the Exhibition buildings. The flames were first seen issuing from one of the new horse stables built two years ago. The inflammable nature of the buildings helped the fire to spread rapidly, and, notwithstanding that the brigade was soon on the spot, three of the stables were totally destroyed and a fourth so badly damaged that it will have to be rebuilt.

The first alarm was a still one, sent by Patrol Sergeant Mulhall from the Toronto Radiator Works, and the firemen drove hurriedly in the direction of that establishment. Then P.C. Clifton pulled the box at the corner of Queen and Crawford-streets, and an alarm was also sent from the King and Cowan-avenue box.

A moment later a general alarm was sent out.

The brigade worked with a will, but despite their exertions the flames spread from one stable to another until four had been reduced to ashes. By the time the fifth stable was reached the steamer had got to work and the fire was checked.

There were nine stables in the series, and it was at one time thought all of them would be burned, as the timber was very dry. However, the firemen succeeded in staying the progress of the blaze.

The loss is calculated at from $7000 to $8000, fully insured under the corporation insurance schedule.

Cause of fire unknown, but believed to be of incendiary origin.

DROWNED OFF A DREDGE.

The Sixteen-Year-Old Wife of the Owner Meets a Sudden End.

Grosse Isle, Mich., July 4.—Mrs. Annie Finley of Amherstburg, Ont., was drowned this morning from her husband's dredge, which was at work two miles from Wyandotte. She was standing on the side of the dredge talking to Paul Shield, a young man in a boat, when she lost her balance and fell in. Shield jumped after her and caught her dress, but the suction of the dredge drew her out of his grasp. The body has not yet been recovered. Mrs. Finley lived in Amherstburg. She was only 16 years old. Just one year ago to-day she was married.

THE NEW CRY.

The Mail and Empire is getting on with its campaign against "French domination" like a house afire. Singularly enough the charges of French supremacy are based on extracts from Tupper organs in Quebec. For example, it supplies us with this piece of advice to Mr. Laurier from La Presse, one of the chief Tupper organs :—"While treating your allies justly, stand firm in your province; do not sacrifice one iota of our rights to please the English of Ontario or Manitoba. They are insatiable beings, who will not be grateful to you for your sacrifices, and when you have become weakened amongst your own people they will put you aside as of no value. You have the reins in your hands; hold them well."

The World, on the other hand, has this despatch :—"This is how Hon. Mr. Laurier's organ, La Patrie, treats the Confederation anniversary: "This is the 29th anniversary of the Canadian Confederation, and it will be celebrated by our English-speaking compatriots by excursions, picnics, etc." But The World will remember that The Mail and Empire, less than a year ago, hounded Mr. Laurier for months for for "repudiating" La Patrie, and a paper which Mr. Laurier has "repudiated" can hardly be said to voice his sentiments.

The Mail and Empire has also rashly revived the No. 8 conspiracy and connects Mr. Tarte with that movement to "down" the Federal Treasury. The truth is that Mr. Tarte was not in Parliament; that it was a French Bleu conspiracy, and its leaders were Mr. Mousseau and Col. Ouimet. Besides, the Tory Government and its English majority did not resist, but capitulated to the extent of two and a half million dollars. Thus far in its desperate search for evidence of "French domination" under Mr. Laurier the chief Tupper organ has been singularly unsuccessful.

The Montreal Witness thus handles the Mail and Empire's new plan of campaign. That paper, it says, "is vituperating much against the French-Canadians, and, considering how largely it owes its present destitute condition to the grand blow they have struck for liberty, it is natural enough that it should feel like reviling them and raising, if it can, all the race prejudices of its readers against them. 'The balance of power is now,' it says, 'held by the French-Canadians.' This announcement is ridiculous when we consider how frantically The Mail has been fighting for some months to put the absolute and despotic control of the country into the hands of the Roman hierarchs, who were to be allowed to impose any law they like on the one condition that they should bring to the polls a sufficient number of their adherents to enable the Tupper Government to continue its rule over an unwilling people. Look at these good things which you have been enjoying at the expense of the people of Canada; all these things will I give you for a new term if you will only bow down and do my bidding. Such was the attitude of the church to the Tupper Government and its followers, and the reply of the Tupper Government and of the Mail and Empire was, 'Come and rule over us provided only we may feed fatly.'"—Globe.

MR. EDWARD GURNEY, the well-known manufacturer, is thus reported :—"For myself, and you may quote me as saying it, I see no reason for apprehension, and I entertain no apprehension with regard to the changes which Mr. Laurier is likely to make." Mr. Gurney takes the proper view.

ALGOMA'S verdict on Tuesday, when a formerly Conservative constituency elected a Liberal by a majority of a thousand or more, indicates, says the Ottawa Journal, somewhat how any bye-elections which may take place are likely to go. It makes a big difference with most constituencies which is the party in power—or about there.

CONSERVATIVE journals which are devoting so much time to selecting a Cabinet for Mr. Laurier had better busy themselves with arranging for a leader for their own party. Sir Charles Tupper has shown himself to be a failure and there is very little timber available to make an acceptable leader, though there has been a successive lowering of the standard of capability since the death of Sir John Macdonald.

ACCORDING to the poor-rate statistics the number of paupers in England was formerly over 47 per 1000. In 1894 it had fallen to 22 per 1,000, that is to say, it had fallen over one half. This fall is coincident with the change in the educational system, and is but another example of the power of education to fit people to earn their own bread. No wonder education is free in the motherland. Taking it as a business transaction, if nothing else, the result has proved of the greatest benefit to the taxpayers.

THE Mail and Empire says that at present the problem for manufacturers of keeping all hands at work is a serious one, because "they are in the dark" and do not known what changes in the tariff may do for them. Neither of these statements is true. There is no more serious problem to-day than there was a month ago, and the manufacturers are not "in the dark," because the line the new government will pursue in matters relating to tariff has been clearly announced. Nothing will be done calculated in any way to disturb the equilibrium of trade.

THE Compton County Chronicle, an ultra Conservative organ, says :—"When the heretofore almost solid Province of Quebec, the stronghold of the Conservative party, gave such a majority against the late government, and against the wishes, lectures, and instructions of the bishops and clergy, the conclusions are forced upon us, that hereafter the electorate purpose being their own judges as to how, and for whom, it will vote. In other words, they will take their religion from the clergy, and vote according to their own convictions.

Can Heart Failure be Prevented?

Startling and brief the announcement, "Sudden Death Caused by Heart Failure." Such is the stereotyped announcement of coroners, juries and reporters arousing the forebodings of those victims of indigestion and mal-nutrition, who so frequently disturb themselves upon the manifestation in palpitation or fluttering, of functional disturbance of the heart; symptoms which they are foolishly prone to accept as the signs of an incurable and speedily fatal malady. Maltine with Coca Wine is potent in restoring conditions that no longer render possible such alarmingly disturbing symptoms.

Maltine with Coca Wine has long been recognized as the most pleasant and efficient remedy for all those functional derangements that find manifestation in lassitude, sleeplessness, despondency and loss of appetite and digestive power. All druggists sell it.

FORCE OF HABIT.

London People Have Become Used to the Great Specific Remedy.

LONDON, July 6.—The despatch from Detroit with reference to the cure from Bright's disease and blood poison of Mr. Langley, of this city, by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, has recalled the wonderful facts of the case to the citizens, among whom Mr. Langley is well known. It has reminded them that Mrs. Langley, among others, also made an equally wonderful recovery. The use of the pills, however, has become so universal here, and there has been so many instances in which they have been used with beneficial results that a similar case would hardly excite as much interest now as it did then, when the medicine was less known.

Mr. Benj. Scott, Van Horn, Ont., says: "My heart caused me great uneasiness, my appetite failed and I became very weak and discouraged. Miller's Compound Iron Pills made me all right; I feel well and strong." Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

It is often difficult to convince people their blood is impure, until dreadful carbuncles, abscesses, boils, scrofula or salt rheum, are painful proof of the fact. It is wisdom now, or whenever there is any indication of blood, to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and prevent such eruptions and suffering.

"I had a dreadful carbuncle abscess, red, fiery, fierce and sore. The doctor attended me over seven weeks. When the abscess broke, the pains were terrible, and I thought I should not live through it. I heard and read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I decided to take it, and my husband, who was suffering with boils, took it also. It soon purified our

BRITISH ARMAMENTS

And the Heavy Expenditures Made Upon Them.

A LETTER FROM MR. GLADSTONE

He Denounces the Government for "Wild, Wanton and Most Dangerous Expenditure" The G.O.M. Criticized by by His Friends and Reviled by the Tories.

New York, July 5.—The Sun's London cable says: In a letter published to-day, Mr. Gladstone denounces what he describes as the wild, wanton and most dangerous expenditure of the present Government upon armaments, which reads rather curiously from a statesman who, a little more than ten years ago, arrived at the conclusion that there was danger of a war between England and Russia, and by a couple of eloquent speeches persuaded the House of Commons to vote $30,000,000 for warships, cannon and rifles. His warnings now will fall on deaf ears. Even the faithful Daily News reproaches the Grand Old Man for the present inconvenient outburst, and the Tories revile him. The fact is that three-fourths of all Englishmen, in which are numbered members of all political parties, are prepared to support any scheme for increased armaments vouched for as necessary by the responsible Ministers, and the reason of this is the uncomfortable belief that England's position of "splendid isolation" in Europe, coupled with frequent controversies in America, involves serious danger, which must be provided for. The tendency in this country, until a great war has been fought somewhere, will undoubtedly be towards increased armaments. Only the other day a well-known military strategist, lecturing before the chief military institution, drew an alarming picture of London's defenceless condition. If, he declared, the channel fleet were defeated, or lured away to distant fighting, England would be left without her breastplate, and an invader could easily reach the Empire's heart. His idea was that London should be fortified like Strasburg or Metz, and if the War Office should endorse the soundness of his arguments, and ask the Government to provide the necessary money, the request in all probability would be granted. As a matter of fact, large sums are being expended at this moment in building detached forts around London, and strengthening the fortifications of the Mersey, Clyde and Tyne. The money appears in the estimates under a general head, and few Englishmen have an adequate idea of how much work is being done in this direction.

The Sun's reporter has ascertained that responsible military experts lately have been giving renewed attention to the defences of Halifax and Vancouver, and possibly other points in the eastern hemisphere, and there is reason to believe that a small committee installed at the War Office, and working in concert with the Admiralty, has been charged to discover what modifications are necessary and desirable in the defences of Canada, the West Indies, etc., in view of the fact that in a few years the United States will become a great naval power. Presumably the committee's instructions do not end with defensive schemes, but it is impossible to say more than to announce the fact that the committee exists and is at work.

OLD WORLD GOSSIP.

The Sultan Issues New Promises—Fast Atlantic Line.

New York, July 5.—Isaac N. Ford cables from London to The Tribune: The Sultan has issued a new series of promises respecting Crete, including amnesty and reforms. After the recent experience in Armenia, these must be regarded as a form of Oriental fiat currency, which is practically irredeemable. The only reform measures which the Sultan seems capable of carrying out are burning villages and lopping off Christian ears. What Russia wishes the Sultan to do in Crete will be done. England seems to have lost all influence in Constantinople, and the Sultan has only one friend at Westminster, Mr. Ashmead Bartlett.

European politics are stagnant, the most significant incident being the passage of a civil code applicable to the whole of Germany after 1900. This is an important step taken in the direction of the complete unification of the Fatherland.

British politics are hopelessly dull. The rating bill has been passed after a prolonged struggle and an all night session. The final vote showed how helpless is a great majority in conducting legislation when even a weak minority is in earnest and well led in obstruction tactics.

As the Irish Land Bill is loaded down with amendments, the prospect of passing it is seriously clouded.

What is discussed more generally is Cardinal Vaughan's synopsis of the encyclical issued by Leo XIII., which is received with satirical comments by Lord Halifax and with satisfaction by the Evangelical party of the English Church, on the practicability of an arrangement respecting Anglican orders. The Archbishop of York has promptly answered the encyclical at a synod held yesterday, and the reconciliation of christendom may be regarded as indefinitely postponed in spite of Lord Halifax's pious hopes and Mr. Gladstone's ingenious polemics.

The new contract for the carriage of the Canadian mails provides for a service of four 20-knot vessels. If Moville be retained as a port of call and arrangements are made for as quick transit of the mails to London as from Queenstown to London, at least two days will be saved in delivering Canadian letters. Canadians in London believe that this fast service for mails and passengers will revolutionize the trans-Atlantic trade and greatly damage New York, but this talk has been heard before. What is evident is that these 20-knot ships cannot be kept in service without a great subsidy paid by England, and Canadian enemies of American shipping interests, which can only be built up in the same way, should make a note of this.

Halifax as the Port.

New York, July 5.—The Times' London special cable says: It is reported here that the projected fast Canadian steamship line will not be unfavorably affected by Mr. Laurier's accession to power, and just now there is a good deal of talk in shipping circles of the likelihood that Halifax will become thereby one of the great Atlantic ports. A nautical magazine this month claims that new railroad connections render it probable that Halifax, when in a position to offer a short five days' run to Liverpool, will attract a large proportion of the winter passenger traffic from the United States.

A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many year's study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless article.

DESTROYING THE PEA CROP.

Government Experts Enquiring Into the Growth of a Fungus in Prince Edward County.

Picton, July 4.—Professor Panton of the Guelph Ontario Agricultural College and Professor Craig of Ottawa were here to-day to investigate the cause that produces a fungus which is affecting the pea vines in this vicinity. It was first discovered in the Township of Hillier, in this county, some four or five years ago, and each year since has increased in the area of the blight, and this year it has been so fatal that very many acres of peas have been plowed up. Unless something can be done to eradicate the fungus, or at least check its ravages, it will be a great loss to the farming community in this and adjoining counties. The two large seed houses here have put out seed enough this year to produce between three and four hundred thousand bushels of peas, which they contract to take at 90 cents to $2.50 per bushel. If this source of profitable farming is destroyed it means a serious loss to the farming community.

Few medicines have held their ground so successfully as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During the past fifty years, it has been the most popular of all cough cures and the demand for it to-day is greater then ever before. Prompt to act and sure to cure.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof :—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

TO ROB A BANK.

The Bold Attempt of Burglars to Get at the Bank of Commerce Vaults in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Man., July 5.—(Special.)—The Winnipeg police have discovered and frustrated a bold attempt to rob the Bank of Commerce here. Working quite safe from observation in the cellar of an adjoining building, the burglars had removed the brickwork of the wall of the vault, and in another night's work would have been in the vault. The discovery of the plot taking out prevented the capture of the burglars, of whom there is no clue.

The kidneys are talking trouble.
Here is some Norwood talk :

Mr. George Taylor, well known in Norwood, has this to say about Doan's Kidney Pills :—

"For a great many years I have been a sufferer from kidney disease. Terrible pain in my side and back made my life a burden. The urine was a dark wine colour, and I was greatly troubled with frequent urination. My sleep was destroyed because of this annoying trouble.

"I have taken scores of medicines, but could get no relief, and thought that I would never be cured. Happily I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at J. C. Moffatt's drug store, and have continued their use for one month.

"I am thankful to say as a result that they have fixed me up. I feel like another person. I do not now have to get up at night, and in fact am entirely cured.

"I think they are the grandest medicine ever placed before the public, and I heartily recommend them to all sufferers from kidney disorder of any kind."

TEN YEARS TROUBLED

With Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia—Suffered Greatly and Found No Relief in the Secres of Medicines Prescribed.

South American Nervine Was Recommended, and Before Half a Bottle Was Taken Relief Came.

Have Since Improved Rapidly, and Am Now Completely Cured—So Says Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont.

What ills come to humanity from a disordered liver! Henry Ward Beecher has said that it was impossible for a man to hold correct spiritual views if his liver was out of order. The liver is so important a part of the mechanism of man that when it ceases to work with ease the whole man is unable to do his work aright. Can we not appeal to thousands, nay, tens of thousands, for a verification of this fact? Certainly it is, that Mr. David Reid, of Chesley, Ont., felt that the enjoyment of life had been taken from him, through the unhealthy condition of his liver. For ten years he says he was troubled with liver complaint and dyspepsia. Employing his own language: "At times my liver was so tender I could not bear it pressed or touched from the outside. Had tried a great many remedies without any benefit. Was compelled to drop my work, and being worse than usual, I decided as a final resort to try South American Nervine, which had been recommended to me by friends who had been cured by it. I got a bottle from A. S. Goodeve, local druggist, and commenced taking according to directions. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to go to work again, and I have improved steadily since. I can conscientiously recommend South American Nervine to any suffering from dyspepsia or liver complaint." This is Mr. Reid's story as he tells it in his own words. Were it thought necessary it could be corroborated by a host of witnesses. Mr. Reid has lived a long time in Chesley, and his case was known to be a very bad one. But that makes no difference to Nervine. This great discovery rises equal to the most trying occasions. Let it be indigestion, the most chronic liver trouble, as with Mr. Reid, nervous prostration, that makes life miserable with so many, sick headaches, that sap all the effort out of man or woman, Nervine measures to the necessities of the case. It is a great medicine and thousands to-day in Canada are happier and healthier men and women, because of its discovery. There is no great secret about it, and yet there is an important secret. It operates on the nerve centers of the system from which emanate all life and healthfulness, or if disordered, sickness, even death. Nervine strikes promptly at the nerve centers, hence, as with Mr. Reid, where ten years' use of other medicines had done no good, less than a bottle of Nervine brought about encouraging results, and a few bottles cured.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

Rheumatism of 20 years' standing radically cured by Scott's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Sarah Browning, an estimable resident of the Ambitious City, was for twenty years a sufferer from acute rheumatism, and her restoration to health is so remarkable that we present the case for the benefit of our readers, many of whom are doubtless sufferers from this painful complaint which arises from blood poison. Mrs. Browning says: "I used only one bottle of Scott's Sarsaparilla and received such benefit that I continued taking only at intervals for two months. That is seven months ago, and the pain has not returned. I had spent a fortune in various "treatments" and was told by one medical man that a cure was impossible as I had suffered so long."

Scott's Sarsaparilla cures by making and keeping the blood pure. It increases flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods. It is the most successful medicine in the world to-day, for dyspepsia, nervous troubles, rheumatism, sciatica, syphilitic affections, pimples and all diseases originating in a foul condition of the blood. Dose from one half to one teaspoonful.

AN IN MEMORIAM SERVICE.

An Eloquent Tribute to the Late Rev. W. C. Bradshaw—Rev. Mr. Symonds' Appropriate Sermon.

There was a large congregation in St. Luke's church, yesterday morning, when the sermon was in memory of Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, the first rector of the church.

The text was taken from St. Matt., XXV., 21:—"Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee rule over many things."

After pointing out that the central teaching of the parable was concerning faithful service, the rector proceeded to review the work of Mr. Bradshaw at St. Luke's. By a singular coincidence this Sunday, upon which his life-work was being commemorated, was also the anniversary of the first service of St. Luke's, twenty years ago, held in the little school house, since taken down, which was the nucleus of the present complete block of buildings. "I know," continued the preacher, "of no other congregation which in the space of twenty years has seen its church built and enlarged, its school house built and taken down to be upraised by a larger and thoroughly furnished edifice, and its rectory built and also enlarged, whilst the funded debt amounts to only $1,300." Statistics showing the steady growth of the various activities of the church were presented. St. Luke's church is the monument of its first rector. His very life was there, transformed into the walls of the church and represented in the large lists of baptisms and communicants. A warm tribute was paid to the generous support of the congregation in all good works, and an earnest appeal was made to all members of the congregation to give their continued and united efforts to build up what had been so well begun.

POLICE COURT.

July 6th.

Michael Lynch, who has lately returned from the United States, was charged at the Police Court this afternoon, before Mr. County Police Magistrate Edmison, sitting with Mayor Yelland, with cursing, on Saturday, a disturbance in a public place (in Ashburnham) and also charged with having "on his person a pistol elsewhere than in his own dwelling, etc., contrary to the criminal code." The defendant admitted both charges and was fined $2 on the first charge and $5.25 costs, and on the second charge $5 fine and $7 costs, in all $19.25. Mr. Poussette appeared for the defendant, who was arrested at Craig's restaurant on Saturday evening by the Chief and Mr. Archie Moore, and admitted to bail till this afternoon.

—General Manager Hays has applied his axe vigorously to the Detroit stores department of the Chicago and Grand Trunk. The work hitherto done by this department has been transferred to Montreal and the whole staff has been given its walking papers except four.

—Don't deal with the strange pedlar. He is no earthly use to a community. He gives nothing to churches or public expenses. He has nothing in common with our people. He can swindle you and often he does. He can cheat with impunity. The home merchant has a reputation to sustain. He bears his share of the expenses of the town. When a subscription is passed he is the first to be approached.

—Now that the fly season is at hand, the following plan of ridding the kitchen and dining room of the pests is said to be a good one: Take a small stove shovel, heat it red hot and pour on it a few drops of carbolic acid, having previously closed the doors and windows. In a few minutes open the room and the flies will be found to have entirely disappeared. Only a faint odor of the fumes of carbolic acid will remain.

THE ONTARIO CABINET VACANCY

Mr. Stratton's Name Continues to be Favourably Mentioned.

The matter of filling the vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet, is still engaging the attention of the press as shown by the following extracts:

Lindsay Warder.

The removal to federal politics of Sir Oliver Mowat leaves a vacancy in the Ontario Cabinet. While this journal has no weight with the new Ontario premier, yet it certainly desires in the general interest of Ontario, to see Mr. J. R. Stratton, of Peterborough, the new Minister.

There is no doubt he would be returned by acclamation, and is in every sense fitted to occupy such a distinguished position.

Were the selection left to the Warder Mr. Stratton certainly would soon be one of Ontario's ministers.

United Canada.

The Cabinet makers are almost overtaxed this warm weather. In Ontario, where Sir Oliver Mowat retires to come to Ottawa, there will be a vacancy in the Ministry.

Mr. Robert Campbell, M.P.P. for South Renfrew, and Mr. James Conmee, M.P.P. for Nipissing, both had much experience in affairs relating to Crown Lands, while Mr. Alex. Robillard, M.P.P. for Russell, would also be highly qualified, not to speak of the many other eastern men, deserving and capable. However, the west (Central Ontario) claims the new Minister, and J. R. Stratton, M.P.P. for Peterborough, has precedence over all others so far named.

Like his relatives and namesakes—the Ottawa Strattons—he belongs to a school of men who are Liberals in the highest and broadest sense. A man of ability, integrity and honour and one whose elevation would meet with the general approval of our people.

"CANADA FOR CANADIANS."

How the Tory Government Carried Out the Principle.

The steamer Americo brought from Cape Vincent, N.Y., Friday morning 150 iron watercloset cisterns and three crates and two barrels of fittings for the same, the whole shipment weighing [illegible] tons and being consigned to the warden of the Kingston Penitentiary by the manufacturers, the J. L. Mott Iron Works, 84 to 90 Beekman street, New York The value of these castings is nearly $2,500. The goods could have been procured in Canada and that much money left with a Canadian manufacturers.

These articles could all have been made in Canada instead of sending to a foreign country for them. This is another instance of the disregard shown by the Conservative Government for the welfare of the Canadian workingmen, a forcibly striking example of how that Government puts into practice its alleged principle of keeping "Canada for Canadians."

PALPABLE IRREGULARITIES.

Methods Employed by Partisan Officers to Defeat Mr. Hyman.

Returning Officer Wright declared Mr. Thomas Beattie elected in London by 118 majority. He also mentioned that there were 35 spoiled ballots and 296 rejected ballots. It will be seen that while Mr. Beattie's majority went up five, the number of rejected ballots increased by 60. There was an increase of ten alone in No. 8, Mr. Peel's subdivision. This makes 61 Hyman ballots which Mr. Peel rejected on the absurd plea that he could not recognize his initials on the back of them. Mr. Peel had been subpœned to attend the counting but did not appear, as Bailiff Burns was waiting to arrest him on a warrant for debt. The oath of Mr. Peel's polling clerk was taken instead by the returning officer. Mr. Hyman's lawyers have made application for a recount, which will take place before one of the county judges next week.

CUT HIS BEARD.

A Voter Released From His Vow.

Mr. D. F. McDonald, who has been a resident of Parry Sound for many years, and who is known by almost every citizen, walked through the main streets of that town the morning after the elections totally unrecognized. When the Mackenzie Government was put out of power in 1878 Mr. McDonald took a solemn vow never to shave his face until the Liberal party had control of the country again. He kept his resolve, and until the morning of the 24th of June last he wore a noble beard. On that morning, however, when he learned that the Liberals were victorious he shaved off his beard, and it made such a change in his appearance that few knew him as the D. F. McDonald of old.

CALL TO THE ONTARIO W.C.T.U.

The President of the Provincial W. C. T. U. has issued a special call to the W. C. T. U. members respecting the approaching prohibition convention. In it Mrs. Thornley says:—"Just now the call to advance comes to every Ontario religious and temperance organization through the medium of the Provincial Alliance. The Privy Council magnates have at last handed down that early-looked-for decision re the liquor traffic, and the jurisdiction of the Provincial and Dominion Governments in its restriction and prohibition. Immediate and decisive action now will nail the lie our opponents are circulating to the effect that Ontario's desire for prohibition has waned; that she voted in haste in 1894, and has repented at leisure, and is not now going to press for the redemption of Government pledges. We know that such statements are untrue but we must make the political world know it too, and the one way of doing so is by rallying to Toronto, July 16 and 17. Let us help there to build a living, breathing, speaking monument to the people's desire, for a sober land, and let us resist in shaping a policy purest to the line of right and not party exigency. We shall have to deal with both Provincial and Dominion Governments, because the decision divides the power between them. At the convention held previous to the plebiscite the W. C. T. U. cut no figure at all. At the second gathering there were scores of our women present and white ribbon bows abounded. Let us do our share towards making this 16th of July an ever-memorable day in the annals of temperance reform by urging that our local union and the church in which we hold membership shall be represented."

RATZ HOLDS THE FORT.

The North Middlesex Recount Confirms Ratz's Return.

GODERICH, July 4.—The recount of the ballots cast in the North Middlesex election was concluded here to-day. Judge Mason reserved his decision until Monday. If the judge allows the ballots with crosses beside the names and not in the disc, Mr. Ratz, Liberal, will have 63 or 64 majority over Mr. Hutchins, Conservative.

LATER.

GODERICH, July 5.—Judge Mason this afternoon declared Ratz, Liberal, elected for North Middlesex by 62 majority over Mr. Hutchins, Conservative.

SAD FATALITY.

Engineer McDonald, of Belleville, Killed While Driving With the Lady Whom he was to Have Wed.

Belleville, July 5.—(Special.)—Shortly after 5 o'clock this afternoon a fatal accident occurred a short distance from the city. Thomas McDonald, one of the most popular Grand Trunk engineers, accompanied by his betrothed, Miss Nellie Bowden, went for a short drive. When coming home, along the second concession of Thurlow, the horse became alarmed at a passing locomotive and ran away. One of the reins broke and the buggy struck a telegraph pole, throwing both occupants out. McDonald struck the pole and was so badly injured that he only lived a few moments. The young lady was fortunately uninjured, except for a cut on the head. The whole city is shocked over the sad affair. The young couple were to have been married in a few weeks.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

The Canal.

The work on the section of the canal going through the village is steadily progressing. There is now a large cut from the river side up to the foot of Catherine street, the earth being stripped off to the rock, so as to allow for blasting. There are at present eleven teams and twenty-five men employed on the cut. The aspect of that portion of the village is entirely changed by the work going on.—Lakefield News.

Medal and Diploma.

Mr. Ed. Courtney has received a beautiful bronze medal and diploma from the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, for the inlaid work representing Shakespeare's home, Stratford-on-Avon. The diploma sets forth that the award was made on the grounds of execution of work, high-class inlaying and cabinet work, and for historical value. The diploma, which is a fine piece of work, will be on exhibition in the show window of Hall, Gilchrist & Co. The bronze medal is a large and handsome trophy and contains Mr. Courtney's name in high relief. Mr. Courtney is to be congratulated on such testimony to his exceptional skill.

"Little Faded Flowers."

Some faded relics of the great Topper demonstration still deform the streets. When the evergreen trees were placed at several points on George street they were ornamental, but the have taken on the hue of the party whose triumph they were intended to advance, and have become unsightly. One would think that our Conservative friends would be glad to remove those faded symbols of fallen greatness as soon as possible. After the great Liberal demonstration the evergreens used on the streets were promptly removed, and at the expense of the Liberal party. Would our Conservative friends take the hint and remove those frowsy shrubs at their own expense, and not leave them till they will have to be removed at corporation expense?

A Night Blooming Cereus.

Last night a beautiful night blooming cereus, belonging to Mrs. Benjamin Cooney, Ashburnham, one of the most successful amateur floriculturists in the district, held a reception in order to give its friends an opportunity of seeing it expand into magnificent bloom. The night blooming cereus is a member of the cactus family and the name cereus is given to some species on account of the resemblance of the plant to the columnar shape of a wax candle. In Texas and New Mexico some varieties of the cactus, where they are indigenous, rise in the shape of naked columns to a height of fifty or sixty feet. Mrs. Cooney's cereus (cereus grandiflorus) began to bloom about 7 o'clock in the evening and the bud slowly but almost visibly expanded till ten o'clock when, all the while exhaling exquisite perfume, it had expanded into a snowy cornucopia about eight or nine inches in length. It fades within about twenty-four hours. Several ladies and gentlemen watched the blooming process with great interest and were much indebted to Mrs. Cooney's courtesy in allowing them the rare privilege of seeing a flower bud open before their eyes.

ONTARIO MANUFACTURERS.

NOT DISTURBED BY THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

How Ontario Views Mr. Laurier's Advent to Power.

The Toronto correspondent of the Montreal Witness writes:—The political situation continues to be a subject of keen though quiet discussion. There is no doubt in the public mind about the defeat of the Tupper administration, but there is uncertainty about the time of the assembling of Parliament for the despatch of business, and also about the personnel of the Laurier Ministry. Fortunately, the want of certainty does not in either case interfere seriously with the course of business. There is not a manufacturer in this city, probably not one in this province, who will not go on very much as he would have done if the result had been the other way. Many of those who had supported the government do not hesitate to say that they are not ill pleased with the change, and that they have no fear of any evil effects from revenue reform. It will be very easy for the new government to popularise itself with manufacturers of articles made wholly or partly of iron, by putting pig iron on the free list, and imposing only a light customs duty on bar iron and steel. If this were done the manufacturers could afford to consent to a lower duty on articles such as they produce, as they have only from five to fifteen per cent. of a margin now. Iron manufacturers here talk freely in this vein and say that if the Liberals will so adjust the matter there is no reason why they should not remain in office for a generation. The protection now afforded by the import duty on iron might advantageously be granted in the form of an increased bounty on the output of the furnaces. Some manufacturers profess to have a dread of Sir Richard Cartwright, but the majority of them seem to exercise themselves very little about the holder of the finance portfolio, so long as Sir Oliver Mowat and Sir Henri Joly De Lotbiniere are of the cabinet. On the other hand manufacturers, like others, admit the necessity for severe retrenchment if the country is to escape bankruptcy, and for this part of the Finance Minister's task the fitness of Sir Richard is recognized by all.

To prevent pale and delicate children from lapsing into chronic invalids later in life, they should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla together with plenty of wholesome food and out-door exercise. What they need to build up the system is good red blood.

BARNARDO HOMES.

In the June issue of Night and Day Dr. Barnardo gives a prominent place to the announcement of the annual meeting of his Homes, on Wednesday, 24th June. It is expected that their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales will be present. The Duke of Sutherland will preside, and there will be an exceptionally interesting programme. The display of child-life and the processes of child-training on the occasion in the Royal Albert Hall will be indeed of an altogether unique character. The long list of further engagements announced testifies to the activities of the institutions. The annual street collection for the work will be taken up throughout London and numerous provincial towns and cities on "Waif Saturday," 27th June. "Founder's Day" will be celebrated at Stepney Causeway on 4th July. A new ever-open door and lodging house will be inaugurated at Notting Hill on the 8th July. A meeting of farewell to two hundred young emigrants will be held in Exeter Hall on 21st July. Later on in July the new schools at Ilford will be declared open, and the annual self-denial week will take place in August. All which means a busy summer and a rapidly extending work. The stories of waif rescue, illustrated with photographs, which appear in this issue abundantly show, however, that there is a very real necessity for a wider extension still. The Reserve and Foundation Fund established in celebration of the thirtieth year of existence of the Homes, Dr. Barnardo reports, already exceeded £14,000. Other contents include "Somebody's Bairns," a touching page of curious and interesting scraps relating to child-life. A copy of the magazine will be sent gratis and post-free to any one on application to 18 to 26, Stepney Causeway, London, E.

THE STATE OF TRADE.

A More Confident Feeling in Business Circles.

PROPOSED TARIFF CHANGES.

A MORE ACTIVE ENQUIRY FOR DRY GOODS.

The Wool Markets in Canada Dull—London Wool Sales—The Financial Situation.

Globe.

The announcement that there would be no change in the tariff before next winter has created a greater feeling of confidence in trade circles. As the situation is now, importers are in a position to purchase all manner of supplies for eight or ten months ahead and dealers throughout the country will be enabled to protect themselves against any losses that might be involved in changes in the duties brought about without timely warning. Such losses might be made either through overcaution in not carrying sufficient stocks to meet current requirements or overconfidence resulting in carrying larger supplies than could be worked off before a tariff bill was passed. As it is now, traders will for the next few months buy with greater caution and keep their stocks well within the requirements of their trade.

A BRIGHTER OUTLOOK.

The crop reports are promising both from Ontario points and Manitoba and the Northwest, and now that the whole country is in a more settled state the future is generally regarded as a good deal brighter than it was a couple of weeks ago. Stocks of staple goods in the hands of retailers in the country are small and already travellers' orders are beginning to show some improvement in the demand. Last week business in the country was interrupted by the elections. This week the holiday broke into business. But, notwithstanding this, there has been a gratifying increase in the volume of trade in dry goods as well as in several other departments of the wholesale business. Considerable paper will become due to-day, and it is expected that it will be met better and that there will be fewer renewals than for the same date last year owing to the fact that the country merchants have, during the past year, been conducting their business on a more conservative basis and have been ordering less liberally than in former seasons. On the 4th of August the amount of paper will be larger than that which became due to-day, but the wholesale trade do not appear to have anxiety about it. The weeding out process has been going steadily on for the past few years and the great majority of those firms who are left are abundantly able to take care of themselves. The number of failures in Canada this week shows a decrease compared with those for last week.

THE WOOL MARKETS.

The home wool markets are dull so far as any inquiry for export goes. The receipts are quite liberal and already a good proportion of the crop has been marketed, compared with the deliveries for the same period last year. Prices paid this week are a little better, but it would seem that the situation does not at present warrant the payment of any advance on present quotations. Private cable advices received this week from the English markets say that prices for most all grades there are now as low or lower than ever before. The first lot of new crop wool was taken in this Province by an American buyer this week. The price paid was 20c and the lot was a selected one and was bought at a country point. This price was very low and will no more than let out the seller. In the United States the markets are quiet. The wool sales in London this week were well attended, the buying having been animated and prices were well maintained.

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

The standing of the two political parties in the United States on the money question is still exciting a great deal of interest in all the money markets of the world. There was a sharp decline in the prices of securities in Wall street early this week, and it was not till the latter half of the week that prices began to improve. The national holiday at the close tended to check operations, as speculators usually do not care to buy on the approach of two holidays. London, it is said, has lately bought from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 worth of American securities. The next settlement is therefore looked forward to with interest in the expectation that it will give a clue as to whether these purchases were made merely for a turn to realise profits as soon as the markets advanced, or to hold for a good advance in the future. The action of the delegates to the Chicago convention, which meets on Tuesday, will be followed with interest in financial centres. If the convention declares for a straight gold platform it will undoubtedly have a reassuring effect on foreign investors. If the money plank to be adopted inclines to favour silver, except by international agreement, it will deter foreign investments. In this market there was very little business done early in the week, but at the close there was a better demand for stocks, and values improved one-half to one point all round for the active stocks.

"I Have Had

Rheumatism for years and Nerviline is the only remedy that has done me any good." So writes Thomas McGlashan, North Pelham, July 24, 1890, and his testimony is supported by thousands of others who have experienced the wonderfully penetrating and pain subduing power of Nerviline—the great nerve pain cure. Nerviline is just as good to take as to rub on, and is the best family remedy in the world. Nerviline is sold by dealers everywhere.

"RECORD-BREAKING PRICES."

A Leading Montreal Trade Journal Sizes up the Cheese Situation.

The Montreal Trade Bulletin makes the following report on the cheese market:

Prices have tumbled fully another ½c per lb. during the past week, making a decline of ½c to ¾c within the past two weeks. Cables were forwarded to Glasgow, Leith, Liverpool, Bristol and London by a Montreal shipper on Tuesday last, offering fancy coloured Napanee and Belleville cheese at 33s; but up to Thursday no response had been received. A round lot of Kingston cheese was also offered Bristol at 33s 9d, without eliciting a reply. Sales of finest Eastern, however, transpired here at 6⅞c to 6¾c, while a lot of between 1,000 and 1,500 boxes of finest western were placed at 7c. About 3,000 boxes of French cheese sold on Monday at about 6¼c, being ½c below the price paid the week previous. Surely these low prices for June goods should induce orders from British buyers if the have any conscience left, along with their proverbial love for cheese and ale. A considerable line of June goods has been placed in cold storage here, said to be for account of an English house to await further instructions.

From a purely statistical standpoint the situation is as replete with "bull" information as nuts with meat in September; but somehow it does not seem to have the desired effect. For instance, the exports from Montreal for the season up to the close of last week were 294,452 boxes against 329,005 for the corresponding period last year, showing a decrease of 34,553 boxes, while the combined shipments from Montreal and New York show a decrease of 71,750 boxes, as compared with those of last year to the above date. As compared with two years ago, the deficiency is 125,000 boxes. But despite statistics, there appears to be a craze for low prices all round. Bacon, lard, pork, canned meats of all descriptions and fresh meats into the bargain are selling at phenomenally low prices; and, besides, consumers cannot cram into their paunches desirable selections from the above, and leave the same vacant space for cheese as used to be allotted thereto, when it had fewer kinds of provisions to compete with. This is truly an epoch of record-breaking prices, and cheese cannot be expected to form an exception to the rule.

400 Acre Farm FOR SALE.

IN SNOWDEN.

I WILL SELL AT A BARGAIN A 400 acre Farm in the Township of Snowden—very convenient—about half a lot from the Village of Gelert and Gelert Station. The property consists of lots 16, 17, 18, 19, in the 11th Con. less a strip of Lots 17, 18 and 19, through which runs the Victoria branch, of the Grand Trunk Railway. There are cleared on lot 16, 20 acres; on lot 17, 60 acres; on lot 18, 30 acres, and on lot 19, 25 acres, balance good hardwood bush and well timbered. Log House. Log Barn. The property is well-watered by a branch of the Burnt River and would make an excellent farm for stock and grain and the Timber being convenient to the station can be sold at a good price or shipped as purchaser desires, and in the most profitable manner. It is close to school and church.

At a recent examination it is estimated that there are upon the four lots the following quantities of wood, etc.:—500 cords maple wood; 300 cords birch wood; 300 cords hemlock, balsam and soft wood; 2000 cedar ties; 2000 cedar posts; about 300 acres good farming land; 100 acres good pasture land. It is one of the best farms in the country for stock raising, pasture being always good.

Will sell to a good man on reasonable terms Apply to Drink

Montserrat

In Hot Weather

It is the pure juice of ripe fruit—and a wholesome summer beverage. It is cheaper and more convenient than lemons.

Beware of imitations which are mere concoctions and injurious to health.

On the Island of Montserrat (W.I.) alone is the Lime systematically cultivated for the purpose of supplying the juice as a beverage. "Montserrat" is never musty.

If a Lime Juice Cordial is desired "Limetta" will be found the finest in the market.

THE workman often eats his lunch on the same bench where he does his work. The office man snatches a few minutes from his occupation and turns his desk into a dining-table. Neither gets the exercise he needs, neither takes the proper time for eating. It is small wonder that the digestion of both gets out of order.

Nature works as hard as she can, but there are some things she cannot stand. If a man gets some foreign substance into the works of his watch, he doesn't expect the watch to run until the impediment is removed. His own digestive system is a much more wonderful and delicate mechanism than that of his watch, and yet he neglects it and abuses it. He lets it get out of order, and refuses to help it. In the end his neglect reacts with terrible force upon himself. The reaction comes on gradually, however, so that sometimes he scarcely suspects the cause.

The cause of nine-tenths of the sickness of the world is constipation—a condition so common that four people out of five take it as a matter of course. From this one cause come indigestion; disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys; biliousness, headaches, flatulence, heartburn, impurity of the blood and the serious complications that follow. To begin with, constipation is a little thing, and a little thing will cure it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated granules. They give to nature just the little help she needs. They are as gentle as they are efficient, and will perfectly cure the worst cases of constipation. There is nothing in the world like them, so there can be nothing "just as good." The druggist who tries to sell you something else has his own interest in view and not yours.

For a free sample package of from 4 to 7 doses, address World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Any one sending 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only, will receive free a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. The expense of producing this wonderful book has been paid by the sale of 680,000 copies at the regular price, $1.50. It has now been decided to give away absolutely free, an edition of 500,000 copies. Address as above.

Gardens and Poultry.

Farmers should plant part of their gardens for their poultry. They should not allow the poultry to gather it for themselves, but they should furnish them in their enclosure plenty of vegetable food—lettuce and cabbage will be eaten with relish and be beneficial. The purslane weed will be good food when it is in your way in the garden. Turnips and tomatoes are quite palatable to healthy chickens. Cucumbers would be eaten, but they are not good food for young fowls.—Farm News.

Home Work.

There is but little doubt that farmers could do a vast deal themselves toward improving their roads if they would but give the matter that concern which they bestow upon their crops and flocks.—Farm News.

Have You Thought of It?

For four thousand years or more the world groaned, suffered and fumed about its corns, for there was no positive relief—no certain and painless corn cure until Dr. Scott Putnam gave to the world his great Corn Extractor. If there is suffering now it is the result of carelessness, for the remedy is at hand. Try Putnam's Corn Extractor. It is sure, painless and prompt. Beware of substitutes. N. C. Polson & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

ONE HONEST MAN.

Dear Editor: Please inform your readers that if written to confidentially, I will mail in a sealed letter, the plan pursued by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from Nervous Weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts.

I have no scheme to extort money from anyone. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank Heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong, and anxious to make this certain means of cure known to all.

Having nothing to sell or send C.O.D., I want no money. Address, JAS. A. HARRIS, Box 1539, Delray, Mich.

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 30.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says:—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

Steel Wool.

Steel wool has been introduced as a substitute for glass paper in Germany. It is made of threads of shredded steel with sharp cutting edges, works more quickly and uniformly than the sandpaper, does not gum or clog, and, being flexible, can be used in smoothing elaborate carvings.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Perfect Welding.

Electrical welds, properly made, are practically perfect, as may be proved by an examination of steel turnings, which are found to be whole and sound when taken from welded joints.

For an Onion Breath.

A tablespoonful of strong coffee taken clear will remove the odor of onions from the breath.

Think it Over.

Have you ever heard of a medicine with such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla? Don't you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla, the One True Blood Purifier, has proved, over and over again, that it has power to cure, even after all other remedies fail. If you have impure blood you may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good.

Hood's Pills assist digestion. 25c.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal. says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50c. Sold by John Nugent, 399 George Street.

That hacking, persistent cough can be quickly cured by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It cures all throat and lung troubles.

Letters Come.

Letters come day by day telling us that this person has been cured of dyspepsia, that person of Bad Blood, and another of Headache, still another of Biliousness, and yet others of various complaints of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood, all through the intelligent use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

It is the voice of the people recognizing the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood.

Mr. T. G. Ludlow, 334 Colborne Street, Brantford, Ont., says: During seven years prior to 1886, my wife was sick all the time with violent headaches. Her head was so hot that it felt like burning up. She was weak, run down, and so feeble that she could hardly do anything, and so nervous that the least noise startled her. Night or day she could not rest and life was a misery to her. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment for her but she steadily grew worse until I bought six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters from C. Stork & Son, of Brampton, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. Ludlow took four out of the six bottles—there was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every ailment from which she had suffered, and she enjoyed the most vigorous health. That five dollars saved me lots of money in medicine and attendance thereafter, and better than that it made home a comfort to me.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS ALWAYS CURE

AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING

Two Box Cure

MILVERTON, 29TH JULY, 1895.

Gentlemen,—For the last ten years I had been troubled with kidney disease, being so bad at intervals that I could not lie in bed at night nor stoop to the ground.

I had tried all the remedies I could find without effect, but heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and procured a box.

I am most happy to say it for my own sake as well as for others that I am perfectly cured after using four boxes.

Nervous Prostration
Complete Recovery by the Use of
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla; of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hinson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

WHY DID SHE ELOPE?

ONE REASON FOR THE ESCAPADE GIVEN BY "POLLY."

But It Should Not Apply in June, When Wedding Trousseau Need Not Be Burdensomely Expensive—A Chapter on Wedding Finery.

"But why in the world did they elope?"

"Well, you see, she told me in confidence that her father could not afford to give her the kind of a trousseau that she needed (marrying into a rich family as she was going to) and she just felt so mean about it that she was near to breaking off the match altogether. She said she wouldn't have minded if she had not so many swell sisters-in-law elect, and just knew how they would criticise her if she came to them with cheap gowns and insufficient etceteras."

"She wasn't very strong-minded about it, was she?"

"Of course not; no girl is ever strong-minded when she is going to be married. At that crucial time she is just like other girls all the world over. But she was firm in her determination not to let her father ruin himself by contracting debts for her clothing. I call that brave enough for any girl."

"How did she straighten out the tangle ultimately?"

"Oh, she did not prepare at all, but one fine morning, without saying a word to anyone, they marched off to Milwaukee and got married. That aimplified matters beautifully. The papers wrote it up as being such a romantic episode, and declared her to be a young and intellectual and beautiful,' when she was really 26 and was never thought to be either clever or pretty."

A JUNE BRIDE.

"I don't know. I think she managed that cleverly."

"Oh yes; it was a stroke of absolute genius. They went to New York on their wedding tour, and she came back with any amount of lovely things. There was nothing lacking in that trousseau, I tell you, even if it was bought after instead of before marriage. Wha-at? You 'don't think it would be nice to be indebted to one's bridegroom for one's clothes?' Nonsense! He was rich and only too delighted. Besides, I haven't a bit of doubt but he thought he had planned and proposed and carried out that elopement! Men are so stupid!"

"Well, he certainly was accessory to it!"

"And that is all! But the question of trousseaus is a serious one, isn't it? I've been hearing a lot of that sort of gossip lately, for there are to be so many June brides. Why, I know a half dozen or more girls who are worrying themselves wrinkled over their dresses this very minute. An elopement would be a positive blessing for any one of them. Of course, with plenty of money and leisure, buying a trousseau is easy, and rather good fun. But when a girl has only a few hundred dollars, and knows that her family are scrimping to afford even that, and that every $5 she can save will be a welcome addition to the family exchequer, she has no jovial task! Fortunately, however, it is fashionable now to have smaller trousseaus than formerly. That is, there are fewer dresses, but each one is expected to be handsome, so I don't know but that it amounts to pretty nearly the same thing in the end."

"There isn't very much doubt about that. Five gowns is the very smallest number allowed for a moderate trousseau. First, the wedding dress, which can be used afterward for balls or parties; second, a traveling dress, which, if it is sufficiently handsome, will do duty afterward for visiting and calling; third, a dinner dress; fourth, a reception gown, and fifth, a morning dress. Sounds a little bit scrimpy, too, does it not? But then, a girl generally has a few gowns to her name, even if she is not married, and these work in for general utility, rainy weather, and such like. Besides the gowns themselves, out-of-door wraps, dressing gowns, hats, shoes, lingerie, etc., have to be added, and it is these little things which run away with the dollars. To provide a small five-gown trousseau one could scarcely do with less than $600, and if very handsome materials were used, it would be possible to expend $2000 on the same amount of things. A clever young woman on the south side, who is to be one of our June brides, is keeping within $800 for her entire trousseau. Her wedding gown is of the regulation white satin, made with a high bodice, which can be worn decollete for evenings by simply removing the guimpe of chiffon. Her dinner dress is very handsome, of brocade and lace, with beautiful passementerie, and cost more than any other of her gowns. The traveling suit is a good tailor-made, of dark covert cloth, and the other dresses are very simple. Her morning dresses, dressing jackets and lingerie she is making herself, with the assistance of a seamstress in the house. She told me that fully $400 of her $800 was being spent for the first three dresses and after that everything was very simple. But I think she will have a charming trousseau for all that. The three handsome dresses which she has chosen so wisely and so well will be the ones most needed and most observed.

"Here is another point. Girls whose means are limited do well to wed in June. Summer trousseaus are much less expensive than winter ones. Furs and winter wraps are what swell the bill even unto lamentation. The wealthy, who have plenty, or at least, sufficient, of time and money, before buying the trousseau arrange it in different groups. Thus the things are chosen with regard to the classified headings, as: 1. The wedding dress, the traveling costume and the bridesmaids' dresses. 2. Ball and evening dresses. 3. Costumes and walking dresses. 4. Cloaks and outdoor wraps. 5. Riding habit, yachting, golfing and bicycle suits. 6. Millinery, etc. 7. Gloves, shoes, handkerchiefs and hose. 8. Tea gowns, dressing jackets, and negligees. 9. Lingerie. With this arrangement, and enough of the wherewithal, the purchasing of the trousseau provides a delightful time.

This is the season of the year when nervous women are advised to try "change of scene."

It is a pleasant prescription, but suppose a woman cannot afford it?

A trip to the mountains or the seashore may not be very expensive, but it may be like the wine and chicken prescribed by the doctor for a pauper patient—impossible, just the same.

Evidently, then, the next best thing is to try change of scene at home. By that I do not mean mere walks or rides or drives; good enough in their way, but always ending in a return to the same abode. I mean that it is well to change your climate if you can; if you cannot do that, change your house; failing your house, change your room, and if not your room, then rearrange your furniture.

Of course it is best taken in the order suggested. Change of climate comes first of all. Fill your lungs full of pure air, see new sights, interest yourself in new pursuits, break up the monotony of your daily life and the weight and weariness of years will slip off from your shoulders as easily as water from off a duck's back.

A new house is to a certain extent a new country. Frequent moving, however, is hardly advisable, and it is well to have a summer cottage to occupy through the enervating months. If you cannot do that, you can certainly "trade" rooms with somebody, or, as a last resort, push your bed where the dresser used to be, put the washstand into a new corner and hang up fresh window curtains. Anything by way of variation is better than nothing.

The prettiest wash dresses to my mind are the grass linens. I saw one last Sunday where the skirt was varied with a white stripe, and the waist was of the plain linen with cuffs, collars and band down the front of stiff white. A white tie and a brown hat with white wings and "Black-eyed Susans" finished a most dainty and charming toilet. Then I saw a darker grass linen with a small black polka dot. This was worn by a matron, and was trimmed sparingly with ecru lace, in which the pattern was outlined by a black thread. A small bonnet of brown braid trimmed with black lace and a yellow chrysanthemum, was worn with the suit. Certainly the washing materials for this season are unusually attractive, and if the fates are kind they will send us a long, hot summer. Grass lawn, for instance, is full of possibilities. It comes in so many varieties that it can be utilized either for a very simple morning gown or else wrought into a dainty confection worthy to adorn the smartest possible occasion. Satin ribbons enhance the beauty of a fine grass lawn, and almost any color will go well with it, though turquoise blue seems to be the favorite. An advantage of semi-transparent lawns and muslins is that they can be made up over lining of pale colored percaline, and look as pretty as if over silk, and at about a third of the cost. For strictly morning wear, especially at seashore and summer resorts, drills, linens, ducks and canvas will be found the best possible materials. Unbleached lawn is this season's favorite dress for children. It is cheap and durable and looks well. Larger girls affect the same material for loose waists and tennis and boating suits. The wash silk seems to be rather out of date. It is superseded by the linen or dimity, and is outshone by the taffeta.

WHEELER, THE MURDERER.

Digby, N.S., Greatly Excited Over His Confession as to How He Killed Poor Annie Kempton.

Halifax, N.S., July 4.—Digby is in a great state of excitement over the confession of Peter Wheeler, the condemned murderer, whose story of the crime by which Annie Kempton lost her life is the sole topic of conversation. Never before has the town known such intense feeling over a crime of any kind. All day long knots of people have been gathered near the jail discussing the story and the red-handed perpetrator of the tragedy.

The confession was partly written by Wheeler himself, who added to it in conversation, and afterwards admitted to the man placed on guard over him that he was actually the guilty party.

Detective Power of this city disbelieves the statement made by Wheeler that he murdered the girl after midnight, and says the evidence was conclusive that she was killed tarly in the evening. C. S. Harrington, Q.C., who was one of the counsel for the prosecution, also adheres to the Crown's theory that the murder was committed five or six hours earlier than Wheeler avers.

STARVED TO DEATH.

A Quebec Family of Indians Perish a Long Distance in the Interior.

Quebec, July 4.—News has reached here from River Moisie, North Shore, to the effect that a whole family of Naskouapi Indians were starved to death some 15 days ago. A party of hunters from Moisie found the remains of seven persons some 200 miles in the interior. The remains were those of the Cletinau family, father, mother and five children. The squaw had written a few notes in the Naskouapi tongue, which told of the terrible ordeal which the family had suffered since the fall of 1895. They started from Moisie with the largest fall of snow of the season, for the Hudson Bay hunting grounds. After having traveled about 200 miles, the provisions became short, and the whole family slowly starved to death.

First the children died, and the head of the family followed. Still the squaw lived to tell the story. Her last note is dated March 14. When found this her woman was still in a sitting posture, beside the remains of her husband. Of course decomposition was much advanced. The hunters buried the remains in the desert, leaving a mound of stones to mark the grave in the bush.

ARE THE MEN ALIVE?

Rescuers Working in the Twin Shaft Signal the Entombed Men by Rapping and Get an Answer.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 5.—There is just a possibility that some of the men entombed in the Twin Shaft at Pittston may be taken out alive. The rescuing party who were at work from 10 o'clock last night until 4 this morning on coming to the surface reported to Mine Foreman O'Brien that they heard rapping on the rails of the gangway road which may have been caused by some of the entombed men. The rappings were clear and distinct as if some one had struck the rail with a hard substance. The supposed signal was answered by the rescuers in the same manner. After a short silence the answer came clear and distinct. The sound seemed to come from a point some 300 feet from where the rescuers were at work. When this news reached the surface there were only a few persons at the head of the shaft, but in a short time it was spread throughout the city of Pittston and at daybreak an immense crowd gathered, among them relatives and friends of the victims in whose hearts hope had awakened. Further news from the pit was watched for up to 5 o'clock this evening, but beyond the fact that the rappings were heard there were no further developments.

At 7 o'clock to-night the rescuers report that in their opinion they are within 400 feet of the entombed men. The shifts have been increased from 20 men to 35, who are relieved every half hour. They are still cutting through the rock and progressing more rapidly than at any time heretofore since the work commenced.

A Wealthy Nova Scotian Leaves Large Sums of Money to Institutions.

Halifax, N.S., July 4.—Godfrey P. Payzant of Windsor, who died several years ago, leaving an estate valued at $30,000, bequeaths his wealth largely to benevolent objects. The principal bequest of this nature is $100,000 to Acadia College, half of which is to go towards endowing a chair in theology and the other half to form a fund for the assistance of students. One thousand dollars is also left to Acadia Seminary, $5000 to the Baptist Church of Chester road, $1000 to the Baptist Church at Three-Mile Plains, and $10,000 each to the British and Foreign Mission Society, the Baptist Home Mission Board and the Foreign Mission Board. Four Hants County Sunday school libraries are assisted to the extent of $200. The town of Windsor is to receive $20,000 to found an hospital, provided an equal sum is raised within seven years. The residuary legatees are his grandson Bradshaw Paulin and two nephews, sons of John M. Payzant and George Payzant.

STATUE OF COPPER PLATE.

Unique Process Which Supplants the Art of Bronze Casting.

A colossal statue of St. Fidelio has recently been erected upon the People's Tower at Palazzolo, a small city, between Brescia and Bergamo, in Lombardy. While the statue measures not less than 24 feet in height, its weight is only 1760 pounds. Had it been cast in bronze this statue could not have weighed less than 50 tons. This fact is of the greatest importance, since the statue is erected upon the top of the dome of the great tower, at a height of 350 feet above ground. The statue is made of galvanized copper, and has shown what artists and architects can do with an intelligent employment of electro-plating.

The statue was modeled in clay by Sculptor Antonio Ricci. The shaping of the galvanized copper plates took place in the electro-plating establishment of Count Vittorio Turati, in Milan. The work of the sculptor was first modeled in plaster, full size, the mold being then divided into seventeen parts. Each of the pieces was then covered with a layer of plumbago and placed successively into the galvanic bath. To facilitate the deposit of copper upon the plaster a net of metallic wire, shaped to the form of the surface to be reproduced, was placed quite close to the form itself, and a number of small pins or pegs kept it at even distance from the plaster form. The bath consisted of a solution with a base of sulphate of copper. Once the first layer of copper was deposited upon the mold, the metallic net was taken away. In a few of the more delicate parts, however, the wire net was allowed to remain, and was thus entirely covered by galvanize copper, so that it remained a sort of strengthening armature to the piece itself.

The duration of the plating process was from ten to twelve days for each piece, and in some cases more; the intensity of the current was regulated in such a way as to obtain a metallic cover of great cohesion. The thickness of the metallic surface is on the average four millimetres. The surface of the statue which had to be covered with copper is in the neighborhood of 400 square feet. The electric current necessary for the plating was generated by a dynamo of 600 amperes, at a tension of from four to six volts, and a four horse power gas motor furnished the power. The cost of this work is considerably less than if it had been cast in bronze. The expense averaged from 8 to 10 lire per kilogramme (80 cents to $1 per pound), or about $1600 for the entire statue.

Useful Formuln.

Cement for Aquarium : A good preparation is said to be the following, which is given by Dieterich :

Litharge	20 parts
White sand, finest	20 parts
Plaster of Paris	20 parts
Maganese borate	1 part
Resin, powdered	70 parts
Boiled linseed oil	suff. quan.

Mix the solids and make them into a paste with the oil.

To remove tar or pitch from the skin : Tar or pitch can be removed from the skin by rubbing well with pulverized licorice mixed with oil of anise, to the consistency of cream, and lastly, washing with soap and water.

To render tobacco harmless : Dr. Gautrelet directs to steep a piece of cotton wool in a 5 per cent. solution of pyrogallic acid and insert it into the pipe or cigar holder. He claims that this method will neutralize any possible ill effect of the nicotine. Such ill effects as headache, furring of the tongue and more serious ills he claims can thus be avoided.

Protective varnish : To protect wooden vessels against the penetration of liquids into their pores :

Shellac	1 kilogramme
Resin	125 grammes
Venice turpentine	125 grammes
Alcohol	6 liters.

The resins are fused together, and over the yet liquid mass pour the spirits. Wooden containers for hot liquids must not be varnished with this product, as it begins to soften at 70 degress centigrade.

THE OTTAWA BUDGET

Mr. Laurier's Advent to Power Rapidly Approaching.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER IS RETICENT

But He is Expected to Hand Over the Reins To-Day or To-Morrow—Mr. Laurier's First Move Will be to Obtain Further Prorogation of Parliament.

Ottawa, July 6.—(Special.)—The day of Mr. Laurier's advent to power is rapidly approaching. I asked the Premier to-night when the Ministry were likely to resign, and his reply was, "The day is not very remote." Sir Charles is naturally somewhat uncommunicative on the subject, as official etiquette requires that the Governor-General should be the first to receive the Premier's intimation of his desire to step out. The resignations may take place to-morrow, but it is more likely to be on Wednesday.

The Ministers were in session this morning and again this afternoon until 6 o'clock; the Cabinet is again summoned for 11 o'clock to-morrow.

When the Premier has handed in his resignation to the Governor-General, Lord Aberdeen will send for Mr. Laurier, who is quietly waiting for the summons in Montreal. As soon as the Liberal leader gets the invitation to call upon His Excellency he will do so, and will immediately assume the task of forming a Ministry. One of Mr. Laurier's first acts as an adviser of Lord Aberdeen will be to obtain a proclamation further proroging Parliament, as stated yesterday. A delay of two or three weeks will be necessary so that Mr. Laurier may have time to form his Cabinet and have the members thereof re-elected. It is generally understood that he has already as good as selected his Ministers.

The secretary of the royal military tournament has written a very appreciative letter to the Acting Adjutant-General, expressing thanks for the loan of uniforms and equipment of Canadian regiments, in order to adequately represent the Canadian force at the recent tournament.

Mr. Samuel Wilmot, formerly Superintendent of Fish Culture, is in the city. Although enjoying his well-earned retirement, Mr. Wilmot has not lost interest in fish culture, and it is announced that he has just invented an improved method of fish hatching. It may be stated that the standard hatching jar, used in fish breeding establishments all over the world, is Mr. Wilmot's invention, but unfortunately he neglected to patent it, and what might have been a source of revenue possesses now no other interest to him than perpetuation of his name.

A valuable historical record has just come into the possession of Mr. H. J. Morgan, the well-known Ottawa bibliophile. It is a narrative of the rebellion of Lower Canada, and consists of a scrap book containing hundreds of clippings from newspapers of 1837-8, an invaluable collection.

With reference to the reported dismissals in Toronto Custom House, it may be stated that no exception has been made in the case of temporary clerks in the Queen City. The appropriation has expired, and the temporary clerks in the service all over the country are affected in a similar manner.

Hon. Peter White is in town to-day clearing up matters in connection with the House of Commons, anticipatory of his successor taking possession in a few weeks. Asked with regard to the re-count in North Renfrew, he said that 109 ballots marked for himself and 111 for his Liberal opponent were rejected. A few of these were thrown out because the crosses were not placed in the white disc, but these would not have affected the general result.

Simon Holmes, ex-Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, is here on departmental business.

As stated yesterday Sir H. Langevin is to get one of the two vacant Senatorships in the Province of Quebec. Mr. Angers, it is understood, is going to surrender his claim in favor of Sir Hector.

Mr. Desjardins will go back to the Senate.

Justice Burbidge's award to Connolly Bros. of their claim for extras on the Kingston Graving Dock amounts to $45,296.

The local W.C.T.U. have forwarded a petition to the City Council urging the adoption of the Curfew law in Ottawa.

The report that Mr. George Gooderham has been appointed Senator is discredited here. Only one Senate vacancy for Ontario exists—that caused by the death of Senator Read of Belleville, which the Government will not fill, as it was created since the general elections of June 23.

A FLIM-FLAM ARTIST

Does Up the People of Halifax on a Very Old Game, But the Police Get Hold of Him.

Halifax, N.S., July 6.—A "flim-flam" artist has struck Halifax and fallen into the hands of the police. He visited three or four retail stores and made small purchases and always tendered a bank note of large denomination in making payment, when he muddled up the salesman or saleswoman so successfully that he always succeeded in getting four or five dollars more change than he was entitled to. One of the victims had Edward Berney, who hails from Montreal and boarded at the Albion Hotel, arrested to-day on the charge of stealing money from him. The prisoner will be arraigned to-morrow.

THE KING OF ANTICOSTI.

Millionaire Menier Has No Idea of Defying the Laws of Canada—His Rules for Governing.

Fox Bay, Anticosti, July 6.—M. Menier, the French millionaire who purchased the island of Anticosti states in the most positive terms that he had not only never pretended to have authority in the matter of the three-mile limit, forbidding all fishermen to fish within that area, but he had not even thought of doing so. He admitted that he had refused to give certain rough characters, who are fishermen, permission to land on his island, but justified his act by declaring that, as sole owner of the property, he had the right under the law to do so.

M. Menier, to support his position, quotes the rules and regulations he has established as a private citizen for the management of his property, as follows:

The Island of Anticosti is private property, a dependency of the Province of Quebec, and governed by the laws of Canada and of this province. The inhabitants of this island, who can only reside there by regular permission, must agree to submit to the regulations for the government of the island and all other rules of administration which are herein set forth.

The rules then follow. In brief, they provide that no one can live, conduct business or any industry or profession unless, having first obtained the consent of the administration of the island, such permission being at all times revocable. There can be no importations or exportations except through the regular channels of the administration and by its vessels. The use of alcoholic beverages is prohibited. The possession of firearms, except by permission, is forbidden.

The hunting and killing of game is not permitted, nor is fishing in the rivers, estuaries or lakes of the island. The possession of navigating craft is only permitted by authority. All births, marriages and deaths taking place on the island must be reported to the administration, that these statistics may be properly recorded. The discovery of minerals must be at once reported to the administration.

All interments must be in places specially set apart for that purpose. The appearance of contagious diseases must be immediately reported to the administration, and all persons on arriving at the island must be vaccinated. The privilege of sea fishing is reserved. Such fishing will be carried on under regulations which will give the inhabitants their complete rights, and will at the same time be a source of profit to them. For the purpose of preventing forest fires and the needless destruction of timber the burning of trees, grass, etc., is forbidden. The heads of families are responsible for the public derelictions of their children, minor relatives and employes. All infractions of these regulations will be considered grounds for the revocation of permission to remain on the island.

Continuing, M. Menier said: "I purchased the island of Anticosti with every intention of respecting the laws of Canada in all details. There need not be the slightest fear that I shall not do so. But I have private rights as a property-owner, and I shall insist upon enforcing them."

M. M. Stanley Has a Relapse.

London, July 6.—Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer and member of Parliament for North Lambeth, who has been ill for several weeks with gastritis, suffered a relapse last night, and is now lying in a critical condition.

COUNTING BALLOTS.

The Result in Hamilton is Still in Doubt.

MR. RATZ GETS NORTH MIDDLESEX

McNeill's Majority Increased in North Bruce—McGillivray Holds His Seat by a Single—Beattie Cut Down Materially in London and Livingston in Waterloo.

Hamilton, July 6.—(Special.)—The re-count was not finished to night, as expected, but it will likely be over to-morrow morning. At 6 o'clock to-night 50 divisions had been gone through, and the result was Macpherson 2267, Boville 2802, giving Macpherson a majority of 65 in these 50 divisions. According to the returning officer's figures the majority for Macpherson was 161, so that there is a gain of 96 for Boville. There are 65 divisions in the city. But in addition to the figures given above, there are 200 or more ballots which in the re-count were laid aside. The crosses were in some cases placed in the oblong space before or after the candidates' names; in other cases they were placed in the disc, but in such a manner as to make their validity doubtful. All such doubtful ballots are being placed aside, and when the counting is over they will be submitted to Judge Snider. The lawyers will argue as to whether they should be accepted or not, and the Judge will give his decision, either taking the voter's motive into consideration when he put a cross in the oblong space, instead of in the disc, as Judge McDougall did in the East York case, or throwing these ballots out. When the counting is over the number of the ballots reserved for the Judge's decision will be several hundred, and thus at this stage it is impossible to form any idea of how the re-count will go, but the lawyers acting for Mr. Macpherson, the Liberal candidate, appeared rather depressed this evening, while the Conservative organizer, Mr. Nesbitt, was more jubilant than usual.

Mr. Ratz Gets the Seat.

Goderich, July 6.—The re-count of ballots in the North Middlesex case was decided before Judge Masson to-day, the judge taking the same grounds as Judge McDougall did in the East York case, viz., that any ballot that was marked on the white margin alongside the candidate's name showed the intention of the voter to vote for that candidate, although not marked in the disc. Judge Masson declared Mr. Ratz duly elected by a majority of 62.

Muskoka and Parry Sound.

The latest figures in this riding give:

McCromick	2228
Pratt	1957
O'Brien	1035

McCormick's majority over Pratt 271. Col. O'Brien will lose his deposit. The final count on the 14th may change these figures by two or three votes, not more.

McNeill's Majority Increased.

Walkerton, July 6.—A re-count in the North Bruce election was held here to-day, before Judge Barrett, and resulted in increasing Mr. McNeill's majority to 31.

McGillivray Hangs on to One.

Beaverton, July 6.—Northern Ontario returning officer gives his official declaration here to day, the vote being John A. McGillivray (Con.) 2328, D. Graham (Ind.) 2327; majority for McGillivray 1.

In South Waterloo.

Berlin, July 6.—The re-count in South Waterloo resulted only in reducing Linvingston's majority to 89. Judge Lacourse took the ground that if the cross appeared either in the oblong or disc it showed the intention of the voter, and allowed such to count.

At Work in Halton.

Milton, Ont., July 6.—A re-count was begun here before His Honor Judge Hamilton to-day and adjourned until to-morrow.

The Re-Count in London.

London, July 6.—The re-count held here to-day before Judge Elliott reduced Major Beattie's (Con.) majority from 118 to 41. The judge did not count ballots marked outside the disc.

TO UNSEAT MR. DAVIN.

Joseph Martin Acting as Counsel for the Defeated Liberal Candidate, Mr. McInnes—That School Compromise.

Winnipeg, Man., July 6.—(Special.)—The following item is taken from to-night's Free Press: Many rumors regarding a reported settlement of the school question are in circulation in the city. The chief report was to the effect that the question would be settled by the Manitoba Government before action could be taken at Ottawa. Another rumor was that the Nova Scotia school system would be adopted by the Manitoba Legislature, the same being satisfactory to the minority.

H. R. Foulkes, wholesale liquor merchant of Moosomin, committed suicide Saturday afternoon by taking strychnine. No cause is known.

Joseph Martin's friends say they are now raising a fund to contest Hugh John Macdonald's election. Mr. Martin left for Regina yesterday to act as counsel for the Liberal candidate, Mr. McInnis, who is protesting the election of Nicholas Flood Davin.

Archbishop Langevin left Winnipeg yesterday for Ottawa, whence he will proceed direct to Rome to consult the Pope. It is said his trip is made in connection with Northwest missions.

Ran Into by a Train.

Kingston, July 6.—This afternoon the K. and P. Railway express ran into a rig on Montreal-street, seriously injuring William Perrett, a young man. Two others, W. M. Wellbanks and George Walker, were slightly hurt. The horse escaped. The rig was smashed. The parties were driving very smartly when the accident occurred. A farmer halted up his horse in time to save himself.

It Will Be No Trouble

TO HEAT YOUR HOUSE THIS WINTER IF YOU PUT IN A

PRESTON Hot Air or Hot Water FURNACE

PUT IT IN NOW—THIS SUMMER.

1st.—Because these Furnaces combine all the Requisites for maintaining a Warm, Balmy, Spring Atmosphere throughout the Building, regardless of the severity of the winter weather outside.

2nd.—Not only this—but we know of many instances where these furnaces are Comfortably Heating ENTIRE DWELLINGS with THE SAME QUANTITY OF FUEL that was previously used to Improperly Heat ONE ROOM WITH A STOVE.

3rd.—Not only this—but the necessary Furnace and Attachments cost VERY LITTLE MORE than to provide stoves for the different rooms to be heated, while THE COST OF FUEL IS LARGELY DIMINISHED.

THE ATTEMPT WILL FAIL.

At a time when the appearances indicate an attempt to nullify the vote of the people as expressed at the polls on June 23rd, the following comprehensive treatment of the situation by the Globe is worthy of careful perusal :.

There are ominous rumours afloat as to a plot at Ottawa to defeat the will of the people and to maintain Sir Charles Tupper in the seat of authority and in the possession of the government. There is grave uneasiness among Liberals; among the friends of constitutional government there is suspicion, distrust and anxiety. We doubt if there is serious ground for alarm. The people have declared against the Tupper Administration. And with the election machinery in hostile hands, with even the polling booths used to "fix" doubtful voters, with gerrymandered counties, and a partisan franchise law, with an enormous outside vote, a partisan civil service, an unfriendly hierarchy, a league of electioneering manufacturers, and a debasement of the country's flag for party purposes, it was required to have at least 75 per cent. of the unbought public sentiment of the country set in hostile purpose against the Government before it could be dislodged. It is true that even the bench is partisan, and that of late years Judgeships have been made the price of docile party service. But there are still many just and inflexible Judges. The judiciary is by no means tainted throughout. Public sentiment cannot be wholly strangled, the will of the people not wholly set at defiance.

Then we have a Governor-General, and that office still has some responsibilities, and still owes some obligations to the Canadian people. Lord Aberdeen must understand that to-day the Government of this country is in his hands. The life of the old Parliament has expired. The Government in office exists by no popular sanction. It has no power to do, to appoint, to dismiss, to direct. To-day Lord Aberdeen has no official advisers. Two weeks ago he received his authoritative instructions from the Canadian people. He is their representative in trust until a new Government can be appointed. Nor need he go to the Colonial Office for instructions. By representation of Sir Charles Tupper and his organs, fairly or otherwise, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain has been made to play the role of a partisan in Canada, and his advice at this time would not be received, and his interference would be resented.

We do not care very much whether Sir Charles Tupper resigns or meets Parliament, except that the public convenience would be served by his prompt resignation. It is just as well that he should fill the cup full. The managers of the Tory party have richly earned a day of wrath and judgment. It is perhaps as well that they should leave to their opponents no possible ground for gratitude or consideration. For nearly a score of years they have trampled Liberals under foot. They have cheated us at the ballot box, robbed us at the Courts of Revision, deformed and malformed the constituences, stolen seats to which Liberals were fairly elected, strangled every petition for fair play, scoffed at every protest against injustice, made the Senate a refuge for decayed partizans, seized public money and applied it to the corruption of the sources of political authority, conspired with contractors and railway corporations and swaggered up and down this country as though the citizen's ballot were their private property and the ends of the land their inalienable possession.

They barely gave the right of citizenship to a Liberal. They did not even throw a bone from the public table to any man who did not bow down in their presence. They forgot, they still forget, that, like Paul, we were born free, and that they could not always swagger in political ascendancy. Liberals, for nearly a score of years, fighting against tremendous odds, having taken beating after beating like men. They made no plea for mercy. They did no whining. They respected authority and loved and served their country well and wisely. But at last the morning has dawned. They have won an honest victory and they will not be robbed of its fruits. A country where the people cannot rule is not worth preserving. Loyalty to Queen and country does not mean loyalty to political swindlers and buccaneers, and there is a point beyond which it would not be wise to try the public patience, or to set up the false authority of fraud and chicanery. Liberals do not threaten retaliation. They do not preach any gospel of revenge. But they do promise to redress grievances, to correct abuses, to moderate political arrogance and insolence, to take the gag out of the mouth of the workingman, who depends upon his tariff-fed master, and out of the mouth of the merchant and importer, who have been intimidated by the customs department, and to govern Canada for the Canadian people, and not for a faction of office-holders and a league of industrial autocrats. And in some measure at least Sir Charles Tupper can determine the spirit and temper in which the Liberal party shall approach their new tasks and responsibilities.

THE present moribound Dominion Government pays some respect to the influence of Sir John Macdonald. They are continually promising to resign "to-morrow."

THE London Times says :—"Mr. Laurier comes to office with the cordial respect of political opponents as well as friends. His private record is as stainless as his personal character is engaging and attractive. He counts warm friends upon both sides in politics and many Conservatives will be found to echo the remark once made with regard to him by Sir John Macdonald : "I can trust Laurier without the slightest fear. He is incapable of breaking his word, even if he wished to."

THE new ballot in Dominion elections—Durocher ballot—is no improvement on the old. There seems to be the same average of "spoiled" and rejected ballots. The inventor, Mr. Durocher, of Ottawa, holds that no ballot should be counted that does not contain the voter's cross in the disc opposite the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. The law should distinctly declare this to be the law, and not leave discretionary power as as to admitting or rejecting ballots to possible partisan deputy-returning officers or possible partisan recount judges. No doubt should cloud the intention of a voter.

Windsor Salt for Table and Dairy—Purest and Best.

WHILE the Conservative papers are slang-whanging the French-Canadians and talking of Federal domination in respect of a people to whom they were crawling on all fours less than a fortnight ago, it is interesting to note that the French-Canadians show more political independence and make better use of the ballots than the people of English-speaking homes. In the County of Prescott, Ont., there are many French Canadians, but there were only forty spoiled and four rejected ballots out of a total vote of 3,200. In a despatch from L'Original great praise is given to the returning officer and his deputies for their ability and impartiality. The former appointed the latter himself, instead of delegating the appointing power to the Tory machine.

ONE of the ante-election bogeys in South Brant, says the Brantford Expositor, was that the cotton mill in this city would be closed if the Liberals succeeded. Since the election a similar cry has been repeated in Montreal owing to a temporary shutting down in some of the mills. Mr. D. Morrice thus explains the situation :—

"The mills are certainly closed down, but not, by any means, for the reason given by those alarmists. The company has simply taken advantage of this being Dominion Day week to close down for necessary repairs and alterations. We have not the slightest fear that the Liberal government will do anything to give us reason to take such an extreme step as to close down. If they treat us half-way decent we shall certainly keep our mills at work. This talk of closing down is all nonsense, whoever makes it. Mills were not made to be closed down, but to keep on running so long as a return is made for the money invested in them. Our mills, I may add, will start up full blast on Monday.

Cotton mills were prospering in Canada before the N. P. was heard of, and they will continue to prosper under the Liberal trade policy. Plants of this character are not permitted to remain idle so long as they can earn dividends—not even for the gratification of partizan spite.

SINCE the elections several of the more prominent of the Tupperite newspapers of Ontario have been abusing the French Canadians. The Toronto World, the personal organ of W. F. Maclean, the Conservative member-elect of East York, calls the Toronto Mail and Empire to task on this score. The World says :

"The Mail has returned to its vomit, and is now abusing the French-Canadians after its old fashion, though three weeks ago it beslobbered them with praise. It may pretend that it is only abusing a section of them—the bad gang—but taken on the face of it the Mail is trying to (1) injure Mr. Laurier because he is of the French-Canadian race, and (2) to cast odium on that race. This is the net result of the Mail's course. The World on behalf of many Conservatives, wishes to repudiate this attempt of the Mail to attack our fellow-countrymen of Quebec. We know of no public man in Canada who is more of a Canadian, as distinct from French-Canadian, than Mr. Laurier, and whatever his faults they do not lie in the direction the Mail would insinuate."

FORCE OF HABIT.

London People Have Become Used to the Great Specific Remedy.

LONDON, July 6.—The despatch from Detroit with reference to the cure from Bright's disease and blood poison of Mr. Langley, of this city, by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, has recalled the wonderful facts of the case to the citizens, among whom Mr. Langley is well known. It has reminded them that Mrs. Langley, among others, also made an equally wonderful recovery. The use of the pills, however, has become so universal here, and there has been so many instances in which they have been used with beneficial results that a similar case would hardly excite as much interest now as it did then, when the medicine was less known.

AUSTRALIA'S CATTLE PLAGUE.

Millions of Dollars Lost and Financial Ruin Brought to Thousands of Breeders—A New Diving Bell.

Vancouver, B.C., July 6.—The steamer Miowera arrived from Sydney yesterday, several days late, owing to fogs. Latest mail advices, dated June 10, state that the tick plague is still raging in every part of Australia, causing destruction of entire herds of cattle. The tick fastens itself in salt meat and has been exported to Sydney in this way. Though the tick be removed the egg remains, and the insect cannot be exterminated. Pastoral sections of country are intensely excited over the unexpected plague, which has taken the place of the rabbit plague, and is costing the country millions of dollars and bringing financial ruin to hundreds of homes. The tick sticks to the cattle and eats its way into vital parts.

Dr. Salmon, an eminent American specialist, has been cabled for advice, and Mr. Terhunt, Australia's famous scientist, is on his way to the United States to consult with Dr. Salmon.

A new deep sea diving bell has been invented in Australia. In Sydney harbor the owners sail in their metal bell, 50 fathoms from the surface, smoking cigars and sending jocular messages to a distinguished company of scientists above.

Mr. J. H. HUNTY, Chemist, 538 Yonge St., Toronto, writes: "As a general cough and lung syrup Pyny-Pectoral is a most invaluable preparation. It has given the utmost satisfaction to all who have used it, many having spoken to me of the benefits derived from the use in their families. It is suitable for old or young, being pleasant to the taste. No one with me has been disappointed, but many regret they ever tried it as a thin and ineffectual remedy."

Feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people "work on their nerves," and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired

YELLOW OR WHITE?

The Struggle of the Gold and Silver Men

WHICH IS NOW ON AT CHICAGO

A Minority Report to be Put Forward in Opposition to the National Committee's Selection of David B. Hill as Chairman of the Democratic Convention.

Chicago, July 6.—Senator Hill's expressed desire is to be gratified. The first fight between the silver and sound money forces will occur on the question of temporary organization of the convention, when Chairman Harrity calls it to order at noon to-morrow.

According to present appearances, the prayer is about the only part of the preliminary proceedings which is likely to pass unchallenged.

In no previous great National Convention has the recommendation of the duly chosen National Committee in regard to a temporary presiding officer been antagonized by a minority report and a demand for a vote, but the present gathering is an exceptional one, and is likely to break in upon precedents in more respects than one.

By a vote of 27 to 23, the majority of the National Committee to-day decided to recommend David B. Hill as temporary chairman of the convention.

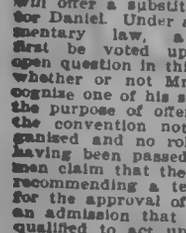
C. S. Thomas of Colorado gave notice that a minority report would be presented recommending the selection of Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia, and that the convention would be asked to make a choice between the two nominations. It is a curious fact that at the last Democratic Convention held in this same city, during the memorable all-night session which resulted in the nomination of Grover Cleveland, Senator Daniel, with dauntless courage, faced for over an hour a hostile, howling audience as the especial champion of Senator Hill, the man to whom by the irony of politics he is now antagonized.

The method of proceeding to-morrow will probably be as follows: When Chairman Harrity calls the convention to order as the representative of the National Committee, and recommends the selection of Senator Hill as temporary chairman, the minority members of the National Committee will offer a substitute, naming Senator Daniel. Under all forms of parliamentary law, a substitute must first be voted upon, and the only open question in this case seems to be whether or not Mr. Harrity will recognize one of his silver associates for the purpose of offering this substitute, the convention not having been organized and no roll of the delegates having been passed upon. The silver men claim that the chairman's act in recommending a temporary chairman for the approval of the convention is an admission that the convention is qualified to act upon it. If this be true in the one case, they assert that it must be so in the case of the substitute. Should Mr. Harrity refuse to put the motion for the adoption of the substitute some silver member of the national committee on the platform will put the question himself, and the first skirmish between the gold and silver faction will be precipitated.

During the early hours of the day a conservative spirit seemed to pervade the more radical of the silver men, and the desire was expressed by many to avoid if possible a clash in the convention. The conclusion of the committee to recommend the selection of Senator Hill has caused a sudden drop in this conservatism, and the feeling between the two factions of the party now seems to be more bitter than before, if such a condition be possible.

A FAMOUS MAN!

What His Researches Have Done for the World.



DR. CHASE.

All successful and distinguished men have imitators, and Dr. Chase, the well-known author of Chase's Recipe Book, proved no exception to the rule. Dr. Chase's discoveries have many pretended rivals, but no equals.

Long scientific researches produced Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Chase's Ointment, the first a certain cure for all kidney, liver, stomach, bladder and rheumatic troubles; the latter an absolute specific for chronic and offensive skin diseases. Among his other discoveries were Chase's Catarrh Cure and Chase's Linseed and Turpentine for colds and bronchitis.

During 1895 the Canadian manufacturers, Edmanson, Bates & Co., 45 Lombard street, Toronto, gave away free 500,000 samples of Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and 100,000 samples of Chase's Ointment. The return they brought proved how much they were appreciated. The same line distribution of samples will be continued during 1896. Those at a distance should enclose a 2-cent stamp and also receive a sheet of the latest music in return.

SOLD BY J. D. TULLY

As to the probable choice of a Presidential candidate to represent the free coinage platform, the day's developments have brought no marked change in the situation. Mr. Bland's friends are doing most of the claiming and shouting. Efforts to get the silver men to caucus on the nominations in advance of the meeting of the convention continue to meet with failure, some of the prominent silver leaders declaring their fears that the result of such a caucus would be to create dissensions in their ranks and aid the "gold bugs" in their efforts to disorganize them.

Silver Worth 630 Votes.

Chicago, July 6.—A morning paper says: The assertion was made at silver headquarters last night that silver would have at least 630 votes in the convention, though it was impossible for anyone to estimate the full strength of the white metal. Two-thirds majority, without the contesting delegations, was claimed, with renewed confidence, and the figures which the leaders gave out showed 613 votes, with a practical assurance of three more.

Stevenson a Candidate.

Chicago, July 6.—A morning paper says: It is now evident that Vice-President A. E. Stevenson of Bloomington is a candidate for President of the United States. He has informed some of his trusty workers that he is willing to accept the nomination, and is willing to stand on a free coinage, 16 to 1, platform, or anything else that will fetch the nomination to his door.

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 29.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says:—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

SHOT BY A TOURIST

Who Tried to Sleep in a Newcastle, N.B., Hotel and Noisy Inmates Attacked Him—One Man May Die.

Chatham, N.B., July 6.—Dr. Benyon, a tourist from New Orleans, at 4 o'clock this morning shot Norman McKenzie and John McKane in the Waverly Hotel at Newcastle. The shooting was done in self-defence. McKenzie's recovery is doubtful; but McKane was only slightly wounded. These two, with a traveler named Hall, were intoxicated and broke into Benyon's room and beat him unmercifully, because he protested against their singing and said it prevented him from sleeping. All the parties are in jail, except McKenzie and McKane. The latter is missing. He is manager of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax at Newcastle.

Later Particulars.

A despatch from Newcastle says: The shooting occurred early this morning. The men, George A. Hall of Truro, and N. R. McKenzie, druggist, and John McKane, manager of the Merchants' Bank of Halifax at Newcastle, were carousing in a room of the hotel all night and up to early this morning, when Dr. John H. Benyon of New York, who was in the next room, got up and asked them to stop the noise, as he could not sleep. McKane and the others got angry and made a united assault on the doctor, who retreated to his room. They followed him, and made another attack upon him. McKane and his friends finally forced the doctor on his back on his bed, and were beating him when he reached for a revolver from a table close by and fired three shots in succession at his assailants. McKenzie received two bullets, one in the breast and one in the waist. McKane received one, making a flesh wound on the top of his head. McKenzie is in a very precarious condition. The doctor was badly beaten. Information was laid against the doctor by McKenzie's brother. The examination takes place on Wednesday before Police Magistrate Nevin. McKane is likely to be arrested. There is a strong feeling against him.

McKane is a Scotchman.

Halifax, July 6.—John McKane joined the Merchants' Bank staff in 1883. He is a native of Scotland. Five years ago he was transferred from Truro to Newcastle, where he has since resided. He has never been employed for any length of time in the Halifax office, but has made several trips here. The first report of the shooting received in Halifax stated that McKane was missing. A telegram was sent to Newcastle by Cashier Duncan of the Merchants' Bank, enquiring if his agent there had disappeared, and the reply, "Pure nonsense," was received from McKane himself. No information regarding the shooting has been received at the bank here.

Bandits in Chicago.

Chicago, July 6.—At 11 o'clock last night the "long and short" men held up the drug store of Adolph Gaul, corner of North Clark-street and North-avenue, securing $76. The robbers pursued their usual tactics. The proprietor shot at the fleeing bandits several times, without effect.

Kruger Buys Arms.

London, July 6.—The Standard will to-morrow publish a Berlin despatch, which says that the Transvaal Government has ordered 60,000 rifles from Lowe & Co., the well-known German arms manufacturers. Ten thousand of the rifles have already been delivered.

ONE HONEST MAN

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentially I will mail in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness. I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P O. Box 386, London, Ont.

THE SUICIDE IDENTIFIED.

He Was a Pensioner Named Jeffries Who Was Much Addicted to Drink.

Toronto, July 6.

The man who plunged from Sherbourne-street bridge in Rosedale on Friday evening has been identified as George Jeffries, an army pensioner, who boarded at 99 Trinity-street. The body was identified by Mrs. O'Malley, the unfortunate man's landlady. Mrs. O'Malley says that Jeffries was a man of fairly good birth, and has relatives who are wealthy and in a good position in the Old Country. About twelve months ago his father died leaving him $2000, which he squandered in a month. Jeffries was greatly addicted to drink, and had last week spent his July pension money on a spree. A cousin of the deceased is his only relative in this city. He is employed at the St. Lawrence Foundry, and will take charge of the remains. Coroner Greig has withdrawn the warrant for an inquest.

Relieve the kidneys, cure the ache.
Bad back, acute pains and kidney ills,
Are quickly cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here is proof of it at home. The testimony of Mr. George N. Graham, the genial host of the Oriental Hotel, Peterborough, is as follows:—

He says:—"I have been a great sufferer for some time with pain across the back, extending up between the shoulders, swelling of the limbs, dizziness, loss of appetite, and in fact felt completely broken up.

"I had lost 17 pounds in three months, and thought that I would never get better. I have taken many kinds of patent medicines, and have also been treated by medical men, but did not seem to get any better at all, in fact was constantly growing worse.

"I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertisement and got a box of them at Lynch's drugstore, and by the time I had taken one box noticed a marked change for the better.

"I have taken seven boxes altogether, and am now free from pain; the swelling in the limbs has disappeared, and my appetite is good. In fact, I feel that I am completely cured.

"I can heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to those suffering from any form of kidney trouble. They are the best kidney medicine I have ever used.

Signed, GEO. N. GRAHAM.

HOW THE SUN LIFE
FULFILS ITS PROMISES.

A Matured 10 Year Endowment.

Profits Paid by the SUN 21 per. cent more than the Estimates.

The following letter, which speak for itself, was received by the undersigned this morning from a gentleman in Brockville, whose ten year endowment which he held in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada matured last week and was paid him. The Sun is modest in promises but UNEQUALLED IN RESULTS. The public are benefitted by results, not by promises unfulfilled

BROCKVILLE, November 7th, 1895.

W. H. HILL, Mgr. Central Ontario Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, Peterborough, Ontario:—

DEAR SIR.—I should have acknowledged the receipt of yours enclosing cheque for endowment policy No. 12,671 before, only I wanted to write something more than a mere receipt. I am pleased to hear of the continued prosperity of the "SUN" and it speaks well for your Company when the profits are greater (by 21 per cent.) than you as the Company's representative promised or rather estimated, as was the case with this policy.

I hope your Company will continue to prosper and I often regret that I do not carry more Insurance than I am doing. I might have carried twice as much as I do when at Minden without any great effort, still what little I do carry I feel is perfectly safe being in the "SUN."

I must thank you for your promptness and kindness regarding this policy just settled. I hope we will both be alive and well when the new one I now hold will be due in 1905 and assuring you of very best wishes, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
(Signed) F. R. C.

The above voluntary testimonial is significant and shows in a most practical way the SUN'S standing as a profit paying institution.

Auburn Fire Protection.

The Auburn Woollen Mills Company is applying for better fire protection, the evidence of a natural desire after their recent hot experience on this side of the river. The woollen mills are very much in the position of the Ancient Mariner—"water, water everywhere, but not a drop to—put out fire with. It would seem that large establishments should not be altogether dependent on outside fire protection, but where water and power are so convenient, should have some private means of keeping a fire in check till outside assistance arrives. Still every portion should have, where at all possible, adequate fire protection, and no better protection can be afforded on the continent than by extending, where needed, our efficient water system.

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Mrs. John Jeffers Takes a Quantity of Carbolic Acid by Mistake—Her Condition very Serious.

A most distressing accident happened this morning to Mrs. Jeffers, wife of Mr. John Jeffers, English Master at the Collegiate Institute. Mrs. Jeffers had not been feeling well to-day, and at the noon hour a dose of two teaspoonsful of what was supposed to be cod liver oil was prepared and taken by her. Almost immediately the effects led to the discovery of the dreadful fact that carbolic acid had been administered by mistake. At once medical assistance was summoned, and very quickly Drs. Halliday, King, Eastwood and Brown were in attendance and using all the means known to medical and surgical skill to counteract the terrible effects of the acid.

Mr. Jeffers was suffering from a sore throat, and a desert spoonful of the supposed cod liver oil—carbolic acid—mixed with a little whisky and must have been taken hastily, as is usual with such doses, as the lips were not marked by the acid. Mrs. Jeffers became very shortly unconscious, and fortunately a quantity of milk had been administered, and Dr. Brown who had been summoned, was followed by Dr. Eastwood, and the stomach pump was at once used. Dr. King and Dr. Halliday arrived later and under the combined efforts of the four physicians Mrs. Jeffers showed signs of consciousness after about two and a half hours.

The patient is now considered out of danger from the immediate results of the melancholy accident, and if no serious secondary effects ensue, her ultimate recovery is assured.

Genuine Bargains

For one week including Saturday, June 27th, A. Clegg will place in his show window each day some genuine bargains in useful and fine furniture. Look out for them.

Lawn Croquet Sets Now.

This is the time to buy 4, 6 and 8 ball sets, all going at prices to clear. Hammocks, the same. We bought a few too many of both, and are letting them go rather than have them take up valuable store room. A. H. STRATTON & Co., Peterborough Bookstore.

The People's Coal Company.

This company has now opened an office at 230 Charlotte street, near the corner of Aylmer, telephone 360, where they are ready to receive and fill all orders entrusted to them. Their coal for baseburners is economical. For ranges and cook stoves has no equal. For heaters and furnaces is a perfect success. They deliver their coal in bags and have it weighed on the town scales. Prices for July: $5.50 per ton cash for egg, stove, No. 4 and Chestnut; $5 35 for grate. ARTHUR J. MCCLELLAN. 6d1

Y.W.C.A. Notes.

All young women are invited to the lecture to be given by Miss Geber in the Y. W.C.A. rooms to-night at 8 o'clock. We hope to see the hall as well filled as it was last night.

Miss M. Gerber, of Deaconess' Home, Cleveland, will address a meeting for young ladies at the Y. W. C. A. rooms again this evening at eight o'clock. The meeting last evening was largely attended and all present were greatly edified and interested.

Renewing its Youth.

The Bank of Montreal building, corner of Water and Simcoe streets, has been splendidly renovated. The brickwork has been handsomely tuck-pointed, the stonework cleaned and the woodwork painted. The improvement is very great and the appearance of the renovated building, like the stock of this solid old bank, which has enjoyed a flourishing existence of three-quarters of a century—having been established in 1817—is decidedly above par. The building was erected thirty-eight years ago—in 1858—and is as good to-day as ever. Having been solidly built, age only seems to improve it.

Can Heart Failure be Prevented?

Startling and brief the announcement, "Sudden Death Caused by Heart Failure." Such is the stereotyped announcement of coroners, juries and reporters arousing the forebodings of those victims of indigestion and mal-nutrition, who so frequently disturb themselves upon the manifestation in palpitation or fluttering, of functional disturbance of the heart; symptoms which they are foolishly prone to accept as the signs of an incurable and speedily fatal malady. Maltine with Coca Wine is potent in restoring conditions that no longer render possible such alarmingly disturbing symptoms.

Maltine with Coca Wine has long been recognized as the most pleasant and efficient remedy for all those functional derangements that find manifestation in lassitude, sleeplessness, despondency and loss of appetite and digestive power. All druggists sell it.

THE C. E. CONVENTION.

Preparations for the Great Gathering at Washington—The Peterborough Delegates.

For the next few days Washington City will be the Mecca of the Christian Endeavour hosts. The fifteenth international C. E. convention convenes there to-morrow, and it is expected that fifty or sixty thousand delegates will be present. Yesterday afternoon Rev. Wm. Patterson, Rev. John Neil, Rev. W. F. Wilson and Rev. Edgerton R. Young of Toronto left for Washington. They will be joined at Suspension Bridge by Bishop Baldwin and Canon Richardson of London. These gentlemen deliver addresses at the opening meetings, and the first and last named are trustees of the United Society, and have a meeting to attend to-night. A contingent of about thirty from Hamilton also left yesterday afternoon. The main Ontario excursion will leave Suspension Bridge this (Tuesday) evening, and there will at least be one hundred and fifty on board. The excursion train will be decorated with streamers and Union Jacks, and will run on special time, reaching Washington at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. A programme has been printed, consisting of concerts, song services, prayer meetings and a reception to be given by the Toronto delegation, which will be carried out en route. These gatherings will be held simultaneously in the different cars, and the names of those who preside and take part are printed in full. A baggage car will be attached to the excursion train for the accommodation of bicycles, as about fifty of the delegates will take wheels. She Washington Star says that their local wheelmen are prepared to give the Canadians a cordial reception. The distinctive Canadian badge this year will be a button, on which is printed a maple leaf in autumn tints, in the centre of which is a C. E. monogram. Above the leaf is the word "Canada," and below it, in small letters, "Our Emblem Dear."

The delegates from Peterborough are Miss Aldridge and Mr. Harry Martin. They left by the noon train to-day and will join the Toronto, Hamilton and Western Ontario contingent at Rochester and all proceed to Washington.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Edward Phelan was in Port Hope yesterday.

Mr. J. D. Thornton, of Omemee, was in town to-day.

Rev. Francis Andrews, Presbyterian Minister, Keene, is in town to day.

Dr. Ryerson, M. P. P., Toronto, who has been visiting in Europe in search of health, is expected home to-day,

Dr. Hart and wife, of Brantford, with their two children and Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. Smith, are the guests of Mr. Hart (Dr. Hart's father), Bethune street.

Mrs. Wm. Gendron, of Rochester, who, with her little daughter, has for the past month been visiting relatives in Peterborough, returns home to-morrow accompanied by her father, Mr. Hilaire Archambault.

Wheel Talk and Items of Local and General Interest to Sportsmen.

LACROSSE.

It has been definitely settled that the League lacrosse match between Peterborough and Port Hope will be played on the P.A.A.A. grounds on Monday afternoon. A large contingent will be up from Port Hope to witness the game, and no doubt an extra number of local spectators will be present. The local team had a fine practice last evening. A number of juniors are showing up well, and if they cannot get a game—as it now seems to be the case—some of them could be given a trial on the senior team without weakening it any. Some arrangement ought to be made by the management of the team to see that the number who got in to witness the game on Dominion Day without paying, is diminished at future matches. Seeing no man at the far gate people naturally did not hunt up anybody to whom to pay their admittance fee.

LOW WATER ON LAKE ONTARIO.

Vesselmen along the lake water front are fearing a repetition of last year's drought. The water is getting steadily lower, and no boat drawing 9½ feet can get into Long Branch or Oakville, and they scrape bottom at Lorne Park and Whitby. At the latter place the Queen City got aground on Dominion Day. The Hamilton boats have not been able to get into Oakville this season, having sounded twice, but without success.

HONOUR ROLL.

Fruit Jars.

China Hall has received a full carload, 1440 cases, of fruit jars. Do not buy a jar till you have seen their jars and got their price. Their jars are guaranteed not to crack in filling and will be replaced in case they do. Prices the lowest in town. See the "Beaver" or the "Bee" before buying the ordinary jar.

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

SCORE FOR THE LIBERAL TARIFF.

Business Commencing to Boom Since The Liberals Came Into Power.

On the stub of the building permit book in the Assessment Commissioners's office at the city hall, Hamilton, is to be found this entry:—"Gurney-Tilden Co., brick core house, John street, between King, William and Rebecca streets, $500." Building Inspector Anderson has issued a permit for an extension of the big stove works, which ought to set at rest the disquieting rumour, for which there was never any foundation in fact, that the works would have close down. Under the Liberal tariff, framed to benefit manufacturers and workmen equally, extensions will be the order.

Another clear indication that manufacturers and business men are not afraid of the Liberal policy doing them harm, is found in the fact that the Grand Trunk Railway officials at Hamilton were authorized to make a survey of the premises and report on putting a switch from its line into the Wanser factory, on Barton street, which the N. P. emptied years ago.

The Geiss Machinery Works, on Bay street in the same city, which have been closed for years, are in operation again.

It is announced that the cause of the shut down at the nail works is simply a matter of repairs to machinery, and that in a short time the works will be as busy as at any time during the past few years—a good deal busier, it is hoped.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

In the Matter of Cahill & Hoolihan, Carrying on Business at Peterborough as General Milliners, &c.

TAKE NOTICE THAT THE ABOVE named have made an assignment to me under the provisions of R.S.O. 1887 Chapter 124, of all their estate in trust for the benefit of all their creditors.

A meeting of the Creditors of the said estate is hereby called and will be held at the office of Messrs. Stratton & Hall, in the Town of Peterborough, on Monday, the 13th day of July, 1896, at 2 p.m. for the appointment of inspectors and the giving of directions with reference to the disposal of the said estate.

All the Creditors of the said estate are hereby required to fyle their claims and value their security on or before the day of said meeting. After the 15th day of August next I shall proceed to distribute said estate, having regard only to such claims as I shall then have due notice of and proof and I shall not be held responsible for the assets of said estate nor any part thereof to any person or persons whose claims shall not then have been filed.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE TOWN COUNCIL.

REQUEST FOR FUNDS FOR 12TH OF JULY DECORATION REFUSED.

The Use of the Central Park Granted—Grant of $100 to the Children's Aid Society—Other Municipal Matters Dealt With—Accounts Presented and Passed.

The town council met in regular session on Monday night, the following members being present:—His Worship Mayor Yelland in the chair, and Messrs. Best, White (W. H.), Hughes, Phelan, Weir, Moore, Langford and White.

After routine the following

COMMUNICATIONS

were read:

From Frank Anthony asking for a refund of $15 on his pedlar's license of $20.—License Committee.

From John Green, solicitor for Georgina J. Jackson, claiming damages for his client on account of injuries sustained by her falling on an alleged defective walk on Park street, south of Sherbrooke.

From Wm. Collins, 126 Romaine street, asking an answer to his tenders for street watering for the southern district, which he claims was the lowest tender, Mr. Breckenridge's being the next lowest and that both of these tenders were passed over and the contract given to a higher. Mr. Collins also stated that he had asked work for his team both in writing and personally. He asked "justice and no favour."—Street and Bridge Committee.

From the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, pointing out that the bridge in front of their works on Reid street is in an unsound condition.—Street and Bridge Committee with power to act.

From N. Minacolo, asking for $15 refund of a $20 license.—License Committee.

From Mr. Chas. Hayes, General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, stating in reply to the Mayor's letter, that the Railway Company had no objection to a driveway being built in connection with the contemplated bridge over the river at Auburn, providing the Government bears the whole expense, and builds bridge of necessary additional strength to carry both the trains and vehicles, and providing an agreement is entered into by the town for the maintenance and renewal of that portion of the bridge devoted to their use.—Received.

From F. Laplante, asking a refund of $20 on a $30 pedlar's license.—License Committee.

From Mrs. Vass, asking remission of taxes.—Granted.

From J. H. Yelland, secretary of the Fire Brigade, asking that necessary repairs be made to their meeting room.—Property Committee with power to act.

From Messrs. Cox & Davis, presenting account of $20 for injuries sustained a vehicle on Townsend street, owing to a defect in the street.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From T. Bradburn and others, applying for a 3 foot sidewalk on Louis street.—Street and Bridge Committee.

From J. H. Glass, pointing out the dangerous nature of the drain on Aylmer street, and other improvements required.—Referred to Street and Bridge Committee, with power to act

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Moore, chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the following report:

Your Finance Committee beg leave to recommend as follows:

1. That in reference to the applications of C. J. Kane and P. Hamilton, the treasurer be instructed to accept payment for arrears of taxes the amount of the taxes with compound interest at the rate allowed by law for three years, this to apply to all arrears of taxes on all lands three or more years in arrear for taxes.

2. That the arrears charged against part lot 1 con. 12, Douro, for 1876, lot 1 east Concession road for 1874, and lot 9 plan 88, which Mr. Aldridge recommends to be written off on account of difficulty in locating the land which was assessed, by order of the Council.

3. That the arrears charged against lot 11, north of Simcoe and west of George, be written off, as there appears to be an error in the assessment.

4. That a grant of $100 be made to the Children's Aid society.

5. That the following accounts be paid:

6 That J E Belcher, Town Engineer, be paid $200 on account of the first three sections of sewer

7. That the account of the C. P. R. for lifting roller and repairing bridge be not paid as the town was not responsible for the roller going through the bridge.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
W. H. MOORE, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

LICENSE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Hughes, chairman, presented the report of the License Committee, recommending that the applications of F. J. Gosselin, for refund of license fee, of Mrs. Emery, for licence for candy stand for her son, and of S. H. Mitchell, for leave to ride a bicycle on the sidewalk, be not granted. The report was adopted.

FIRE PROTECTION FOR AUBURN.

Mr. Carnegie brought before the Council the position of the Auburn Woollen Mills, in reference to better fire protection, as the insurance company threatened to raise the rate of insurance unless better protection were provided. He trusted that the council would take a proper estimate of the importance of the conditions recited, and suggested the extension of the water system across the river at this point.—Fire, Water and Light Committee.

ORANGE APPLICATION.

Mr. J. B. McWilliams, County Master of the Orange Society, appeared, to ask for the use and control of Central Park for the purposes of the Orange demonstration on July 13th. He also asked for a grant of $300 to assist in decorating the town. He expected that the coming demonstration would be the largest ever held in the district. The Orangemen of the counties of Peterborough, Victoria, Durham, East Peterborough and part of Hastings would be present. He pointed out the advantage to the business interests of the town by the presence in the town of such a large number of persons spending money freely. He also asked that the committee have control of the park in order that the privileges of booths might not be abused by the sale of liquor. He suggested that the matter might be placed in the hands of a joint committee representing the Orange order, the Council and the Board of Trade, so that the town's interest would be amply protected.

On motion, the Orange order was allowed the use and full control of Central Park on July 13th, and the placing of the booths was left to the Chairman of the Property Committee, and the County Master, Mr. McWilliams.

The Yeas and Nays were demanded by Mr. Sawers, and were taken as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. White (W. H.), Hughes, Mills, Phelan, Weir and J. M. White.—7.

Nays—Messrs. Sawers, Moore and White.—3.

In regard to the portion of the application of a grant of $300 to be used in decorating the town, several citizens advocated it.

Mr. B. Shortly as a citizen and not as representing the Board of Trade, favoured the extending of the assistance requested. He thought as a ratepayer that the expenditure would be warranted by the substantial business results that would follow.

Mr. A. J. Gough, of Gough Bros., said he favoured the making of a grant. His firm had found that the 12th of July on a demonstration occasion was one of the best days of the year from a business stand point.

Messrs. R. Fair and W. H. Meldrum favoured assisting in the society, both from a business point of view and for the credit of the town in order to put it in the most favourable light before the large number of visitors who would be present.

Mr. Pousette advocated the making of a grant for business reasons and also for the credit of the town.

Mr. W. Rudkins said that as a citizen he would like to see the Orange society placed on an equal footing with other societies. They were as deserving as other societies and more than some others.

Mr. Kendry was in favour of extending the same privilges that had been granted to other societies.

A motion to grant $200 for the purpose of assisting to decorate the town on the 12th of July was lost.

Mr. O'Donell, contractor for the southern street watering section, applied for compensation on account of loss of time by the water cart not being ready.—Referred to the Street and Bridge Committee.

The Council adjourned.

WISDOM! STRENGTH! BEAUTY!

The careful and economical housekeeper displays great wisdom when she selects as her standard of colors the Diamond Dyes. Her wise experience leads her to use the Diamond Dyes because of their great strength, as one package has the dying power of two packages of the poor imitation makes. A grand characteristic of the Diamond Dyes is their beauty of shade and color, and they are always fast, firm and unfading. Carefully avoid imitations and vile substitutes.

CLYDESDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Hugh Caldwell, sr., has had a large number of men out doing their statute labour and as a consequence the road on his beat has been very much improved. It is understood that there is to be a considerable amount of money spent on our roads this year by the Government, and a single drive over them would convince anyone of its necessity.

There was a grand dance at Huckleberry Lake a couple of weeks ago, at which a large number of Clydesdale youths and maidens and a fair number of strangers were present and enjoyed themselves thoroughly. It was after daylight when the party broke up, and nobody was willing to quit even then.

Mr. Thos. J. Dwyer, school teacher, who has been visiting his relatives around town during the past week, returned to Clydesdale on Tuesday and will spend the remander of his vacation in Chandos.

Mr. James O'Brien has been the guest of Mr. Maurice Hynes, near Lakefield, for the last few days.

Mr. Thomas Cleary is up on a short visit to his mother.

Few medicines have held their ground so successfully as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During the past fifty years, it has been the most popular of all cough cures and the demand for it to-day is greater than ever before. Prompt to act and sure to cure.

A Boon to Smokers!

NO MORE NICOTINE.

A New Pipe

FITTED WITH

which absorbs the hurtful acrid matter that accmulates in the ordinary tobacco pipe, and prevents the nicotine poison which produces most of the ill effects arising from smoking.

Sir Morrell Mackenzie,

the late celebrated English Throat Specialist, wrote the following opinion of Herr Pflunger's invention:—

DEAR SIR,—I think that Herr Pflunger's invention is a very good one. I have tried it and find that it answers well. The only suggestion that I can make is that it should have an additional mouthpiece which could be screwed into the proximate extremity of the pipe so as to make the stem twice the length it now is. This would lower the temperature of the smoke as it comes into the mouth. That the smoke should be cool is almost as important as that it should be free from acrid matters. You are at liberty to make whatever use of this letter that you may think fit.

Yours Truly,
MORRELL MACKENZIE.

"If Eric is in robust health, and has slept well, and is at the top of his condition at his departure from Greenland, his ships will reach Newfoundland. But, take out Eric and put in a stronger man—Biorn or Thorfin and the ships with just as much ease will reach Labrador and New England."

Emerson was right. The stronger a man is the fuller his chest is, the sounder his heart and brain and lungs are, the further he will sail on the ocean, the higher he will sail in his balloon, and the deeper he will dive into the intricacies of his business or profession. A man's glory is his strength. The world has small use for weaklings, and, it must be said, sickly people have little use for the world. But, sickness is generally an unnecessary evil. It is almost a crime against nature to be ill. If you are ill and feel repentant, anxious to undo the mischief, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Don't be despondent because your grandfather died of consumption or bronchitis, or some other equally frightful throat or lung trouble. There is no need of hereditary consumption. Purify your blood with "Golden Medical Discovery," then take more of it to thoroughly strengthen and build up your whole body through the purity and strength of your blood.

There is nothing miraculous about the "Discovery." It is a compound of curatives skillfully blended. It will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if it is honestly used.

Would you know yourself? Send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of customs and mailing only, and get Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. In the reading of this book of 1008 pages is a medical education. It is a complete family doctor book, written in plain language that everybody can understand, and profusely illustrated. THE HOUSE FLY.

A Glance at One of the Summer's Unwelcome Guests.

The head of our common house fly is a very pretty object. The greater part is occupied by two large reddish-brown hemispheres, one on each side. These are the compound eyes, and each of them consists of several thousand separate hexagonal lenses, arranged so as to cause an appearance under the microscope like the engine turning on the back of a watch. Between these compound eyes and quite on the top of the head are a trio of small, clear dots, arranged in a triangle, like set jewels. These are the simple eyes and their exact purpose does not seem to be thoroughly understood.

In front of the head are the antennae or feelers, and each consists of three joints, with a feathered bristle arising from the back of the last joint. This bristle is an important aid in the identification of the different species of flies, in some kinds being quite simple, in other beautifully plumose or feathered, as in the common species now occupying our attention.

Below the head of the fly may be seen projecting the long, thick tongue or proboscis, which is a very beautiful structure. It is a true sucekr, but a very complicated one, made up of several pieces, united so as to form a tube, which not only serves for the conveyance of the fluid to the mouth, but also for the passage of saliva from the mouth in order to moisten and dissolve particles of the substance upon which the fly is feeding. At the tip of the proboscis are to be found hardened rings, which aid in triturating the food.

Have You Thought of It?

For four thousand years or more the world groaned, suffered and fumed about its corns, for there was no positive relief—no certain and painless corn cure until Dr. Scott Putnam gave to the world his great Corn Extractor. If there is suffering now it is the result of carelessness, for the remedy is at hand. Try Putnam's Corn Extractor. It is sure, painless and prompt. Beware of substitutes. N. C. Polson & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

The Summer Sitting Room.

Ivory white and dark red seem to be the favorite colors for piazza furniture. The low table should be painted to match the chairs, and provided with a cover of denim or some other serviceable material. A pretty cover that I have in mind is made of navy blue denim, the scroll-border outlined with Asiatic rope silk, a rich cardinal. A cardinal linen fringe finishes the edges. Two large pillows will be needed for the hammock. It is a good idea to have one of these made from the material of the table cover, the other of some softer fabric, as tinted art-linen; make this with buttons and buttonholes in one end, for easy laundering. Embroider the front with Caspian floss, which is a trifle heavier than floss, although it has the same slack twist. A sketch of a snow scene, or a cluster of snowdrops and violets, is a cool design for summer pillows. They are very deceptive, often being very much soiled without attracting one's notice, and white dresses suffer accordingly. The Japanese awnings are very pretty and at the same time low priced. They are invaluable for the porch that has a "sunny side." A wall pocket to hold papers and magazines is also desirable. It is rather inconvenient when the wind catches up our paper and deposits it upon our neighbor's flower bed.—Annie Balcomb Wheeler, in American Agriculturist.

What you want when you are ailing is a medicine that will cure you. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla and be convinced of its merit.

Karl's Clover Root will purify your blood, clear your complexion, regulate your bowels and make your head clear as a bell. 25c, 50c, and $1.00.

The Latest Humor.

ON THE OTHER SIDE.

What the Man Missed Who Toured Around the World.

The man with side-whiskers had made a tour of the world and was talking the man with the goatee all about it. Of the half dozen listeners the old man in the seat ahead of him seemed to be the most deeply interested, and though he hitched about and evidently wanted to say something, he held his peace for half an hour. Then he suddenly asked:

"Stranger, did you say you took in Rome on yer trip?"

"Yes, sir, I spent two weeks in Rome," was the reply.

"My darter was readin' to me about Rome awhile ago. Purty nice town, ain't it?"

"Yes, Rome is a beautiful city."

"What were 'taters sellin' at in Rome when you were there?"

"Potatoes? Why, I don't remember that I asked the price," laughed the traveler.

"Didn't, eh? You must have bin purty busy. Was hay a purty fair crop around there last summer?"

"I wasn't interested in the hay question. As a traveler, I went to see the sights, you know."

"Yes, I understand. See any turnips or cabbages to brag of?"

"No, I didn't include those in the sights."

"And you didn't inquire the price of beeswax?"

"No, sir."

"Happen to hear anybody say what clover-seed or timothy was wurth?"

"No, sir."

"Any idea what fresh pork brings there along about hog-killin' time?" persisted the old man.

"My dear sir," replied the traveler, with a patronizing smile, "I went to Rome to see its celebrated ruins."

"And you didn't even ask the price of fresh grass butter?"

"No."

"Nor find out if mutton was skeerce or plenty?"

"No."

"Wall, that may be your way of doin' bizness, but if you should turn up at Skinner's grocery some evenin' and begin to tell the crowd about Rome the boys would sot you down fur a sap-head or a lunatic! Shoo! Went clear over to Rome and can't even tell the price of geese feathers or strained honey!"—New York World.

A Disappointment.

There was a good deal of suppressed emotion in Elihu Geehaw's voice as he asked for his mail at the village post-office.

"Ain't well, be ye?" said the postmaster.

"My body's well 'nuff," was the reply, "but my feelin's is hurt."

"Ain't business good?"

"Some ways 'tis, an' some ways 'tain't. Betwixt us two, summer boarders is the durndest cranks that walks."

"Course," was the sententious rejoinder. "They want deer parks an' baronial ruins fur eight dollars a week."

"Well, we done our best. We thought that ez long ez we wus goin' ter take boarders we'd tend to thet branch o' the business an' not try ter run too many things ter oncet. So I went in light on gardenin' an' sold the cows. Me an' my wife talked it over an' we thort thet we'd better lay out a little money rather 'n hev 'em go without luxuries like they was useter. I paid the highest prices fer a lot o' things, includin' canned tomatusses an' condensed milk thet had sugar already into it, ready fur use."

"You didn't git no 'preciation, did ye?"

"Not a bit. I wasn't so much surprised when they didn't pay much 'tention ter the canned tomattuses, fur I don't think they're much better'n the other kind myself, an' I was jes' tryin' ter humor 'em. But when they turned up their noses at the condensed milk thet hed sugar already into it, I must say I give in an' got discouraged."

A Study of Success.

The old gentleman was giving the boy advice, not so much because the boy needed it, but because he had more than he knew what to do with, and the boy might just as well have it.

"Joshua," he said, "be polite ter everybody. Remember ye ain't no millionaire, an' yo can't afford ter put on too many important ways."

"Well, I ain't so sure 'bout that," was the reply. "It seems to me they's lots o' people standin' round ready ter impose on ye ef you don't show some spunk."

"Ye hev ter bear lots o' things in this life. But it's work ez counts. Remember the little busy bee. He jes' keeps a-workin' an' a-workin' day in an' day out. An' they's mighty few bees, I'm given ter understan', ez can't look back on their lives with satisfaction an' be p'inted out ter the neighbors es a success; an' all because they jes' keeps on a-workin' an' a-workin'."

"That's so, father. But there's one trait of character 'bout the bee, thet you ain't dwelt on."

"What's that?"

"He don't 'low nobody ter sit down on 'im."—Detroit Free Press.

ONE HONEST MAN.

Dear Editor: Please inform your readers that if written to confidentially, I will mail in a sealed letter, the plan pursued by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from Nervous Weakness, night Losses and weak, shrunken parts.

I have no scheme to extort money from anyone. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank Heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong, and anxious to make this certain means of cure known to all.

Drowned in the Canal.

St. Catharines, July 5.—A sad drowning accident occurred at 1 o'clock this morning at Lock No. 1, New Canal, by which Robert Stewart, a respected and well-known citizen, lost his life. Stewart was engaged as helper along the tow path, and it is supposed while in the discharge of his duty and the night being very dark he lost his footing and fell into the lock. Stewart leaves a widow and two grown-up daughters to mourn his loss. His body has been recovered.

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless to-day had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HINSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.

TYPES OF WOMEN.

A Veiled Turkish Lady as She is Seen by Europeans.

PERISIAN WOMEN AT HOME.

Glimpses Into the Apartments of One Cast Out of the Royal Harem.

Sacred from the eyes of ordinary visitors, generally built at the back of the house, and possessing a small courtyard of its own, is the Anderun—the apartment devoted by the Persian to his womenkind.

A man of wealth places the charge of his harem in the hands of eunuchs who regulate the household expenses, see that undesirable visitors in the shape of dervishes and fortune tellers are excluded, and do their best to keep in abeyance that spirit of intrigue which is as the breath of her nostrils to every Persian woman.

When I first knew her, the Khan's wife reigned alone as mistress of the Anderun though shortly afterward her husband made up the full complement allowed by the Prophet. She had come from the household of Nasr-ed-Din; but had not long enjoyed royal favor, and therefore had been bestowed on the first person worthy of such a mark or honor. She was better educated than any other Persian woman of my acquaintance, even speaking a little French, and possessed a good figure, but plain face, which last was probably the reason of her dismissal. Conducted by a servant through the large rooms of the Khan's palace, I was delivered into the custody of a Seedee slave girl, who received me at the Anderun door, and, pulling aside a heavy curtain, showed me into the presence of the Khanum herself. She was seated in a divan of plump, silk-covered cushions near the window, and rose to receive me, revealing the indoor dress of a Persian lady, which at first sight is somewhat startling. A green silk jacket, much embroidered, slashed under the arms, and with hanging sleeves, opened in front over a thin muslin vest; a loose girdle of filigree, studded with turquoises, encircled her hips, and from this depended a silken skirt boufiante, and short as a ballet girl's (the late Shah issued a declaration that women's skirts should end at the knee); while her shapley legs, innocent of covering, terminated in boots of thinnest yellow kid. Out of doors, where I had occasionally seen her in her carriage, she presented a very different appearance; the short skirts were stuffed into baggy trousers, and her whole person enveloped in a chadar of indigo blue, striped with gold, which covered every part except her eyes. Her face was, of course, painted according to the canons of Persian beauty, which declare that woman's face must be white and red and her eyebrows as a single line, and her hands were stained orange with khena. She rose to meet me, and with many pretty compliments motioned me to a seat on the cushion beside her, and passed me her kalian (water pipe) of Bohemian glass. I inquired how she liked Bushire and a gesture of her hands expressed contempt for her present abode. The Khanum (myself) should see Tehran; that was the palace wherein to live, with its gardens, mosques, and magnificent baths. "And I," she continued, waxing eloquent over departed glories, "lived in the royal palace; I had slaves and horses, jewels, too, and as for my apartments, this (looking round the large room with disdain), by comparison, is the stable of a she camel. In an evil hour an enemy came, dust and ashes fell upon my head, I was no longer of any account, and I am here."

"Have you any children?" I knew the Khan had two sons, tiny, grave-eyed mortals, who took their airing near the tennis ground. A bitter look came over the painted countenance.

"No, I had a boy, beautiful as Mejnoun, strong limbed as Rustam, but he died, and now I have no sons."

The bitterness was explicable; a childless wife is of small account in the harem, and is easily divorced. Still she was not without hope and explained the methods of using certain charms, invaluable in such cases. A piece of delicate embroidery lay on a carpet near, and I asked if it were the Khanum's doing. Her doing! No, indeed, needlework was for slaves. Was it true that in Firingistan women performed all manner of hard labor, even as the peasants in this country? The guitar also belonged to one of her women, and if it pleased me I could hear her sing. Had I any jewels? She examined my solitary ring with interest, and learning that it was not my only possession, wondered that I did not wear the others. Jewels enhanced the value of women in men's eyes. They were also a consolation in old age.

The Khanum's religious convictions were vague as those of other Irani women. Allah was great and Omar accursed; she daily repeated the Kebleh (profession of faith) and worshipped at the shrines of the holy men.

Refreshments were served by a very pretty girl—sweets, cakes, and coffee, muddy, brown, and sugary, in tiny glass cups decorated with a portrait of the Shah. Then my clothes and handkerchief were sprinkled with attar of roses which smell haunted me for weeks. On my leaving, Khanum expressed a thousand regrets. Might she be my sacrifice, she said, but my presence had illumined her life, and bending low she laid my hand against her forehead. At the outer door a servant waited with a tray loaded with fruit and sweets, and covered with a silk handkerchief, which he carried behind me to my house—a mark of esteem and respect from the ex-wife of Nasr-ed-Din.

A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many year's study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless article.

Inventions Without Patents.

If you look back on the history of human progress you will find that none of the great epoch-making inventions has ever been patented, says the London Truth. The man who lit the first fire—whether Prometheus or the party from whom he stole the idea—did not get a patent for it. Neither did the man who made the first wheel—in every sense one of the most revolutionary inventions in the history of man. The same thing may be said of the invention of soap, candles, gunpowder, umbrellas and the mariner's compass; or, to come down to our own day, of the steam engine and the electric telegraph.

Patents are most concerned with small mechanical details and improvements—it may be in candles or umbrellas, or it may be in the application of steam and electricity—and by means of these patents enormous profits have been secred to second-rate inventors; but the great ideas and discoveries which underlie these details have been given to the world gratis.

There is a general notion that if you did not protect inventions by means of patents, inventors would cease to invent, and material progress would come to a standstill. But history does not bear this out in the least. Men with great mechanical gifts do not exercise them solely with a view to commercial profit, any more than astronomers search the heavens for new worlds with an eye to registering patents and floating companies on the results of their discoveries.

Fortunes From Small Things.

Forty years ago a Maine genius conceived the idea of the copper-toed shoes and he made $100,000 out of it. It is almost thirty years since Heaton, of Providence, invented the metal button fastener now in universal use, and a fortune has been made from that also. —Boston Herald.

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof:—

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Won His Bet.

A bewildered looking farmer stood in the center of Haymarket Square Thursday, looking at the trolley wire.

The electric car came along and slowed up. They rang the bell and shouted at him and ordered him to move. He still kept looking at the wire and making inarticulate sounds with his lips.

"Get off the earth, you Jersey calf!" shouted the motorman.

The old man was fairly bumped by the slow-moving car before he moved.

Then he jumped and said: "I did it, by thunder! Where's my money?"

He looked around cautiously and then he said: "You seen a red-faced feller with a white mustache waxed? I want him. He bet me $5 I couldn't look at that ere wire three minutes and count 200. I've done it."

"Did you put up the money?"

"Sure," was the reply.

"Ding dong," went the bell.—Lewiston Journal.

ANOTHER CLOUDBURST.

It Was Accompanied by Loss of Life—Damage at Moundsville $300,000—Railway Bridges Wrecked.

Bellaire, Ohio, July 6.—A cloudburst occurred early this morning in this section, doing great damage to property. Sheep, horses and cattle were drowned; trestle work and bridges and seven houses, with contents, and the large canning and preserving works of McMillan Bros. were swept away by the high water in Wegee Creek.

Further Damage Done.

Wheeling, W.Va., July 6.—The storm which passed over this vicinity last night was particularly severe. The two Baltimore & Ohio Railway bridges across Wheeling Creek at this place were badly damaged.

The creek is out of its banks, and buildings and crops have been washed away. Two B. & O. Railway bridges across Grove Creek have been swept away, as has also 400 yards of track at the Narrows.

At Moundsville the farm house of James Barry was washed away. Mrs. Barry and daughter were drowned. An estimate of the damage reported exceeds $200,000.

A later despatch states that just before noon to-day a portion of the Baltimore & Ohio Railway passenger station at Wheeling was swept away by the flood in Wheeling Creek. A number of cars standing in the depot at the time were lost.

A TRIPLE MURDER.

Frank Murdoff, Wife and Daughter Supposed to Have Been Attacked—Robbery Not the Object.

Palmyra, N.Y., July 6.—The little village of Marion, four miles north of this place, is excited this morning over what may prove to be a triple murder or a case of double murder and suicide. This morning the neighbors, noticing no stir around the house of Frank O. Murdoff, broke open the door and found Mr. and Mrs. Murdoff stretched out upon a bed, with their throats cut. Life was not extinct, but they are both unconscious. Search being made for their daughter, she was found in bed, unconscious from some drug, supposed to be chloroform. There had been nothing stolen, apparently, from the house, so the robbery and murder theory does not seem plausible. Mr. Murdoff seemed to be a happy man and had no financial troubles. If he regains consciousness the mystery can be solved.

"I Have Had

Rheumatism for years and Nerviline is the only remedy that has done me any good." So writes Thomas McGlashan, North Pelham, July 24, 1890, and his testimony is supported by thousands of others who have experienced the wonderfully penetrating and pain subduing power of Nerviline—the great nerve pain cure. Nerviline is just as good to take as to rub on, and is the best family remedy in the world. Nerviline is sold by dealers everywhere.

That hacking, persistent cough can be quickly cured by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It cures all throat and lung troubles.

A PIONEER SHIPBUILDER.

Death at Meaford of Capt. Hugh Chisholm, Aged 72 Years—The Early Lake Craft Which He Constructed.

Meaford, July 6.—Captain Hugh Chisholm, an old and highly esteemed citizen of Meaford, passed peacefully away at noon to-day, aged 72 years. He was one of the pioneer shipbuilders and navigators of Canada in his earlier years, and latterly for nearly a quarter of a century carried on a large mercantile grain and forwarding business at Meaford. As a shipbuilder, he built at Port Credit the first centre-board schooner on the north shore of Lake Ontario, the Credit Chief. In 1850 he built the steamer Woodman at Port Perry, the first steamer on Lake Scugog and adjacent lakes. He was master of the vessel for three years, plying between Port Perry, Lindsay and Fenelon Falls. For the old Northern Railroad Company he built in 1854 the steamer J. C. Morrison, named after the late Judge Morrison. She was a palatial steamer for those days and cost $60,000. She ran on Lake Simcoe. The old Lake Simcoe favorite steamer, Emily May, owned by the late Capt. May, was built by the deceased at Belle Ewart. Captain Chisholm was part owner and master of the steamer Her Majesty, the first steamer to make direct trips from Toronto to Halifax. A few years ago he built the City of Parry Sound, of the N.S.N. Company, now running between Collingwood and North Shore ports. Deceased was a brother of Mr. K. Chisholm, ex-M.L.A., Brampton. Interment takes place at St. Vincent Cemetery, near Meaford, on Wednesday next.

NO PLACE FOR OUR GIRLS.

Archdeacon Lauder Attacks the Public School System in the Ottawa Synod—Some Strong Language.

Ottawa, July 6.—(Special.)—At the opening of the First Diocesan Synod of Ottawa this evening Archdeacon Lauder spoke out emphatically in favor of a general agitation for further religious instruction in the Public schools. He condemned the present system as tending towards unbelief, criticized the practice of co-education of the sexes and praised the Church of Rome for her vigilance in the matter of religious education of the young. As to the present Public school system, he said the provision for boys is fairly good, but that for girls is discreditable. Many parents, rather than send their girls there, are sending them to Roman Catholic convents, and, he continued, "I raise my voice against the exposure of our children to the craftiness of an alien church. It is denied, I know, that Protestant children are influenced away from the faith of their fathers, but, while this may not be done openly, it is certainly done by insinuations of the most beguiling kind."

Fragrant as the Flowers

Is the new and delightful tooth preparation "Ivorine." Foaming Ivorine is charmingly pleasant to use—a perfect delight to the senses and possesses in a marvellous way the property of rendering the teeth white and brilliant. Ivorine hardens the gums, prevents decay and imparts to the breath a delightful fragrance.

To prevent pale and delicate children from lapsing into chronic invalids later in life, they should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla together with plenty of wholesome food and out-door exercise. What they need to build up the system is good red blood.

The Breath of the Pines.

Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, sore throat and lung troubles are cured by Norway Pine Syrup. Price 25 and 50 cents. It breathes out the healing virtues of the pine forests.

Mrs. M. says: "My daughter was pale, languid and unable to stand any exertion. Miller's Compound Iron Pills made her strong and gave her colour. 50 doses, 25 cents." Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

THE ONLY ONE OF ITS KIND.

Paine's Celery Compound a Life-Renewer in Hot Weather.

Thousands of people feel weaker and more unhealthy during the summer months than at any other time of the year. This is due to the depressing and weakening hot weather.

The weakest system may be fortified and made strong by Paine's Celery Compound, earth's greatest blessing to suffering humanity. We quote the words of one of Canada's best physicians; he says :—"If men and women during the heated days of summer would use Paine's Celery Compound three or four times a day, they would find their vitality and strength greatly increased, and their digestive organs would be more vigourous and in better condition."

The greatest boast of Paine's Celery Compound is, that it cures when all other medicines fail, and it is the only advertised remedy that is regularly prescribed by physicians.

DID A BLACK SPIDER KILL HER?

How a Little Tot in London Died From Blood Poisoning?

London, Ont., July 6.—Rachel Newell, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Newell of 525 Ontario-street, died at 5 o'clock this morning of blood poisoning. A week ago Friday the little tot came running into the house, and partly removing the stocking from the right foot, called attention to a white blister on the ankle, which she said had been caused by a bite. Everything possible was done to save the child's life, but it was of no avail. The bite is supposed to have been made by a black spider.

New Government in Crete.

New York, July 6.—A special to The Herald from Athens says: A meeting of Cretans, deputies and chiefs, was held yesterday for the nomination of members of the revolutionary government in a village in the Province of Apokorona. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The members of the new Provisional Government, amid the greatest excitement, took oath not to cease the struggle until they had obtained either complete autonomy or annexation by Greece.

For New-Born Infants, Use Only Lactated Food.

When it is found impossible for the mother to nurse her infant, it should be remembered that Lactated Food is a perfect substitute for mother's milk, and in very many cases can be used with greater safety.

When Lactated Food is regularly used, infants are always free from the prevailing hot weather plagues, such as cholera infantum and diarrhœa. Lactated Food a fair trial during the hot weather, and protect your dear one.

Mr. Benj. Scott, Van Horn, Ont., says: "My heart caused me great uneasiness, my appetite failed and I became very weak and discouraged. Miller's Compound Iron Pills made me all right; I feel well and strong." Sold in Peterborough by Wm. Madill, druggist.

To Tired Ladies.

When you are exhausted and feel played out take a glass of Calcutt's Porter; it will freshen you up and make work a pleasure. Should be used by everybody during house cleaning. tf

NO MORE NICOTINE.

A New Pipe

FITTED WITH

HERR PFLUNGER'S CARTRIDGES

which absorbs the hurtful acrid matter that accumulates in the ordinary tobacco pipe, and prevents the nicotine poison which produces most of the ill effects arising from smoking.

Sir Morrell Mackenzie,

the late celebrated English Throat Specialist, wrote the following opinion of Herr Pflunger's invention:—

DEAR SIR,—I think that Herr Pflunger's invention is a very good one. I have tried it and find that it answers well. The only suggestion that I can make is that it should have an additional mouthpiece which could be screwed into the proximate extremity of the pipe so as to make the stem twice the length it now is. This would lower the temperature of the smoke as it comes into the mouth. That the smoke should be cool is almost as important as that it should be free from acrid matters. You are at liberty to make whatever use of this letter that you may think fit.

Yours Truly,
MORRELL MACKENZIE.

BRITONS CHEERED

The Ancient and Honorable Artillerymen

ON THEIR ARRIVAL AT LIVERPOOL

When They Reached London a Remarkable and Spontaneous Outburst of Enthusiasm Took Place—Faces of the Visitors Wreathed in Smiles.

Liverpool July 7.—Upward of 20,000 persons crowded the landing stage and the adjoining streets when the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston landed from the steamer Servia and cheered the visitors repeatedly and with enthusiasm. Instead of marching to the Lime-street Station the company hastened to the Riverside Station, in order to catch a special train which left at 4.50 p.m., so that they might arrive in London in time to attend the banquet which is to be given in their honor this evening. A deputation of the Honorable Artillery Company, whose guests the Boston Company will be during their visit and the municipal authorities of Liverpool, gave the visitors a hearty welcome.

Among those who have accepted invitations to the banquet in London to-night are the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Connaught, Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, Commander in Chief of the British Forces; Field Marshal Lord Roberts, commanding the forces in Ireland; Field Marshal Sir Donald Stewart, Governor of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea; Lord Salisbury, Prime Minister, and all the members of his Cabinet, ex-Premier Lord Rosebery, and most of the leading statesmen of Great Britain.

London, July 7.—The trip from Liverpool to this city was uneventful, but upon the arrival of the Americans here at 8.45 o'clock to-night they were the recipients of a remarkable spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm. The streets around the station in Euston square, the London terminus of the London and Northwestern Railway, over which the special train of the Americans came, were blocked with people, who were eagerly desirous of getting a glimpse of the celebrated American Artillery Company. Many of the railway employes were fully as anxious as the outside crowd to see the visitors and climbed upon the roofs of cars standing in the station to obtain a view of them. The train was drawn by two engines, decked with American flags. As it rolled into the station the crowd that had assembled greeted it with loud and prolonged cheering. The fine band of the London Honorable Artillery Company was waiting in the station, and as the Americans alighted they were greeted with the strains of "Yankee Doodle." A number of officers of the London organizations were present to meet their guests.

It had been arranged that the Americans should march to the armoury of the Honorable Artillery Company, but the hour at which they arrived was so late that this plan was abandoned, and the waiting crowds were therefore greatly disappointed. Thirty private omnibuses had been secured, and in these the visitors were driven to the Armoury.

The crowd was so dense for some distance along the route that it was impossible for the horses to go faster than a walk. The reception extended to them by the crowd was, without doubt, more enthusiastic than was ever before given to Americans in this city. As the omnibuses passed along they were followed by continuous cheering and the waving of handkerchiefs. From the windows of houses along the route women waved shawls and other articles of apparel.

The Americans were apparently delighted with the warmth of their reception, and their features were wreathed in smiles as they heard the welcoming of the London crowd. They took off their helmets and bowed repeatedly in response to the salutations offered them, and finally they returned the cheers of the British. There is not the slightest doubt that the visitors will become extremely popular, and everything possible will be done to make their visit a memorable one.

The banquet was given at the Armoury House, Finsbury, the headquarters of the London Company. The Earl of Denbigh and Desmond, Lieutenant-Colonel of the Honorable Artillery Company, presided. There were present about 400 guests, including Lieutenant Commander William S. Cowles, naval attache of the American Embassy, General Patrick A. Collins, the American Consul-General at London; Admiral Sir Francis McClintock and Major-General Sir Francis Grenfell.

Toasts were offered to the Queen, the President of the United States and the Prince of Wales, and were drunk with all the honors.

The Earl of Denbigh then proposed a toast to the American guests, whom he warmly welcomed. He said he hoped their visit to England would inaugurate an epoch of peace and staunchest friendship.

Colonel Henry Walker, Commander of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, made an eloquent response, in which he spoke of the kinship of the Americans and British, and referred to their standing shoulder to shoulder in the march of civilization.

The Imperial House Passes the Diseases of Animals Act, Which Excludes Canadian Cattle From Britain.

London, July 7.—In the House of Lords to-day Baron Herschell, Lord High Chancellor under the Government of Lord Rosebery, moved during the debate of the Diseased Animals Bill to empower the Privy Council to exempt any colony or country under British administration from the operation of the act, upon the request of either. The House engaged in a long debate upon the motion, which was finally rejected by a vote of 108 to 28. The beginning of the operation of the Diseased Animals Act was fixed for Jan. 1, 1897.

EMPEROR TO HUNT WHALES.

He Will Attack the Monsters in a Torpedo Boat With Explosive Harpoons.

Berlin, July 7.—Emperor William is preparing to hunt for whales. When he reaches the waters of Norway it is his intention to kill several whales. He will approach the monsters in a torpedo boat and hurl what are known as explosive harpoons at them.

DIED IN HIS WAGON.

The Awfully Sudden Death at Hamilton Yesterday of Henry Baker, a Waterdown Butcher.

Hamilton, July 7.—(Special.)—While sitting in his wagon on the Central Market this morning, Henry Baker, a Waterdown butcher, dropped dead. Some of the other butchers noticed him bending over, apparently in pain, but he died in a few minutes after they went to him, and before a doctor arrived. The remains were taken to his son's residence, 153 West-avenue north. The deceased was 66 years old, and his death was caused by heart-trouble, although he had enjoyed good health before his sudden demise. Many years ago he kept hotel in this city, and at one time kept the Valley Inn.

MATTERS AT OTTAWA

Tupper Government Said to Have Struck a Snag

BUT WILL STILL CLING TO OFFICE

Lord Aberdeen Said to Have Hesitated Before Signing Some of the Appointments Made The Ministers May Meet the House—General News From the Capital.

Montreal, July 7.—A leading politician, who arrived from Ottawa to-night, says the delay in the Government resigning is due to hesitancy on the part of the Governor-General to sign certain appointments. This has caused strained relations between Lord Aberdeen and his Ministers. The report was current in Ottawa that the Governor-General had sent back a large batch of orders in-council unsigned.

Will the Government Meet Parliament?

Ottawa, July 7.—So far as the political situation is concerned matters are in statu quo to night. The Cabinet met this morning for a couple of hours and resumed at 3 o'clock, but the afternoon session was very brief.

It was thought there might be a meeting of Ministers to night, but none was held, as the Premier spent some time with the Governor-General at Rideau Hall.

The opinion is general in public resorts that a hitch has occurred in connection with the winding up of the affairs of the Conservative Ministry. This may be straightened out to-morrow or it may not.

A well informed politician said to-night so far as he could gather it was now an open question about the resignation of the Government. The Ministry might resign to-morrow or might even meet the House.

Mr. J. H. Hugill of Halifax, agent of the Furness Line of steamers, was in the city to-day. The company's subsidy for steamship service between St. John, Halifax and London expired on July 1, and the company is anxious to secure a renewal, but it is not likely that anything will be done in this direction by the outgoing Government.

Major Chapleau, Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, to-day received from Judge McDonald of Brockville, the judge to whom application had been made for a re-count in the North Leeds and Grenville case, a letter revoking the order to appear before him (the judge) with the ballots cast in this election. These ballots had been wrongly sent to Ottawa before the order for the re-count was made. Accordingly it will not be possible for the re-count to be held to-morrow, as arranged, as Major Chapleau told me to-night he did not intend to surrender the ballots, and there appears to be nothing in the Election Act to compel him.

Mr. Dickey, Minister of Justice, when spoken to about the matter to-day, said the Department made it an invariable rule not to give advice in election cases, hence the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery would have to act on his own responsibility.

Conservatives here claim that had the re-count taken place, it is almost certain Mr. Lavell, Conservative candidate, would have got the seat. Mr. Frost's majority is only 9, and, although declared elected, if the courts should decide that he was wrongly given the seat he will be liable to a fine of $200 a day for every day he sits and votes in Parliament. Until the courts adjudicate on the matter, therefore, North Leeds will be practically disfranchised.

The Free Press, speaking of the contract for the fast Atlantic service, says, whether it be the present or incoming Government which in the first instance deals with the case, public opinion will certainly be in favor of giving preference to our own companies, and especially to that splendid line (the Allans), which has pioneered the steamship service of Canada, and in the face of discouragement and loss made the navigation of the St. Lawrence what it is. They deserve well of the country in this respect. They have led up to a high standard, and it is only right that they should retain the position they have so deservedly won.

Mr. Bourassa, M.P. for Labelle, has returned from Montreal, where he was, along with C. R. Devlin, seeing Mr. Laurier. It is understood that Mr. Bourassa was pressing Mr. Devlin's claims to a position in the Government as the Irish Catholic representative.

It is said that Mr. Logan, M.P. for Cumberland, N.S., will move the address in the Commons, and that Mr. Lemieux, M.P. for Gaspe, will second it.

BARNARDO BOYS AT SCHOOL.

A Test Case as to Whether They are Non-Residents Now Being Tried at the Bracebridge Assizes.

Bracebridge, Ont., July 7.—The district of Muskoka Assize Court opened here this morning, Mr. Justice Ferguson presiding. Amongst the legal gentlemen present are Mr. L. Heyd, Mr. Shepley, Mr. McCosh, Mr. Coatsworth and Mr. Grant.

The first case tried was one which will be of interest throughout the country.

In this district are a large number of Dr. Barnardo's Home boys. The trustees of Union School Section Stisted and Stephenson held that these boys were non-residents, they being kept as boarders, subject to being taken away whenever the authorities of the Home desired, and that the school section had no right to enlarge their school accommodation for a class of this kind. The boys were not allowed to attend the school after December of last year, and the school trustees were elected on the understanding that they would not allow them to go to school during 1896.

A case was brought by the Home, in the name of George Sharp, to compel the trustees to allow these children to attend the school. The case lasted nearly all day. Judgment was reserved.

The judge charged the grand jury in the cases of the Queen v. McKenzie and the Queen v. Hammond. A true bill was rendered against McKenzie, charging him with manslaughter. The grand jury had not reported on the Hammond murder case when court adjourned.

TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1896.

THE LIBERAL LEADER.

The demand that the highest patriotism makes for statesmen who can be pointed to as models in practice and morals to the rising generation, is met in the case of Hon. Wilfred Laurier, the honoured Liberal leader. THE EXAMINER has before pointed out that he passed through the fiery ordeal of an unusually bitter election campaign without the smell of fire upon his garments. Not one accusation was made, or hinted at, against him in respect of either his political or personal character. If he had had any unsavoury record in either capacity his enemies who fought against him so desperately, would gladly have preferred such charges. That they did not do so is good evidence that no cause existed. His political and personal character are above reproach. And even his personal habits can be quoted as examples for our boys. The Montreal Witness thus refers to this phase of Mr. Laurier's character : "That Mr. Laurier is able, after the most arduous political campaign on record, to present so fresh an appearance is due, his friends say to the act that in all regards he is an abstemious man. Instead of indulging a roystering triumph, as was the fashion in poor Mercier's time, he went straight to bed; and while he has since the victory given a business-like attention to the matters in hand, the selection of his Cabinet, and the starting of necessary machinery in connection with the new administration, he has kept himself cool and self-possessed. During the progress of the campaign, while others would rush to the bar after the political meeting, Mr. Laurier would quietly order a cup of coffee, which gave him the necessary stimulus and support. It is well known that Mr. Laurier neither smokes nor drinks. Many incidents are related by those who shared the campaign with him of his steady refusal, no matter how tired he was, to drink anything stronger than tea or coffee. There was one occasion when it was necessary to drive ten miles to the place of meeting in a pelting rainstorm. The small party when they got to the village hotel were drenched to the skin. Mr. Laurier and some others at once ordered tea, to the confusion of the rest of the party who had at once rushed to the bar for the usual stimulants.

The Premier-elect is new as fresh and strong as if he had never passed through one of the most exhausting campaigns since Confederation, and this is properly set down to the admirable care he took of his health, living simply, avoiding all exciting stimulants, and going straight to bed, while the 'boys' celebrated the triumphant demonstration in the way common to the politicians." With a man like this at the head of affairs, with the added qualification of unusual ability as a statesman, the people of Canada can rely upon the country being honourably and wisely governed.

THE Liberal majority in the House of Commons may not be very large—the Conservatives have the consolation of knowing that their minority is much larger. Your good Tory out of office is like a fish out of water.

THE Mail and Empire still continues the unpatriotic work of stirring up race and creed dissension.

THE Woodstock Sentinel-Review nominates Mr. Andrew Patullo as the successor to Sir Oliver Mowat in North Oxford.

THE Conservative newspapers accuse Liberals of smelling the soup at Ottawa. With certain malodorus Conservative politicians in the soup, Liberals can hardly avoid a whiff of [so strongly tainted a mixture.

THE Montreal Star is the most conspicuous example of a journalistic turn-coat for revenue in the history of Canadian journalism. A newspaper that will "swap" its independence for a shelf in the political morgue in Ottawa for its proprietor is indeed anxious for glory.

THE Mail and Empire is surprised that no Liberal voice is raised to rebuke "the familiar demeanor of the New York Sun towards Mr. Laurier and his followers." A good book enjoins to not answer a fool according to his folly and it is a little difficult to decide whether this should apply to the Sun or the Mail and Empire.

OTTAWA is considered the centre of government but it is not the centre of civic progressiveness. The City Council is only now considering the advisability of adopting the "curfew" by-law. Peterborough has had it in operation for months and if the police force insisted on its observance as sharply as they do on the observance of the bicycle by-law its good results would become more apparent.

WE haven't seen the name of Foster, Haggart, Montague, Ives and the other bolters in the papers for several days. They have rapidly sank into obscurity. We only see the name of that other bolter, Mr. Wood, in connection with the finding of fat places for his relatives before he shuffles off the official coil. Its a poor kind of patriotism that serves the interests of Canadian subjects in sections.

A business man is not the most patient creature in the world. He cannot wait to hear any long-drawn-out story of the cause of his ailment. He doesn't care two straws about a fine spun theory of how he should treat himself. He may be predisposed to scrofula or consumption. "That," he will tell you, "has nothing to do with the case." He wants to be well. If he can be cured, write out a prescription and send in your bill. So, here's the first part of the proposition.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a microbe hunter and killer. Many persons of scrofulous blood, encourage the breaking out of unsightly sores, to prevent the disease going to the lungs. There is no need of this state of dread and discomfort. Purify the blood. It can be done. "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure 98 per cent. of all consumptive cases, also of all other lingering bronchial, throat and lung diseases.

MR. ASQUITH AND THE EDUCATION BILL.

Mr. Asquith, on Friday night, presided at a dinner given by the members of the Eighty Club to Mr. Reeves, Agent General for New Zealand. He said if it were the custom of that club to have the toast list he would have submitted in solemn silence the memory of the Education Bill. That bill had died, not of obstruction, but of debate. The moment the country realised that whatever be its avowed and ostensible objects its effect would have been to cripple and to starve our system of popular education, from that moment its ultimate defeat was assured. They had considerable advantage in this struggle so far, but they could not yet safely lay down their arms. He predicted that the further the Government went into this controversy the worse they would fare, and the Liberals throughout the country were prepared to fight them to the utmost and to the last. Liberals were not less zealous or forward than the Conservatives in doing everything that statesmanship could devise to maintain intact and unimpaired the unity of the Empire. The Colonies had shown good sense and foresight by the fact that no one had shown a disposition to close with Mr. Chamberlain's fiscal scheme.

BENSFORT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Miss Carveth of Lakefield has been visiting friends in Benafort.

Miss Perrin of Oakwood, is visiting at Mr. W. Robinson's.

Mr. R. D. Nimmo, of the Munro & Harrison Business College Toronto, and Mr. T. J. Munro, of Stanley Barracks, Toronto, spent Dominion Day in Monaghan.

Mrs. John Kerr starts Tuesday to visit friends in Manitoba and the Northwest.

The Rev. Robt. Emberson spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Jas. Wedlock sent a large shipment of frogs to New York last week.

Mr. Jas. Baptie of Springville had a serious runaway in the village last week. As he was turning the corner a horse he was leading took fright and jumped with his front feet on the hind wheel of the rig, breaking it and and throwing Mr. Baptie out. The horse he was driving ran away, but was caught by one woman, who did what half a dozen men could not do. Mr. Baptie was not hurt, but received a severe shaking up. The buggy will have to be considerably repaired, as the horse ran nearly six miles before it was caught.

Harvest is in full blast now. Quite a number of farmers have peas cut and fall wheat and barley will be ready in a few days. Crops generally promise to be a little above the average this year.

A laughable incident occurred in the village recently. Two young gentlemen were out driving with their lady friends, when one who wanted to get out at the store did so rather more quickly and in a different manner than he intended. He fell backwards in the dust, and it is needless to say he was a little crest fallen in appearance and took his departure a great deal quieter than he came.

Business is booming in Bensfort. Mr. Thos. Armstrong has completed the enlargement of his store and the painters were busy Saturday giving it a thorough coat of paint, which greatly improves its appearance. Mr. Armstrong has received a new stock of goods and expects to greatly extend his business in the future. We should have a few more such enterprising men in Bensfort and it would soon be a town of no mean dimensions.

Can Heart Failure be Prevented?

Startling and brief the announcement, "Sudden Death Caused by Heart Failure." Such is the stereotyped announcement of coroners, juries and reporters arousing the forebodings of those victims of indigestion and mal-nutrition, who so frequently disturb themselves upon the manifestation in palpitation or fluttering, of functional disturbance of the heart; symptoms which they are foolishly prone to accept as the signs of an incurable and speedily fatal malady. Maltine with Coca Wine is potent in restoring conditions that no longer render possible such alarmingly disturbing symptoms.

Maltine with Coca Wine has long been recognized as the most pleasant and efficient remedy for all those functional derangements that find manifestation in lassitude, sleeplessness, despondency and loss of appetite and digestive power. All druggists sell it.

HARVEY.

Council Meeting.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The Harvey Council met at the Clerk's office on Monday, June 29th. Members all present. Minutes of their last meeting read and confirmed. Communications read from Robert Renwick, health officer, re cremating carcases of dead horses and cattle, also from Judge Benson, re statistics from the clerk and notice of the date of the commissioners' first meeting to divide the County of Peterborough into County Council divisions.

On motion A. Dewdney and James Oliver were appointed to examine Crow's bridge and repair the same.

On motion, the Clerk was instructed to notify George Brumwell to remove his fences from the old Squaw River road, on the north side of lot 19, con. 13, as the said road is required for egress and ingress for D. R. Montgomery and the public generally, also to notify Henry Wolfram to remove his fence off the 18th concessional road allowance to let out the Freemans, also to notify Wm. Finley to remove his fence from the road allowance between lots 19 and 20, concession 19 Harvey; also to notify Alex. Irwin and James Murdock to remove their fences off the 18th concession line road. On motion Mr. Shaw was instructed to attend the meeting of the commissioners appointed to divide the County of Peterborough into county council divisions on July 16th. Orders were drawn as follows : John Spence, right of way for a road across lot 25, concession 8, and for work on road, $25; George Windover, work on road, $5; Wm. R. Bennett and others for work on road, $10; R. Renwick, health officer's services, $5; W. Walroth and others work on road, $12.50; James Richmond, equalizing assessments Union S. S. No. 1, $3; A. P. Young, work on road for Kelly's tax for 1894, $4. On motion the council adjourned to meet at Mr. Flynn's on Monday, the 17th day of August next.

"I Have Had

Rheumatism for years and Nerviline is the only remedy that has done me any good." So writes Thomas McGlashan, North Pelham, July 24, 1890, and his testimony is supported by thousands of others who have experienced the wonderfully penetrating and pain subduing power of Nerviline—the great nerve pain cure. Nerviline is just as good to take as to rub on, and is the best family remedy in the world. Nerviline is sold by dealers everywhere.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal. says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50c. Sold by John Nugent, 259 George Street.

That

Extreme tired feeling afflicts nearly everybody at this season. The hustlers cease to push, the tireless grow weary, the energetic become enervated. You know just what we mean. Some men and women endeavor temporarily to overcome that

Tired

Feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people "work on their nerves," and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired

Feel-

ing is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is, therefore, apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember that

HILL WAS DOWNED

At the Democratic Convention in Chicago.

SENATOR DANIEL TAKES THE CHAIR

Not the Silverites Were Short of the Necessary Two-Thirds Majority—A Battle Royal From the Start—Free Silver Men Must Have a Candidate.

Chicago, July 7.—The silver men have won the first day's fight in the National Democratic Convention. They routed their opponents by a majority of 207, seating Senator Daniel in the chair over Senator Hill, the nominee of the National Committee. The result to-day showed the silver men to be 48 votes short of a two-thirds majority, taking it as a test vote. But in many respects it was not so.

There were eight votes of South Dakota cast for Hill which on a square issue of free coinage will go for silver. Three votes in West Virginia, thrown against the silver candidate to day, will be counted for the silver platform. The territories, which on the preliminary roll were given six seats but only two votes each, will probably be awarded six votes in the permanent organization, except Alaska and the District of Columbia, which will remain at their present rating.

Alaska, admitted for the first time to a Democratic National Convention, sent six gold delegates to a silver body, and it is expected will be punished by having its representation cut down to two.

This will give the territories 32 votes instead of 12, as cast to day, and all but three of these votes (Alaska two and District of Columbia one) are counted for silver.

Nebraska's 16 votes will undoubtedly be turned over to the silver men by the Credentials Committee.

Florida's vote, which was four to four on organization, will be given five for silver and three for gold hereafter, and Maryland, which voted 12 gold and four silver on organization, it is said, will scatter in the proportion of 11 silver to five gold when it comes to voting for the different silver candidates, though it will remain, as now, on the question of platform.

These changes and accessions, it is claimed, will come very near giving the silver men the two-thirds majority they seek. If they should still lack a few votes they have Michigan to fall back upon. A decision in favor of the silver men in one or two contested districts in that state will convert, under the unit rule, the 28 gold votes of Michigan into 28 silver votes, and give a sure two-thirds majority for the silver men.

A Free Silver Nominee.

Chicago, July 7.—The result of to-day's meeting of the National Democratic Convention, which in a measure was simply a skirmish for position, shows that the platform will be for free silver on the basis of 16 to 1, and that a radical free silver candidate will be the nomine of the convention, and the further showing that the eastern Democrats will accept that decision loyally if not enthusiastically and will go into the campaign and fight against their honest convictions in support of the party shibboleth. The tariff has become, like Cuba, a minor issue, and the twisting of the lion's tail, heretofore an important performance, made eminent by "Richelieu" Robinson and statesmen of that type, has been entirely lost sight of.

The whole story is silver, and for the first time in a National Democratic Convention New York is pushed contemptuously aside, the only representatives of that State who are treated with decent respect being Senator Hill and W. C. Whitney. Senator Hill, because of a certain ambiguousness, is not only tolerated, but to some extent petted. Mr. Whitney is respected. The other delegates, to paraphrase an expression used by Editor Mack of The Buffalo Times, are "Not in it."

When the convention meets to-morrow its platform will have been decided upon; the usual routine features will have been settled, and it may be that at the evening session a Presidential nominee will be chosen. The East, however, is fighting for time, and grows stronger with delay. It is to be rememberd that it requires two-thirds of the delegates to name a candidate, while a majority suffices for other purposes.

On to day's vote, as analyzed, the free silver people have the necessary two-thirds, but they are divided amongst Boies, Bland and Teller, and no one of these candidates can get the necessary vote. The eastern vote will go to Hill, Patterson or Russell, and a lengthy dead-lock may ensue. The silver men are confident that the country will go with them if the Populists will join them in a candidate, and they present facts and figures to show the reason for their faith.

After a session of nearly three hours to-night the gold men, who are here under the leadership of Mr. Whitney, adopted the following resolution:

"That a committee of one or more be appointed from each state to confer with the people and report the temper concerning an organization of the sound money Democracy and how far such organization should go in independent action for the election next November."

Committee on Resolutions.

Chicago, July 7.—The sub-Committee on Resolutions had somewhat of a stormy session to-night, the representative from New Jersey moving to report to the full committee a platform except the financial plank, leaving that to be fought out in the full committee, as he desired that the greatest publicity should be given to the discussion on that section. His speech supporting his view was regarded by the silver men as threatening to "bolt," and there was much excited talk. Senator White who was chairman of the committee, having been chosen as permanent chairman of the convention, Senator Jones of Arkansas was chosen as chairman of the Committee on Resolutions.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debate was made manifest when a motion was made to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested informally to leave their proposed planks with the chairman. This resulted in unloading upon the table a very large variety of planks, chief among them being contributions on the financial, tariff and Cuban questions.

A delegation representing the National Woman Suffrage Association, requested permission to be heard, but the sub-committee declined to hear any one on any subject, and gave strict orders to its sergeant-at-arms that its proceedings must not be interrupted.

Just before the committee went into executive session, Senator Hill made the statement that there would be in all probability a great deal of discussion and a very careful consideration of the proposed financial plank. He expects the sub committee to be in session several hours and hopes, through arguments that will be advanced, that a conservative policy will be pursued and a modification of the original intention of the silver leaders agreed to. On the other hand Senators Jones and Tillman made the positive assertion that the financial plank shall declare for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the specific ratio of 16 to 1 in language that cannot be misunderstood and as tersely expressed as it is possible for the committee to formulate it.

THE ONLY HELP.

A Victim of Bright's Disease For Many Years—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Neepawa, (Special) June 20.—Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly, of Listowel, came here as a last resort. Had suffered ten years with Bright's disease. Reported to be past help and dying, her reappearance on the street in apparent good health was a pleasant surprise. The explanation given was that her little boy had insisted that she should use Dodd's Kidney Pills and prophesied that they would cure her. She says:—"From the first few doses I began to feel better, and after taking four and a half boxes, I say it with heart-felt gratitude, I am perfectly cured." Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine in the world that has ever cured a case of Bright's Disease at such a stage.

WINNIPEG GROWS.

The Population Increased Over Six Thousand During the Past Year.

Ottawa, July 7.—(Special.)—Dominion census returns of the city of Winnipeg, just completed, show a most gratifying increase in the population of the Capital of the Prairie Province. Statistician Johnson's staff have made totals which show that in the year of grace 1896 the population of Winnipeg is 31,649, or an increase of 6010 since 1891. The population of Winnipeg in 1881 was 7985, in 1886 20,238, in 1891 25,639. If Winnipeg continues to increase as she has done during the ten years, it will not be long before she will be in the very front rank of Canadian cities. The result of the census for Manitoba will not be known for some days. The object in taking the census is for the readjustment of the Federal subsidy, as provided by statute. Manitoba will receive an increased subsidy of 80 cents per head on the basis of the recent enumeration.

ONE HONEST MAN

DEAR EDITOR:—Please inform your readers, that if written to confidentally I will mail in a sealed letter, particulars of a genuine, honest home cure, by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from nervous debility, sexual weakness, night losses and weak, shrunken parts. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness, I promise you perfect secrecy and as I do not wish to expose myself either, please address, simply: P O. MORE RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

Urged by Bishop Hamilton of the New Anglican Diocese of Ottawa.

Ottawa, July 7.—The first session of the incorporated Synod of the Anglican Diocese of Ottawa commenced here to day with a large attendance of delegates. Bishop Hamilton, in the course of his address, speaking on the subject of education, noted the work of other religious bodies, and hoped that the Synod would be prepared to take its part in the discussion. "In the meantime we should throw our influence towards having more religious instruction introduced into our schools," said His Lordship. "I hope you will appoint a strong committee to go into the many aspects of the subject and instruct the Synod."

Since coming here Bishop Hamilton has confirmed 459 candidates in 27 parishes.

THE WOMEN TOO.

Back Talk Not Man's Monopoly.

Mrs. Jemima Cole, Havelock, told the following wonderful story:—"For a great many years I have suffered from disease of the kidneys. The pains in my back and side were sometimes excruciating.

"My limbs were so swollen that I could scarcely lift my feet from the floor, and I was in great agony nearly all the time. I thought that I would surely die from the pain.

"I have taken dozens of advertised remedies, aut got no better during their use. I was also treated by several doctors, but am sorry to say they did me little or no good. In fact they stated that they could do me no good, which made me despair of ever getting better.

"When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I sent to W. H. Jeff & Co's. drugstore and got a box thinking I would try them as a last resort.

"The change from the start was very great and now after one month I am free from all pain. The swelling has gone down and I feel quite strong and healthy.

"I was also troubled with rheumatism and neuralgia which have completely disappeared, thanks to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. In fact I do not think there is a medicine in the world that in such a short time could have taken me from the almost dying condition in which I was to the healthy and vigorous state that I am in now.

"I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for their wonderful virtues in curing kidney troubles."

"Going to Insure."

THE Man who is simply "going to insure" is usually no better than the man who has'nt made the decision. In fact he is usually worse, because he has considered the subject and been convinced of his duty, but has not done it. "Nothing is done so long as anything remains undone." RHEUMATISM

Its Cause and Cure.

A poisonous Acid in the Blood, which needs removal.

Only one means for a radical cure.

Rheumatism is a blood disease, due to the presence of uric acid—a poison—in the system, and it is only by the removal of this pain-producing poison, that a radical cure can be effected. Acute rheumatism is hereditary, and thus it is that young children are often victims to this torture. The use of liniments, embrocations and outward applications, may give temporary relief, but can never cure, for the poison is in the blood, and until it is expelled, rheumatism, sciatica and neuralgic pains will continue. Scotts' Sarsaparilla cures rheumatism by removing the cause—by neutralizing and expelling this poisonous acid. In chronic cases, this medicine reaches the source of the disease as no other medicine can. It gives renewed energy to the organs that sustain life, the forces that make the blood. For the nervous troubles of youth, for the debility that precedes old age, for ladies in their severe ordeals, it is without a compeer.

Scott's Sarsaparilla is a concentrated compound of the finest medicines known to modern medical science—The dose is from one half to one teaspoonful and during its use the ordinary vocations are not interfered with.

Wednesday's Market.

The attendance at the market to day was not very large. Berries, cherries and vegetables were the principal products offering and these sold at very good prices. Cherries 12c, black currants 10c, raspberries 80 and 90c pail, gooseberries 8c. Sales were slow in the morning at these prices.

Improving Greatly.

The condition of Mrs. John Jeffers, who was the victim of an unfortunate accident yesterday by taking in mistake carbolic acid for cod liver oil, is, the EXAMINER is glad to state, greatly improved, and her physician, Dr. Brown, has every hope of her recovery. The patient passed a comfortable night.

Catholic Association Social.

A social in aid of a deserving institution will be held under the auspices of the Catholic Literary Association on the St. Joseph's Hospital grounds, on Thursday evening, July 16th. An orchestra will be present during the evening, and refreshments will be served by the Ladies' Auxiliary. Admission, 15c. All are welcome.

Tickets may be had from the committee at the George street school on Wednesday from 4 to 6 p.m., and on Thursday morning at the wharf. 2d Decoration Day.

To-morrow the local Oddfellows will perform the annual ceremony of decorating the graves of deceased brethren, and no doubt will be joined by many citizens outside the order. The brethren will meet at the Central Park at 3 p.m. and, headed by the band, go in the usual procession to the cemetery, where the usual decoration ceremonies will be observed. After the ceremony Rev. J. J. Rae will deliver an address, outlining the aims and objects of Oddfellowship. Addresses will also be given by other ministers of the town.

Explanatory.

In the issue of The EXAMINER of June 6th a report of the robbery of the C. P. R. mails, and of the arrest of Mrs. Hamilton in connection with the matter, was printed and at the conclusion of the report a paragraph appeared thus: "It is also said that one of the missing registered letters was found in an old trunk belonging to Mrs. Hamilton when the police searched her effects after her somewhat hasty departure from town." This paragraph Mrs. Hamilton complains of and The EXAMINER has to explain that the information upon which it was based and presumed to be reliable, was procured at police headquarters, and to express regret that an injustice was thus done Mrs. Hamilton, as was further shown by the result of the hearing of the case, which showed that the charges made against her were entirely without foundation.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

Extends a Call to Rev. J. G. Potter of Toronto.

A congregational meeting of St. Andrew's church was held last evening at which there was a large attendance of members and adherents. Rev. E. F. Torrance, Moderator of the Session, presided. The special business of the meeting was the selection of a minister to fill the vacancy caused by the former pastor's call to Hamilton. The names of several candidates who had been heard in St. Andrew's pulpit, were submitted to the congregation, when it was finally decided to extend a call to Rev. J. G. Potter of the South Side Presbyterian church, Toronto. The stipend was fixed at $1200 per annum, with free manse and one month's vacation.

The decision was then referred to the Presbytery, a report of the proceedings of which will be found elsewhere.

PRESBYTERY OF PETERBOROUGH.

The Regular Quarterly Session Held Yesterday.

The regular session of the Presbytery of Peterborough was held in St. Andrew's church yesterday. The following members were present:

Rev. Messrs. Ewing, Mount Pleasant; Andrews, Keene; Bennet, Apsley; Dr. Torrance, town; Ross, Harwood; Thompson, Hastings; Hay, Cobourg; Hyde, Warsaw; Cattenach, Centreville; Johnston, Millbrook; Somerville, Norwood and Tanner, Omemee. The elders present were Messrs. W. E. Roxburg, Norwood; Thompson, Keene; Jas. McCullough, Bethesda, Andrew Fairbairn, Lakefield, H. Carruthers, Cobourg; R. Fife, Hastings.

The Moderator of Presbytery, Rev. D. M. Jamieson occupied the chair.

St. Andrew's church was granted liberty to moderate a call to supply its own pulpit for two months.

Mr. Fair, a student entering theology, appeared before the Presbytery for examination and a committee will report on his standing.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Presbytery at Millbrook on the fourth Tuesday in September.

The Presbytery then adjourned to meet again to day, when the call to Rev. J. G. Potter to fill the pulpit of St. Andrew's church will receive their attention.

THE AFTERNOON SESSION.

In the afternoon the Presbytery resumed. The resignation of Dr. McLelland, Havelock, was received and his name recommended to the Assembly to be placed on the list of aged and infirmed ministers.

The following ministers were appointed to visit the mission fields:—Rev. Mr. Thompson, Clydesdale and Apsley, and Rev. Mr. Ross, Harvey and Cardiff.

Mr. Fair, a student in divinity, applied for examination; his examination was sustained and his name recommended to the college authorities.

Mr. Bennett was appointed as moderator of St. Andrew's session during the absence in the old country of Dr. Torrance.

A commission consisting of Rev. Messrs. Wm. Bennet, convener, Somerville of Norwood, Thompson, of Hastings, ministers, and Mr. W. E. Roxburgh, Norwood, elder, to visit Havelock and confer with the people there with regard to pulpit supply.

THE CALL TO ST. ANDREW'S.

This morning the Presbytery met and sustained the call from St. Andrew's to Rev. J. G. Potter of the South Side Presbyterian church, Toronto. The details of the induction were not settled as to time, etc., these matters being left in the hands of Rev. Wm. Bennett. However, it was arranged that Rev. Dr. Torrance is to preside, Rev. R. Laird of Campbellford to preach, Rev. Dr. Smith to address the minister and Rev. Mr. Thompson the people. Rev. Wm. Bennett is to represent the Presbytery in support of the call and Dr. Bell and Mr. R. Tully St. Andrew's congregation.

The Presbytery adjourned.

AN ADDRESS ON AFRICA.

Miss McAllister's African Experiences.

Miss McAllister gave another address last night in the Christian Alliance tent on her experience as a missionary in the Dark Continent. The lady's address was not only instructive, but was delivered in a manner that could not help but hold the attention of the audience. Miss McAllister has been a missionary for seven years under Bishop Taylor, being stationed at Garraway, Liberia, on the west coast, and expects to return there in a few weeks. She speaks at the tent this evening, also to-morrow evening.

now, at A. Clegg's, another lot of those oak finish extension tables, at $5.00, $5.50, $6.00 and $6.50; common chairs, 75c.; good hard wood bedsteads, only $2.00; oak finish bedroom suites, $12.00, $13.00 and upward. Our stock is complete in every line. A. CLEGG, 427 George street.

Mr. Gordon Wins the "Bike."

The drawing for the bicycle and cultivator in connection with St. Joseph's picnic took place last night at the hospital grounds. Mr. Gordon, of Auburn, held the winning ticket for the wheel, and Mr. Leahy, of Otonabee, drew the cultivator, a very appropriate way of winning such an implement.

The Canal.

Contractor Corry has a number of men now employed farther north on the line of the canal. A portion of the gang of labourers recently working in Ashburnham, are now engaged in the vicinity of Curtis' brick yard. A ponderous stone crusher is now in position on the site of the lift lock, back of the Ashburnham hill.

Murray Street Baptist S. S. Excursion.

The annual outing of the Murray street Baptist Sunday school was held at Hastings yesterday. Nearly 200 persons took advantage of the trip and enjoyed a pleasant holiday. The excursion picnicked in the beautiful Hastings Grove, near the river, where varied attractions were prepared for the scholars. During the afternoon a number of games were run off, including a well contested baseball match. The excursionists arrived home at 8.30.

The People's Coal Company.

This company has now opened an office at 220 Charlotte street, near the corner of Aylmer, telephone 238, where they are ready to receive and fill all orders entrusted to them. Their coal for baseburners is economical. For ranges and cook stoves has no equal. For heaters and furnaces is a perfect success. They deliver their coal in bags and have it weighed on the town scales. Prices for July: $5.20 per ton cash for egg, stove, No. 4 and Chestnut; $5.35 for grate. ARTHUR J. MCCLELLAN. 6d1

THE DENTISTS AND THURSDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—About the first of June the writer, feeling that it would be a good thing for himself and his office assistants, and perhaps for the members of the dental profession generally in the town, and desiring to put the question to a practical test, prepared the following agreement, and had it presented to all the dentists, who attached their names as follows:

We, the undersigned, the practising dentists of the town of Peterborough, agree to close to the public, and keep closed for the following half day, our respective places of business, every Thursday at the hour of noon during the months of June, July and August of this year, and to observe the same as a regular weekly half holiday.

(Signed)

CHAS. NEILL,
R. NIMMO,
A. ROSS,
R. F. MORROW,
J. B. PENTLAND.

On presentation it was readily and cheerfully signed by the gentlemen above named. The remaining practitioners refusing to comply with the arrangement, it was abandoned for the time. Now that the merchants of the town have taken up the idea, and the matter is left for the dentists to deal with as they desire individually, this office will be closed every afternoon during the months of July and August, and only opened for work in case of an emergency.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space required for this explanation of the position of the dentists on the question of the weekly half-holiday, I remain,

Yours truly,
A. ROSS, D.D.S.

CHARLOTTE STREET METHODIST S. S. EXCURSION.

A Pleasant Outing of Juveniles and Adults.

A very pleasant excursion was enjoyed on Tuesday by the scholars of the Charlotte street Methodist Sunday school and their friends at Jubilee Point. Nearly 300 excursionists went down on the steamer City of Peterborough and although the weather was rather chilly for a trip on the water, the sun came out and warmed the air by the time the steamer reached Jubilee and made everybody comfortable. After a hearty dinner, a merry time was spent in games and amusements of all kinds. The following programme of sports was competed for in a lively and good humoured manner. This is the result of the

RACES:

Boys under 6—1 S Norton, 2 R Ostrom, 3 C Ostrom.

Girls under 6—1 Marion Lyle, 2 Olive Kidd, 3 Tisha Elliott.

Boys, 7 to 10—1 Basil Norton, 2 Olive Kidd, 3 E Tovey.

Girls, 7 to 10—1 Sarah Starr, 2 Gertie Shaw, 3 Edna Lee.

Boys, 11 to 13—1 A Brandrette, 2 John Goodwin, 3 G Edmison.

Girls, 11 to 13—1 Olive Bradburn, 2 Ethel Nicholl, 3 P Norton.

Boys, 14 to 16—1 Geo Tovey, 2 E A Miller, 3 B Tovey.

Girls, 14 to 16—1 May Timmins, 2 L Gross, 3 Lilie Minorgan.

Young men's race—1 G Stinson, 2 E Hall, 3 S A German.

Young ladies' race—1 M Timmins, 2 L Minorgan, 3 F Hall.

Consolation race, boys under 13—1 C Edmison, 2 A Graham, 3 W Kent.

There was also a married woman's race and a married men's race, but as the participants were somewhat exhausted a coherent expression of the result could not be easily obtained.

The excursionists reached town shortly after 8 o'clock, well satisfied with the day's outing.

POLICE COURT.

July 8th.

At the police court this morning considerable work was done.

Jas. Bogue, charged by the market clerk with using abusive language towards Mrs. James Bailis of Otonabee, on the market on Saturday last, was fined $2 and $4.50 cost.

Albert Spencely, charged with trespass upon the orchard of Mrs. James Dickson, was fined $5.

The case of Scoille vs. Luke Lapham, obtaining money under false pretences, was withdrawn on the payment of costs.

The McWilliams-Review libel suit was again enlarged till three o'clock this afternoon.

A MISSIONARY TOUR.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rector of Peterborough, visits the Northern Missions.

As intimitated in THE EXAMINER a few days ago, Rev. J. C. Davidson yesterday left to make a missionary visit to several missions in the north of Peterborough, and "the regions beyond."

The work of the Church of England is flourishing in some portions of this district, and the visit of Mr. Davidson will give an impetus to the work and furnish an encouragement. Rev. Mr. Davidson did not go empty handed, for the liberality of the congregation provided him with funds for the purchase of prayer and hymn books and other parochial requisites. On Sunday evening Mr. Davidson warmly recognised the liberality of the congregation.

During his absence of about three weeks, Mr. Davidson will deliver addresses at several points.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—Belleville has a new Methodist church.

—London street, between Water and Aylmer is being thoroughly water-tabled.

—Lindsay is not quite asleep yet. Its assessment has been increased $50 by new buildings.

—A movement is on foot to convert the old St. Lawrence Hall, Port Hope, into a summer hotel.

—Mr. John Martin, of Otonabee, has purchased from Mr. R. Strickland the steamer "Undine."

—From 100 to 200 baskets of huckleberries are now being shipped daily from Midland to Toronto.

—The Lindsay Citizen's band will accompany the True Blues of Victoria county to Peterborough on July 13th.

—The berry patches around town are being over-run with would-be gatherers of raspberries. The crop, however, is light as yet.

—Extensive alterations are contemplated at the Mechanics' Institute. Both the library and reading room are to be enlarged by the taking down of partitions.

—Fishing poles of all kinds, fishing tackle, tennis balls and tennis racquets, lacrosse and baseball goods, cheapest place in town, at Salisbury's Bookstore. d

—All members of the Oddfellow order who may be in town, and do not belong to either of the local lodges, are cordially invited to join their brethren in the Decoration Day ceremonies to-morrow.

TUPPER STILL HOLDS ON.

May Resign Any Moment.

(Special to the Examiner.

Ottawa, July 8.—Sir Charles Tupper is still Premier, but he may resign at any moment. He has visited Government House this morning to have an interview with His Excellency. The report is current that the Governor-General refuses to sign certain appointments that the Government have passed and that it is this that is delaying Sir Charles resignation.

PERSONAL

Ven. Archdeacon Casey is in Norwood to-day.

Mrs. A. Huffman, of Peterborough, is in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Weir (Miss Cox) have returned from their honeymoon tour. Mrs. Weir will be at home at her residence, Wolseley street on Tuesday and Wednesday next.

Mr. Frank Kingan, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, brother of Mr. R. Kingan, is in town for a few days. Mr. Kingan is still manager of a large electric plant at Sault Ste Marie, Mich.

Mrs. John Best, accompanied by her two boys, Masters Louis and Elmer, left on Tuesday for St. Thomas, N.D., where they will spend the summer visiting among friends. On their return home they will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thexton (Mrs. Best's parents), who will remain here for the winter.

Rev. Dr. Torrance leaves to-morrow for his annual vacation, which will this year include a trip to the Old Country. He will sail on Saturday morning on the steamer "Scotsman," of the Dominion Line. He will be absent about six weeks. Rev. Dr. Torrance's many friends, both within and outside his congregation, will wish him a pleasant visit and happy return.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

We have had a number of small showers of rain here lately, which has been a benefit to the surrounding country here.

The farmers are complaining of great numbers of grasshoppers around these parts. It is too bad they are allowed to congregate in such large numbers, and there should be some provision made to destroy them.

The guests who are registered at the Lakeview House are:—Henry Loewer, Mrs. Loewer, William Webster, Bryan Harding, George Ferguson, Jos. Harding, J. A. Spies, F. N. Brayer, John Schreiner, C. H. Kondolf, Jos. Kalb, G. H. Brinker, Chas. F. Mertz, F. W. VanBergh, M. H. VanBergh, all of Rochester; Mrs. F. McCarthy, of Montreal.

The fishing is excellent at Young's Point now, and parties are catching bass here as heavy as five and six pounds. The lunge are biting very good, too, and are averaging ten to fifteen pounds.

FOUND A JEWEL.

An Important Find by a Brockville Jeweller.

Mr. Joseph Lane, the well-known jeweller of Brockville, says: "For some years I have suffered with severe pains in my back and sides and flashes of heat between my shoulders. I had a tired, worn out feeling.

"The numerous medicines that I took gave me very little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try a box, and got one at Curry's drugstore.

"After the first two or three doses I felt much relieved, and the longer I took them the greater the change for the better in my condition. I am much better in every respect and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble as the best remedy I know of."

A Peterborough Tenor.

There is at present touring in the Western States a concert company, one of the most prominent members of which is Mr. Frank Farley, a well known native of Peterborough, where many of his family still reside. Mr. Farley has already made a mark in the profession he has chosen, his fresh young tenor voice, and excellent rendering of the songs allotted to him each evening adding an additional interest to the entertainments given by this already popular company. Mr. Farley's many friends here and in Toronto, (where he was for some time a distinguished member of St. Patrick's choir), will look forward with great interest to his return to his native country, when they may hope to hear him again.

The Late Miss Young.

The Kingston Whig says: After six months of suffering, borne with calm resignation and hopefulness, Miss Fannie E. Young passed away on Saturday morning, says the Kingston Whig. She was afflicted with spinal trouble. All possible medical skill was exercised, but unavailing. Deceased was forty-six years of age, a daughter of the late Wm. Young, Pittsburg. She qualified as a teacher twenty four years ago, and taught in Pittsburg, Wolfe Island and Westbrook, spending the last fifteen years on the Kingston public school staff. She was a quiet devoted worker, thoroughly competent and esteemed by the board. Deceased was a sister of Rev. W. R. Young, Peterborough; T. G. Young, Rochester; and Mrs. R H Patterson, Union street. Her funeral occurred Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. John E. Starr. Her associates on the teaching staff sent a beautiful pillow as a mark of their sorrow and sympathy."

Baptist Young People.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable trips imaginable is advertised by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway from any point in Ontario or Quebec to Milwaukee and return for one single fare. This is in connection with the Baptist Young People's Union, who hold their annual international convention in Milwaukee July 16th to 19th, 1896. Tickets are good until August 5th and give those going the opportunity of seeing both Chicago and Detroit on the return journey. Fred L. Ratcliff, Toronto, has been appointed by the Baptists of these provinces as transportation leader, and any who intend to avail themselves of this trip should write him at once for full particulars. Special arrangements have been made by the transportation leader for good board in Milwaukee at very low rates, and a special train will be run from Toronto right through, so that any single person going will have lots of good company by arranging to join the special train at Toronto, or such point west as this train stops at.

NORTH HARVEY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The weather in this locality has been very warm for the past week. Thursday it reached the climax, climbing up into the nineties. Next day was cooler, with signs of rain, but none came.

There was a Methodist Sunday school picnic held here on Friday in Harris' Grove, with a good attendance. Some were busy at their haying and could not attend, but those present seemed to enjoy themselves to their heart's content. The tables groaned under the weight of good things the ladies of North Harvey know how to provide so well, and for which they deserve much praise. The proceeds go to buy papers for the Sunday school. Among those present were Rev. Mr. Moore, the new Methodist minister at Bobcaygeon, and Miss Weir of South Harvey.

Crops were looking very well until lately but between the drought and grasshoppers farmers around here have a very poor outlook for the coming winter in regard to cattle feed, in some cases whole fields have been stripped by grasshoppers and they are at the turnips as soon as they come up. There is scarcely any hay.

Mrs. Graham, a widow living here, while out picking berries the other day got lost, but her cries were heard by some friends who piloted her out to the main road again, it is to be hoped, none the worse of the experience.

Huckleberries are very plentiful around here and parties from Verulam and Bobcaygeon are out picking every day. They have not been so good for a number of years.

The Provincial Government have a gang of men repairing dams on Nogie's Creek, under the superintendance of Mr. Walters of Lindsay. The work was badly needed as there is considerable timber to come down yet and none of the lumber companies felt willing to undertake the work. Now the settlers will be able to dispose of their logs without any trouble, thanks to the efforts of our local member, Mr. Stratton.

Just before the election Mr. Rogers started a few men to repair a dam on Squaw river. The works is badly needed, no doubt, and has been for a number of years, but it is strange, isn't it, that he never thought of it until the last moment, and now the work is as dead as if it had never been started.

Davis' mill is shut down for a couple of days undergoing repair to the furnace. Some of the hands are taking advantage of the stop to have a day's fun picking berries.

The probable promotion of our popular member, Mr. J. R. Stratton, to the cabinet is very pleasing to every one in this section, irrespective of party, as he has made many friends by his genial manner. We all wish him success.

Mrs. Stephen McIlmoyle was down near Kingston last week to the death bed of her sister, Mrs. Dunn, who died after a lingering illness of cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Dunn was an old resident of Harvey. Mrs. McIlmoyle brought three of the children home with her. She will keep one, the other two she will give to friends.

A petition asking the council to provide for the maintenance of an invalid old lady, Mrs. McNairn, was granted and she will be placed in St. Joseph's Hospital and the council will pay 40c a day for her board and medical attendance.

The following street improvements were ordered,—East side of Concession street to the finger post levelled; a sidewalk laid from Stewart street westward on south side of James street, as far as Mr. Carton's house and to have Dufferin street watertabled from Ross to Stewart streets.

Mr. J. C. Gilliman appeared and asked to have the streets of the village watered.

A petition from the ratepayers will, it is expected, be presented at the next meeting of the council.

The council then adjourned.

NORTH VICTORIA.

Mr. Hughes, the Member for the Canal —Many Men Hired on the Eve of Polling.

FENELON FALLS, July 6.—The result of the election in this constituency, where Major Sam Hughes was re-elected over Mr. McLaughlin, has caused general surprise. Upon looking into the matter, this is easily explained; besides, an even greater than usual amount of corruption in the ordinary sense of the term, the Trent Valley Canal works going on in the county were converted for the time being into a huge machine for bribery.

A few days before the election about 500 additional hands were employed from different parts of the riding. Mr. Hughes had an employment agent at Kirkfield, and he himself carried a bundle of tickets for jobs on the canal with him during the canvass. These men were all told that they had a summer's work if they supported Sam Hughes.

The day after the election, when the men came back to work, they did not even find a foreman to receive them. Some 200 were discharged within two days, and a large number have not been paid, as the contractor positively says he never engaged them.

It seems the last few days Mr. Hughes' agents employed a large number of men and set them to work underbrushing the swamps around the canal without the consent of the contractor.

When these men were discharged and not paid only Mr. Hughes' absence from the county saved him, in all probability, from summary justice at the hands of the people who had been disappointed and deceived. Many of them had come many miles and brought their tools only for two or three days' work, and then they were offering their "time" at less than 50 on the dollar, and could get no purchasers.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS.

Under this heading the Canadian Baker and Confectioner gives the following advice to business men:

"Your clerks will not do it for you. Don't make any mistake. The man who goes cavorting around the country talking politics, temperance or riding other bobbies, and leaving his business in the hands of his help or his family, is sowing the seeds of business decay. The man who devotes most of his time to church affairs to the neglect of his business will just as surely come to grief as he who is found at the ball game or the race track when he should be at his store or his office. To be "diligent in business" is just as imperative as being "fervent in spirit." Men talk about the misfortunes of business and attribute to "mysterious Providence" results that knew no other cause than common laziness or wilful neglect. Such blasphemy as people talk! The best clerk in the world will not fill the place of the proprietor of an establishment at all times. We heard the other day of a merchant who missed one of the best opportunities of the season by being so interested in a sporting event that he could not be seen at his office at the proper time. There is as much money in business to-day as ever for those who know how to "mind their business." If ever business required unceasing, painstaking attention, it is right at this moment. "Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds; for riches are not forever."—(Prov. 27: 23 4)

To prevent pale and delicate children from lapsing into chronic invalids later in life, they should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla together with plenty of wholesome food and out-door exercise. What they need to build up the system is good red blood.

PETERBOROUGH'S GRACEFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.

Lt.-Col. Bell's Letter of Thanks on Behalf of the Battalion.

The Belleville Intelligencer has the following to say:—Lieut.-Col. Bell, commanding the Peterborough Rangers, has written in the most gracious and hearty manner to Lieut.-Col. Ponton, of the 15th, thanking all for the attentions shown to his corps during his visit to Belleville. As the letter is of public interest, we reproduce it in full below, and at the same time we believe we voice the sentiments of all our citizens that it was a privilege and to aid in entertaining the gallant Colonel and officers and men of the 57th—Peterborough's representative regiment. We have also to acknowledge the many kind things written of Belleville by the press of Peterborough in their excellent account of our Dominion Day celebration.

PETERBOROUGH, July 4th, 1896.

MY DEAR COL. PONTON,—Now that our annual trip is over I desire to thank you and ask you to convey to your Officers Non.-Com. Officers and Men the thorough appreciation of every member of the 57th Batt. of the kindness and hospitality extended to us by all ranks from the moment of our arrival in Belleville until our departure. The hospitality was unbounded, and the kindness and attention of your citizens generally most marked, and will long be remembered by us. I trust the visits interchanged this year by our citizen soldiers may be the means of cementing many strong friendships and drawing our cities closer together for our mutual benefit.

The ladies are not forgotten, who did so much for our entertainment, and to them you will also kindly convey our sincere thanks.

To yourself, Sir, for your personal hospitality and untiring efforts to minister to our comforts and wants, we owe a debt of gratitude, which we hope some day ere long to have an opportunity of repaying.

In fact to everyone connected with your regiment and every citizen of your fair city, I join with my officers and men in thanking them again, and trust the remembrances we have left behind are as pleasant as those we have carried away with us.

Believe me,
Yours most sincerely,
(Sgd.) R. W. BELL, Lt.-Col.,
Com. 57th Batt. P.R.

DRUM, DRUM—DRUM, DRUM, DRUM.

The following from the Belleville Sun shows how the visit of the Rangers has affected the juvenile population of the Bay City:—The recent military demonstration has revolutionized the sports of Belleville's small boys. Instead of baseball, bicycling, shinny, marbles or tops, these youthful imitators are now "playing soldier." There is scarcely a locality in the city which does not boast of a "band" or a "brigade." The boy who can talk loudest and make his commands heard above the din of horn, trumpet and tooting is recognized as commander, and it is a queer boy who has not learned to keep step, mark time and right wheel. Last evening on Taylor's Hill a "cooks' parade," with tin pan, black face and grotesque dress accompaniment, caused an amount of excitement among the juveniles which could be rivaled only by the Fifty-Seventh themselves.
